1. Read the following passage then answer the questions.

During our terrible, long, dark winters, we have to wear warm sweaters and thick jackets and trousers when we go outdoors. But the summer is completely different. For three short months, it's beautiful and warm. We can dress much more comfortably in thin T-shirts and jeans or shorts.

In my work, people used to be much more careless than today, and accidents often happened. Today, we do things more carefully than we did then. We protect ourselves as well as we can with hard hats, safety boots and thick gloves. They're uncomfortable, but they're better than a horrible accident.
