

Application form

Research grant: artistic research grant

General information

Title of project in Estonian
Title of project in English
Year applied for
Name of applicant
The project leader must be an academic staff member who at the time of the application is working at the Academy at a minimum 0.5 workload and who has defended a master's degree.
Project start month/year
Project end month/year
The maximum length of the project is 24 months.
Total amount applied for
Budget sought for entire project period.
Executive summary in Estonian
Introduction describing project goals for a wider audience (max 1000 characters).
Executive summary in English
Introduction describing project goals for a wider audience (max 1000 characters).
Please describe how general ethics requirements will be adhered to in the project
(including risks related to people's holding and collection and use of personal data, volunteer participation, informed consent and confidentiality principles (approx. 1000 characters).

Reasoning

List of literature, tables, photos, drawings etc. related to the reasoning must be attached to the application as a separate file.

The scholarly background of the project and its connection to the applicant and implementers' previous research (approximately 3000 characters)
The project's main goals, hypotheses and research methods and planned publications by each year, including an overview of popularization activities (about 5000 characters)
The project's main goals, hypotheses and research methods and planned publications by each year, including an overview of popularization activities (about 5000 characters)
Data administration Please describe what types of data will be generated in the project (including sensitive personal data) and how they will be administered, collected, stored and publicly disclosed during and at the end of the project (approx. 1000 characters).
Expected results of the project, their impact on Estonian culture, society and economy, potential applicability and possible continuation areas (approx. 2000 characters)

Other research, development and creative (RDC) activity

Participation of project members in related RDC projects Please add information about relevant Estonian and international projects, exhibitions and other creative research outputs. Link to the project record in Estonian Research Information System and explanation as to the applicant's role (max. 2000 characters).
Related publications Please add the most important publication within for up to 7 persons fulfilling the research project.

Project leader and project members

Project leader's CV in ETIS (Estonian Research Information System) Add reference to CV in ETIS.
The roles and division of tasks between the project leader and project members (including doctoral students) Add references to the names of the implementers in the CV in ETIS.
Other personnel and students involved Participation of students and other personnel, division of roles and responsibilities.

Budget

Please attach the budget as a separate document on the form in ANNEX 4.

Additional information

Other relevant information for the application (max. 1000 characters)

Submission

By submitting the application, the applicant confirms that the research activity being carried out in the project takes place in harmony with the principles of the Hea teadustava (Good Research Practices).

Please submit the application and budget along with all annexes to the application digitally signed in a single container.