

We're excited to invite you to our November RJC Community Gathering, which will take place Thursday, November 3rd from 5 to 6:15 pm. We'll come together on Zoom to interact face-to-face and share some updates and opportunities for engagement. You can sign up for the Gathering here. (If you can't make it, we'll miss you, and we'll share a recording of the event after-the-fact that you can watch later.)

At the Gathering, we'll share some history of the Racial Justice Coalition. We'll also catch you up on all the latest work we've been doing, and introduce some new team members. We'll open the floor for your questions. Finally, we'll share some ways to engage with and support our work. We'll spend most of the time altogether, but will also have some small groups that will be more interactive. Sound good? Click here to sign up to attend.

In Solidarity,

The RJC Team
