Personality:* She's extremely mature for her age, which can seem quite annoying to most people. Though she's very mature, she has a rebellious streak, taking risks for those she love. She's extremely overprotective and hates seeing people hurt. She can't stand anybody being hurt mentally and physically. Seeing people hurt makes her numb to the point where she won't cooperate with anybody. She doesn't have many friends because people think she is a fun killer because of her maturity. She can be seen as dry sometimes, considering that she's not very humorous, but she's extremely sweet when she wants to be.

Backstory:* She lost both her parents to a spell gone wrong. Her parents were spell scientists, often trying to come up with new and creative jinxes. Because of the fact that she had to raise herself, she became super mature because she's only ever acted like an adult. She lost most of her childhood because nobody was there to take care of her. She didn't want to be sent to an orphanage, so she ran away, finding shelter in an abandoned muggle factory. This caused her to be overprotective of her friends and loved ones because she always thought of herself as an adult, though she can have fun sometimes.

Edaline Marie Foster

Name: Edaline Marie Foster

Gender/pronouns: Woman, she/her

Sexuality: Bisexual

Shippable?: Yes, ship is Andromeda

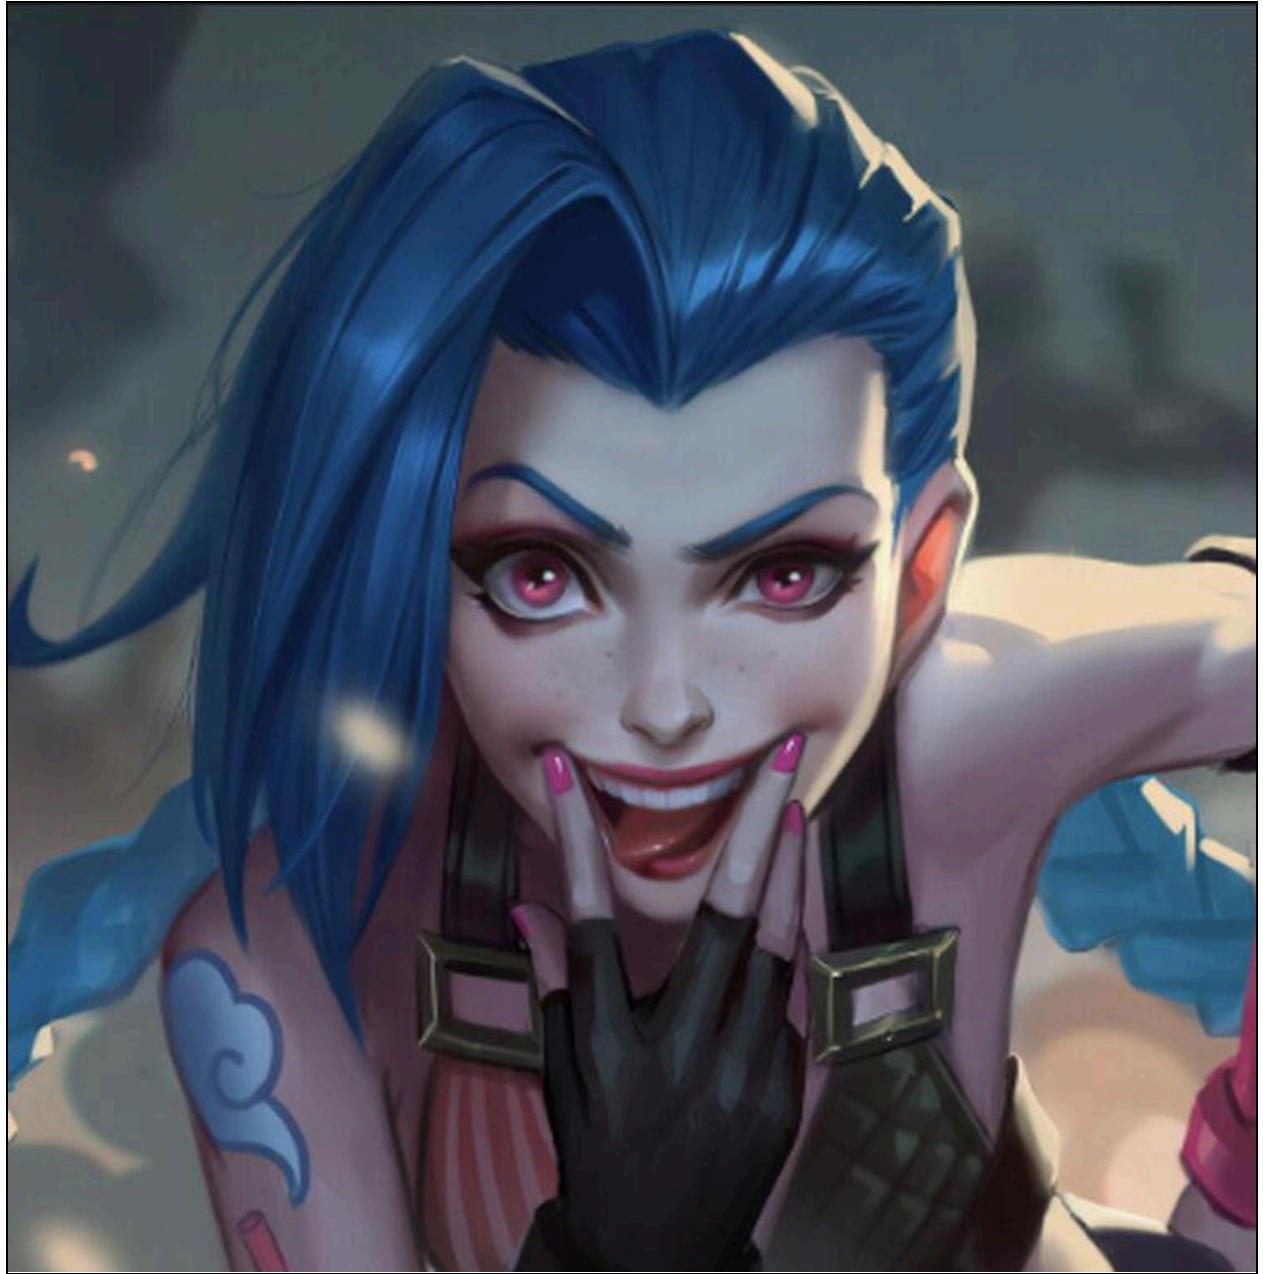

Age/year: 18, graduated

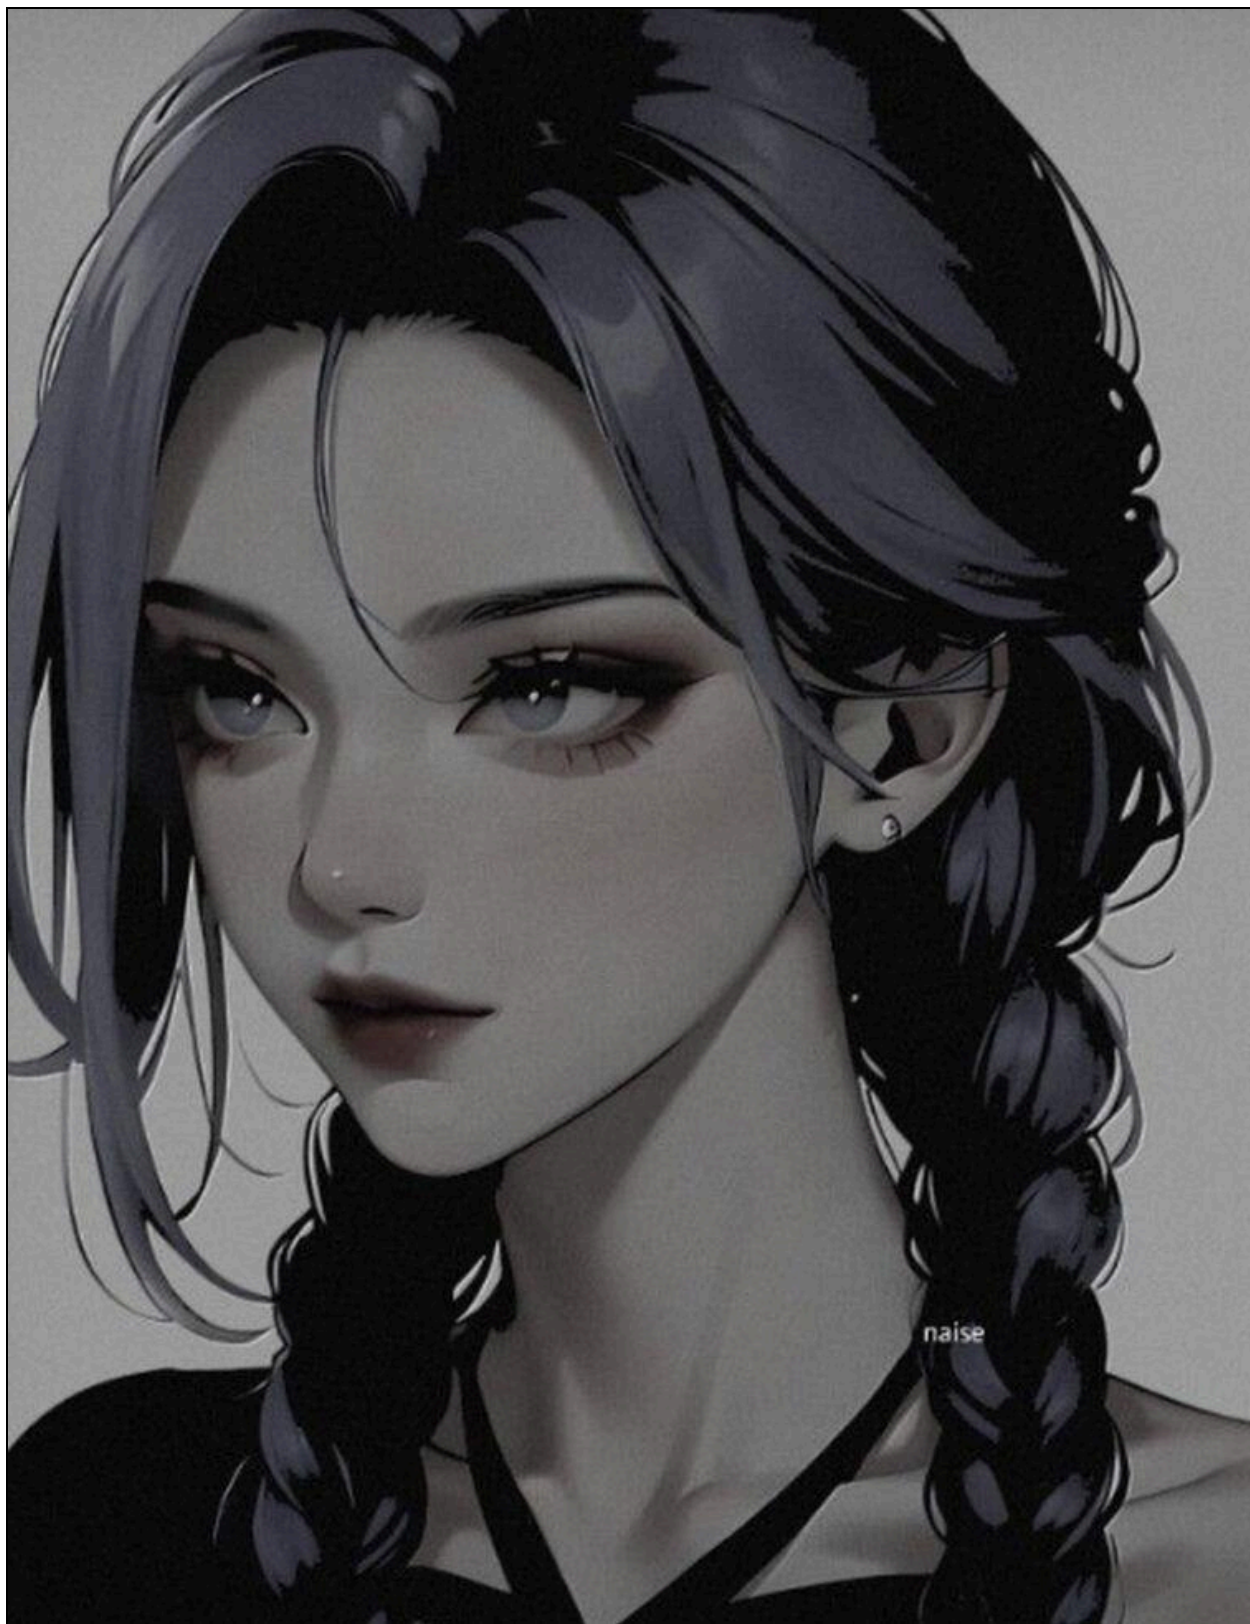

Species: Human witch

Appearance:

Personality: She tends to be somewhat impulsive, and is rather intelligent, but often makes dumb choices anyway. Everybody calls her “Jinx”, and most people don’t even know what her real name is— she'd like to keep it that way, because she doesn't like her real name. She's loud and enjoys making jokes, chaotic inventions, pranks, and explosions, and conceals an actively unstable mind and worldview. She can be somewhat jerky, but as long as people aren't trying to bore her or ruin her fun she's nice, if not a little bit annoying.

Powers/abilities: Other than being pretty mediocre at most magic spells with her wand, Jinx has electricity powers, which she can use to vaguely start fires and manipulate electricity to some degree. When she has control over them she can use them combatively or to enhance spells related to electricity, but she can just as easily lose control and cause her hair to puff up or make the air around her dry and hot.

House: Ravenclaw

Extra: She's half-French, half-Cherokee, and grew up taking trips to America, so she sort of has a slight American accent. And she could never be a prefect or a head girl or a Quiddich player.. because she probably gets in trouble too much.

Abigail Dabe Lindstrom

Name: Abigail Dabe Lindstrom

Gender/pronouns: Woman, she/her

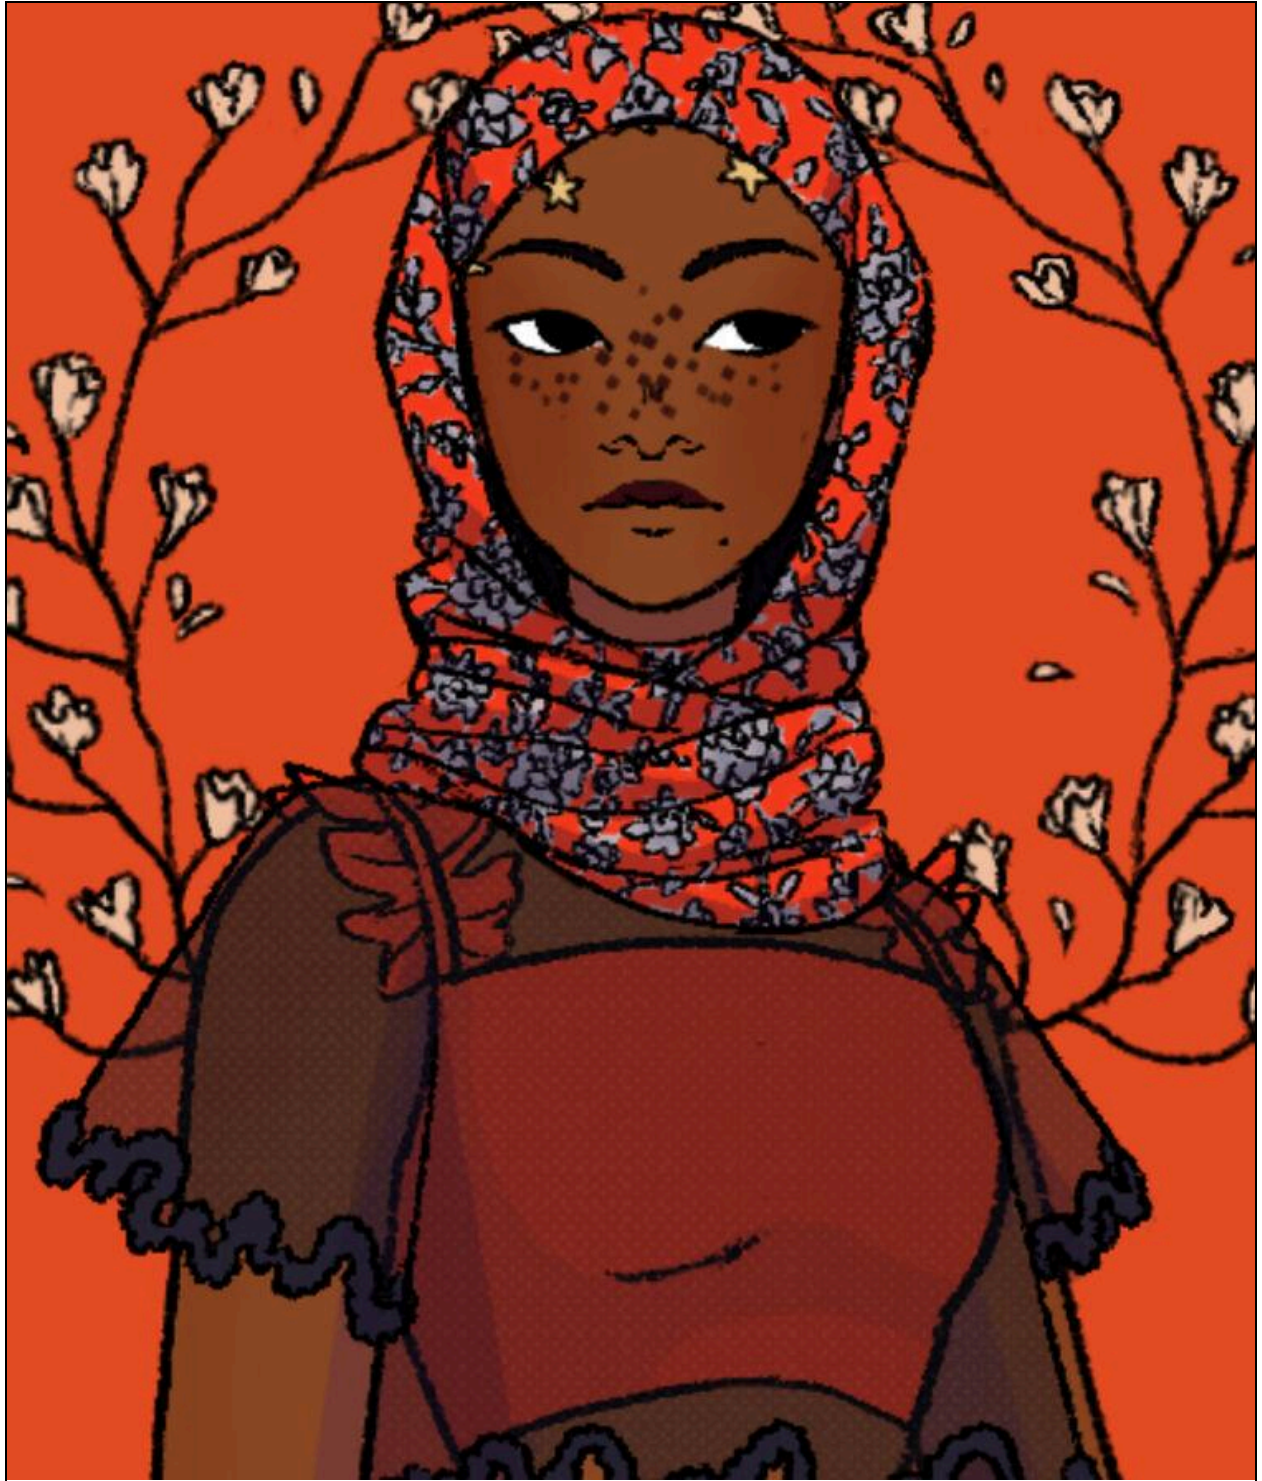

Sexuality: Asexual panromantic

Shippable?: Yes, ship is TBD

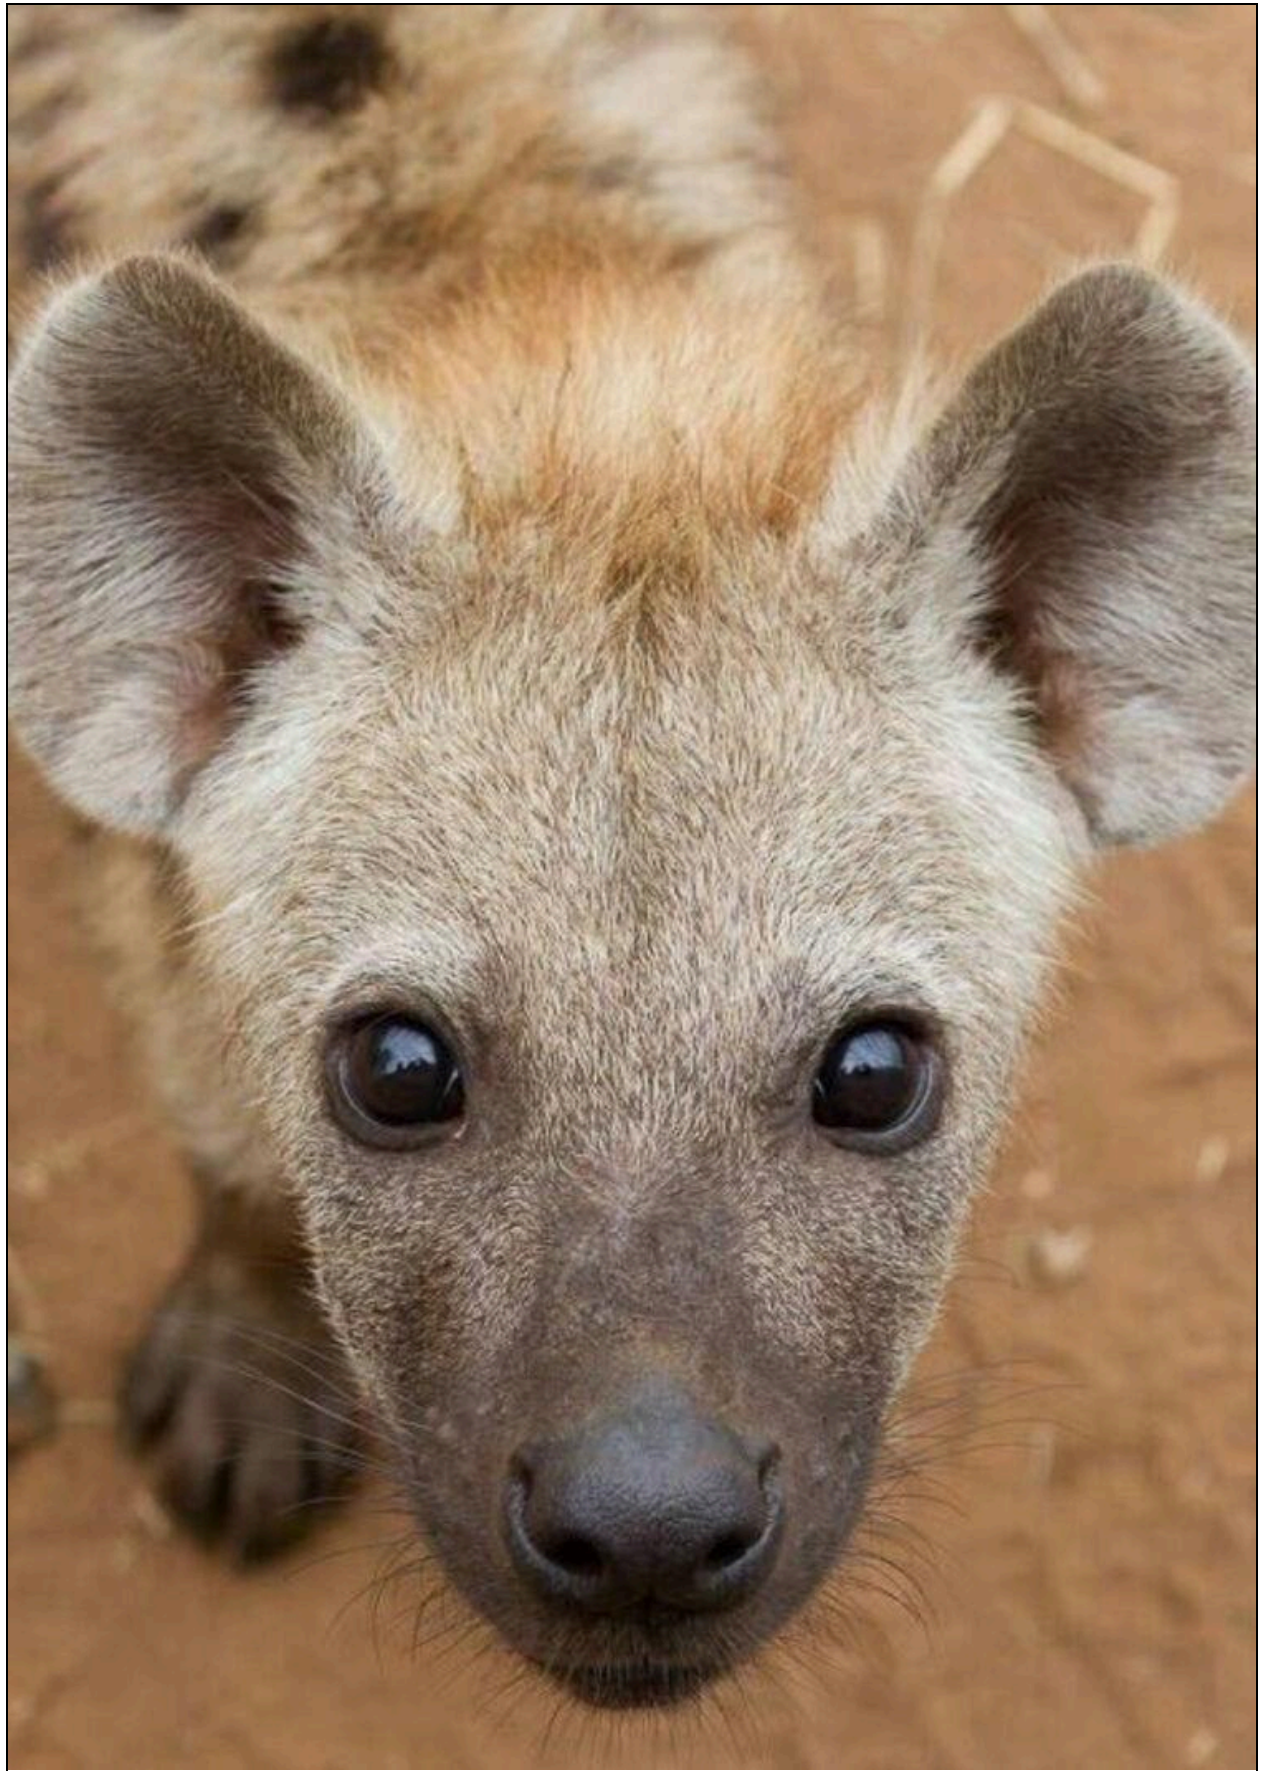

Age/year: 20, graduated

Species: She's a Shiftar, a type of lower djinn, which appear mostly human and generally follow human body laws, but can shift into an animal and a state between the human and the animal based on their personality. Abigail, sometimes known as Abe, despite her family's illustriousness and most of the people being able to shift into a more graceful or useful animal, can shift into.. a hyena.

Appearance (human):

Appearance (hyena):

Personality: Abigail can seem somewhat cold and closed off, and is rather neat and tidy. She's rather stern and is a perfectionist, especially when it comes to herself— not one speck of dust better be on her hijab. EVER. However, deep down inside she is loyal, funny, and even a bit silly, and she occasionally wants to go wild and make messes and be loud. This side of her comes out mostly when she's in hyena form, because yeens have such no thoughts head empty energy sometimes.

Powers/abilities: She can shift between her human form and hyena form easily. Though she retains her human intelligence, as a hyena she can't speak, but she has enhanced agility and can bite through bone. She can also shift into a fusion of both, in which she has spotlike patterns on her skin in place of freckles, wild hair on her elbows and knees, sharp claws for nails, and sharpened canine teeth.

House: Hufflepuff

Prefect?: Yes

Extra: Her family is Arabic and Muslim, likely due to the fact that they're a subset of the Arab and Indian-origin djinns.

Yarhan Ryder

Name: Yarhan Ryder

Gender/pronouns: Man, he/him

Sexuality: Heteroflexible

Shippable?: Yes, shipped with Millicent

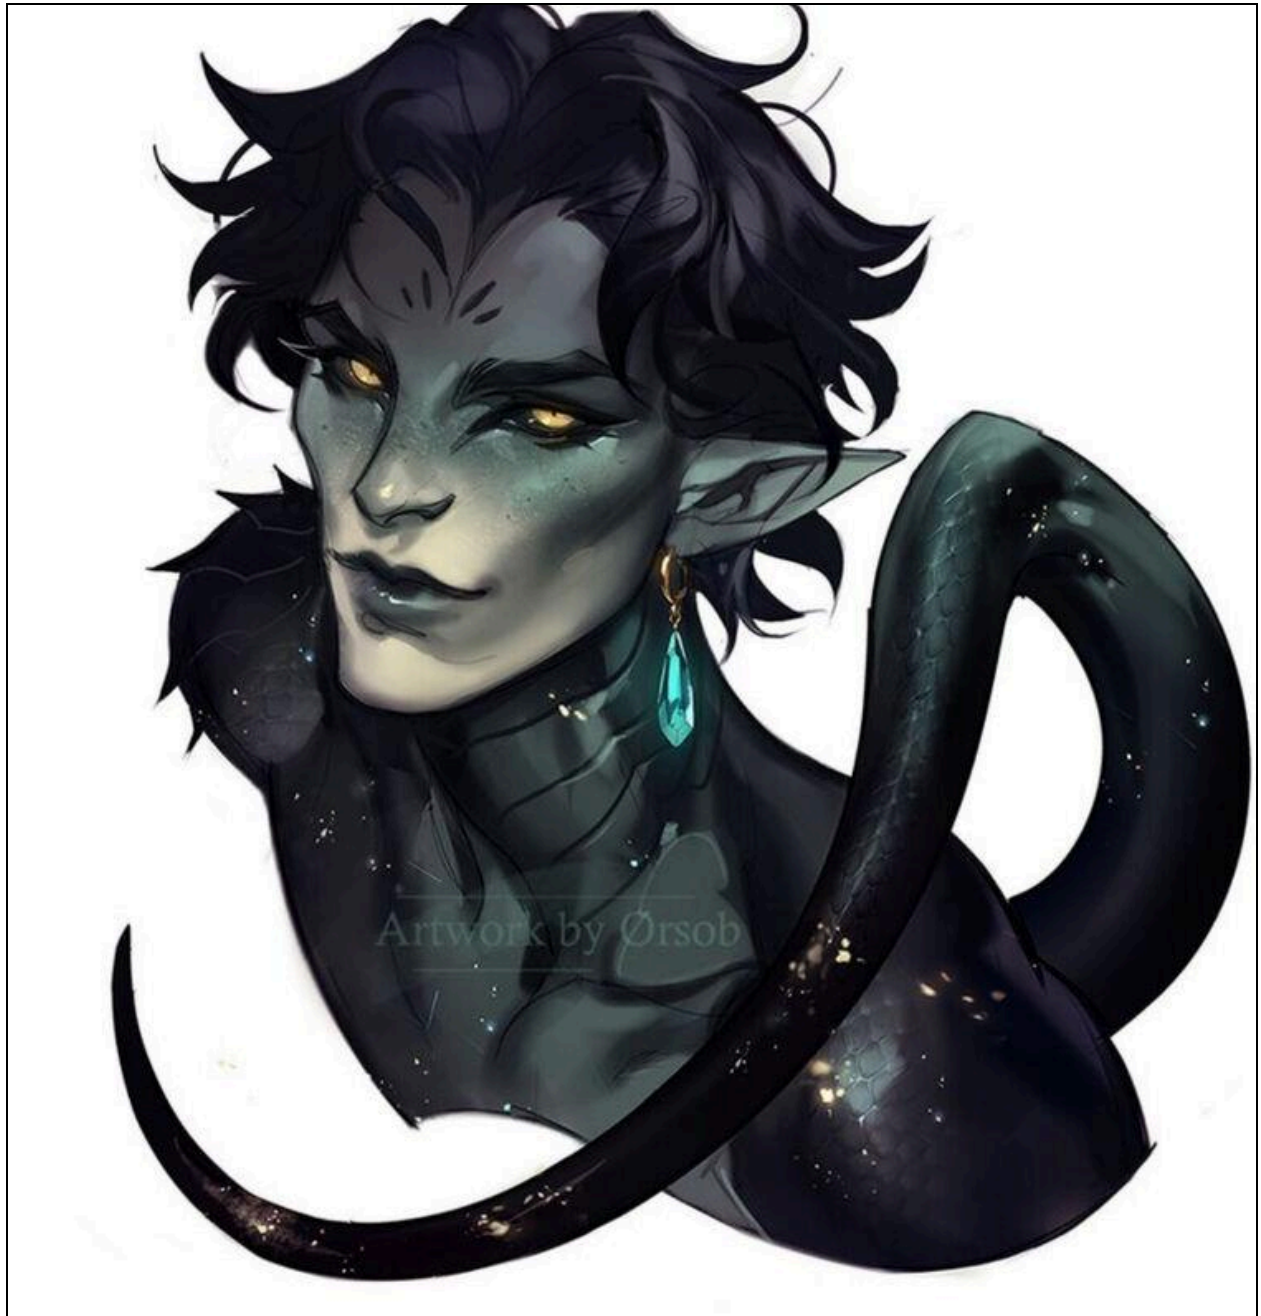

Age/year: 19, graduated

Species: Half human wizard, half reptilian

Appearance (human form):

Appearance (reptilian form):

Personality: Yarhan is quiet, deceptive, somewhat arrogant and self-righteous, and has a low opinion of most others, preferring to mind his own business and watch others. He's somewhat sadistic and brooding, and is more gothic than he looks. He's ambitious, but keeps most of his ambitions secret.

Powers/abilities: Being half-reptilian and half-human, he can shift between the two forms with ease— it's mostly a cosmetic change, as in both forms he has traits of both species. He mainly functions as a human does, but has mild venom in his teeth, a forked tongue, and the slight ability to change his colorations to blend in with the shadows.

House: Slytherin

Extra: The human side of his family is Romani, and his reptilian side has Japanese origins. He has a brother, Japeth, who he abandoned, and it's unknown what happened to the rest of his family.

@The Best Bookworm

Meera Varma

Name: Meera Varma

Gender/pronouns: Female (she/her)

Sexuality: Straight

Shippable?: Yes

Age/year: 19 years old / graduated

Species: Human (Witch)

Appearance: Meera has rich, dark brown skin and expressive, almond-shaped eyes that seem to sparkle with curiosity. Her hair is long, silky, and black, often tied into a high ponytail when she's focusing on her studies or exploring the castle, but left loose when she's relaxing. She has a tall, athletic build, and her posture reflects a quiet confidence. Meera usually wears her Ravenclaw robes with her blue-and-silver scarf neatly wrapped around her shoulders. She has a simple silver necklace with a small sapphire pendant—a gift from her grandmother—that she wears every day as a reminder of her family.

Personality: Meera is known for her intelligence and deep curiosity, which drives her to explore not just the secrets of Hogwarts but the larger magical world as well. She's ambitious and highly determined; when she sets her mind to something, she won't stop until she achieves it. This determination can sometimes come off as stubbornness, especially when she insists on solving things her own way. Despite her serious side, she has a playful sense of humor and loves a good mystery, whether it's hidden rooms in the castle or untangling old family secrets. She values friendship deeply, and though she has a small circle, she's fiercely loyal and protective of those she cares about. She's also a perfectionist, which leads her to be quite critical of herself when things don't go as planned.

Backstory: Meera was born into a prominent Indian wizarding family with a long history of magic. Her ancestors were well-respected magical scholars, healers, and even potion masters, and her parents currently work as magical historians. They are particularly interested in researching ancient magical civilizations, and Meera grew up listening to stories about powerful artifacts, enchanted places, and legendary creatures from all around the world. Inspired by her family's legacy, she's always been curious about the magical histories of different cultures, particularly ancient spells and charms.

Meera is the eldest of four siblings, and she's taken on a lot of responsibility from a young age, especially as her parents travel frequently for their research. This sense of duty has carried over to her time at Hogwarts, where she's become a reliable leader among her peers. But her family's absence has also made her fiercely independent, sometimes to the point where she finds it hard to ask for help or accept that she can't do everything alone.

Powers/abilities: Meera has a natural affinity for charms and ancient runes. She's skilled at deciphering magical texts and inscriptions, often finding hidden meanings or ways to enhance spells. This ability has led her to excel in both Ancient Runes and Charms classes. She's also shown a strong connection with magical creatures; she can intuitively sense their feelings and communicate with them, making her quite popular among the creatures kept in Hogwarts and the Forbidden Forest.

Additionally, Meera has a unique ability that runs in her family—an aptitude for divination through dream interpretation. While she's skeptical about relying solely on this ability, she sometimes experiences vivid dreams that give her glimpses into future events or hidden truths. She hasn't fully embraced this gift, as she struggles to differentiate between genuine visions and ordinary dreams.

House: Ravenclaw

Quidditch position: None; she prefers to stay off the field, but she's an enthusiastic supporter and often strategizes for her house team from the stands.

Prefect?: No

Head Girl?: Yes, though she doesn't talk about it much unless it's relevant.

Extra: Meera has a pet kneazle named Rashi, who's been with her since her fourth year. Rashi is fiercely loyal but has a mischievous side, often sneaking out of the dorms at night to follow Meera when she goes exploring. Meera's love for mysteries and secrets means she's well-acquainted with hidden passageways and forgotten rooms in the castle, and she's known for sneaking into the library's Restricted Section to find obscure texts related to her studies. One of her dreams is to discover a completely new area of the castle that no one else has documented before.
