Their ears are pierced in multiple places and they used to have their nose pierced but let it grow up. They are very fashionable but sometimes wear some very wild outfits as well. They do wear makeup from time to time and they love lipgloss, loving the way it feels on their lips (and how it feels to kiss someone with glossy lips oops).

— A ROSE WITHOUT ITS THORNS

Sage is a very cheerful and bubbly person, always quick to talk and make friends with others. They are very creative and love to create new things and love to make art. They are extremely energetic and can't seem to sit still really, they're always off doing something and always moving around. They are fun-loving and an adventurer at heart.

They are a rather airy kind of person in general though and have a rather careless nature to them as well honestly. They mean well but those two traits do take up their personality. They also have a rather aimless nature that combined with that airy nature just really adds up. They can be quite demanding about things, especially when it comes to things that have to do with their art gallery and making sure everything is perfect. They are erratic in their behavior, nothing really consistent about their choices and how they react most of the times.

They are rather artful and have been known to have a very dreamy personality to them, often staring off into space and daydreaming. They can be VERY competitive, especially in something like an art competition, they love to just have some sort of competition. They are outspoken and stand their ground as well as stand the ground for others as well. They have also been known to throw sarcasm around like it's going out of style.
