Prairie Project Test 1

1. In ecology, what is a community?

2. What is “community composition?”

3. ALL of the factors that affect community composition are said to be of one type or another. What do you think those types are?
    a.

    b.

4. What is community succession?

5. Explain the facilitation model of succession.

6. Describe the role of disturbance in community succession.

Adapted from materials created by William Quinn who participated in the Prairie Project educator cohort program.
Learn more about the Prairie Project at: theprairieproject.org