

Sketch #5 - September 5th, 2013

L'Shanah Tovah Song

C G C
Every New Year I promise myself

C
that I'll do something

C G
Different and good.

C G C
But by the time January 1st comes and then goes.

C G C
I've pretty much abandoned all of my resoluti-oes

F C G
That's why I'm so thankful that I am a Jew

F
Because we don't get just one New Year

C G
Oh yeah, we get two...

CHORUS:

C G C
Rosh Hashanah Rosh Hashanah

C G
It is the Jewish New Year

C G C
L'Shana Tova, L'Shana Tova

F G C
The Jew's time to wipe their slate clear

C G C
These first two nights are just enough time

C G
For me to reflect on myself

C G C
Like why I didn't go to Temple last night

C G C
I went to the Carnegie Deli Instead - (that counts, right?)

CHORUS:

C G C
Rosh Hashanah Rosh Hashanah

C G

It is the Jewish New Year

C G C

L' Shana Tova, L' Shana Tova

F G C

The Jew's time to wipe their slate clear

BRIDGE:

F G C

What shall be different in 5774

F G C

(That's the name of the new Hebrew month and year)

F G C

Will I finally get what I want?

C...

Like getting famous on Broadway and quitting my day job

And making lots of money to be a full time artist/

Comedienne and all of that wonderful stuff? ...

C G C

Or will just bomb Syria?

CHORUS:

C G C

Rosh Hashanah Rosh Hashanah

C G

It is the Jewish New Year

C G C

L' Shana Tova, L' Shana Tova

F G C

The Jew's time to wipe their slate clear

C G C

Rosh Hashanah Rosh Hashanah

C G

It is the Jewish New Year

C G C

L' Shana Tova, L' Shana Tova

F G C

To every Jew and non-Jew here!
