Certification Objectives

Completing this certification implies that the student understands how to use Twitter and can use it to benefit themselves and others. This document proves through original text (no copy/paste of text) and visual evidence that the student understands:

- How to use Twitter safely and effectively
- Why to use Twitter
- Who to follow

Create an account consistent with your online brand

Consider your brand before creating an account. Search the name first to make sure that your identity won't be confused with another person or company.

1. What is your twitter name? (create a link to your profile)

Jearthebear10

2. Why did you choose it that account name?

Jear is a nick name for me and bear rimed with it. 10 is also my number for sports.

Setup your profile

Click the "Profile" link> then "Edit your profile". Add a picture and a description to your profile.

1. Insert a screen shot of your profile information.

Add the finished certification form to your website and share it with the diigo group "twitter certification". The form will be reviewed either rejected with comments for correction or accepted and points added to your total.

Tips

Filling in your profile information will help people find you on Twitter. For example, you'll be more likely to turn up in a Twitter search if you've added your location or your real name.

Your Twitter profile picture helps instantly identify you to those following you—and tells those who aren't more about you. Learn more

1. Why use HTTPS?

It secures your profile so it can't be hacked and bad stuff happen to it.

2. What is a possible drawback of HTTPS?

Maybe you want someone to see something they cant

3. Personal Opinion: Protect Tweets or Not? Why?

I say not because i dont really care and i never tweet.

4. What should you do if you receive an email from Twitter that requests your password or has an

Tweet Location ☐ Add a location to your Tweets

Ever had something you wanted to share ("fireworks!", "party!", "ice cream truck", or "quicksand...") that would be better with a location? By turning on this feature, you can include location information like neighborhood, town, or exact point when you tweet.

When you tweet with a location, Twitter stores that location. You can switch location on/off before each Tweet and always have the option to delete your location history.

You may delete all location information from your past Tweets.

This may take up to 30 minutes.

Tweet Media ☐ Display media that may contain sensitive content

☐ Mark my media as containing sensitive content

If you tweet images or videos that may contain sensitive content, please check this box so that people can be warned before they see it. Learn more

Tweet Privacy ☐ Protect my Tweets

Only let people whom I approve follow my Tweets.

If this is checked, your future Tweets will not be available publicly. Tweets posted previously may still be publicly visible in some places.

HTTPS Only ☒ Always use HTTPS

Use a secure connection where possible to encrypt your account information.

Tips

Change your Twitter username anytime without affecting your existing Tweets, @replies, direct messages, or other data. After changing it, make sure to let your followers know so you'll continue receiving all of your Tweets with your new username.

Protect your Tweets if you don't want them to be public. Approve who can follow you and keep your Tweets out of search results.

2. Assuming your tweets are unprotected, If you follow someone do they have to follow you back?

No

Before you post

If your tweets (Twitter updates) are public anyone can see them and they are forever stored in the Library of Congress. Always assume that anyone can see and reproduce your tweets.

Define the following and indicate why you would use each (help section "Tweets and Messages"):

1. Retweet- repeating something somebody said on twitter
2. Direct message- Tweeting something to only one person, or possible a couple.
3. Hashtag- category of tweet
4. @reply- tweeting back to someone they said to you
5. @mention- putting someones name in your tweet

Post a Message

1. Insert screenshots proving your ability to do all 5 messaging skills above. Can be done in 2 pics. Pics can be taken without sending a message.

Add the finished certification form to your website and share it with the diigo group "twitter certification". The form will be reviewed either rejected with comments for correction or accepted and points added to your total.
