IMPORTANT INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS: DO NOT DELETE THIS PAGE

- Articles, sections, and letters with an asterisk () are required by Colorado PTA, National PTA, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and/or Colorado State Law and cannot be deleted or amended. Ensure the asterisks () remain in the final version of your bylaws.
- Bylaws must be reviewed every three (3) years and updated into the most current template and adopted by the members/voting body (present and voting & a quorum having been established). Submit the bylaws in WORD to the Colorado PTA office at office@copta.org or in the virtual platform. Retain a copy of the submitted bylaws for your records.
- Sections and/or letters may be added under non-asterisked articles. Added items may not conflict with the required asterisked (*) articles, sections, or letters.
- Any amendments to the bylaws must be adopted with a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members/voting body present and voting, a quorum having been established, and 30 days' notice of the vote.
- It is STRONGLY suggested that officers are elected in February or March. An early election provides many opportunities for transition and attendance (taking advantage of early bird pricing) to the annual Colorado PTA Convention and National PTA Convention.
- Each PTA/PTSA/Council must have a board of directors. A board of directors may consist of only the elected officers and may include standing and appointed committee chairs, and other appointed members.
- A PTA/PTSA/Council may have an executive committee. An executive committee typically consists of elected officers, which is a smaller number of people, so they can meet on short notice to take emergency action as needed.
- The budget is adopted by a majority of the members present and voting, a quorum having been established, and 30 days' notice of the vote. Any amendments to the adopted budget require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of members present and voting and a quorum having been established. The council budget and amendments are adopted by the council board of directors.

This template MUST be used to update or create "new" bylaws.

The Colorado PTA Board of Directors updates the template regularly. The blue drafting notes throughout the template give guidance and items for consideration as you update your bylaws. Contact the office at Colorado PTA at 303-420-7820 or office@copta.org for more information and to receive the current template.

To get started

- You will need a copy of your CURRENT APPROVED BYLAWS, (to request the most current bylaws on record with Colorado PTA email office@copta.org).
- Save a copy of this template with the drafting notes (so that if questions arise you can refer to them).
- Rename and save this document with your PTA/PTSA/Council name and include the date (month/day/year) the bylaws were adopted by the members/voting body, in the header of EACH page.
- Using the drafting notes as a guide, fill in the blanks and make the required choices.
- When the bylaws are completely reviewed, amended, and corrected, DELETE ALL BLUE DRAFTING NOTES for ease of reading.
- DO NOT DELETE ASTERISKS (*) OR FOOTNOTES.

- This document becomes the current set of bylaws for the PTA/PTSA/Council. Complete the "Signature/Date Page" and submit your updated bylaws to office@copta.org for review.

* Article I — Name[1]

The name of this association is the Meiklejohn Elementary Parent Teacher Association, (PTA), hereinafter referred to as "this local PTA", and is located in Arvada, Colorado. This local PTA is organized under the authority of Colorado Congress of Parents and Teachers (Colorado PTA), a branch of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers (National PTA).

* Article II — Purposes[1]

Section 1. Objectives. The purpose or purposes (Objects) which the association will hereafter pursue are:

a. To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, places of worship and throughout the community.
b. To raise the standards of home life.
c. To advocate for laws that further the education, physical and mental health, welfare, and safety of children and youth.
d. To promote the collaboration and engagement of families and educators in the education of children and youth.
e. To engage the public in united efforts to secure the physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and social well-being of all children and youth.
f. To advocate for fiscal responsibility regarding public tax dollars in public education funding.

Section 2. Awareness. The purposes of the PTA are promoted through advocacy and education in collaboration with parents, families, teachers, educators, students, and the public; developed through conferences, committees, projects, and programs; and governed and qualified by the basic principles set forth in Article III.

Section 3. Federal Status. The association is organized exclusively for the charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code (referred to as Internal Revenue Code).

* Article III — Principles[1]

The following are basic principles of PTA:

a. The association shall be noncommercial, nonsectarian, and nonpartisan.
b. The association shall work to engage and empower children, families, and educators within schools and communities to provide quality education for all children and youth and shall seek to participate in the decision-making process by influencing school policy and advocating for children's issues, recognizing that the legal responsibility to make decisions has been delegated by the people to boards of education, state education authorities, and local education authorities.
c. The association shall work to promote the health and welfare of children and youth, and shall seek to promote collaboration, among families, schools, and the community at large.
d. Commitment to inclusiveness and equity, knowledge of PTA, and professional expertise shall be guiding principles for service in PTA.

*Article IV — Operational Requirements[2]

Section 1. Net Earnings. No part of the net earnings of the association shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, trustees, officers, or other private persons except that the association shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof.

Section 2. Exempt Activities. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles to the contrary, in no event shall the association carry on any other activities which are not permitted to be carried on (i) by an association exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) by an association, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 3. Political Activities. The association or its members in their official capacities shall not, directly, or indirectly, participate or intervene (in any way, including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office, or devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise.

* Article V — Relationship with National PTA and Colorado PTA[1,2]

Section 1. This local PTA shall be organized and chartered under the authority of the Colorado PTA in the area in which this local PTA functions, in conformity with such rules and regulations, as the Colorado PTA may in its bylaws prescribe. The Colorado PTA shall issue to this local PTA an appropriate charter evidencing the due organization and good standing of this local PTA.

Section 2. This local PTA shall adopt such bylaws for the governance of the association. Such bylaws shall not be in conflict with National PTA bylaws, Colorado PTA bylaws, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Code and/or state nonprofit laws and are subject to review by the Colorado PTA Bylaws Committee. Each local unit shall comply with the requirements in the local unit bylaws template as approved by the Colorado PTA Board of Directors.

Section 3. Good Standing — Colorado PTA requires the following to be a unit in good standing:

a. Remits the state and national portion of the dues and membership reports through the Colorado PTA to reach the state office by dates established by the Colorado PTA Board of Directors.
b. Every three (3) years, local unit bylaws shall be reviewed and updated in the most current local unit bylaws template, adopted by the membership, and submitted to Colorado PTA for approval by the Colorado PTA Bylaws Committee. If amendments by a local unit are adopted by the membership between these reviews, a copy shall be submitted to the Colorado PTA Bylaws Committee for approval. Appeal of unapproved bylaws or amendments may be made to the Colorado PTA Executive Committee.
c. Purchases directors/officers, liability, and bonding insurance coverage. If insurance is not purchased through Colorado PTA's recommended provider, proof of insurance is required to be submitted to Colorado PTA.

d. Submits a completed officer's list as requested by Colorado PTA.

e. Submits a copy of its annual financial review/audit report.

f. Submits a copy of the required IRS tax return (i.e., either Form 990, 990-EZ, or 990-N; as determined by gross receipts in accordance with the IRS regulations).

g. Registers with the Colorado Secretary of State office for the Colorado Charitable Solicitations Act annually (if required).

h. Three (3) officers of each local unit or their designee must attend one (1) position-specific leadership training annually. This requirement may be fulfilled in person (region/council training, conferences) or by completing a National or Colorado PTA e-learning course between officer elections and December 1.

i. Meets other criteria as may be prescribed by the Colorado PTA Board of Directors, Colorado PTA and National PTA, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Code, and/or Colorado State law.

Section 4. The charter of a local PTA/PTSA shall be subject to withdrawal and the status of the local PTA/PTSA shall be subject to dissolution under the circumstances provided in the Colorado PTA bylaws.

Section 5. Delinquent status — Failure to remit membership dues by the Colorado PTA's first reporting deadline shall result in the association being declared "delinquent". Delinquent units will be ineligible for all National PTA or Colorado PTA-sponsored activities, materials, and services until dues are paid. Continued delinquency may result in the withdrawal of the charter under the procedure outlined in the Article on Dissolution.

Section 6. Provisional status — Units on provisional status will be ineligible for all National PTA or Colorado PTA-sponsored activities, materials, and services until dues are paid. Failure to correct violations within the timeline may result in the withdrawal of the charter under the procedure outlined in the Article on Dissolution. The following may constitute cause for a unit to be placed on provisional status:

a. Failure to correct violations within timelines set by the Colorado PTA

b. Failure to comply with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulations.

c. Violation of the purposes or principles of PTA.

d. Violation of unit, Colorado PTA, or National PTA bylaws.

e. Failure to include required asterisk (*) items in local unit or council bylaws.

Section 7. Colorado PTA may dissolve a PTA/PTSA with no members without first placing them on provisional or delinquent status.

Section 8. This local PTA is obligated, upon withdrawal of its charter by the Colorado PTA:

~~a.~~ To yield up and surrender all books and records to Colorado PTA.

~~b.~~ To distribute any remaining PTA/PTSA funds and assets after dissolution to Colorado PTA, another local unit organized under the authority of Colorado PTA, or to one or more nonprofit organizations that have established their tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and whose purposes and principles are in accordance with those of Colorado PTA and National PTA, as stated in the Colorado PTA Bylaws Article on Purposes and Principles.

c. To cease and desist from the further use of any name that implies an association with the National PTA or the Colorado PTA or status as a constituent association of the National PTA.

d. To carry out promptly, under the supervision and direction of the Colorado PTA, all proceedings necessary or desirable for dissolving this local PTA. (See Article on Dissolution)

Section 3. The election meeting shall be held in the month of April.

Section 4. Five (5) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business in any meeting of this local PTA.

Section 5. There shall be no proxy voting.

*Article XIII — Electronic Meetings, Communications, and Voting

Section 1. This local unit PTA board of directors; committees and subcommittees; and regular and special membership meetings, shall be authorized to meet by any means of communication by which all persons participating in the meeting may hear each other during the meeting. A member participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Section 2. Unless members indicate otherwise to the local unit PTA president, all communications required in these bylaws, including meeting notices, may be sent electronically.

Section 3. Electronic meetings are considered special meetings for purposes of notice and quorum.

Section 4. Electronic voting is allowed by procedures established by the Colorado PTA Board of Directors. (See the local unit handbook)

Article XIV — Council Membership

Section 1. Jefferson County Council — each member unit shall be entitled to representation on the voting body by its president or alternate, and by three (3) delegates or alternates selected by the unit according to its own procedure. All delegates and alternates shall be members of the member unit.

Section 2. Delegate Selection. Delegates and their alternates shall be appointed by the board of directors at the first meeting of the new fiscal year.

Article XV — PTA Conventions

Section 1. Colorado PTA convention — This local PTA shall be entitled to be represented by five (5) delegates or alternates for the first hundred (100) members or fraction thereof plus one (1) delegate or alternate for each additional one hundred (100) members or fraction thereof in good standing as shown on the books of the Colorado PTA as of the second dues reporting date of the fiscal year. Units not reporting members by the second dues reporting date will be authorized delegates upon receipt of dues payment.

a. All representatives to the Colorado PTA convention must be members of this local PTA.
b. Delegates and their alternates shall be appointed by the board of directors. Once the delegates and alternates have been selected according to your local unit bylaws, the president has the authority to fill any vacancies on the list. In the event, that the president does not attend the convention; the president may designate another officer to approve any on-site substitutions.

Section 2. National PTA convention — This local PTA shall submit names of delegates to attend the National PTA Convention to the Colorado PTA office. Delegates shall attend the National PTA Convention as delegates of the Colorado PTA, but the nametag and registration will include the local PTA name.

a. All representatives to the National PTA convention must be members of this local PTA.
b. Delegates and their alternates shall be appointed by the board of directors.

Article XVI — Fiscal Year and Financial Responsibilities

Section 1. The fiscal year of this local PTA shall begin on July 1 and end on the following June 30.

Section 2. This local PTA shall keep such permanent books of account and records as shall be sufficient to establish the items of gross income, receipts, and disbursements of the association, including, specifically, the number of its members, the dues collected from its members, and the amounts of dues remitted to the Colorado PTA. Such books of account and records shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by an authorized representative of the Colorado PTA or, where directed by the committee on state and national relationships, by a duly authorized representative of the National PTA.

Section 3. This association must file the current IRS Form 990, 990-EZ, or 990-N by the date required by the IRS for filing. This local unit must also submit proof of filing to the Colorado PTA office.

Section 4. All accounts held at financial institutions require two (2) authorized signatures for all disbursements and withdrawals and require a minimum of three (3) authorized signers approved by the Board of Directors. All signers must be at least eighteen (18) years of age. Signers cannot have disbursement authority over the school/school district funds, nor shall two (2) signers reside in the same household or be an immediate family.

Section 5. All methods of disbursements and withdrawals from PTA/PTSA accounts must be authorized in the approved budget (or amendments made to the budget and adopted by the membership) and require the use of documentation that includes two (2) authorized signers.

* Article XVII — Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall govern this local PTA in all cases in which they are applicable and in which they are not in conflict with these bylaws, National PTA bylaws, Colorado PTA bylaws, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Code and/or state nonprofit laws, or any special rules of order Colorado PTA may adopt.

* Article XVIII — Amendments[3]

Section 1. These bylaws may be amended at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of members present and voting, a quorum having been established, provided the amendments have been provided to the membership at least thirty (30) days before the meeting.

Section 2. The board of directors, by a majority vote, may authorize the committee on bylaws to submit a revised set of bylaws as a substitute for the existing bylaws.

Section 3. Submission of amendments or revised bylaws for approval by Colorado PTA shall be in accordance with the bylaws and procedures of Colorado PTA.

Section 4. The adoption of an amendment to any required provisions of the National PTA and the Colorado PTA shall serve automatically and without the requirement of further action by the constituent association (this local PTA). The constituent association (this local unit) shall promptly incorporate such amendments in their respective bylaws.

*Article XIX — Dissolution

Section 1. Elected officers serving at the time of the dissolution are legally responsible for proper dissolution procedures. All legal records must be kept in accordance with the IRS record retention schedule. Officers serving at the time of dissolution will respond to an IRS audit even if they are no longer associated with the PTA, the school, or live in the state.

Section 2. If there are no current members of a local unit PTA/PTSA, Colorado PTA may withdraw the charter and proceed with dissolution according to Colorado PTA procedures.

Section 3. This local PTA, under the supervision and direction of the Colorado PTA, shall dissolve its affairs in the following manner:

a. Notice, by electronic and hard copy letter, of pending dissolution must be given to the Colorado PTA at least forty-five (45) days before the membership meeting is held to discuss and vote on the dissolution issue. Enclosed with the letter of notification shall be a copy of the minutes from the meeting in which a discussion of possible dissolution took place.

b. A membership meeting must be held to vote on the dissolution issue. All members of the unit must be notified in writing at least thirty (30) days before the meeting. All communications, including meeting notices, may be sent electronically. A representative of the Colorado PTA, designated by the Colorado PTA Vice President of Field Service, must be present. A minimum of fifteen (15) minutes must be provided for the Colorado PTA representative to speak prior to the dissolution vote. A two-thirds (2/3) ballot vote of members present and voting, a quorum being present, must carry this intent of dissolution. Dissolution is effective immediately if the vote is in the affirmative.

c. Disbursement of funds and assets must be approved by a majority vote of members present and voting at the dissolution meeting. Any PTA/PTSA funds and assets remaining upon dissolution must be distributed to Colorado PTA, or another local unit PTA/PTSA under the authority of Colorado PTA, or to one or more nonprofit organizations that have established their tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and whose purposes and principles are in accordance with those of Colorado PTA and National PTA, as stated in the Colorado PTA Bylaws Article on Purposes and Principles. PTA/PTSA money cannot be deposited in school accounts.

d. Upon dissolution, the Colorado PTA office must receive within thirty (30) days of the dissolution vote:
   (1) An electronic and hard copy letter giving details of the vote to dissolve, and a detailed accounting of the disbursements of funds.
   (2) A copy of the final IRS Form 990, 990-EZ, or 990-N.
   (3) Local unit charter, all Colorado PTA and National PTA materials, current bylaws, standing rules, all minutes, budget, and all financial books of account and records including the closing bank statement.

e. Proof of the 501 (c)(3) status of any organization receiving any PTA/PTSA funds must be received by Colorado PTA.
