What We Share in the Newsletter

Our monthly emails provide a comprehensive look into the impact we're making together. From updates on housing and wellness programs to stories of community resilience, each edition is designed to keep you connected and inspired.

How Often Will You Hear From Us?

We value your time. That's why we only send our newsletter once a month, ensuring every email is filled with meaningful and valuable content. Very occasionally, there is a need to send an additional newsletter throughout the month, but this is not our usual practice.

Join Today and Stay Ahead

Becoming a part of our newsletter list is simple and rewarding. By subscribing, you'll stay informed about SENT's efforts and how you can contribute to community change.
