Minutes

There are no updates or corrections to last month's minutes. Charlatte Smith made a motion to accept the minutes. It was seconded by Stephanie Polite.

Committee Reports

Membership:

Indya Grier stated there are 98 members and 49 are registered as of 5/10/24. Kimberly Scott asked for confirmation that anyone working in juvenile court can become a JCAG member. Indya confirmed they can. Therefore, Kimberly asked for everyone to encourage their co-workers to become members because being a member is beneficial for those who work in the juvenile court system. Also, reach out to your local DFACS workers to get them involved.

Legislative:

Ryan Crockett reminded everyone that voting is Tuesday, May 21st.

Scholarship:

Carvelle Taylor reported that he has not received any nominations for scholarship. Therefore, the deadline will be extended to May 17th. He stated there is a youth involved with Clayton Co. Juvenile Court who could possibly be a recipient. If anyone has any nominations, please send them to him (Carvelle.taylor@calytoncountyga.gov). If we do not receive any nominations, then the funds will roll over to next year. Kimberly asked that supervisors, if present in the meeting, have their employees check their caseloads for any possible nominations. Carvelle received another check from Mr. Johnson for $200.00 and he has $100.00 from the NCAA tournament. Carvelle will forward the money to Kendra.

Nominations/Elections:

Traci Moultrie was not present. Charlatte is covering nominations and elections during Traci's absence. The executive board and court reps voted on the nominations for the Direct Service, T. Micheal Sanford, Romae T. Powell, and Management awards. The recipients for these awards will be announced at the award luncheon on June 6th.

By-laws:

Kendra Stevens reported there are no updates, however if there are any changes or concerns that anyone sees or thinks of, please send them to her.

Fundraising:

Shannon Frei was not present. Stephanie Polite stated there are no updates. Stephanie will look up GotSneakers contact information and will also reach out to Shannon to inquire about the fundraiser's status. Kendra S. reported she has not received any funds from the GotSneakers fundraiser yet.

Website:

Tamika Wooley reported that Stanford Cox met with her and went over everything for the website. It has been updated and moving forward Tamika will update the website as needed. If you have anything that needs to be placed on the website, please submit it to Tamika Wooley at Tamika.wooley@gwinnettcounty.com.

Community Service:

Johnny Williams was not present. Charlatte Smith stated community service will be at the Master's Soup Kitchen on Tuesday, June 4th, 10am-12:30pm. Be sure to wear navy blue t-shirts. Detailed information (ie. address, dress code, etc.) is on the JCAG website at www.jcag.net.

Education/Training:

Kimberly Scott reported for Robin Heard and stated there are no updates.

Conference:

Charlatte Smith reported everything is on schedule. Speakers and catering are confirmed. If you plan to use any tax-exempt forms that you would like to send in early let Charlatte know so it can be submitted and placed on file at the hotel. It could help make the check-in process go smoothly. If you do not get it in early make sure each individual brings one with them. If you know the individuals attending the conference in your county, please send Charlatte a list of their names via email so she can confirm that they are included in the room block. If anyone booked on their own and did not use the JCAG group code, they will not be honored with the price of $153 and will have to pay full price when they get to the conference. Therefore, if you're attending and did not use the JCAG group code, contact Charlatte so she can make the adjustment. She will send out emails to update everyone if anything changes. Remember parking is free, so if you have any issues let Charlatte know. If you have any additional questions regarding conference, you can email Charlatte Smith at csmith@co.henry.ga.us. We look forward to seeing everyone June 4th-7th.
