Currently, I will only accept payment upfront through PayPal. This is subject to change in the future because I never want someone to feel they are unable to commission me because of these payment options.

* Subject to change! Please keep in mind that this is my very first time taking commissions. I am still a young artist and I'm learning and experimenting with every piece. Every piece I make is unique. With that being said, I will allow changes to be made after I send the sketch along with minor changes afterward. I will continue to communicate with the buyer throughout the commissioning process and send many pictures along the way! Contact me with any questions.

Pieces should be completed within a span of 2-3 weeks. I will specify if this changes.
