

Terms of Service

Hi there!

Thank you so much for considering my art services! Before we get started on your commission, please take a moment to read through these terms. By commissioning me, you agree to the following:

1. General Information

1.1 These terms apply to all artwork commissions, whether digital or traditional.

1.2 I reserve the right to kindly decline a commission if:

- It's outside of my skill level or expertise.
- The subject makes me uncomfortable or I simply don't feel inspired to create it.

1.3 Commissions are for personal use only unless we agree otherwise (commercial use comes with extra licensing and fees – see Section 6).

1.4 I do not draw NSFW content, super complex backgrounds, or intricate armor.

1.5 Slots are limited! If I don't hear back from you within three (3) days of inquiry, I'll assume you've changed your mind and move on to the next client.

2. The Commission Process

2.1 Inquiry and Agreement

- Please provide clear visual and literal references and description of your dream artwork.
- I won't accept long paragraphs – keep it short and sweet!
- Your commission is officially booked when all the details are confirmed.

2.3 Work-in-Progress Updates

- I'll send updates at key stages (like sketch, line art and flat color).
- We'll chat about progress on Discord.

2.4 Completion Time

- I usually finish commissions within one (1) week to one (1) year, depending on the complexity and my personal schedule.
 - Haven't heard from me in a while? Feel free to check in about your order!

3. Payment Terms

3.1 Pricing

- Prices are listed on my cards, price sheet, or advertisements. Special requests might need a custom quote.

3.5 Refund Policy

6. Commercial Use

6.1 What Counts as Commercial Use?

Commercial use includes, but isn't limited to:

- Selling prints or merchandise.
- Using the artwork for branding, marketing, or promotions.

6.2 Licensing and Fees

- If you want commercial rights, we can arrange this for an additional fee.

6.3 Let's Chat First!

- Commercial terms must be agreed upon before I begin the work.

7. Cancellation and Termination

7.1 Either of Us Can Cancel!

- Commissions can be canceled before work starts. Refund rules apply (see Section 3.4).

7.2 My Right to Cancel

- I may cancel a commission at any time for any reason (and I don't need to explain why). If this happens, I'll issue a refund based on the work completed so far.

8. Client Conduct

8.1 Be Kind!

- Harassment, rude behavior, or unreasonable demands are not okay and could result in cancellation without a refund.

8.2 Language Note

- English is my second language, Finnish being my first, so please be patient if I don't understand every little detail right away. Polite communication makes everything easier!

9. Priority Queue

9.1 How I Prioritize

Commissions are handled in this order:

1. Projects with deadlines come first.
 2. Real-world currency payments take priority over in-game currency.
 3. Work type priority:
 - Sketches
 - Line art
 - Fully rendered pieces
