

CALL TO ACTION #3: Stop the Billionaire Agenda! May Day National Day of Action
The activist group Stand Up for Racial Justice is organizing a rally and march. Thursday, May 1 6:00 - 7:00 p.m. Dandelion Fountain on the Naperville Riverwalk (Jackson and Webster) Naperville, IL
Background:	The current Administration is defunding our schools, privatizing public services, attacking unions, and targeting immigrant families with fear and violence. This is a war on working people—and we will not stand down. On May Day (May 1st) we can stand united! Stand Up for Racial Justice is organizing a rally and march in support of a world where every person has housing, healthcare, fair wages, union protection, and safety – regardless of race, zip code, or immigration status. The event will begin with a rally at the Free Speech Pavilion and then will march through downtown Naperville. Alongside 100+ unions and community groups, we will publicly demonstrate that hundreds of thousands of people across the country from different backgrounds and zip codes oppose the Administration’s billionaire agenda and are willing to stand together for the safety and dignity of all working people. Stop the billionaire takeover. We are the many. They are the few. This is a MAY DAY call. Join us!
Who do I contact?	While registration is not required, you can register in advance HERE. To see a listing of protests nationwide, click HERE. Here is one in Aurora: https://www.facebook.com/events/s/may-day-international-workers-/705349518594268/.
What kind of action is this?	Intergenerational rally and march
How long will this take?	1 hour plus travel time
BONUS ACTION	There is also a May Day Rally for International Workers Rights in Aurora on May 1 from 11:00 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. in Wilder Park (350 N. Riverside, Aurora, IL) Click HERE for more information.