

SC276: So back in January 2019 (which I think we can all agree was a fucking decade ago), Kingdom Hearts III was released and we celebrated with an Equestria Girls crossover. Funny thing about that fic is that it had a sequel, which we kept under our hats for when DLC was inevitably released for it. And that happened and no one remembered it at all, and Ring basically held out on this - to the best of my understanding - under the belief that there's totally going to be DLC worlds, guys, it's not like this is the one title in the series that explicitly doesn't have filler levels.
Ringmaster: Hey, how could I know they didn't like money?

SC276: Anyways, it's here now, call it celebrating Wreck-It Ralph being a world in the mobile game if you like. Last time on Kingdom Hearts Characters Give Sunset Shimmer the Moral Victory: Sora goes to Canterlot High, has a boss battle in the library that literally no one notices, stolen art, darkness probably (~and they have SPICES~), and I don't even fucking remember, it's been a decade. This time, ditch the hall passes, folks, we're going straight to Equestria.

Mono: I... do remember being angry about something concerning Scootaloo, but that's about it.

CaptainPipsqueak: Everybody's angry when it comes to Scootaloo.

Ringmaster: Without further ado, part one of "Kingdom Hearts: Princess Twilight Sparkle" by Golden Flare.

SC276: May your heart be your guiding key, and ready your asses, because oh yeah, the other half is next "week." Let's-a go!

Crazy56U: At this point, I am basically a non-entity. I don't know what the fuck is up with 2020, but I just don't want to do fucking anything these days. But, who knows, maybe more of Stapling Sora to Stories He Doesn't Matter In will get me out of my funk...

UnknownSkull: I feel ya. Why else do you think I was completely absent last month?

BittplexMutt: Let's dive into the heart once again!

Prologue: Training Ground

Within the Mysterious Tower, Yen Sid, Sora, and King Mickey carefully plan what to do next, now that the recently emerged world, Canterlot High, has been saved from the clutches of the Seekers of Darkness, Crazy56U: Kingdom Hearts 3 spoilers.

UnknownSkull: Not like anyone will care for them anymore.

Mono: I'd say leave it be.

BittplexMutt: Last time on Kingdom Hearts....

one of whom has manipulated one of Sora's newest friends to "retrieve him".

SC276: Most of it was figuring out what the fuck that meant.

Crazy56U: Well, to "retrieve", you take something from its current location and return it to its prior location.

SC276: Thank you, Commodore Obvious.

Nox: I'll assume the mind control took no effort on the controller's part.

UnknownSkull: When there's no mind to overtake, it's basically a piece of cake.

BittplexMutt: "In other words, kill him."

CaptainPipsqueak: No, that's "relieve him".

I wonder how she's doing, Sora thought,

Crazy56U: Blackout drunk in a bathtub, like ya do.

BittplexMutt: Trying to stay away from any more bad ocs.

UnknownSkull: Killing Spike out of boredom.

CaptainPipsqueak: Locked inside her house, drunk and drowning Spike in the bathtub.

After everything she did to everyone, she may have a hard time getting everyone to forgive her...

Mono: Well, I mean, there's a whole second movie about that, soo...

UnknownSkull: At least until the CMC decide to throw her under the bus.

BittplexMutt: "But enough about that..."

SC276: Breaking news: Sora can't tell Sunset and Twilight apart! Details at eleven.

Crazy56U: There, see, Ember wasn't being racist, Sora also can't tell ponies apart!

BittplexMutt: Then again, he lives on an island so there's probably no horses.

CaptainPipsqueak: Well, there were. They were delicious.

"Sora, ya with us?"

Mickey snapped Sora out of his daydreams,

Crazy56U: Unbeknownst to Sora, five years had passed since he zoned out.

BittplexMutt: This would be very true in Kingdom Hearts canon.

UnknownSkull: And that's why I chose to avoid it after trying it once.

he shook his head forcing a smile, "Yeah, sorry. What were we talking about again?"

Mono: [Mickey] "I'm holding a bottle of moonshine* I dunno, I've been sipping on this stuff since I've raided it from this school, and frankly, it's hard to focus on things myself anymore."

UnknownSkull: [Mickey] "That's what I was about to ask you. It's like nothing makes sense in this universe."

BittplexMutt: [Mickey] "We were trying to figure out why they call it a hacksaw."

CaptainPipsqueak: [Mickey] "I was asking about why they cancelled 'Pushing Daisies' and you just sort of drifted away."

"We were discussing your Mark of Mastery retake exam," Yen Sid explained, Crazy56U: Holy shit, this really is spoilers for Kingdom Hearts 3.

BittplexMutt: [Sora] "Oh right, no wonder I zoned out.."

"To participate in the clash between the Guardians of Light and the Seekers of Darkness, SC276: Eh, close enough.

Crazy56U: Specially, the EOE "riff".

BittplexMutt: "You have to sign a contract."

you must become a true Keyblade Master."

"Well, what if I started some kind of training? Would I be ready to retake the Keyblade exam?"

Crazy56U: Fat fucking chance, my good man.

Nox: Time for everyone's favorite pastime; level grinding!

Mono: Thanks, Nox, this is just giving me painful memories to my failed Nuzlockes...

UnknownSkull: That's on you for Nuzlocking in the first place.

CaptainPipsqueak: If you have to grind so long you're doing something wrong. Most games have a parallel-leveling system, anyway: the monsters level up as you do.

BittplexMutt: Time to reset the game.

"Hmm..." Yen Sid began stroking his beard, "For that, you must train your body, as well as your heart.

Crazy56U: And so Sora went to Planet Fitness-

Mono: No, he bought RingFit adventures.

BittplexMutt: He also got the Shake-Weight.

CaptainPipsqueak: Does anyone else see the irony of someone built like a collection of twigs telling someone to work out?

The reason you have failed the Mark of Mastery was because your heart led you in the wrong direction, more precisely, into the hands of Xehanort."

Crazy56U: Noooo, the reason why he "failed" was because Dream Drop Distance was written by a pack of rabid howler monkeys.

UnknownSkull: No, it was simply written by Nomura.

CaptainPipsqueak: Yes, that's what Crazy said.

BittplexMutt: "You let your own heart be tainted."

"Alright then, so where should I begin my training? I've been to a lot of worlds, but I need one that'll challenge me, really push my limits!"

SC276: Well, there is the canon place you go to do that, but this came out in 2015, so that ain't it.

Crazy56U: (realizes it's five years in the past; is depressed)

Nox: [Sora] "What about this place about a 'Falling Star'?"

[Yen Sid] "No absolutely not!"

BittplexMutt: And so, Yen Sid sent Sora to the Chicken Little world.

"Hmm..." Mickey hummed, "I think I know just the place."

"Really? Where?"

Crazy56U: (matter-of-factly) Hell.

BittplexMutt: Detroit.

Mono: IHOP.

UnknownSkull: The EoE "riffs".

CaptainPipsqueak: I'm not telling you; I want it to be a surprise.

"Go get Donald and Goofy,

Crazy56U: You may be wondering why Goofy wasn't in the previous fic. Shut up.

BittplexMutt: They just remembered he existed now.

CaptainPipsqueak: You should have heard him scream as he was dragged back.

they'll be able to help you. I'll go and insert the coordinates into the Gummi Ship."

SC276: [Sora] "...Can't you just tell me?"

[King Mickey] "No."

Crazy56U: Oh dear, Mickey is shit with programming the GPS, they are gonna be soooo fucking lost...

Mono: Lemme guess, they're gonna take a right turn at Albuquerque and turn Bugs Bunny into roadkill?

UnknownSkull: It's never a good thing when the King is awful at directions.

BittplexMutt: [Mickey] "I wonder how this thing works.."

"Okay!"

SC276: [King Mickey] "Good to know you're as accepting as ever."

BittplexMutt: [Sora] "I'm not gonna question this at all!"

UnknownSkull: [Sora] "This totally won't result in me ending in a stupid situation."

With that, the die was cast,

SC276: The center cannot hold.

CaptainPipsqueak: And the dish ran away with the spoon. I was eating that soup, thanks!

Crazy56U: Ah, goody, they're fucking going to Superior Spider-Man. Fuck this fanfic and the horse it rode in on.

BittplexMutt: Because Sora's gambling now.

Mono: And now Caesar is involved in this, apparently.

Sora retrieved two of his best friends and met Mickey outside of the tower, Crazy56U: Can you tell the Author doesn't have his heart in the fanfic this time?

UnknownSkull: Ah, that explains why I felt this fanfic had no body in it.

who had just finished preparing the ship for takeoff.

"Okay fellas, the Gummi Ship's ready to go when you are!"

"Thanks, Your Majesty!" Sora said.

"Hey, Donald?" Mickey waved him over and began whispering something in his ear,

Crazy56U: [Donald Duck] "... (confused) But Mickey, isn't murder frowned upon?"

UnknownSkull: [Donald Duck] "...Isn't that against the Geneva Conventions?"

Mono: [Donald] "Mickey, I don't think Celestia would appreciate you saying that to her..."

CaptainPipsqueak: [Donald] "Okay, but only if I get to be top this time. You're too rough."

soon Donald grew a mischievous smile upon his face.

CaptainPipsqueak: He made sure to water it every day and spray it with bug repellent.

"You got it!" Donald chuckled sinisterly.

"Uh, what's so funny, Donald?" Sora asked.

Crazy56U: Well, depending on your sense of schadenfreude, 2020 as a whole.

Mono: Can't we just make up a new calendar and just brand 2020 as "2019-2"?

UnknownSkull: 2021 can't come quicker, can it?

CaptainPipsqueak: I was supposed to be at a sci-fi convention this week. This is literally the high point of my year - even my birthday is a distant second. I'm so furious I won't even eat Chinese food ever again.

"Oh...you'll see."

SC276: [Sora] "I'm starting to get really tired of people keeping secrets from me."

UnknownSkull: [Donald Duck] "Totally not trying to annex Equestria into the Disney empire."

BittplexMutt: And then Mickey let out an evil laugh.

Sora didn't know what they had in mind, but he knew it wasn't good, taking note of Donald's scary grin.

SC276: [Sora] "When the fuck did you get teeth?!"

Crazy56U:

UnknownSkull: eyes start bleeding ...why.

Crazy56U: Yes.

They all boarded the ship and Sora made sure he was in his seat before they took off.

Mono: As opposed to what, after?

CaptainPipsqueak: Wouldn't want there to be any pratfalls on this trip.

Donald warmed up the engine and hovered above the tower, all while the coordinates Mickey put in calculated their destination. When everything was ready, Donald pointed his finger and shouted, "BLASTOFF!"

SC276: [Goofy] "... (hits the ignition button)"

CaptainPipsqueak: ♪Band of brothers, marching together; heads held high in all kinds of weather...♪

Crazy56U: And then the ship exploded. THE END

WHOOSH!

The gang headed towards their next adventure, the new world that Sora opened up from the recently unlocked keyhole, but of course, he didn't know that.

SC276: You're gonna need a lot of hands to count the things Sora doesn't know.

Crazy56U: Sora was dropped as a kid several times.

BittplexMutt: And it shows.

Mono: I mean, he abused a twelve year-old last fic...

CaptainPipsqueak: Yeah, but most twelve year-olds have it coming. Smug little bastards...

UnknownSkull: Life just loves kicking him whenever it can.

(stop music)

SC276: Fuck you, I'll listen to "The Game of Life" and "Your Adventure Log has Vanished" as much as I damn like!

Crazy56U:

BittplexMutt: Good thing I wasn't listening.

Inside the tower, Yen Sid was contemplating about the new world, how a world like that was a one in a million possibility of existing.

Crazy56U: "But mainly, contemplating about the fate of a fable known as Pushing Daisies..."

CaptainPipsqueak: He should strike up a conversation with Mickey.

BittplexMutt: Because multiverse.

"A world with little to no hostility..."

Crazy56U: (stifles a snicker)

BittplexMutt: Oh, you have no idea..

UnknownSkull: Someone should tell him...

Mono: ...So no one is bringing it up anymore?
CaptainPipsqueak: The aggression is all passive now.

deep within this world, the light of friendship burns strong...but even I can sense the darkness of this world..."

SC276: So let's just cut to the chase.
Mono: ... You are about a line too late with that thing, but okay, sure...
UnknownSkull: Better late than never, as the saying goes.
BittplexMutt: "Almost like a convenient plot is happening."

To Be Continued...

Dearly Beloved

SC276: Fuck you, you don't love any of us, or you wouldn't have written this.
CaptainPipsqueak: And we're full of self-loathing, or we wouldn't be here.
Crazy56U: Here, a better song concerning love given the circumstances.
BittplexMutt: "We are gathered here to bury the dignity this fic had."

My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic belongs to Hasbro Studios and DHX Media
Kingdom Hearts belongs to Disney and SQUARE ENIX

SC276: Then why are you getting your grubby little hands all over it?
Crazy56U: Because reckless abandon.
UnknownSkull: Not like Square cares about whatever the hell happens in Kingdom Hearts.

Kingdom Hearts: Princess Twilight Sparkle

Mono: How much you wanna bet he didn't draw that one himself?
CaptainPipsqueak: 'Sucker's bet', I believe the saying goes...
Crazy56U: (eyes begin bleeding)
UnknownSkull: Now you feel my pain.

Nox:

BittplexMutt: Sora looks like an animation error. Where's his mouth?

Author's Notes:

I'll be trying a different form of using links to background music for my stories for a little bit, SC276: I can't tell any actual difference.

Crazy56U: (matter-of-factly) K.

Mono: clicks link ...Well, I don't know what I expected.

BittplexMutt: Because that has worked before.

CaptainPipsqueak: smug because he never clicks them anyway

some of you may see it as copying from someone else, but I'm not, I'm trying something different.

SC276: I'M NOT, LISA

Crazy56U: ...so, you are copying from someone else, got it.

BittplexMutt: "I just edited a few things to make it original."

Mono: So, you're doing a Mykan, got it.

Let me know in the comments below what you think.

CaptainPipsqueak: You don't want our opinions, trust me.

Dearly Beloved image by GundamBrony (A.K.A. Shisnocat from DeviantArt At least, I think they're the same person)

Crazy56U: The modern day Usual Suspects remake Hollywood is too chickenshit to make.

UnknownSkull: "Either way, doubt they're gonna find this story at any rate."

BittplexMutt: "At least, I think so.."

Princess Twilight Sparkle Part 1 - Chapter 1: Reunited

The Gummi Ship zoomed through the cosmos,

Crazy56U: NYOOOOOOOOOOOOOM

BittplexMutt: They're going at ludicrous speed.

CaptainPipsqueak: Get back to me when they've gone plaid. Also, if I said the ship was bouncing here and there and everywhere, would anyone get the reference without using Google?

Mono: When that baby hits 88 miles per hour, you're gonna see some serious shit.

on its course to our heroes' destination. To past the time,

SC276: -since the shoot-'em-up sections apparently decided to fuck off-
Crazy56U: (checks iPhone) Well, it's 12:55AM, so, might as well...
UnknownSkull: 6:10PM, and waiting for something to download.
BittplexMutt: "They began to play I Spy."
CaptainPipsqueak: checks torrent, sighs and goes back to Mass Effect they began to talk amongst each other.

"So, do you guys have any idea where the King is sending us?" Sora asked.

"Oh, I think you'll know it when you see." Donald answered, cryptically.

Crazy56U: [Sora] "It's been two days, Donald, for the love of God..."
UnknownSkull: [Sora] "As if I'll ever know something in my life."
BittplexMutt: [Goofy] "I have no idea what's going on."
Mono: [Donald] "Understandable, considering you only decided to show up now."

"Hey guys, look who I found in my hat!" Goofy said

Crazy56U: [Goofy] "(pulls out a Heartless) Look, a friend!"
[Sora] "What the fuck- (is mauled by the Heartless)" BittplexMutt: [Goofy] "Nothing up my sleeves... presto!"
CaptainPipsqueak: [Goofy] "I was wondering where my head had gone!"

as a small dot hopped from said hat to Sora's shoulder.

"Oh, hey, Jiminy!"

Mono: [Jiminy] "is holding a miniature bottle of wine* Shut up, I never asked to be abducted like this...*"
Crazy56U: [Jiminy] "Guess who lost a bet and has to be here?!"
UnknownSkull: [Jiminy] "...well, darn. Guess it's too late to bail out."
CaptainPipsqueak: Jiminy is now wishing that he had been killed by Pinnochio as he had been in the original book.

"Good day to you, Sora! The King asked to accompany you guys to this new world," Jiminy explained,
"Since I couldn't join you last time,

Crazy56U: Yeah, so what, neither did Goofy, ya ain't special.
BittplexMutt: And nothing of value was lost. For Jiminy not being there.
CaptainPipsqueak: Yeah, at least people would think 'Hey, where's Goofy?', but nobody gives a shit about the bug.
Mono: "Because reasons."

he and I thought this would be a good idea.

SC276: [Sora] "Wait, why weren't you with us last time?"
[Jiminy Cricket] "Why do you keep asking questions if you know no one's going to give you a straight answer?"
[Sora] "I hate today."
Crazy56U: [Jiminy Cricket] "Besides, it was either this, or helping him with his taxes."

BittplexMutt: In reality, it was a horrible idea.

Plus, he wants to chronicle everything about the new world into my journal."
"Woooooow!" The trio spoke in awe.

Mono: [Sora] "Mundane shit is awesome!"

UnknownSkull: [Sora] "We don't care at all!"

"Say, is that it right there?"

"Looks like it." Sora said.

SC276: It looks stolen, is what it looks like.

Crazy56U: This picture breaks the concept of euclidean geometry.

Mono: Gesundheit.

Nox: "(Alarms blare) Oh no! We're gonna crash into the town hall!"

BittplexMutt: [Sora] "Wow, I'm surprised no one's attacked this place."

"Hang on tight, I'm taking her down!" Donald declared.

Crazy56U: And in other words: (imitates a plane falling and crashing)

BittplexMutt: "I'm taking her down town!"

Donald guided the Gummi Ship to its descent into the foreign world.

"Hey, Donald, before I forget, what were you and the King talking about?"

"Oh, I'll show you when we get here." Donald was doing his best to hold back a smile of malicious glee.

SC276: We get it.

BittplexMutt: Donald likes to make Sora feel miserable.

UnknownSkull: Why else does he refuse to heal him everytime he needs it?

(stop music)

Crazy56U: Plagiarist.

Mono: No, no, you see, my meme has a pony in it, so it's automatically different.

After they landed, Donald kept his word

Crazy56U: The word being "crash".

and shown Sora what he meant: he used his magic to turn Sora into a Pegasus pony;

SC276: [Sora] "...How exactly is this more than you just not telling me I'm becoming quadrupedal again?"

[Donald] "...Oh. Right. The actual ponies never showed up in the previous story."

BittplexMutt: [Sora] "So, I have wings? That was the surprise?"

Mono: [Sora] "Okay... and?"

UnknownSkull: [Sora] "I turned into a lion once, this is nothing."

Crazy56U: I love how the Author is clearly fucking speedrunning their own story.

his coat was the same color as his skin,

Crazy56U: Genetics, bitch.

deep tan, his tail was short but spiky, like his mane, which maintained its original color, all he wore was his shirt and jacket on his upper body, and a gold-colored crown was marked on his flanks,

Mono: Not a key, for some reason.

Crazy56U: Because that would be too obvious.

which looked like his silver crown necklace that he loaned to a certain purple princess.

SC276: Minnie after she fell in a wine vat?

UnknownSkull: Kairi after yet another change of outfit?

Crazy56U: Blaze after Sora got lost and wandered into Sonic 06?

BittplexMutt: Because the shipping is too much here.

"There you go, Sora!" Donald said.

"Yeah! Now you're sure to blend in with the folks around here!" Goofy agreed.

Crazy56U: Meanwhile, Goofy and Donald were just wearing fake moustaches.

"But, why aren't you guys in disguise?" Sora asked.

"Well...

Crazy56U: [Goofy] "... ..shut up!"

I guess we look so funny that we don't need to be in disguise."

SC276: BULLSHIT

WHEN THE FUCK HAS SORA EVER HAD TO DISGUISE HIMSELF FOR A WORLD AND NOT DONALD AND GOOFY CHRIST, IT'S A MIRACLE THOSE TWO DON'T HAVE TO DISGUISE THEMSELVES FOR A DIFFERENT WORLD EVERY TIME ALREADY

Crazy56U: (practically pleading) I am begging you. As a friend. To calm down.

UnknownSkull: If life has taught us something is that getting worked over KH logic is not worth at all.

Mono: Wait, SC, don't tell me you don't know about the anthropomorphic ducks and dingo's Fluttershy hides in her basement?

BittplexMutt: Wait till they see Discord.

"That, and this is payback for being turned into a normal duck back in Canterlot High!" Donald laughed uproariously.

Crazy56U: Sora had nothing to do with that, you fucking foul fowl.

"Aww, Donald!"

SC276: [Sora] "I didn't even do that!"

BittplexMutt: sitcom laughter

After a while, Donald finally calmed down to form a coherent sentence,

Mono: Even though his last sentence was perfectly coherent...

UnknownSkull: Implying anything Donald says sounds coherent.

Crazy56U: [Donald] "(demonic screeching)"

"C'mon, let's go find Princess Twilight."

"I can't wait to meet your new friend!"

"Yeah...I wonder if she'll recognize me."

SC276: If it's anything like that sketch earlier, no one's going to forget that hair.

Crazy56U: But you forget, Twilight can and will mentally repress anything.

BittplexMutt: She has to. It's in the script.

At one of the many clearings of Canterlot,

Crazy56U: Twilight had finally snapped

Twilight tries to practice using her wings with her Pegasus friend, Rainbow Dash as her teacher

SC276: They couldn't do this in Ponyville because Rainbow's been banned from that airspace for the next week.

UnknownSkull: Better to demolish Canterlot in a crash than her hometown.

BittplexMutt: As you can see, it's not working.

Mono: to a conga beat ~Let's re-do the... ..~ conga music stops Yeah, I can't make this fit.

Crazy56U: (pointedly clears throat) Watch this drive. (to a conga beat) A sea-son 4 re-peat! A sea-son 4 re-peat! A sea-son 4 re-peat! A sea-son 4 re-peat!

and the rest of her friends, Spike, Applejack, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, and Rarity as her audience. "You gotta really flap 'em hard!" Rainbow said.

Crazy56U: And so Twilight flapped her wings so hard, she shot straight up into the stratosphere.

UnknownSkull: And that's how she became Equestria's first astronaut. She never made it back.

Twilight nodded and flapped her wings hard...a little too hard. She lost control and ended up somersaulting into a tree with a bird's nest atop her head.

Crazy56U: "She was also dead, due to her neck snapping in five spots. THE END"

"Eh, maybe not THAT hard."

SC276: ha ha ha ha ha

Mono: Ah, so by "doing something different" you meant that you'd plagiarize the show itself, okay.

UnknownSkull: So, all things considered, it's just like the first fanfic.

Twilight tries again, but her flaps are uneven and she sloppily flies downward, screaming,

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "AAAAAHHHHHHH"

"Whoa-oo-oo! Oof!" as she hits the ground.

Mono: Don't drink and fly, folks.

Crazy56U: And then she died.

Applejack goes to help her up, "Lookin' good up there, Princess Twilight!"

SC276: Lookin' cool, Joker!

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "(shoves Applejack away) Stop calling me that, it stopped being cute five hours ago."

"Applejack, you know you don't have to call me that." Twilight said, modestly.

UnknownSkull: [Applejack] "Make me, bitch."

"Why do you protest so?" Rarity asks, "You've already given up wearing your crown all the time, the least you can do is embrace your new title."

Nox: [Twilight] "Not if that royal decree I have planned has anything to say about it!"

BittplexMutt: [Twilight] "How about no?"

Mono: [Twilight] "Well, why don't you mind your own fucking business, Rarity?"

"If other ponies want to address me that way, I suppose it's fine, but...not my friends," Twilight stated, "It just doesn't feel right." She sighed, "And neither does all this flying business. The Summer Sun Celebration is only two days away, and I'm never gonna be ready to perform my part."

SC276: It's raising the sun for like the first day of summer or something. What would you even do?

UnknownSkull: Stay at home and get drunk, as always.

"Not if you spend all your time down here, ya won't!" Rainbow exclaimed, "Now get up there and show everypony the big finish!"

SC276: "-drain that pus!"

Twilight nodded and gave a look of determination as she unfurled her wings. She took off in a flash and flew around the area as her friends watched in awe, saying, ooh's and ahh's. When Twilight unclenched her eyes and saw that she was really flying, she shouted, "Whoo-hoo!"

Mono: busts out a guitar Been a long time since I've done this one.

But, unfortunately, she wasn't watching where she was going and flew into three gray clouds, coughing out some of it that got in her mouth.

UnknownSkull: [Twilight] "Agh! Tastes like water!"

In a swift moment, she forgot that she stopped flying and began plummeting to the ground, furiously flapping her wings to regain her lost altitude, but instead, glided over her friends' heads, screaming as she started to spiral out of control and crashed, leaving a small crater in her wake.

SC276: The problem we're really going to have here over the first fic is that we've riffed so many EqG ripoffs we still know the major plot beats, but it's going to be a lot harder to call out with something else like the season 4 premiere.

The group rushed to the crash site to see if Twilight was alright, but Pinkie wasn't worried as she said, "WOW! That WAS a big finish!"

SC276: [Applejack] "Someone might be dead, Pinkie."

UnknownSkull: [Pinkie] "Yeah, so?"

Twilight just groaned while her muzzle was still in the dirt.

"Hey. You okay?"

Mono: And then Sora somehow stopped the vines from happening.

UnknownSkull: Let's not get ahead of ourselves... Even if that's totally what's gonna happen.

Twilight looked up in front of her and saw a deep tan-colored stallion with a brown spiky mane, wearing a black jacket and a gold crown cutie mark on his flanks.

Mono: Ummm... s-story? We know how Sora looks already...

"Um, yes, I'm fine," she said, confused on why this random pony approached her, "Do I know you?"

SC276: [Rarity] "Twilight, stop being rude. You've stomped on enough dreams today."

UnknownSkull: [Twilight] "And why do I get the feeling you're here to steal my thunder?"

Sora was a little upset that his new best friend didn't recognize him,

Mono: You... don't recognize that jacket?

SC276: Or that hair? Especially that hair?

but then he thought of a way to surprise her, "I don't know," he said, cryptically, "I was just looking for someone very important to me,

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "I am completely fucking done with vague shit after last week, get to the point before I shiv you."

UnknownSkull: [Twilight] "Well continue looking, cause I doubt you mean anything to me."

she and I made a promise, that no matter what happens, no matter where we are, as long as our hearts are connected..."

Twilight eyes widened by degrees as she spoke simultaneously with him, "We'll always find our way back to each other."

Sora smiled, "See? I found you. Just like I promised I would."

Tears began to form in Twilight's eyes

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "(thinking) I THOUGHT I GOT RID OF YOU FOR GOOD"

UnknownSkull: [Twilight Sparkle] "(thinking) Where did I leave the booze? WHERE THE FUCK IS IT WHEN I NEED IT?!"

and she couldn't help but give an involuntary smile. The feeling of seeing someone she cared for that she hadn't seen in a long time was almost was too much for her heart to bear, so she did the first thing that to mind:

SC276: There is no way the time between Equestria Girls and the season 4 premiere was longer than like a month.

Mono: Deck him in the face.

UnknownSkull: Get the fuck out of dodge.

SC276: Drop entire words from her inner monologue.

she leapt at him full force in sheer happiness,

SC276: Like, y'know, a dog.

"SORA!!"

"Whoa!" Sora yelped as he was knocked to the ground while being nuzzled very affectionately.

SC276: Like, y'know, a dog.

UnknownSkull: And here I thought that was Spike's role. Being a dog, mind you.

"IT'S YOU! IT'S REALLY YOU!"

"Well, of course it's me," Sora said, matter-of-factly, "I told you I'd find my way back to you and I did, you didn't doubt me, did you?"

BittplexMutt: [Twilight] "Maybe a little bit."

"Never. I knew I'd see you again one day."

SC276: The author is that fucking predictable.

UnknownSkull: Stop lying just to be kind, Twilight.

"Uh, Twi? You wanna introduce us to your friend here?"

Twilight turned to Rainbow's voice and forgot that her friends were watching them this entire time, blushing, she got off of Sora and cleared her throat, "Everypony, this is the boy I was telling you about: Sora."

SC276: ROBOT ROLL CALL!

"I'm Rainbow Dash! Fastest flyer in all of Equestria!"

SC276: CAMBOT!

"Name's Applejack, proud owner of Sweet Apple Acres!"

SC276: GYPSY!

"Hi! I'm Pinkie Pie! Ponyville's party pony!"

"My name is Rarity, or Miss Rarity, if you prefer."

SC276: TOM SERVO!

"I'm Fluttershy."

Mono: And Fluttershy apparently has nothing to say...
SC276: CROOOOOOW!

Sora chuckled, "It's nice to meet you all."

"Donald!"

"Spike!"

SC276: Donkey!
UnknownSkull: Spongebob!

The dragon and duck rushed up to each other and high-fived.

"Haven't seen you in a while, Mr. Court Wizard!"

SC276: [Spike] "And I certainly haven't seen you in clothes before. What's with all the-"

[Donald Duck] "Don't. Just... don't. It's a dead meme at this point."

"Same to you, Dragon Dog!"

"Dragon...Dog?" Applejack asked, confused.

"It's a long story." Twilight concluded.

Mono: Something she... hadn't told her friends after coming back?
UnknownSkull: She wanted to spare them the headache.

"Oh, Twilight, this is my friend I was telling you about, the Captain of the Royal Knights: Goofy!"

"Gawrsh, Sora, you're embarrassin' me..." Goofy said, bashfully.

Twilight looked at him quizzically, "He's the Captain of the Royal Knights?"

Mono: Yeah, I can barely believe it myself, Twi.
UnknownSkull: I mean, if he could canonically get a wife and had a son...

"He may not look like it, but Goofy will fight for what's right!" Sora declared.

Twilight smiled, "I'll take your word for it."

SC276: [Donald Duck] "Bah, how would you know what a Captain of the Guard looks like?"

[Twilight Sparkle] "Because the one here would be my brother."

[Donald Duck] "...Oh. (sheepish laughing while backing away slowly)"

"Ahem. Sora? Aren't you forgetting someone?" Jiminy said, hopping onto his shoulder.

"Oh, sorry. This is Jiminy Cricket, another one of my best friends."

SC276: I think the author needs to get his "best friend" umbrella scaled down before it covers the entire planet.

Mono: [Twilight] "...Where?"

UnknownSkull: [Twilight] "And now I regret asking."

"That's right, I travel with Sora and chronicle all of his adventures in my journals."

Fluttershy gasped, "A talking cricket!"

"I would very much like to see your journals sometime, Mr. Cricket." Twilight said.

"Please, call me Jiminy."

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "OK, Jiminy, why weren't you with Sora last time?"

[Jiminy Cricket] "Honestly, it's like a 30% chance anyone remembers I'm even here."

"And to avoid running the risk of being rude, I'm Sora."

"Oh, you don't have to tell us who YOU are, we know," Pinkie had a sly grin, "Chosen wielder of the Keyblade."

Mono: Wait, so she told them about Sora, but not about the fact that Spike was a dog for the entire time she was at CHS?

SC276: Considering like literally all of the Humane Six had a fucking crush on him, I don't know why I expected otherwise.

UnknownSkull: And now I expect their pony counterparts to end up just as infatuated.

Sora turned to Twilight, looking completely surprised, while Twilight shrugged and gave Sora a sheepish, toothy smile.

To Be Continued...

Author's Notes:

I want to try a new segment in the Author's Notes, let me know if you guys like it.

SC276: That is what we, in this circle of the Internet, call an open invitation.

It's time for Jiminy's Journal!

Crazy56U: Can we not and say we did?

New World!

Equestria

Crazy56U: Yeah, okay, sure, wha- (glances down)oh... ..oh God, why...

BittplexMutt: What the....

UnknownSkull: The fuck are you...

Mono: oh jesus

Twilight Sparkle

Crazy56U: It is literally not fucking hard in the slightest to make the image small, I am not asking for much in this fucking world...

BittplexMutt: The giants are attacking us!

Mono: Y'know, as if we don't know what Twilight looks like.

UnknownSkull: ...Guess we found a new way of padding.

Equestria's newest princess. She treasures her friends and friendship in general above all else.

UnknownSkull: "But there's a special place in her heart for moonshine."

She knows about Sora from his and Donald's previous mission, which I missed.

SC276: Like an idiot.

Not much else is known about her..

UnknownSkull: "-other than she's most likely gonna be shipped with Sora."

Rainbow Dash

Crazy56U: Literally. Not. Fucking. Hard. TO SHRINK.

BittplexMutt: They're getting bigger every page!

CaptainPipsqueak: Next they'll be so big we'll be able to count their follicles.

UnknownSkull: Author, this is not an excuse to not write.

CaptainPipsqueak: I dunno; seems as though he's doing us a favour.

One of Twilight's friends; self-proclaimed, "Fastest Flyer in All of Equestria". She is currently teaching Twilight how to fly.

Not much else is known about her..

UnknownSkull: Then stop with the notes until you can make an actual entry.

Applejack

Crazy56U: (glances down) WHY THE FUCK IS THIS A WHOLE FUCKING PAGE-ER?!

BittplexMutt: Brace yourself for impact!

UnknownSkull: Giant Applejack coming at full speed!

One of Twilight's friends; owner of "Sweet Apple Acres". She seem to have a southern accent when she speaks.

Crazy56U: She also appears to be FUCKING GIANT.

BittplexMutt: And she likes apples.

Mono: And that is apparently the only interesting thing about her.

CaptainPipsqueak: Follicles. Soon. I'm tellin' ya.

Not much else is known about her...

UnknownSkull: Probably because there isn't anything else to know.

CaptainPipsqueak: She speaks in southern and she's fucking huge?

Pinkie Pie

Crazy56U: oh thank fucking god

BittplexMutt: The picture could not compute.

UnknownSkull: Pinkie had enough standards to not allow this.

CaptainPipsqueak: She's hopping dimensions, as she often does.

One of Twilight's friends; she is Ponyville's party pony. She is overly excited as it seems, almost reminds me of Sora.

Mono: ...Fucking how?

SC276: She too will, given half the chance, take a giant key sword and beat the shit out of blobs of living shadow with it.

Not much else is known about her...

Rarity

Crazy56U: oh dear god, no

BittplexMutt: Oh no...

UnknownSkull: Oh shit, here we go again.

Crazy56U: Okay, while still big, it isn't a full page-er, so, it's not as upsettin-

SC276: Fun fact: without Google Docs enforcing the width of a "page," this image is like fifteen times bigger than the rest in this chapter!

Crazy56U: i am fucking depressed

BittplexMutt: Well that sucks.

UnknownSkull: ...fucking kill me.

CaptainPipsqueak: Do you have a preference? I have knives, several types of poison, or I could cough on you and see if I have Covid. ... Granted that's not a very quick option.

One of Twilight's friends; acts as a refined individual and is very polite.
Not much else is known about her..

Fluttershy

Crazy56U: Calling it now, same situation as the Rarity picture, this is exponentially bigger than it is in Google Docs, because this Author only exists to upset me, I guess...

One of Twilight's friends; very shy around new people, or ponies in her case, but is very sociable around animals.

Mono: And you know this from her gasping at the sight of you and you alone.
UnknownSkull: "She also has this strange odor around her, like weed or something..."

Not much else is known about her..

SC276: Not much else is known about here not much else is known about her, not much else is known about her. Not much else is known about her? Not much else is known about her!

Spike

Crazy56U: (glances down) why

BittplexMutt: plays Jurassic Park badly

UnknownSkull: At least link it, while you're at it.

Mono: Ooooooh-no...

Crazy56U:

CaptainPipsqueak: LOOK AT YOU... YOU'RE... ALL GROWN... UP...

One of Twilight's friends; knows Sora and Donald from their previous mission, seeing that he and Donald act as brothers and Donald calling him a "Dragon Dog" for some reason.

UnknownSkull: "Probably because everyone refuses to tell me what happened last time."

BittplexMutt: "Because Donald is a jerk."

Not much else is known about him...

Crazy56U: FUCK YOU TOO!

Mono: Well, he has a mouth now, so at least Bitt is happy...

BittplexMutt: Yay.

UnknownSkull: Jiminy, I hate to say this, but you're not an artist.

CaptainPipsqueak: Liar. We all know you loved saying that.

Donald used a disguise spell on Sora, like almost every world, to blend in with Equestria's inhabitants, but mainly for revenge because of a magic mishap from their previous mission.

SC276: At best there's like four that change enough to necessitate a HUD update.

BittplexMutt: Which was not even his fault.

BittplexMutt: Oh thank god, the journal's over.

The journal will update as the story goes on.

Mono: Yeah, please leave the images out next time.

UnknownSkull: Do it for Crazy's sake at least.

Crazy56U: you know saying that means more will show up, how are you this stupid

kh worlds - equestria was made by xilennobody143 from DeviantArt

Sora (pegasus pony) was made by XrosBrony

SC276: My sense of self-preservation was killed by this author.

Mono: Called it!

BittplexMutt: Because let's drag them into this.

Princess Twilight Sparkle Part 1 - Chapter 2: Strange Occurrences

Inside the Canterlot Castle,

SC276: So why is all of this in Canterlot if the world icon emphasized Ponyville?

Mono: yes.

UnknownSkull: You mean they aren't the same city? I'm shocked!

BittplexMutt: Because there can only be one castle in that world.

Sora, Twilight, and the rest of the gang gathered into a hallway of stained glass windows, depicting the history of Equestria, especially one new addition; the coronation of Princess Twilight Sparkle.

"You look amazing, Darling!" Rarity said to Twilight, admiring the stained glass image of her, "They've really captured your regality."

"You can say that again." Sora added in awe.

SC276: And so continues Sora riffing on the movie episode instead of participating in it.

Mono: Would you really call it a riff if he has nothing funny to say? ...Actually, considering Legend was once here, yes, yes you can.

UnknownSkull: Finally, someone that makes my riffs look funny in comparison.

BittplexMutt: [Rarity] "You look amazing, Darling!"

"I suppose." Twilight replied.

"Oh, don't so modest," Rarity began, "it's everypony's dream to someday wear a crown and have their coronation ceremony preserved in stained glass for all to see!"

UnknownSkull: [Applejack] "Even Big Macintosh?"

[Rarity] "Especially Big Macintosh!"

BittplexMutt: Pretty soon, everyone will be a princess.

"I don't know if it's everypony's dream." Rainbow commented.

"It certainly ain't mine." Donald agreed.

SC276: The part of Donald will be played by a robot made from those special parts.

BittplexMutt: Donald wants to be a pegasus.

"Most of my dreams are about frosting!" Pinkie said, licking her lips and moaning at the thought of frosting.

Mono: [Twilight] "Yeah, that's funny, no one asked."

UnknownSkull: And suddenly, Pinkie Pie summoned those weird pervs on the internet.

BittplexMutt: [Twilight] "No one wanted to hear about your frosting kink."

Everyone just stared at her in silence, until Fluttershy broke it, BittplexMutt: Rude.

"We better get going, we don't wanna miss our train."

SC276: [Fluttershy] "I don't even know why we were doing flight training in Canterlot anyway."

[Rainbow Dash] "We already did this joke, Fluttershy."

"Fluttershy's right," Applejack began, "Don't know bout y'all, but Ah still got bushels ta do ta git ready, the official celebration may be here in Canterlot, but, hoo-wee, SC276: Reign in the goddamn countryisms, Jackie, does this look like a Moron fic to you?

UnknownSkull: Well, Legend's nowhere to be seen, so I guess not.

the mayor put us in charge of one heck of a party back home!"

With that said, Twilight's spirits dampened; she was going to stay in Canterlot while her best friends, the ones who always stood by her through thick and thin, were headed back to Ponyville, their home and hers.

Mono: And you can't come with them because potatoes.

UnknownSkull: After discovering the wonders of online chatting in the human world, nothing was the same for Twilight.

"Oh, don't look like that, sugarcube, you git ta be right there with the other princesses when Celestia raises the sun."

SC276: There has to be some drawback to being a princess's eye candy.

UnknownSkull: Like becoming the target to whom drop every single responsibility when not feeling like ruling anymore.

"And I'm honored, really I am, it's just that the Summer Sun Celebration is what first brought us all together, Mono: Well... technically it was a lack of a Summer Sun Celebration that bought you all together...

it just doesn't feel right not getting to spend such a special day with Ponyville friends." Twilight explained.

UnknownSkull: Canterlot friends don't matter. And that's how we got Amending Fences.

"It doesn't feel right to us, either, Darling," Rarity said,

BittplexMutt: "But it's in the script."

"If the mayor wasn't so desperate for our assistance, we most certainly stay here in Canterlot, SC276: [Rarity] "I've tried threatening to shiv her, but apparently you're the only one that knows what that means."

BittplexMutt: [Rarity] "Even though there's a lot of jerks in Canterlot."

and, of course, we do understand that your royal duties must come first."

"Well, that doesn't seem fair." Sora said.

Mono: [Rainbow] "And who asked you anything, punk?"

UnknownSkull: Hey, don't you dare steal our job as ruffers.

"What're YOU gripin' about? You get to stay here with Twilight anyway!" Rainbow retorted.

"Friendship is just as important to me as it is to her."

SC276: Well... they do both get giant power boosts from their friends...

Twilight smiled at him for his choice of words, but quickly frowned again from remembering the current situation.

SC276: A.K.A. because the episode's script requires her to be sad.

UnknownSkull: Or because she realized Sora is the only one staying with her.

"The Summer Sun Celebration may've brought us together, but it's somethin' much bigger that'll always keep us connected," Applejack motioned to a different stained glass and smiled, "Exhibit A!"

SC276: And then the glass fell out and landed on top of them.

UnknownSkull: THE END

It showed an alicorn much bigger than Twilight at the top getting blasted by rays of light from her and her friends, but the weird thing for Sora is that in this image, Twilight doesn't have any wings, which confused him.

Didn't she have wings her whole life? Sora thought.

Mono: Wait... you saw her practicing her flight like that, at least for a little bit considering you walked up to the Mane 6 while they were practicing? Would someone who had wings all her life be that crap at flying?

UnknownSkull: Well, there's Bulk Biceps in Rainbow Falls, so...

"Well I'll be! That's a mighty nice picture!" Jiminy complemented.

"The six of us united by the Elements of Harmony,

SC276: [Sora] "And that involved blasting a pony that looks a bit like Vice Principal Luna but dressed as a supervillain?"

UnknownSkull: [Twilight] "Oh buddy, if only you knew how many problems were solved by blasting them on the face."

no amount of royal duties is gonna change that. Right, everypony?"
Everyone, including Sora and his friends chimed in their agreement, except for one distracted pink pony.

Mono: Even though they have fuck all to do with the Elements.

"Right, Pinkie Pie?"

"Creamy, creamy frosting." Pinkie said, absent-mindedly while drooling and licking her lips.

Mono: [Applejack] "... ...Is it too late to replace her with Cheese Sandwich?"

[Twilight] "confused Who?"

UnknownSkull: Pinkie, stop. You know how the creeps react to this stuff.

Fluttershy rushed to her with a napkin and wiped the drool off her face, "You should take that as a 'yes'."

Everyone smiled while Sora couldn't help but chuckle a little.

SC276: [Sora] "This is a great episode I'm watching and not participating in!"

BittplexMutt: Sora's the worst spectator ever.

The group gathered at the train station to see Twilight's Ponyville friends off, much to her reluctance.

Mono: And they don't know if they'd ever come home.

TOOOOOOOOT!

Mono:Okay, can we all be mature about this and not make any fart jokes?

eyes Pip specifically

UnknownSkull: discreetly chuckles

As the train whistle screeched, it signaled that it was preparing to leave.

"We're gonna write you and give you sooo many details it'll be like you're in Ponyville with us!" Pinkie said in one breath, "Right girls?"

SC276: Wait, they're going to be apart how long?

UnknownSkull: If they can't stand being apart one week, imagine them in this current day and age.

They all chanted, "Cross my heart and hope to fly, stick a cupcake in my eye!"

"And you will be with us right after the celebration," Rarity said as she levitated a bunch of her fashion tools,

Mono: For some reason.

SC276: [the author] "-whatever those are-"

"We already have an appointment on the book to discuss the royal upgrades to your loft décor."
TOOOOOOOOT!

UnknownSkull: Even the train is calling bullshit to her words.

"ALLLL ABOARD FOR PONYVILLE!" The conductor shouted.
Twilight and her friends came together into a group hug and then rushed to the train, but then Pinkie surprised Twilight with another hug before bouncing back to the train, leaving just Twilight, Spike, Sora, Donald, Goofy, and Jiminy at the station.

SC276: Only two of which matter to the plot. Three guesses, first two don't count.

Twilight's friends all waved goodbye for now, until they saw each other again.

SC276: They were still holding their arms up and waving them three hours later.

UnknownSkull: Turns out they never saw each other ever again.

BittplexMutt: Which would be a long time.

Twilight sighed, "I can't help it, guys, they've only been gone a minute and I already feel like I'm missing something."

SC276: That's called having a dependency problem, Twilight.

UnknownSkull: [Twilight] "Or maybe I'm thinking about my booze, I don't know anymore."

"Don't worry, Twilight, I promised I'd find you and I did, your friends promised they'd see you again and I bet they'll keep their promise just like I did." Sora said as he smiled, which Twilight found contagious.

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "Do you usually talk about yourself this much?"

Mono: Pretty soon, half of Canterlot was either smiling or bunkered in their homes during a lockdown.

"I have no idea how you manage to make ponies happy Sora, but you do."

UnknownSkull: [Sora] "I swear I don't have a mind control spell! You can't prove anything!"

"Awww!" Donald, Goofy, and Jiminy cooed.

"Blech!" Spike gagged, earning a glare from everyone.

SC276: I can't fucking believe the most relatable character in this fic is Spike. Then again, given how often our hope dies...

A Pegasus mailpony appeared and handed (or hoofed)

Mono: fuck you a letter to them, "For the princess."

Mono: [Twilight] "...Which one?"

UnknownSkull: [Mail Pony] "The only one that does something."

Spike took the letter as he flew off and began to read what was inside,

*Dear Twilight,
You aren't missing anything.
Your friend,
Pinkie Pie
P.S. Sora's right, you know.*

"THAT'S MEEEEEE!" Pinkie screamed,

Crazy56U: Every glass object in Ponyville shattered all at once.

making her friends giggle at her antics.

Mono: Yes, as opposed to you being Fluttershy.

Crazy56U: Translation:

[Pinkie Pie] "THAT'S MEEE- (is tackled by Fluttershy; is beaten up for screaming)"

BittplexMutt: Because they had to follow the script.

"But I am. I just know it." Twilight said. And I just hope Sora's right.

SC276: And I want to hope that stuff about the KH characters isn't going to just keep being tacked onto the actual episodes, but I read the previous fic.

UnknownSkull: Uh oh, the author is now inserting their thoughts into the narration.

Twilight, Sora, and the others returned inside the castle into what seems to be Twilight's temporary living quarters, SC276: Given they had sold her old place where she was living before she moved to Ponyville. Fluttershy's really hiked the prices recently.

Sora and his friends were looking around while Spike was going over a checklist and Twilight practicing her flying a little.

UnknownSkull: Sora doing what he's best at: Being a prop.

"Check, check, check, check, and...check!" Spike said, "Huh, whataya know? We're way ahead of schedule! I credit your extremely competent assistant."

Mono: [Spike] "Mostly because I did everything while you were 'busy'..."

[Twilight] ``is currently passed out on the floor, an empty moonshine bottle rolling from her hoof''

Twilight flew down to the floor and stumbled a little before regaining her balance, "So do I."
"The celebration isn't until the day after tomorrow, we could still fit in a quick trip to Ponyville and be back in plenty of time to finish off these last few things before the main event."

SC276: Sure, whoever-that-is.

"Sounds like a plan!" Sora agreed.

Mono: Do you have anything interesting to say or are you just going to be useless the entire fic?

UnknownSkull: Yes.

Twilight sighed, "That would be nice, Spike, but what if something else came up while we were gone? What if we were delayed getting back and I wasn't able to finish everything on that list?"

Crazy56U: What if vines attacked Ponyville? Stop speaking in hypotheticals.

UnknownSkull: But what are the chances of that happening anyways?

BittplexMutt: Twilight needs to stop jinxing herself.

She began to flap her wings subconsciously as she panicked, "What if we lost the list on the way to Ponyville and couldn't remember which things we done and which things we hadn't done and then spent so much time trying to figure out what we hadn't done and had done, and then we ruin the entire celebration by not doing the one really important thing that we supposed to do!?" She slammed her head on the ceiling from her involuntary flying and fell back down, stopping her tangent.

"Uh...so that's a 'no' then?" Spike asked.

Twilight got in Spike's face, "These are the first royal duties Princess Celestia has given me, I can't risk letting her down."

SC276: Great work showing concern for your new friend you came all this way to see worrying her ass off and hurting herself on the ceiling, Sora.

UnknownSkull: He needs to wait for his turn to speak, when he can interrupt the script.

"And I'm sure you won't."

Everyone turned to face the owner of the new voice; it was a tall female Alicorn, bearing large, feathery wings and an unusually long horn, the crown on her head matched her regalia around her neck and on her hooves, her mane and tail were like a translucent rainbow of blue, green, purple, and pink, her eyes were a deep violet, much similar to Twilight's, and a sun was emblazoned upon her flanks.

Mono: Y'know, just in case everyone forgot what Celestia looks like.

UnknownSkull: You mean there are more alicorns beside Twilight?

"Your highness!" Spike said as he and Twilight rushed before her and bowed.

Mono: Sooo... is this Celestia also in contact with Mickey Mouse, or...

"No need for that now, Princess Twilight."
"Sorry!" Twilight said.
Celestia giggled, "No need to apologize."
"Sorry!"

SC276: Insert broken record joke here.

Sora, Donald, and Goofy looked at each other and just burst out laughing, earning the attention of the two princesses and baby dragon.
"Oh! I almost forgot!

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "I've been so obsessed with following the episode's script!"

UnknownSkull: [Twilight Sparkle] "Maybe if you had said or done something, I wouldn't have forgotten!"

Princess, this is Sora and his friends, Sora, this is Princess Celestia."
Celestia walked over to them, "So, you are Sora."

UnknownSkull: [Celestia] "Now I further don't understand why everyone wants you in Smash Bros."

"That's right, but forgive me for sounding rude, you act like you've heard of me."

Mono: [Celestia] "I know enough to have you thrown out of Canterlot, yes."

BittplexMutt: [Celestia] "And I have no clue who you are."

"That's because Twilight has told me all about you and all the amazing things you've done for many others in many worlds,

SC276: [Princess Celestia] "-and I'm honestly surprised she fell for it."

UnknownSkull: [Princess Celestia] "-like riffing on what's happening and not contributing in any meaningful way."

I am honored to officially meet you in person." With that, Celestia bowed to Sora.
"Um, thanks." Sora said as he bowed back.
"Also, I am an old friend of your king, whom I met many years ago."

Mono: I FUCKING KNEW IT!

UnknownSkull: Because why the fuck not.

That took the trio by surprise.

"May I add, I'm to believe that you've caught the eye of a certain mare," SC276: He caught the eyes of the entire damn cast, she's not special.

Celestia shifted her gaze to Twilight, who blushed intensely, "But I digress.

Mono: "We have to go back to playing out the episode once again."

I must admit that it is wonderful to actually be looking forward to the Summer Sun Celebration."
"What do you mean?" Twilight asked.

UnknownSkull: [Princess Celestia] "Have you really forgotten what happened last Summer Sun Celebration?"

Celestia gazes out the window to see a dark blue Alicorn at an adjacent tower, "For my subjects, it has always been a celebration of my defeat of Nightmare Moon, but for me," She sighs sadly, "it was just a terrible reminder that I had to banish my own sister..."

Mono: I mean, she kinda asked for it, considering she wanted everypony to freeze to death and die...

Crazy56U: And on the bright side, the alternative was you being evil and Luna banishing you, and we all know how terrible that would be.

"I guess I never really thought of it that way."

"I know how you feel, Your Majesty."

Celestia swiftly craned her neck

Crazy56U:

at the owner of the sudden comment: Sora, who had his eyes focused on the floor beneath him.

Crazy56U: Because the floor is more interesting than this story.

UnknownSkull: Fancy way of saying he fucking fell asleep.

"If Twilight hadn't told you already, my—"

"—Best friend, Riku, had gone through a similar experience as my sister."

Mono: What, banished inside the moon as result of almost killing her own sister?

Sora looked at the solar princess in shock, Celestia just continued, "Twilight has already told me. She also explained a being named, 'Xehanort', and how he had controlled your every movements from the very beginning of your journey."

Crazy56U: i swear to fucking god if nightmare moon shows up in this fic as a heartless

SC276: God, I wish, that would be creative.

UnknownSkull: Why are we whispering, again?

Sora turned to Twilight, who smiled sheepishly, "Is there anything you haven't told her?" He shifted his attention back to Celestia, "I think they should hang out sometime, maybe they can relate to each other and find some common ground."

"Are you certain that you are not trying to have Riku court my sister?"

Mono: HumanXPony femslash? ...Y'know I wouldn't be completely opposed to that idea.

SC276: Lord knows it'd be more interesting than what we got here!

UnknownSkull: This is where we are, people: Actually looking forward to interspecies romance.

"Uh, I don't know what means, but yes?" At his comment, Twilight and Spike had panicked expression, which didn't go unnoticed by Sora, "What?"

UnknownSkull: [Sora] "Why are you acting like they're gonna bang in the middle of a theater?"

Celestia giggled, "I was just teasing, Twilight, no need to get worked up."

Twilight and Spike breathed a heavy sigh of relief, but Sora was just even more confused, "Was it something I said?"

UnknownSkull: You're the salt of the earth, Sora.

"Anyway,

SC276: And back to the episode track on this trolley problem.

the Summer Sun Celebration has now become a wonderful reminder of her transformation back into Princess Luna, and our happy reunion. I am so pleased that you will be playing a role in the festivities.

Mono: Whatever your role might be.

UnknownSkull: She's there to cheer up Celestia.

I know must have been difficult to see your friends returned to Ponyville without you."

"Maybe a little." Twilight lied.

"You may no longer be my student, Princess Twilight, but I hope you know that I will always be here if you need me,

SC276: HA

UnknownSkull: Give it five more seasons and you'll forget about that, Celly.

just as I hope you will always be there when I need you." Celestia nuzzles Twilight, who returns the affection.

"I'll always be there for Twilight, too." Sora says,

Mono: [Celestia] "Silence, fool, no one asked how you feel."

UnknownSkull: [Celestia] "Bold of you to assume you'll live that long."

"I know we've only known each other for a short time, but she's been just as good a friend to me as anyone else I've met, and if she needs me, I won't let her down."

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "I've learned under Celestia since I was a filly, and I've known you for less than two days."

Their tender moment was interrupted by Spike poking at Twilight, saying, "Ahem, I think this guy needs you."

The mailpony from before appeared with another letter, "Uh, um, a message for Princess Twilight."

Twilight took the letter in her magic hue and opened it—

POP!

UnknownSkull: Oh no! Twilight exploded like a balloon!

Twilight smiled when confetti and streamers popped out of the envelope with the sound of applause coming from out of nowhere.

Mono: [Twilight] "thinking Pinkie, I will flay you alive when I'm back in Ponyville..."

Heh-heh, only Pinkie Pie would send something like that. Sora thought as he smiled as well.

"A letter from Ponyville, I presume?" Celestia asked.

"Never mind," Twilight made the envelope disappear, "it's not important."

SC276: [Pinkie Pie] "You're not even going to read it?! Rarity's right, you are a jerk that dunks on everyone's dreams! (runs away crying)"

Spike, where were we?"

"About to call it a night?" Spike asked with a hopeful smile.

"We should probably go over the checklist one more time."

"I knew you were gonna say that," Spike said in a disappointed tone.

"Better safe than sorry, Spike," Sora said.

Mono: Again, Do you have anything new to fucking add?

"Oh! I just remembered! Your necklace!" Twilight begins to levitate the silver crown above, but Sora stops her.

"You know what? Why don't you keep it, at least until after the Summer Sun Celebration?" Sora smiled, "Think of it as a good luck charm."

"O-Okay."

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "Honestly, I'm struggling to find a buyer."

"No wonder you have such deep feelings for him," Celestia whispered, making Twilight blush.

Celestia began to take her leave, "I'll leave you two alone."

"Hey! We're right here, y'know!" Donald yelled.

Mono: [Celestia] "Does it look like I care?"

SC276: [Celestia] "Me knows the episode doesn't!"

UnknownSkull: [Celestia] "Like I said, just the two alone."

(stop music)

After Celestia made her into the hall,

SC276: So, wait, she genderflipped Donald and then... turned her into a hallway?

Yeah, can't blame the music for stopping after that.

UnknownSkull: Is it too early to say the story gave up?

she began to occupy herself with her thoughts, Sora...I have no idea what you are capable of,

Mono: Well, almost murdering a pre-teen is one thing.

but I hope you will be prepared for the dangers that will soon stand before you...please...if something happens to me...keep Twilight safe.

SC276:

UnknownSkull: Sorry Celly, but that's just dooming everyone.

She was so lost in her thought that she failed to noticed the black plant poking out of the floor and creeping up behind her.

"Huh!? AHH!!"

Mono: Aaaand there is our Heartless, I think.

UnknownSkull: Eh, I've seen better plant-based Heartless.

Twilight, Sora, and the others have fell asleep while going over anything they've done; Twilight and Sora nestled together on her workdesk, Spike was asleep in his basket with Donald next to him,

SC276: [the author] "Wait, Donald's still an actual duck right now like he was in the first story, right?"

UnknownSkull: Beds are overrated, anyways.

but with his back facing him,

SC276: [the author] "TOTALLY NOT GAY, GUYS" and Goofy was sprawled out on the bed, snoring up a storm with Jiminy inside the rim of his hat.

Mono: Frankly, it was a miracle anyone was sleeping that day.

Twilight began to stir and noticed that she was with Sora, she blushed, but she didn't freak out like she almost did back in Canterlot High, she smiled down at him with that content little grin on his face.

UnknownSkull: She had finally accepted that Sora doesn't know the concept of personal space.

She rubbed the sleep out of her eyes and looked out the window to see what time it was, only to have a confused, but shocked look plastered on her face, she shook Sora awake and pointed at the sky and almost instantly adopted the same expression. They went to wake up their friends and show them what they saw.

"Spike? Spike!" Twilight whispered.

"Check, check, check, check, check, check, check..." Spike mumbled in his sleep.

UnknownSkull: Turns out Spike was having a bad dream about losing his paycheck.

"Ugh, Sora, I said you're not flying the ship..." Donald mumbled.

"Creamy, creamy frosting..." Goofy mumbled while licking his lips.

Mono: Yeah, Pinkie is currently suing for plagiarism, pal, so I'd better dream of something else fast.

UnknownSkull: At least he won't have the pervs gushing about this.

"I'm comin', Pinoke..." Jiminy mumbled while he appeared to be sleep-running in place.

UnknownSkull: ...Do we even wanna know what he's dreaming?!

"Spike!" Twilight said louder.

"Guys, wake up!" Sora called.

Mono: "The plot is calling!"

Spike grunted as he leaned into a sitting position in his basket

SC276: VISUAL. WRITER.

while Donald put his fingers together and pushed them upwards, cracking his knuckles, Goofy sat up and scratched the bottom of his nose with a single finger,

Mono: All vital details we apparently need to know.

UnknownSkull: Who knows? Maybe there's some McGuffin hidden in his nose.

and Jiminy was taken by surprise by the sudden movement of Goofy and instantly woke up, all while Twilight and Sora had equal looks of worry.

SC276: Because the author cannot bother to keep them apart right ow.
UnknownSkull: You mean Sora isn't just a carbon copy of Twilight?

"What time is it?" Spike asked.

"It's the middle of the night, but it could be morning, that's just it, I can't tell!" Twilight said.

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "That most cursed of days is here: my moonshine drinking finally turned me blind!"

"Me neither!" Sora added.

Everyone gathered to the window and saw a scary sight: both the sun and the moon were in the sky, causing it to split into both day and night.

UnknownSkull: [Donald] "Ok, what the fuck? I'm sure this is against all logic."

"That's...mighty unusual," Jiminy commented.

"You said it," Donald agreed.

Mono: You've seen mermaids and talking lions, Donald, you have seen shit weirder than- well, okay, I guess they aren't weird in the Disney Universe, but still!

SC276: Please, I've seen Mune: Guardian of the Moon. This just turned into a triple crossover. Or is it quad...?

"Whoa. That is weird," Spike said.

SC276: [Donald Duck] "Get in line, ya big lizard."

UnknownSkull: [Donald Duck] "Honestly, after being turned into a regular duck, this is just tame for me."

"C'mon, everypony, we have to find out what's going on," Twilight said.

Everypony in Canterlot gathered into the castle gardens

SC276: That's one giant-ass garden.

after seeing the abnormal sight, not doing anything to hide their fear.

"What do you think it means?" An orange maned, yellow coated Unicorn asked.

SC276: why the fuck do you think we'd care about the colors of the random NPCs

UnknownSkull: Don't you see? It's important to know for when they pop up later!

It was at that moment that Twilight and the gang came outside and saw the mass of worried ponies.

"Princess Twilight will know!" A two-toned blue maned, magenta coated Unicorn called.

Mono: But did he have tight-fitting pants?

All of the Canterlot ponies rushed up to them and bombarded Twilight with questions, which the newly-crowned princess couldn't even answer herself.

"I'm-I'm sure it's just...well, there's certainly a logical exp-"

SC276: [Donald Duck] "Are we going to do anything to help our friend while she's in distress?"

[Sora] "Hmm, nah, it'll solve itself for us."

[Goofy] "Gawrsh, it's like we don't even matter."

"Your Highness!" A gray Unicorn Guard in gold armor interrupted, "You must come with us!"
Twilight, Spike, Sora, Donald, Goofy, and Jiminy

Mono: And Jerry Mathers as the Beaver!

followed the Unicorn Guards into castle and they shut the double doors, leaving the crowd even more distraught than before.

SC276: They're Canterlites, who gives a shit.

"It's Princess Luna and Princess Celestia..." The first guard said.

"They're gone!" The second guard exclaimed.

The princess and her friends gasped in shock.

SC276: Gasp.

UnknownSkull: Oh, so another Friday as usual.

To Be Continued...

Author's Notes:

It's time for Jiminy's Journal!

Mono: Yaaaay?

UnknownSkull: Oh goody, time for more oversized pictures!

Equestria

New!

Princess Celestia

Ruler of Equestria and Twilight's former mentor; they appear to be close friends now, agreeing to be there if they need each other.

UnknownSkull: "Although it seems more like she puts all the chores on Twilight."

Her sister is Princess Luna, whom she had "banished" a long time ago due to her once being evil, but later purified by Twilight and her friends.

Not much else is known about her..

Mono: And the less you know, the better. Especially concerning the whole paint thing.

Princess Luna

Co-ruler of Equestria and Raiser of the Moon; she and her sister, Princess Celestia rule Equestria together. At one point in time, she became evil and nearly took over Equestria while taking on a new persona, "Nightmare Moon", until she was "banished" by Princess Celestia. She was later purified and turned back into Princess Luna.

UnknownSkull: "Now, folks like to treat her like some poor puppy and demonize Celestia for banishing her."

Not much else is known about her...

Mono: And that's pretty much all you need to know about her, except for the fact that she raises and lowers the moon.

SC276: I'm not giving this thing views; someone else check FIMFiction and see if the comment section roasted him alive for this.

Princess Twilight Sparkle Part 1 - Chapter 3: Helpless In Ponyville

The group was in shock, the princesses, both of the princesses, are missing?

Mono: Usually it was only Celestia who was missing!

This was a nightmare come true for Twilight, she knew that Celestia and Luna were the protectors of Equestria as well as their leaders, Mono: Well... you have Cadence... but no one really cares that much about her.

UnknownSkull: She only exists when someone remember the Crystal Empire.

without them, how were they going to figure out what was happening to the sun and moon, and find a way to resolve it?

SC276: I dunno, same way the thing with King Sombra was resolved?

UnknownSkull: Same way the whole debacle with Discord was resolved?

"But I don't understand, where are they?" Twilight asked.

"We don't know, it seems that Princess Celestia and Princess Luna have simply...vanished," the first Unicorn Guard said.

"Vanished!?" Spike exclaimed

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "What are you, a parrot?"

[Sora] "Quick, I'll smack him so he lets go of the lamp!"

UnknownSkull: [Twilight Sparkle] "Goddamnit, now's not the time for your disappearing act, Celestia!"

and then fainted.

"Wait, if they vanished, then why aren't you guys doing anything?" Sora asked.

Mono: [Royal Guard] "laughs loudly Look at this kid, actually thinking we're useful in any way!"

UnknownSkull: [Royal Guard] "...You really aren't from here, are you?"

"This is why we have come to you," the first Unicorn Guard answered when Spike recovered.

"We await your command," the second Unicorn Guard said.

"My command?" Twilight asked, skeptically.

"We're officers of the Royal Guard, we take our orders from royalty, SC276: [Royal Guard] "When means when another royal shows up, we get confused."

UnknownSkull: [Royal Guard] "We are literally incapable of doing things on our own."

with Princess Luna and Princess Celestia gone, and Princess Cadence overseeing the Crystal Empire now, that means we take our orders from you."

"Huh!?" Sora, Donald, Goofy, and Jiminy exclaimed, they were surprised that the weight of Equestria is now on Twilight's shoulders, Mono: Well, I mean... she is a princess.

UnknownSkull: Guess this makes her the Atlas of Equestria.

SC276: [Sora] "I thought that just meant she had a heart free of darkness or something!"

[Donald Dark] "Sora, the Princesses of Heart were a completely different thing!"

who was completely shocked at this turn of events while Spike just fainted again.

"Princess Twilight, there's no time to waste, we need to know what you want us to do."

Twilight slightly panicked; how could she lead the Royal Guard? Something like this is completely foreign to her, so she has no idea what to do.

SC276: Girl, you boss around Spike plenty. You just got a ton of new Spikes with no fire breath and several fewer degrees of competency.

Sora noticed this and tried to think of a way to help her, then, as if a light bulb appeared above his head, he had an idea.

"Twilight," Sora began as Spike regained consciousness, "if you're gonna lead the Royal Guard, what would be the first thing you have them do? What would be top priority?"

Mono: Okay, Sora, buddy? You back the fuck off here. This is the first time twilight has shown any sense of leadership in a major crisis like this, and it's fucking amazing for her character development. You can not take credit like that for shit like that.

UnknownSkull: But Mono, how else can you show they're in love if Sora isn't the one taking the lead over Twilight?

Twilight thought for a minute and gave a face of determination when she figured out what was most important right now.

"I want to continue to search for Princess Luna and Princess Celestia, we have to find them before ponies start to panic, there must be some clue that can tell us what happened to them! If you find something, anything, let me know immediately!"

SC276: [Royal Guard] "...Does that mean we should start looking for them?"
[Twilight Sparkle] "Yes, that means you should start looking for them!"

The two Unicorn Guards saluted before running out of the room, following Twilight's orders to continue the search. Twilight gave a sigh of relief that she could handle being in charge of Equestria at the moment.

"Way to take charge, Twilight," Spike praised while nudging her side.

Mono: Except she didn't do anything.

UnknownSkull: Par for the course for a Princess, I guess.

Twilight smiled and turned to Sora, "I saw what you did there."

He chuckled, "Just helping a friend."

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "OK, so hijacking character building moments counts as being a friend now. Good to know."

Just then, a Unicorn Guard with a brown coat instead of gray barged in, acting all frantic, "Your Highness! News from Ponyville! The Everfree Forest appears to be...well...invading!"

UnknownSkull: [Twilight Sparkle] "This better not be some environmentalist deer plan of retaliation."

Everybody gasped, except for Spike, who fainted...again.

SC276: I am already over this joke.

In the humble abode of Fluttershy, her animal friends appeared to be quite skittish, as if something has severely frightened them.

Mono: WELL, GEE, I WONDER WHAT THAT COULD BE?

Crazy56U: But mostly it was because Fluttershy accidentally spilled the brownie batter.

Fluttershy was carefully making her way around them, so as not to step on any of them. "Oh, excuse me, oh, oh, pardon me," Fluttershy said, then picked up a little squirrel, "Are you alright?" the squirrel just hopped out of her hoof and into her mane, shivering with fear, "My goodness, what is it that has caused you all such distress?"

SC276: They can sense they're in a terrible fanfic.

A bear covered its eyes and pointed a claw to the door, "Whatever it is, I'm sure it's nothing you really need to worry about."
(stop music)

SC276: YOU CAN'T STOP THE SIGNAL!

She opened the front door of her cottage and her iris's shrunk instantly at what she saw;

Mono: Hey, Fluttershy has read some serious fucking hentai, she's seen worse than this.

black vines with minds of their own overgrowing all around Fluttershy's and even scarier, black bipedal creatures, both tall and small, with claw-like appendages on their hands and feet, glowing yellow dots for eyes, the tall creatures' antennae being very long while the small creatures' are very short.

Mono: Her... what?

Mono: And here are the Heartless needlessly tagged on into the fic!

SC276: Honestly, I would've been fine with the Everfree's overgrow being entirely replaced with a Heartless invasion from the Everfree, or even most of the plant attacks being new tree-based Heartless. I mean, them attempting to consume the light of the Tree of Harmony would be a great reason for it waning instead of it just running out of juice after not having the Elements for over a thousand years; returning the Elements could even serve to restore it after they've been cleared out. But apparently the author can't fathom the idea of removing parts of the original episode even to replace them, so a happy fantasy it shall have to remain.

They stopped for a moment and eerily slowly turned their heads to the sound of a door opening and caught sight of Fluttershy.

"AA!!!" She screamed, swiftly slammed the door, and propped her back against it, "No, you were right! You should be worried! Very, very worried!" BANG! BANG! BANG!

Much to Fluttershy's and the animals' dismay, the black creatures are slamming themselves into the door, trying to break it down.

SC276: And much to our dismay, they got to whatever was keeping the tense consistent first.

"Eep!"

Unfortunately, a certain family of apple farmers didn't fare any better, several types of strange creatures gathered there as well; blue furred monkeys had claws on their fingers and toes, SC276: What, no Bouncywilds?

plants embedded into ground with blue bodies, green stems, and orange and yellow flower petals and spines near their heads, spitting seed at the ponies, big black mushrooms with no legs, SC276: See, there's a reason semicolons exist.

stubby arms, and purple tops while giving the appearance of overshadowing their heads, and they all had the same beady yellow eyes and an emblem on their chests: a black heart crossed out in red.

Mono: Why not just make something original

SC276: Mono, he couldn't even link all the damn Heartless he was referencing because he spent all his energy linking the emblem. What makes you think he's even capable of originality at this point?

A lime green, elderly mare with a white mane, orange eyes, and a pie on her flank, wearing an apple imprinted scarf was using her mouth to pull out one of the black vines, only to look up at one of the monkeys, who flicked its finger at her nose, knocking her away from the vine.

SC276: Wow, the Heartless give even less of a shit than we do.

"C'mon y'all!" Applejack called. "Put yer backs into it!"

Applejack was pulling on one of the vines herself, but got knocked on her flank when a seed came flying towards her and hit her in the snout, making the weird plant who spat the seed laughing at her.

SC276: [flower Heartless] "Coulda hit ya broadside, but I didn't, because I'm that freakin' awesome."

A yellow filly with a red mane, same orange eyes as the elderly mare, and wearing a pink bow on her head was pulling out another of the vines that seemed endless. A black mushroom waddled over to her and released a poisonous gas, making her cough and have to run away to avoid getting severely ill.

Mono: Sooo, these monsters are just to annoy them?

SC276: Well, yeah; if they attack them, the plot might change.

A big red stallion with an orange mane, white freckles, green eyes, a half-eaten green apple on his flank, wearing a yoke around his neck was trying to bite at the vines to get a grip on them, but kept disappearing into the ground like, for lack of better term, the game, "Whack-a-mole".

SC276: Y'know, in case you need more evidence the author completely freakin' gave up.

"Eeyup," he said as he bit and missed, "Eenope." He repeated his process a few times, "Eeyup," Bite, miss, "Eenope." Another vine, "Eeyup," but not only did he miss, he got hit in the flank by another flying seed, making him stumble and his upper body ended up on the ground while having a look of annoyance, "Eenope."

Mono: Yeah, regurgitating jokes from the show does not make you funny.

Applejack finally gave up on pulling the vine and let go, knowing that it isn't coming loose, "Dagnabbit! We'd never seem to have trouble with weeds or critters before!" She glared at the vine, trying to get a closer look, "Now that Ah think about it, Ah've never seen these kinds a' weeds or critters at all!"

SC276: You're not even looking at the "critters."

She turned her attention to the rest of her family, "Have y'all?" "Eenope," the stallion answered before getting hit in the flank with a vine and punched in the face by a monkey. "Where th' heck are these things comin' from!?" The onslaught of creatures and vines kept coming, no matter what the farmer ponies did.

SC276: May I suggest trying to fight the creatures instead of just ignoring them in favor of the vines? Like, y'know, not idiots?

"An' what in tarnation is goin' on with th' sky!?" Above them, not only the sun and the moon, but also black clouds that had spikes sticking out of them for some weird reason.

SC276: ...I'm lost, was this also in the episode? (checks wiki) Yes, because the Everfree somehow had plants in the fucking clouds above it.

"Ohhhh, no, you don't!" Rainbow shouted while speeding into the sky after one of the strange clouds, "THIS is Ponyville territory!"

Crazy56U: And as we all know, clouds aren't allowed in Ponyville- wait

And we aren't due for rain until AFTER the Summer Sun Celebration! You Everfree cloud should just head on back to where you belong!"

Mono: Rainbow was also carrying a loaded shotgun when she said this.
Crazy56U: Rainbow is cloud-racist. First person to mention her house gets ignored.
SC276: What about the second person?

She charged into the cloud, only to have it stop her, "Whoa! Urk!" And drop her, but she recovered and returned airborne, "Gonna make me do this the hard way, huh?"

A lightning bolt shot out at her and she narrowly dodged it. From the cloud, three dark auras emerged and took shape into three types of creatures; the first had a humanoid-like body with the same soulless, yellow eyes as the others, navy blue skin that's protected with cyan-colored armor with a single, curly antenna poking out of its helmet, on the ends of its arms were three spikes made to look like three fingered claws, but are made for punching, not swiping,

SC276: how the fuck would something that looks like claws be made for PUNCHING the tips of its legs had a spike where its feet should be, and two large, dark blue, unnaturally curled wings; the second had a glass, bell shaped body with four golden wings, two on each side, held together by a yellow ball joint, resting on a blue spike-like stand,

Mono: Excuse me, did you just make a fucking JoJo reference in your Kingdom Hearts fic?

decorated with two pale gold rings, on the top of the body is a gold topper with a long, curly antenna, and had three, not two, of those empty, yellow eyes; and the third had the appearance of a blue bat with the colors of the tips of its wings and ears a navy blue, a pair of tiny, yellow eyes, a jagged mouth, a silver spike protruding near the base of each of its wings, a short silver chain below it with a large, red hook with a yellow base, and all of those creatures had the same emblem on their fronts.

SC276: Oh sure, NOW you remember semicolons exist.

Mono: I mentally checked out during that entire thing, what happened?

SC276: The author demonstrated his greatest strength: rambling on about something that doesn't matter as much as he thinks it does.

"What the!?"

It wasn't long until four more clouds arrived, each summoning one of each creature, those of which began swooping towards her while the clouds shot more lightning at her.

SC276: The carpool rules had gotten labyrinthe over the years.

"Whoa! Whoa! Hey!"

Just outside of Ponyville, a carousel-like building

SC276: jesus fucking christ stands with its occupants unaware of what is happening in town

Crazy56U: Also known as "an average weekday".

Mono: Rarity is just too good for these peasants.

or that the vines are growing closer to the building. Its owner, Rarity, opened the curtains with magic while humming a little tune and looked out through the window. "Hmm..." Rarity hummed, "Something strange about the sky." She dismissed her thought with a shrug and walked away from the window, failing to notice two of the vines wrapping around two separate support beams, glowing a sparkling, translucent blue.

SC276: Breaking news: the author doesn't know how spores work! Details at eleven.

Just inside, Rarity was levitating a teapot and cup in her ocean blue magic over to her dining table when the translucent glow made its way into her horn, giving its aura the same color.

SC276: Which was... already that color?

She went to pour her tea and instead of going into the cup, it unnaturally went in several other directions. The teapot then flew away and poured its contents on one of her hats on display. "What in the name of common chamomile is going on?"

Mono: Is... is that an actual line in the show? Because I want to know what the fuck the writers were thinking.

A white cat with the hair on top of its head held up by a purple bow and a purple, pearl-studded collar was just licking its paw, until it had tea grazed just above its head and began running from the teapot as it kept firing its tea at the cat.

SC276: The teapot doesn't like Opal either.

"Opalescence, darling, I'm so sorry!" Rarity called to the cat, "I promise I am not doing this on purpose!" Rarity licked the end of her hoof and pressed it against her horn, putting out her magic like small candle, SC276: You no take small candle!

Mono: In Soviet Russia, horn puts out you!

and in turn, stopping the teapot and making drop to the floor and break.

"It wasn't me, I swear!"

SC276: No, the narration described it quite clearly.

The cat named Opalescence glared

SC276: As opposed to the cat named Sherlock Hound, for some reason.

and growled at her owner and turned away in a snooty fashion. Rarity rubbed a hoof on her chin in thought and bared her teeth when she figured out only three fillies could cause something so mischievous, Mono: Diamond Tiara, Silver Spoon and Twist.

one of them being her little sister.

Mono: Yep, Rarity's in for a fucking revelation!

"Ooh, Sweetie Belle, if this is some sort of prank you and your little Crusaders friends are pulling, I find very little humor in it!"

SC276: But Cutie Mark Crusaders Magic Pranksters Yay was three weeks ago.

A white filly with a purple and pink mane and light green eyes was bouncing down the stairs upside-down with her horn's aura having the same translucent glow as Rarity's horn once had. "Rarity! You have to help me! I think something's wrong with my horn!" She said, pointing at said horn for good measure.

SC276: Namely, the fact it's working like that at this point in the canon.

The glow floated off of Sweetie's horn, separating into two, and turned black, forming two of the same type of creature; they each had a purple coat with the crossed-out heart on the front worn over their lavender robes, covering its arms and legs, a witch's hat hiding its eyes, holding a wizard's staff with the top having the appearance of a purple bat and a yellow gem in the center.

SC276: Yeah, in case it's not clear by now, I'm not looking, like, any of these up.

They used their own magic to tear a curtain from the wall.

Mono: Oh no, a... curtain.

"My goodness! What are those things!?" Rarity screeched. Sweetie was so afraid of them that she picked up Rarity's sewing machine and threw it at the one on the left of the curtain, leaving a bruise. "Yes! I hit it!"

SC276: While bouncing upside down?

SC276: [Rarity] "MY SEWING MACHINE!! (gathering the pieces of the wreck) There there, Mommy's got you..."

Then, out of nowhere, other creature just popped up; it has a round, black body with the same emblem on its front, a red collar around its unseen neck, its head resembling an eighth note with those same beady yellow eyes, a instrumental horn as its mouth, and wearing blue earmuffs. It bounced a little and began playing its trumpet mouth and a green aura hovered around the bruised creature, healing its injury. Seeing its bruise disappear, it turned to Sweetie and if you look hard enough, you can it furrowing its nonexistence brow in anger.

Mono: How can you look at something if it's non-existent?

SC276: Well the author clearly wants us to look at the quality of his fic...

Sweetie's eyes widened by degrees, "Uh-oh."

The round creature played its music again, but this time, summoned several of the tall black creatures from Fluttershy's cottage. The magic-using creatures nodded to each other, lit the curtain on fire with their magic, and sent it flying towards the two ponies, who ran from it, screaming.
"AHHHHHHH!!!"

SC276: Oh quit bellyaching, you haven't been with this fic as long as we have.

* * *

Twilight levitated her crown with her as she, Spike, Sora, Donald, Goofy, and Jiminy rushed outside after hearing the news about Ponyville, especially the reports of strange creatures popping up out of nowhere, and Sora had a good guess about what those creatures were.

"Where are we going!?" Spike asked.

"The Everfree Forest is...invading.

Mono: Oh, yeah, and don't mind mentioning the fucking monsters attacking as well!

Whatever is going on, I'm sure we're going to need our friends and the Elements of Harmony to stop it!" Twilight answered. "I just hope we haven't missed the train."

"Uh, Twilight?" Spike began, "There IS another way for us to get to Ponyville, remember?"

"There is?" Twilight asked.

"There is?" Sora, Donald, Goofy, and Jiminy echoed, all while everyone stopped in their tracks at the top of bridge.

Mono: GROW A FUCKING PURPOSE! EVEN IN THE FUCKING PREQUEL YOU AT LEAST DID SOMETHING DIFFERENT!

"Ugh!" Spike exclaimed when he ran into Twilight and nearly fell into the river, but was caught by her wing and pulled back up, "You can fly!"

"Oh! Right!" Twilight said as she put Spike on her back.

"Hey, uh, Twilight?" Sora begun to ask, "Mind giving me a lift? I don't think I know how to use my wings yet."

SC276: How the fuck could she carry him?! It's a question of weight ratios; they're roughly the same size and he's likely heavier than her!

She giggled, "Okay, Sora. Hop on!"

He did as he was told and climbed onto her back, making her blush a little.

sc276: ARE YOU SUGGESTING THAT COCONUTS MIGRATE

"Wait! What about Donald and Goofy!?" Jiminy asked, frantic.

"Sorry, Jiminy, but I can't carry them all at once, I'm still learning how to fly as it is."

Mono: This is the most boring game in the fucking history.

Sora sighed, knowing how futile it is to bring his friends in this current situation, "Sorry guys, but you're gonna have to find another way down."

SC276: And Sora continues to be an insensitive asshole.

With a flap of her wings, Twilight hovered above the bridge before slightly losing her balance, especially with the extra weight, "Whoa!" She quickly recomposed herself and flew off. "AND HOW ARE WE SUPPOSED TO DO THAT!?! " Donald screamed into the sky. "Hmm..." Goofy began to think as he tapped a finger to his temple, "I got it!"

Mono: [Donald] "Oh Jesus, Goofy has an idea..."

"What!?"

"Follow me!"

Goofy ran off to the edge of the mountain that Canterlot stood upon, seeing the luscious landscape before him.

"So what's the plan?" Donald asked.

SC276: [Goofy] "As I understand it, this worked last time. (picks up Donald, throws him at Applejack's face)"

Goofy conjured his shield, tossed it to the ground, just next to the edge, and sat on it. Donald's eyes widened when he saw what Goofy had in mind.

"Oh, no! No, no, no, no, no!"

SC276: [Donald Duck] "Please come up with something that's not this fucking stupid-"

[Goofy] "Well next time, disguise us as ponies too and we could've probably flown!"

Despite his protests, Goofy picked Donald up and held him close, knowing that this was going to be a bumpy ride. With a push of his hand, they slid down the mountain, Donald squawking and screaming while Goofy did his usual, "YAH-HOO-HOO-HOO-HOOIE!"

_____ Mono: You know that's not a fucking cry of pleasure, right?

SC276: Goofy feels our pain.

Rainbow Dash was still trying to get rid of the clouds, but got outnumbered by them and the flying creatures. Down below, Ponyville wasn't faring very well, the vines were still growing out of control, the tall black creatures were now running rampant all over town, and now, a couple of new types have appeared; several very thin humanoids with the same soulless, yellow eyes, clad in dark-colored armor with the same emblem marked on their fronts, and each carrying a sword had just begun chasing three different townspies, who were screaming as they ran;

SC276: how have they not taken the hearts of everyone in town by now another batch of humanoids clad in silver and gray spiky armor with, not one, but two the crossed-out heart emblem upon their shoulder blades, and the beady, yellow eyes, hunting anypony they saw.

Mono: this is so fucking boring my god

Rarity had narrowly escaped the creatures at her house with very few burn marks and got Sweetie somewhere safe, afterwards, she headed into town to find her friends, "Something very strange is going on and—" A giant vine thrust itself out of the ground, conjuring more of the tall back creatures, making Rarity gasp in surprise and ran away from the vine, under the outer roof of the town hall and continued, "—I, for one, would appreciate an explanation!"

SC276: [the author] “-namely, wherever the episode put her.”

Mono: Well, it appears you’re reliving the Season 4 intro, but with Sora and some Heartless tagged on.

Rainbow swooped down close to Rarity, "All I know is the sky's split in two, and these clouds moving in sure aren't from around here!"

"Neither are all these crazy plants an' even crazier critters!" Applejack called out as she pulled on one of the vines with one of the monkey-like creatures jumping on her back, but she finally had enough and bucked it off of her, "Git off me, ya varmint!" The monkey just slammed its fists into the ground a couple times and ran off, "They're comin' from th' Everfree Forest!"

Mono: AND NO ONE MENTIONS THE FUCKING MONSTERS! AGAIN! Even Sora has been acknowledged at this point, the fic literally has no excuse.

SC276: ...That’s what the “critters” are. (ball drops in background)

A bigger vine grew and Pinkie Pie just slid from it like a slide in a playground, "An' try as we might, us Earth Ponies can't do anythang to git rid o' them!" Applejack turned to Rarity, "Don't suppose you know any magic that might stop 'em from spreadin'?"

"Alas, this whole raging forest situation seems to have left my horn on the fritz." Rarity flickered her horn to demonstrate.

SC276: [Rarity] “And even then, for the final time, I can’t teleport.”

Fluttershy, who has escaped the creatures near her cottage, hovered next to Rarity, "We have to figure out something, I don't know how much more of this Ponyville can take." A vine snatched onto Fluttershy's hind leg, making her shriek in fright, until Rainbow kicked it off of her, "I don't know how much more I can take!"

Mono: My thoughts exactly, Flutters...

"The forest is expandin', y'all," Applejack began, "an' judgin' by how fast it's movin', it doesn't seem content jus' takin' over Ponyville..." She looked on over the town and a little ways past it, "Ah reckon before long, it'll cover half o' Equestria!"

SC276: Apparently, it’s too snooty to go for the whole thing.

The vines and creatures kept growing and appearing respectively at an alarming rate, and with the only weapon powerful enough to help them beyond their reach, everypony had no idea how right Applejack was...

To Be Continued...

Mono: Just end...

Mono: I got that.

Princess Twilight Sparkle Part 1 - Chapter 4: Who's Behind All of This?

SC276: The author. Next question.

In the sky of Equestria, Twilight, Spike, Sora, and Jiminy quickly make their way to Ponyville to collect the Elements of Harmony and aid their friends. While flying, they narrowly avoid the spiky clouds, a couple Hookbats, and an Air Battler, Mono: Uh huh, yeah, I would be more engaged if I knew what those enemies actually looked like. Your previous description was such a wall of text everything blended the fuck in.

SC276: Huh. Guess the names blended in so well that they weren't even there.

thus making Spike nauseous and putting on a seat belt that came out of nowhere.

Mono: VISUAL WRITER. Slides SC $20 I hope that's enough for me to use your joke once.

SC276: (takes) It's public domain at this point, but thanks for your donation~

"I'm starting to wish...we'd taken the train." Spike said.

"Almost there!" Twilight said.

"That's good, because it looks like the Heartless are spreading like wildfire!" Sora added.

Mono: [Twilight] "Heartless? Are there Heartless here too?!"

"C'mon, we need to get the Elements of Harmony and find the others!"

With that, Twilight swooped down and charged towards the library in Ponyville

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "(literally barreling through a group of ponies) GET THE FUCK OUT OF MY WAY!" with a determined expression while the boys were panicking.

SC276: Please, Sora, you've been through worse.

"INNNCOMING!" Spike screamed.

Twilight began to panic herself when she noticed that she was going to crash. Thinking quickly, she lit up her horn, teleported into the library, and barreled into a pile of book, except for Spike, Sora, and Jiminy, who were about to hit the window.

Mono: Just the one, running joke.

Crazy56U: Luckily, their deaths would be quick and painless.

"Oh, this is gonna hurt." Sora said.

For some reason, Pinkie's tail twitched

Mono: how do you not know what pinkie sense is do you even watch the show you fucking ass

SC276: whose perspective is this even supposed to be from and she ducked when a giant vine forced it's way into the window, knocking Rarity away, as if she knew it was coming.

"Guess it turned out you were missin' somethin' here in Ponyville after all." Applejack said as she closed the window, cutting the vine in the possess.

SC276: I become increasingly more convinced that English isn't the author's first language. Or that he doesn't give a shit, either or.

The vine created a Neoshadow, which Sora swiftly dispatched with his Keyblade.

Mono: Thus erasing any semblance of something interesting happening.

Rarity was in a daze, but shook it off, "But perhaps you already know what's causing all of this calamity, has Princess Celestia sent you to dispel it posthaste?" Everypony looked hopeful when she said that.

"Not exactly," Twilight began, afraid to tell them the bad news, "you see, Princess Celestia is...well, she and Princess Luna are both..."

Sora, Donald, Goofy, Jiminy, and Spike decided to take the initiative on this one, SC276: Well, Spike took initiative, but then Sora shivved him to take the credit.

"GONE MISSING!!!"

Everypony gasped at hearing the news, with the princesses gone, who would protect Equestria?

Mono:You? You guys have been protecting Equestria for the last three seasons!

"I don't know who has taken them, but I've got a hunch we're going to need the Elements of Harmony to get them back."

SC276: She read the script.

Twilight levitated the glass case concealing said Elements and attaching them to their respective owners.

"Oh, yeah! Just like old times!" Rainbow declared.

"A-boo-yah!" Pinkie said as she hoofbumped Twilight, who walked over to Applejack.

SC276: For some reason.

"Ah told ya we'd always be connected by the Elements," Applejack said to her and sighed, "Now we jus' gotta figure out who to aim these bad boys at, so we can get Celestia and Luna back, and keep th' rest of Equestria from becoming plant and critter food!"

Mono: FINALLY SOMEONE OTHER THAN SORA FUCKING MENTIONS THE HEARTLESS!

SC276: Boy, you really did zone out earlier. (ball drops in background)

As Applejack said that, she held a hind leg on an nearby Shadow's head, making it wipe the air trying to hit her. "Uh, Sora?"

SHING!

Sora dispatched the Shadow as per Applejack's request, "Got 'em."

SC276: OK, look. Donald and Goofy can defeat Heartless at least when in the presence of Sora. Heck, a quick reading of the nature of Heartless on the khwiki.org doesn't indicate that the Keyblade is the only way to defeat them (just the best way, in essence). Barring shit like combat stats, the Mane Six should be able to defeat the Heartless just fine. They don't need Sora to do this for them. You're making these faces of girl power useless without the help of a guy. Gheeze...

"Any ideas?" Applejack asked Twilight.

"Hmm..." Twilight began to ponder the events that has happened so far.

"I haven't found squat in any of the books I'm looking through!" Pinkie said as she was playing with a coloring book, "Oopsies! Missed a spot!" She took a crayon and continued to color, making Sora chuckle at her randomness.

Mono: This was so much fun in the actual episode you fucking hack.

"Half day, half night, strange weather patterns, out of control plants, and rampaging Heartless," Twilight listed aloud, making the girls say, "Heartless?" But Twilight ignored them and continued, "I think I'm starting to get a pretty good idea who we're up against."

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "Namely, absolute fucking bullshit."

On their way into the center of town, Sora, Donald, Goofy, and Jiminy explained to the girls what the Heartless were, what they do to people and ponies, and how they're created. They were shocked that such terrible creatures could possibly exist anywhere.

Mono: You have met the lord of shadows who enslaved an entire empire filled with ponies. The bar is pretty fucking high for you guys.

Once they arrive to their destination, Twilight lights her horn, which activates the gem in her crown, making the girls float in the air with the gems in their necklaces shining as well. They link themselves with a rainbow coming from their Elements,

SC276: Fuck it, I'm desperate. TASTE THE R- (brick'd) which swirls around Twilight and enters into her crown, creating a rainbow tornado that summons... A creature with several different body parts from certain animals unnaturally attached to his body

Mono: Laziest. Way. To describe Discord. Ever.

SC276: Oh, this is Discord? I thought the author suddenly tried to make his own Dream Eater.

taking a shower, singing to himself.

"Winter wrap up, winter wrap u-OH!" He chuckles as he wraps a towel around himself, "Now, Twilight, you know Princess Celestia said that you were to give me a heads-up before you summon me, with that little spell she gave you," he tapped on her crown a few times as he said that, "In case you haven't noticed, I was in the middle of a particularly invigorating shower." He concluded while drying his flank with his towel in front of Twilight's face.

SC276: [Donald Duck] "I feel like I should question this, but then someone might point out my lack of pants."

[Goofy] "Wait, am I the only one wearing pants here? Gawrsh!"

She shoved him away and said, "Enough!" She walked towards him, making him back up in surprise, "Release Princess Celestia and Princess Luna, and stop the Everfree Forest from invading!"

A vine wrapped itself around Twilight and in a flash of light, the creature appeared in its place with a smug look, "Why, whatever are you talking about?"

"Don'tchu play dumb with us, Discord!" Applejack ordered, "We know yer th' one behind all of this!"

Mono: I mean... you're not entirely wrong...

The creature named Discord uncoiled himself from Twilight and popped up on top of one of the houses, taking pictures with a camera that somehow appeared, "Don't get me wrong, I absolutely loooove what you've done with the place," SC276: When the fuck did you start liking everything being black?

He then made his way over to Fluttershy's side, "But I couldn't possibly take responsibility, I'm reformed, don't you remember?" He nudged Fluttershy, emphasizing that she had something to do with his, "reformation".

Did something happen before I came here? Sora thought.

Mono: ...why do you exist?

SC276: Sora, you ain't getting your Mark of Mastery by being this self-centered.

"Yeah, right!" Rainbow flew to Discord, surprising him, "This has got your cloven hoofprints all over it!" He regained his composure and put his eagle claw hand to his chest, "I'll have you know that I have only one cloven hoof." For some reason, a disembodied cloven hoof hopped up Discord's body and swung itself behind Rainbow, kicking her in the flank. Discord and the weird hoof disappeared and just Discord reappear in front of the group and walk away, "Such accusations."

SC276: Much stupidity. Wow.

He stopped and looked back at them with a sad look, "And here I thought we were friends." Then fluttered his eyelashes, giving them a puppy dog face.

"Drop the act, buster!" Pinkie demanded, "We're on to you!"

Discord pressed a finger from his bear hand

SC276: I though it was a lion.

to shush Pinkie, "Ladies, ladies, I'm innocent! Would I lie to you?"

Mono: Well, I mean... yeah, yeah you totally would.

"YES!" The girls said,

SC276: Mono said it first, you slowpokes.

except for Fluttershy, who said, "Um, maybe?"
Discord was dumbfounded, but spoke anyway, "Well then, it seems we've reached an impasse; I'm telling the truth, but you think I'm lying," he used his bluebird and bat wings to fly over to Twilight, SC276: As opposed to his albatross and butterfly wings.

"what do friends like us do in this situation like this," he poked her crown as he continued, "Princess Twilight?" He then put an arm around her, "Congrats, by the way, on the promotion," he used his to stretch the corners of her mouth and let go, "you totally deserve it!" He then proceeded to poke her nose.

SC276: Boop.

"I say we blast him back to stone!" Rainbow suggested.
"Works for me!" Applejack agreed.
"Hear, hear!" Rarity added.

SC276: Ah, the dangers of groupthink.

They prepared the Elements to revert Discord back to stone, who braced himself for the blast-
"Wait!" Fluttershy interrupted, "We can't do that! What if he really is telling the truth?"
Discord smiled with renewed hope, "Well, finally! Somepony willing to give me the benefit of the doubt! The rest of you could learn a lot about friendship from my dear friend Shutterfly here."

Mono: By God, friendship means so fucking much to this guy.

He reached his bear hand and pulled Rainbow close, believing her to be, "Shutterfly", as he puts it.

SC276: It is taking all the willpower I can muster to not go fuck off to my Switch in the face of prose this fucking lazy.

"Um, it's Fluttershy." She said from his other side.
He tossed Rainbow away and used his eagle claw hand to pull Fluttershy close instead, "Oh, right, whatever."
Sora crossed his forehooves, "You're bizarre..."
Discord took notice of his comment flew over to him and his friends, "Oh! And who do we have here? Some new friends? Hold on, let me guess," He waved his bear hand toward Sora, "Sora, the legendary Keyblade wielder, who saved the universe many times over,"

SC276: Twice. At most twice by this point in the canon. Maybe.

then over to Donald, "Donald Duck, the Court Wizard of Disney Castle and one of King Mickey's two best friends," then Goofy, "Goofy, the Captain of the Royal Knights and King Mickey's other best friend," and finally, Jiminy, "and last, but certainly not least, Jiminy Cricket, Pinocchio's best friend, conscience, and now currently Sora's notary for all of his grand adventures!"

"Hey! How did you know all that!?" Donald angrily asked.

SC276: [Discord] "I read Celestia's mail at regular intervals."

"I am Discord, I have approximant knowledge of, well, just about anything!"

Mono: I mean... that's not how you work... You're a reality bending troll, you're not all-knowing, I think...

SC276: He has approximate knowledge of Adventure Time references.

Twilight interrupted Discord's guessing game and tried to get back at task at hoof, "If you're not the one responsible, then help us figure out who is!"

Mono: Aaaand, back to the fucking plagiarism.

"I suppose I could, but after all the hoof pointing and besmirching of MY good name, I just don't know if I'm up to it." He pulled out a pair of knitting needles from...somewhere, and began knitting one of the vines.

"Ugh!" Twilight groaned.

"Why don't you ask your zebra friend if she knows anything?" He added while knitting the vine into an arrow pointing at a zebra, wearing gold jewelry with an African-like sun on her flanks, Mono: That's... ra... cist? ding?

SC276: Well it's more description than Discord got.

lugging a bag and pulling a cart of tribal goods.

"Zecora!" Twilight said as hers and girls spirits brightened.

The group ran over to her and Twilight used her magic to lift the bag off of her back and Pinkie, Fluttershy, Rainbow pull the cart off of her.

"From my home, I've had to flee, the forest has grown too wild, even for me." Zecora explained in rhyme.

SC276: No, REALLY, narrator? I couldn't have possibly guessed!

"Any idea why all this is happenin'?" Applejack asked as a vine snatched her hat, but she eventually got it back.

"I am afraid it is a mystery to me as well, but I may have something that if combined with a spell."

SC276: ...What?

Zecora went into her cart and pulled out a strange bottle of purple liquid, Mono: Conveniently.

SC276: I actually double-checked the original color. For some reason, I thought it was possible the author changed something.

"I do not dare to use it myself, the results would be tragic, it only responds to Alicorn magic."

Mono: And... Zecora just had that laying around... because? And of she specifically brewed it, how did she know Twilight was going to need it, or any Alicorn would need it for that matter?

That said, Twilight looked up at her horn and then her wings. "Princess Twilight, you can turn the potion from purple to white, after a sip, you may see why the sky is day and night."

Crazy56U: cough

Crazy56U: Just saying: even in the original episode, the flashback portion is very clearly padding.

Mono: ...I give you the first flashback, but the second one at least sets up the existence of the Tree of Harmony for later. Please argue with me about this, anything is better than continuing.

Twilight used her horn and shot raw Alicorn magic into the bottle,

SC276: [Legendbringer] "What magic?"

turning the liquid white,

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "(mortified) oh sweet baby jesus, what the fuck did i do" just as Zecora said.

"Ooooooh!" Pinkie cooed in awe.

Everypony looked uncertain about this,

Crazy56U: [Rainbow Dash] "(scared) Did... ..did Twilight turn that potion into--"

[Applejack] "I will fucking set myself on fire right here and now if the next word you say is in fact the word I think it is."

[Rarity] "(disgusted) I'm gonna fucking hurl..."

[Fluttershy] "(had decided leaving was the better option)" even Sora and the gang. Just when Twilight lifted the potion off the ground, they all heard a clinging sound and turned to see what it was and saw an army of Heartless headed their way;

Mono: As opposed to an army of darkness. Or an army of dankness.

SC276: Or a harmy of Deartless.

Armored Knights, Dual Blades, and even Shadows and Neoshadows appearing from the ground.

SC276: Yeah, those two are the surprise entries.

"What the hay!?" Rainbow exclaimed.

"They must've sensed the magic from the potion!" Twilight said.

SC276: Really. The potion. And not YOU, the most magical unicorn of your time.

Sora summoned his Keyblade as Donald and Goofy prepared their own weapons, "Don't worry, Twilight! We've faced way worse than this!"
"Yeah, back in Radiant Garden, when that Heartless army appeared!" Goofy added.

SC276: [Goofy] "Except it wasn't called Radiant Garden at that point-" [Donald Duck] "Goofy!"

Sora craned his head to face Twilight, "We'll handle things here, you just find out who's behind all this!"

"But Sora!" Twilight's plea was on deaf ears as they ran into battle, yelling a battle cry. Twilight just decided to trust Sora and drank the potion, Crazy56U: "-despite the fact that the others, excluding Pinkie, were repeatedly screaming in disgust."

Mono: WHY WOULD YOU CHOOSE TO REGURGITATE THE FUCKING PLOT WHEN THERE IS A FUCKING ARMY OF HEARTLESS, THAT MIGHT BE ACTUALLY INTERESTING! BUT NO, THE FUCKING COPYING OF THE SCRIPT MUST GO ON BECAUSE YOU HAVE THE CREATIVITY OF A GODDAMN DRIED WALNUT! FUCK YOU AND EVERYTHING YOU STAND FOR!

SC276: (sniffs, wipes away a tear) They grow up so fast...

she licked her lips when nothing happened, "Doesn't seem to be workin-" Her words came to a halt when her eyes glowed white and world around her changed.
(stop music)

SC276: CAN'T STOP WON'T STOP

Twilight shook her head and found herself in some kind of throne room with a dark blue throne and a yellow one. She is unfamiliar of this place. "Where am I?"
"Not. Another. Step."

_____ Mono: STOP RIGHT THERE, CRIMINAL SCUM!

The mysterious voice came from a dark blue Alicorn with a translucent mane imitating the stars in the night sky, wearing black regalia on her body, sparkling light blue regalia horseshoe on her hooves, and a black tiara with the moon surrounded in darkness adorned her flanks, who came from behind the dark blue throne with a scowl upon her face.

SC276: Funny how she, with her single color palette, gets more description than Discord. Lazy ass.

"Princess Luna!" Twilight exclaimed as she walked over to her, "I don't understand, where are we? Why did you and Celestia disappear?"

Princess Luna remained silent for a moment until she spoke, her words containing malice, "Did you really expect me to sit idly by while they all bask in your precious light!?"

Mono: [Celestia] "chuckles Cute... you think you can threaten me?"

"Precious light?" Twilight echoed.

Princess walked to the bridge in the center of the two thrones, "There can only be one princess in Equestria!

SC276: And that's written... where now?

And that princess...will be ME!!"

She reared up and stomped her forehooves, smashing part of the bridge.

SC276: I've been looking up screenshots to keep track and I'm amazed whoever built the Castle of the Two Sisters went with such a dumbass throne design.

a large crack began to form into the wall behind her as a dark shadow loomed over it and shattered the stained glass and its frame, startling Twilight. Luna lit her horn and raised the moon over the sun, causing a solar eclipse.

Mono: yes, that is how the sun works

She lost control of herself and became surrounded in darkness, creating a menacing orb of flaming magic, which Twilight stared in horror at the sight. The orb soon turned black, then a translucent blue, and exploded, revealing Princess Luna, who has changed drastically;

SC276: But not in any way that indicates this is a world that exists in the universe of Kingdom fucking Hearts.

the pupils of her eyes narrowed, giving them a cat-like appearance, her teeth have gradually sharpened, her wingspan has grown in length, and her regalia have turned into blue armor, adding a helmet.

"HA-HA-HA-HA-HA! HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA!! HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA!!!"

Mono: The part of Nightmare Moon will be played by Mandark.

She laughed manically as the eclipse soon turned into the normal glow of the moon. Twilight was in shock and fear of what stood before her, it was no longer Princess Luna, Mono: There was only Zuul.

SC276: ZALGO COMES until he realized the destination was this fic and backpeteled so hard he started skipping dimensions.

it was the monster that she and her friends have fought once, the monster she thought was gone for good...

Nightmare Moon.

Mono: Well... shrugs At least she's not a Heartless?

SC276: Oh, you didn't want this to be interesting?

"There can only be one princess in Equestria! And that princess...will be ME!!" Luna screamed as she turned into Nightmare Moon.

"HA-HA-HA-HA-HA! HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA!! HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA-HA!!!"

Mono: Again with the Mandark thing... You know you don't have to copy-paste the fucking "previously on" section, right? In your fucking reality, this is a game, remember? What game does this?

Mono:

SC276:

The darkened mare continued to cackle until she bared her fangs in anger, making Twilight began to back away in fear as she blasted the ceiling with the magic from her horn. Large fragments of said ceiling came crashing down, nearing crushing Twilight when she jumped out of the way.

SC276: If she was almost crushed when she jumped out of the way, doesn't that mean that she shouldn't have jumped?

She looked up from where she laid to see Princess Celestia, sadness in her features which changed stoic.

Mono: WHAT?

The dust from the collapsed structure began to clear as the dark Alicorn strode into view with an unreadable expression. Celestia flew into the air as her former sister attempted to blast her out of existence, but narrowly missed and left a gaping hole that revealed the glowing moon.

SC276: "Take one last look at your precious human moon! Because it cannot help you now!"

As Celestia landed, Twilight ran in front of her former mentor and tried to reason with her sister. "Luna! Think of how long you were banished to the moon! You'll give us no choice but to send you back there if you don't stop!"

Celestia then spoke, as if Twilight wasn't there, "Luna, I will not fight you! You MUST lower the moon! It is your duty!"

"Luna?" She began, "I am..."

Mono: JOHN CENA! doo do do doooo ...What, I have to fucking entertain myself in some way...

Nightmare Moon!" Twilight stared at her in horror when referred herself with her former name, "I have but one royal duty now. TO DESTROY YOU!"

SC276: That sounds like one pretty damn short duty.

She flared her horn to life and fired another beam toward Celestia, who flew out of the hole Nightmare created, she smirked as she spread her wings, like she had some sick thrill from chasing her sister in this type of situation, "And where do you think YOU'RE going!?" With that she took off as Twilight quickly gave chase.

SC276: Can we get back to the bloody crossover already...?!

Nightmare Moon attempted to blast Celestia out of the sky with her magic, but nearly every shot missed and hit a piece of the city they were in instead; buildings, bridges, even the ground,

Mono: Many ponies died that day, it was a sad time.

until Nightmare finally made a direct hit and sent Celestia falling back through the hole she flew out of, screaming in pain.

"AHHHHHHHHH!!!"

"CELESTIA!!!" Twilight exclaimed as she flew to help her.

Nightmare Moon cackled in victory, believing she has struck down her sister. Her laugh echoed even in the throne room as Twilight landed and gazed upon her former mentor's body, lifeless and unmoving. Tears came freely from her eyes as she whispered, "No! Why would Luna do this? Why now?"

SC276: So, since the battle went outside for a bit, you think Twilight would notice that the sky currently isn't split in half.

Twilight began to sob uncontrollably. She noticed movement from Celestia and stopped to see that she was okay, "You're alright...you're alright!" Twilight was happy that she didn't lose Celestia, but frowned when she didn't notice her, like she wasn't even there, "...Princess Celestia?"

Mono: [Celestia] "Not now, bitch, I'm supposed to ignore you."

"Oh, dear sister, I am sorry, but you have given me no choice but to use...these!" Celestia lit up her horn and opened a hidden door in the floorboard, which a strange mechanism raised an unusual podium that held five gems and a stone sphere at its top.

"Are those...the Elements of Harmony?" Twilight meekly asked, "But that's how they looked in..." Her face had an expression of realization, "the past."

SC276: And the last pony crosses the finish line.

Celestia flew up to the podium with determination upon her features. "This is the night you banished her."

Celestia horn came to life once more and levitated the Elements to her, especially one within the sphere, which had the appearance of a six-pointed star, much like Twilight's Cutie Mark.

Mono: Sooo... was it destiny that Twilight would become Celestia's student? I mean... how could she know for certain a pony with exactly the same cutie mark would be born much later in the future?

SC276: There's an easy way to answer that question, but that would require this to be a Bionicle crossover. Hmm, maybe I should start looking...

When the six Elements were gathered, they swirled around Celestia, SC276: When the five horns cross, the golden soldier Thouser is born! Presented by ZAIA.

increasing in speed as they gave her power; she gave off a rainbow light as the Elements' magic flowed through her, her light was so bright that even Twilight had to shield her eyes with a hoof. She removed her hoof and gazed at Celestia in awe as she took to the sky to face Nightmare once again. The darkened mare's eyes and horn glowed as she prepared another magic beam.

SC276: Now firing ~~Orbital~~ Friendship Cannon.

Celestia began to shed tears at what she was about to do; she charged her own horn and combined the Elements' to magnify her magic. The two fired their beams, but this time Nightmare Moon was the one being overpowered, Celestia pushed her magic back as her former sister's cat-like eyes narrowed in horror.

"NOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO!!!"

Mono: No. ding

Celestia used the power of the Elements of Harmony to banish her to the moon, which with a rainbow shockwave, magically obtained craters that gave off the appearance of a horned pony.

(stop music)

A flash was seen

SC276: By who? Twilight? Celestia? The camera?

and another vision came to be, only it was an area that nopony, not even Twilight was familiar with. "What is this place?" She asked.

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] “~What’s this? What’s this? There’s color everywhere...~”

Out of the corner of her eye, she saw a certain spiky-haired boy in his human form, running over to two distorted figures in the distance.

Mono: Oh fuck OFF

"Sora!?"

But he did not respond, he still continued his trek.

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] “Should I... follow him, or...?”

"Riku! Kairi! I found you!" He exclaimed as he put his hands on his knees, panting.

"Riku? Kairi?" Twilight questioned.

Mono: Psycho Mantis?

Sora's friends turned around and stared at him blankly, until they became distorted.

"Huh?" Sora said.

Then, out of nowhere, two unknown individuals took their place; one male, one female.

SC276: ...I don’t like what your music choice is implying.

"Who..."

"Ven." The male said.

"Ven." The female said.

Mono: ...Ven?

Sora didn't notice it himself, but his appearance had changed, making him look like somebody else.

"Huh?" He said as looked at both of them.

"Roxas!?" Twilight exclaimed, but then took a closer look, "No...it's different."

SC276: OK. Author. I don’t know how the fuck you intend to make use of how Ventus’s heart is with Sora in this story - for those out of the loop, basically, Sora is the heart equivalent of a clown car - but the fact you’re TRYING when you haven’t even paid off showing off Roxas last time indicates you’re out of your cotton-picking mind.

They held their hands out to him, as if they wanted him to come with them. He was hesitant at first, but then tried to grasp them, only for the two unknowns to distort, making him retract his hands.

They turned around and walked away, becoming Riku and Kairi once more. With a determined look, Sora, regaining his normal form tried to chase after them, but somehow becoming super slow.

SC276: When did Sora get the Chaos Emeralds...?

"What is going on?" Sora asked, his voice slow and echoing.

Mono: Yeah... your guess is as good as mine, buddy.

He kept running, grunting as pushed himself to go faster, but to no avail.

"Sora! Don't! You've gotta wake up! Sora!" A mysterious voice spoke, it was barely audible, but Twilight heard it.

"A voice? Is it one of Sora's friends? And what does it mean by 'wake up'?"

Mono: ...To awake from a slumber? duh

Sora barely paid attention to the voice, he was just focused on getting to his friends, who had turned into the two unknowns again, then they just disappeared and world around Twilight and Sora twisted itself until Sora was running toward a strange skyscraper.

Mono: ...Suddenly Devil May Cry 2?

SC276: what the fuck do the Nobodies have to do with this "Wait!" Sora called as he reached his hand out.

He kept running until a small light appeared and shone brightly, engulfing Twilight and Sora. When it died down, Twilight found herself on a beach with the sun setting. She jumped when she saw Sora and Riku as kids running past her.

"What the hay is going here?" She asked no one in particular.

Mono: I'd tell you if I knew myself!

SC276: And now we're on the Destiny Islands in the past, Jesus Christ Superstar, this series is already labyrinthe enough without the author losing coherency!

Then the female unknown was walking along a bridge just above the two children and jumped down to them. They conversed with each other, but Twilight couldn't hear a word. The female unknown patted their heads like they were her little brothers and smiled.

"What..." Was all Sora could say.

SC276: Join the club.

Then, everything became wavy and the unknown changed into a man with long, silver hair, deep tan skin, and wearing black and silver clothing.

SC276: OK, so from my best guess... the fuck is Xemnas doing here?

When he began to turn around, Sora was forced into the air as white flashed into his and Twilight's eyes.

"AH!"

SC276: I'd say the author thinks he's being clever, but I've seen the rest of this fic and so I'm certain it's just attempting to imitate Nomura's writing style for this series without any idea of how to actually do it.

(stop music)

Twilight found herself on a bridge of broken buildings when she saw a light falling out of the sky and crashed into the bridge just in front of her. The light dimmed to reveal Sora and in front of him, a certain eyepatch-wearing gunslinger.

Mono: So when are we going to the Tree of Harmony, then? And why does Twilight have to see all this?

SC276: Especially considering the Kingdom Hearts stuff literally doesn't matter.

"YOU!" Twilight shouted, but it went completely unnoticed.

"Oopsy-daisy." He said, sarcastically, "Wasn't easy putting you into a second sleep, and he almost woke you up."

"He? Second sleep?" Twilight then realized something, "This was Sora's adventure in the 'Realm of Sleep' I think he called it."

Mono: excuse me what the fuck is going on?

SC276: I think this is supposed to be the last world of Dream Drop Distance, but all it's doing is confirming that alicorn magic apparently makes that potion into a hallucinogen.

Sora was now wearing an entirely different outfit as struggled to stand up, "So then, all that stuff I just saw—did you put that in my head?"

"No. That wasn't 'stuff'.

Mono: Does... does Zecora know how to get to the realm of sleep?

It was a dream. The falling asleep part was definitely our bad. But we can't put stuff in your head. Hey, I got an idea. Ask your heart. See if it's got a clue." Braig replied.

"Well...my heart was aching. That's why I kept going."

"Ohh...thank you, Sora's heart, for pushing him right into our clutches. Aren't hearts great? Steer us wrong every time."

Twilight grit her teeth at Braig's words, "You...you jerk!"

SC276: Literally the only way this scene is possible is because Dream Drop Distance had a cutscene replayer.

"You know, right? Because you all have hearts! Axel and Roxas and Naminé and that other girl!" Sora said.

"Naminé? Other girl?" Twilight inquired.

SC276: Metal Gear?

"I felt what Roxas felt and...they laughed together, got mad, and they grieved. You have to have a heart to cry."

Braig chuckled, "It's about time you noticed."

"Indeed." A voice spoke; a Corridor of Darkness opened behind Sora and out came a man with long, but spiky silver hair and deep tan skin, wearing a familiar black coat, it was Xemnas' voice.

Mono: Sure, now Sora is involved in Twilight's dream I am completely fucking lost at this point and I know this sounds weird but can we please go back to the plagiarism?

SC276: We already have.

"A heart is never lost for good. There may have been variances in our dispositions, but a number of us unquestionably showed signs of a burgeoning replacement." Sora turned to face Xemnas as he continued. "Once born, the heart can also be nurtured. Our experiments creating Heartless were attempts to control the mind. And convince it to renounce its sense of self."

"W-What...!?" Twilight whispered.

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "I have even less context to know what's going on here than the people that actually played the game! Why the fuck am I seeing this?!"

"But understand, one can banish the heart from the body, but the body will try to replace it the first chance it gets, for as many times as it takes. And so I knew, even after we divided into Heartless and Nobodies, it was just a temporary separation."
Sora put a hand to his chest, "Why, then?" He asked. "Why did you lie to them and tell them they had no hearts!?"

SC276: [Xemnas] "Because I'm a liar."

Mono: [Xemnas] "Because I like you!"

"Xemnas and Xehanort formed the Organization for a specific reason—round up a bunch of empty husks, hook them up to Kingdom Hearts, then fill them with the exact same heart and mind." Braig answered. "Translation—they were gonna turn ALL the members into Xehanort."
"Make more Xehanorts?"

SC276: Metal Gear?

"N-No...! That's not possible!" Twilight denied.
"You tricked your friends to..." Sora shook his head, "but you—aren't you scared of just turning into someone else?"
Braig sneered, "Me? I'm already half Xehanort."

SC276: And a meme is born.

Twilight took a closer look and saw Braig only eye; it was a sickly yellow. Maybe Xehanort had the same eye color. A swift chill ran down Twilight's body when she thought of that possibility.

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "Rarity would consider more than one person having that eye color a fashion disaster."

"That's nuts..." Sora uttered.

SC276: Said the entire audience when they got to this cutscene.
Mono: This entire fucking story is nuts...

"However—" Xemnas spoke, "through weakness of body...weakness of will...or weakness of trust—most of the original members we had chosen for the Organization were inadequate. Thus, naturally, they never had a chance to attain their goal. Yet, even this was to be expected."

SC276: [Xemnas] "What we were doing wouldn't work, we knew it wouldn't work, but we did it anyway."

Sora gasped, then grit his teeth as he slightly growled.

"We have learned of the heart's folly, and we have achieved our other goals. This last excursion has proven to be a worthy closing assignment for the Organization."

"Monsters..." Twilight muttered, then raised her voice threateningly, "YOU'RE MONSTERS!! EVERY LAST ONE OF YOU!!"

Still no response.

Mono: because everyone in this world is a fucking idiot apparently.

"Just stop it!" Sora said to Xemnas, "You treat people's hearts like bottles on a shelf, but they're not!" Sora summoned his Keyblade as he entered his battle stance, Xemnas just stared at him, "Hearts are made of the people we meet, and how we feel about them—they're what ties us together even when we're apart! They're what...make me strong."

Twilight looked at Sora, "The rules of Sora's world are similar to ours; the power of the heart AND the Magic of Friendship."

SC276: Sora's world is LITERALLY THE GODDAMN MULTIVERSE. How has the author not fucking figured it out.

Braig stared at him for a moment, then he had an idea to weaken Sora's spirits, "Duh! You're strong because of the ties you have with other people. As if the Keyblade would choose a wimp like you." Sora turned to face him as he finished.

"W-What...!? The Keyblade didn't...?" Twilight couldn't find her voice.

"But no pouting. We see much bigger and better things in your future...once you side with us." Braig held his hand out to Sora.

Sora looked back at his Keyblade and gripped it tighter, "I know the Keyblade didn't choose me, and I don't care."

SC276: Technically, you were its second choice, so... still means it chose you.

"I'm proud to be a small part of something bigger—" Sora looked back at Braig, "the people it did choose." Braig gasped in shock at his words. "My friends. They are my power!" Then out of nowhere, a bunch of people appeared beside Sora, Twilight recognized some of them as Donald, Goofy, Roxas, and King Mickey, but he's wearing black clothing instead of his usual attire and wielding a star-based Keyblade. There are also some people she doesn't recognize; the three unknowns, two girls, one in pink and one in a familiar black coat, and a boy with silver hair.

Mono: And Jerry Mathers as the Beaver, don't forget him.

SC276: What, not going to describe their clothing in more intimate detail. What makes the Heartless so damn special they get description priority?!

Mono: Yes.

Xemnas stood undeterred by Sora's words, as if they meant nothing to him, but Braig on the other hand is completely surprised.

"Those are just are words. You've lost." He says, then grits his teeth and growls before speaking again, "Fine. See where your power gets you here." Braig turns his attention to the man behind Sora, "Xemnas! He's all yours!" Then disappears in darkness.

SC276: He's got the right idea.

Sora turns around to face Xemnas, who raises his arms and two pieces of the abnormal bridge, which look like buildings split in half, hover into the air and by his side as he hovers with them. Both he and Sora get into their battle stances as a bright light over takes Twilight.

"SORA!" She shouted.

SC276: KHAAAAAAAAAN!

Mono: NEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEERD!

(stop music)

The light in Twilight's eyes began to fade as she came back to reality,

Mono: floats upwards Goddammit, not again...

she looked around and saw her friends, as well as Zecora, gazing at her worriedly.

SC276: God, finally. We're lucky the cutscene replayer didn't include the boss fight, or we'd be here forever.

"Why are you all looking at me like that?" Twilight asked with a quizzical expression.

"It's jus'...you were mumblin' to yerself..." Applejack began.

"Oh! And don't forget the uncontrollable sobbing!" Pinkie added.

"We were really worried about you." Fluttershy said.

Discord popped on top of one of the plants laying down on his belly, "I, for one, found it dee-lightful!

Mono: Discord is a sadist. Re-confirmed.

Sort of a one-pony theater piece, if you will." He moved next to Twilight and unraveled a poster of Twilight bawling her eyes out with sounds of a crying baby, "You should really consider taking it on the road."

SC276: I can't believe I fucking missed this...

"Did you find who's rump we need to kick, and where we can find 'em?" Rainbow asks while striking a karate pose.

Twilight was about to speak, but Sora interrupted her as he, Donald, and Goofy returned from their battle, "No worries for now, guys, we took out the Heartless.

SC276: [Sora] "Not sure how, since the author doesn't know anyone that shows the game's normal battles."

Mono: Off screen, because God forbid we see anything that's actually interesting...

So, what did we miss?" Twilight furrowed her brow and stomped over to Sora, "Twilight? What wro—" she slapped his muzzle before he could finish. "Ow! What was that for?"

Her anger didn't falter, "The Keyblade didn't really choose you, did it?" She asked, bluntly.

A collective gasp came from the entire group, even Discord, except his sounded more exaggerated.

Sora went wide-eyed and was at a loss for words, with his demeanor changed, Twilight took it as her chance to continue, "When I drank the potion, I saw two visions, one of them being you in the Realm of Sleep; Braig said the Keyblade didn't choose you and you even admitted it."

SC276: This "friends stop being friends for awhile" excuse couldn't be more forced if it was a field.

Sora became sad and lowered his head.

Twilight used her magic to pull his ear toward her, "Tell me the truth and stop lying to me." She growled.

Sora sighed, but complied and told her what he knew about his reason to wield the Keyblade, despite the fact that it didn't choose him.

SC276: [the author] "Those reasons being... .."

Twilight was surprised, but retained her angered expression.

Sora looked Twilight in her eyes, "Twilight...I'm sorry. I should've told you the truth from the beginning. I feel like the worst friend in the world for lying to you."

Twilight sighed as she softened her gaze, "Just...promise you'll never lie to me again, and you'll tell me the truth about anything else you're hiding from me."

Mono: ...Well, that got resolved fucking quickly!

"I promise."

They smiled as they looked into each other eyes, anger and betrayal forgotten. Until a certain cyan Pegasus clears her throat in annoyance.

"Can we stop with the mushy stuff and get back to what's important?"

SC276: [Rainbow Dash] "Time to get back on script, chop chop."

(stop music)

"Oh! Right, sorry." Sora said.

Twilight turned her attention back to the group, "About the other vision, I saw something from a long time ago, but it didn't explain what's happening now."

Mono: ...Why not just tell them what you saw?

Zecora and Spike walked up to her as the former spoke, "Perhaps farther back still are the answers you seek," she held out her hoof holding the vial to Twilight, "another sip of the potion will give you a peek."

SC276: Time to get high and rip off cutscenes again.

Mono: yaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaay

Twilight levitated the potion as Spike voiced his question, "Are you sure about this?" She looked at everyone else for their take on the matter, but they were as unsure as Spike was. Throwing caution to the wind, she proceeded to take a sip of the white liquid once again. Discord appeared out of nowhere wearing an old-timey director's outfit with a beret on his head, a long, thin moustache adorning his upper lip, and using an old film camera. "Oh, I do hope she breaks into a song this time!" He says.

Mono: Keep hoping, Discord...

Sora turns to the girls with a confused look on his face, "Guy's a broken record."

SC276: [Sora] "(is promptly buried in an avalanche of clapperboards)" [Discord] "I do enjoy teaching hard lessons."

Twilight's eyes flash brightly as she enters another vision.

The light in her eyes dim down as she comes face to face with another vision; for some reason, a school of fish were swimming in midair instead of water, the ground's appearance had all kinds of multicolor checkerboard patterns, the sky was purple, and several homes sat atop floating islands.

SC276: A situation she should recognize, but the author didn't, so...

In the distance, Celestia and Luna of the past were walking towards a strange throne at the top of a hill, but they weren't alone: a boy in his teens with black, spiky hair and wearing white and silver robes walked beside them.

SC276: Wait, what?

Mono: are you fucking kidding me

"Who is that?" Twilight asked aloud.

SC276: Off the top of my head, I can't think of any Kingdom Hearts character that matches that description - only like two have that hairstyle, one of which is a variation of Sora and the other doesn't wear colors close to those.

They stopped in front of the hill as the throne's back was turned to them, Celestia craned her head down to briefly talk to the boy, "Be ready, young Eraqus."

SC276: oh jesus h christ

He nodded and summoned his Keyblade.

SC276: You're telling me a human that has an age approximating the younger end of old man when Sora was a kid... was ALIVE OVER A THOUSAND YEARS AGO?! And we thought "Moonlight, Moonlight" had no sense of fucking time!
Mono: i fucking hate this so much

Then the throne spun around to reveal Discord of the past.
"Oh, ho, ho, ho," he chuckled, "this is SO much fun! How about a game of 'Pin The Tail On The Pony?'" He emphasized his point by pulling a ethereal tail out of thin air, which turned out to be Celestia's tail, seeing it made her turn around and gasp when she found that her tail was actually gone.
"Playtime is over for you, Discord!" Celestia declared as she returned her attention to him.
Discord brought a bag of black seeds and started spreading them around while had a bored expression, "Oh, I doubt that."

SC276: OK, he wasn't intentionally spreading them. He was obviously spilling them accidently because he didn't care enough to not be sloppy. Are you just incapable of inferring from what you see? It's starting to look like a legitimate problem.

He plucked one of the seeds as they fell out of the bag and shuddered in the delight when he ate one, "Hungry?" He offered. One seed bounced off each of the three's heads as they maintained their serious demeanor. Discord shrugged, "Suit yourselves." And he kept eating and spreading the little specks.

SC276: DO YOU NOT KNOW WHAT SPILLING IS

Celestia and Luna focused their magic and levitated the Elements out of their saddlebags while Young Eraqus readied his battle stance.

Mono: Yeah, bold of you you're going to do anything in this fight, Eraqus.

Discord took notice and dropped the bag, "Ohh, what have you got there?"
"The Elements of Harmony." Celestia answered as said Elements swirled around them and formed a pink barrier.
"With them, we shall defeat you!" Luna added.
"And bring harmony back to this world!" Young Eraqus declared.

SC276: This is going to be your only real contribution, isn't it.

Twilight walked a little closer to the scene, "This must be when they turned Discord into stone. But who is that boy? And what part does he play in this? Celestia never mentioned him before."

SC276: [Twilight Sparkle] "It's almost like he didn't matter in the slightest."

Discord laughed uproariously as he slumped in his throne, then sat himself upright, "You should see yourselves right now! The expressions on your faces! So tense! So sure of yourselves!" They narrowed their eyes as Celestia and Luna put their horns together and Young Eraqus crossed his Keyblade with them and created a giant rainbow headed toward Discord as he continued laughing.

Mono: And the significance of him sticking up that sword... was?

"Hilarious!" Was the last thing he said before he laughed one last time as he morphed into a stone statue in a flash of light.

SC276: Christ, how are there four pages left, I have work tomorrow, fic, get the fucking lead out.

Twilight's eyes glowed again and shook it out of her head as she came to yet another vision and gasped at what she saw; a lit up cavern with a massive crystalline tree within, which held the Elements in its branches. Celestia, Luna, and Young Eraqus, who was riding on Celestia's back,

SC276: -like an asshole-
Mono: Celestia's back was on the verge of breaking.

made their way into the cavern.
Luna gasped, "The Tree of Harmony!"
Twilight appeared confused, "The Tree of Harmony?"

Mono: Yeah, I can't believe how stupid of an idea that was either.

She took a closer look and noticed the markings on the tree, a moon, a sun, and a six pointed star in its center.

"My Cutie Mark!" She quietly exclaimed.

SC276: (checks wiki) ...Well that's just egotistical of you, Twilight.

Celestia flew up to the tree with Young Eraqus in tow and used her magic on the tree.
Luna looked a little shocked, "Are you sure?" And flew up with Celestia and Eraqus.

Mono: How is her back still surviving?

"We have managed to discover the only means by which we can defeat Discord, and free the citizens of Equestria," Celestia levitated the Elements from their branches, "even without these Elements, the Tree of Harmony will possess a powerful magic," the center of the tree opened to reveal the Element of Magic, altogether the mystical gems circled them as they float in Celestia's magic, "as long as that magic remains, it will continue to control and contain all that grows here."

SC276: Given all the monster attacks, it's done a magnificent job of it.

"Does this mean we can purge the darkness from this world, your highness?" Young Eraqus asked.
Celestia giggled, "Oh, Eraqus, you have a lot to learn about being a Keyblade Master."
Twilight stared at them

SC276: -in complete and utter disbelief at how stupid that answer sounded.

until the light shone once more in her eyes to signal the end of the vision.

Twilight shook her head as she returned to reality once again, Spike ran up to her and asked, "So what did you find out?"

Mono: [Twilight] "Honestly... I have no goddamn clue."

"I still don't what's happened to Princess Luna and Princess Celestia," everyone looked worried, except for Discord, who was sitting in a floating recliner with movie theater popcorn, a drink, and wearing a pair of 3-D glasses, SC276: That'll be on the test.

"but I think I know why the Everfree Forest is acting this way," Discord lowered his glasses with interest, "something's happened to the Tree of Harmony!"
Now, they all looked confused at the mention of a new Equestrian artifact while Sora, Donald, Goofy, and Jiminy just responded by saying, "Huh?" simultaneously.

SC276: who calls a living thing an "artifact"

"The Tree of What-now?" Rainbow asked.
"It's where Princess Celestia and Princess Luna found the Elements, I think it's in danger!"

SC276: And I think my brain's about to implode.

"Well, all right, then!" Applejack declared, "Let's go save a...tree. Uh, where is it, exactly?"
Twilight pointed in the direction past Applejack, "I think it's in...there!" Which was the Everfree Forest, and within, the Heartless stared them down as the plants kept growing.

Mono: The direction the vines were coming from anyway... I wonder how you got that idea.

Everyone was shocked that they had to go into a monstrous forest to save all of Equestria, including Sora and his friends.

SC276: -even though it's not like it's the first time.

Well, except for Discord, who chuckled at the scene, held out his bear claw, and lightly shook his container, "I'm going to need more popcorn!"

SC276: I need a fucking scotch. Or failing that, a shitton of orange juice.

Donald deadpanned, "You're even more goofier than Goofy. And that's saying a lot."
Goofy looked confused, "Uh, it does?"

SC276: Leave riffing to people with experience, you fucking hacks.

Nightmare Moon

SC276: Fun fact: without Google Docs enforcing the width of a "page," this image is ALSO like fifteen times bigger than the rest in this part! Including the Rarity pic!

Crazy56U: Because fuck everything under the sun and back.

CaptainPipsqueak: Actually, that was kind of her reasoning too, Crazy.

She is also known as the Mare in the Moon; formerly known as Princess Luna,

Mono: "-formerly known as Prince-" who, in the past, was consumed by the jealousy and hatred towards her sister, Princess Celestia, because ponies basked in her day while they slept through her night. She had been banished to the moon a century ago by Princess Celestia with the help of the Elements of Harmony to ensure the safety of her subjects. One thousand years later, she was purified by Twilight and her friends with the Elements and reverted back into Princess Luna.

Not much else is known about her..

SC276: I thought these only got added to the journal when Sora encountered them.

Mono: Welcome to this fic, SC, where the plot is made up and canon doesn't matter.

Tree of Harmony

Hidden somewhere within the Everfree Forest, the tree acted as a resting place for the Elements of Harmony.

Crazy56U: And, irony of ironies, the tree is currently being guarded by a Nobody.

Even without the Elements, the tree holds a magic that was supposed to control and contain everything that grows, but something has happened to it.
Not much else is known about it..

Crazy56U: And so, next time on Literally No Reason For This Fanfic To Exist, Applejack almost fucks up the adventure once again!

CaptainPipsqueak: Who's a silly pony? brick hits Pipsqueak [Applejack] "An' there's more where that came from y'bastard! ... Oh." clears throat "ANGRY SOUTHERN NOISES!"

Mono: I'm pretty sure this man just turned Kingdom Hearts into a visual novel. And that is one of the worst ideas anyone has ever come up with.

SC276: *WHAT BEARS HAVE YOU SEEN THAT ARE YELLOW DOES DISCORD HAVE THE ARM OF WINNIE THE POOH OR SOMETHING
FUCK THIS FIC
