

THE TABLES OF STONE

The Tables of the Testimony

- 1) What was the purpose for which the ark of the covenant was made? Exodus 25:16
- 2) What was the first thing that was done with the furniture of the sanctuary? Exodus 40:20
- 3) What was the testimony (or covenant) which the ark was constructed to house? Exodus 34:28

The Writing of the Law

- 4) What was significant about the writing of the commandments? Exodus 31:18; 32:15, 16
- 5) Where does the Lord desire to write His Law today? 2 Corinthians 3:3
- 6) What new covenant promise does the Lord make to us? Hebrews 8:10
- 7) What does it mean for God's Law to be in our heart? Psalms 40:8
- 8) How is the Law of God written in our mind? Psalms 1:3

A Law of Love

- 9) Should we look at obedience to God's Law as a hard, difficult task? 1 John 5:3
- 10) What motive should prompt us to keep God's Law? John 14:15
- 11) How important is obedience to God's Law? Matthew 19:16, 17
- 12) What are we guilty of if we claim to be Christians but disobey God's Law? 1 John 2:3, 4
- 13) What does grace and faith do to do to God's Law? Romans 3:31
- 14) How important is it that we keep all of God's Law? James 2:10-12
- 15) How are God's people in the last days described? Revelation 12:17; 14:12

The Law Broken & Restored

- 16) When seeing the sin of Israel, what did Moses do to the tables of the testimony? Exodus 32:19
- 17) What did our sin do to Jesus' heart of perfect obedience? Psalms 69:20
- 18) What must the realization of our sin do to our hearts? Psalms 51:17
- 19) What was Moses required to do after breaking the first tables? Exodus 34:1, 4
- 20) Does breaking God's Law make it more difficult to have His Law in our hearts again? 2 Peter 2:20
- 21) What promise does the Lord give to us whose hearts have been shattered by sin? Psalms 147:3

Commitment

God put His covenant in the heart of the sanctuary and He now wants to put it in our hearts and minds. God wants to write His great Law of love into our hearts that have been broken by sin. Will you allow Him to etch it there?