1. INT. PROTAGONIST BEDROOM- NIGHT

CLOSE UP

TEENAGE GIRL, Protagonist, indecisive (16), is reviewing for her upcoming SAT. She is seated at her desk wearing pajamas and glasses. The practice test she is doing can be seen through the glare of her glasses. The windows in the room are closed so the girl does not know the time by looking outside.

OVER-THE-SHOULDER

The screen she is looking at is shown.

CLOSE UP

The screen of her phone is shown. A timer is set on the phone indicating how much time she has left in the SAT section she is working on.

CLOSE UP

She reads a question aloud. Then her mom enters saying goodnight and the girl questions if she should stay up.

PROTAGONIST

A company that makes wildlife videos purchases camera equipment for $32,400. The equipment depreciates in value at a constant rate for 12 years, after which it is considered to have no monetary value. How much is the camera equipment worth 4 years after it is purchased?
