

Weekly Mooncast

May 31 - June 6, 2021

- Pisces Waning Gibbous & First Quarter: Lean into your intuition to reflect on your path and know the next steps to take
- Aries Last Quarter: Make a big push in your projects or take action on getting your needs met
- Taurus Last Quarter & Waning Crescent: Buckle down on content creation and slowly move forward

Monday, May 31

Void Moon begins at 11:13 pm PST [Aquarius to Pisces]

- A suspended space between the logical and artistic minds
- Good time for daydreaming the bigger picture of your life
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Air to Water = slowing down and feeling

Sun conjunct True Node

If you've been wanting to promote yourself in a bigger, louder way, this transit amplifies the effect of promotions, events, and any big marketing efforts. The collective eye is pointed towards confidence and people will be easily drawn to anyone who is standing firmly in their power. Take note of this and get on board, using new platforms to get your message out there and the willingness to consistently show up again and again.

Tuesday, June 1

Waning Gibbous in Pisces begins at 2:08 am PST

Unfinished Business

[Combined with Last Quarter Phase]

- Utilize spiritual tools and rituals to connect to your higher being
- Channel and transmute negative emotions into positive to gain inspiration and create divine wonders
- Deep rest, naps, relaxation, retreats, meditation are all emphasized
- Waning Gibbous: Active energy being balanced and drawn inwards
- Last Quarter: Pushing to complete tasks & focusing more inwardly

If you're high energy/in a work mood: Last Quarter Moon energy is here to help us wrap up unfinished business and have the last burst of energy to do so before we move inward. With this phase being in Pisces we are feeling ready to claim all of ourselves and our lives, fully at face value, knowing that so much more exists beneath our depths and we're just getting started. Last Quarter energy is acutely aware that anything worth growing, or doing is best done without fear, urgency, or stress. It knows that all things take time and that when we are committed to the path, the process, time becomes irrelevant because it is unavoidable that we will receive, experience, create what is for us.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: This is a great period to incorporate self-care, meditation, journaling, massage, yoga, or any other nourishing act to help you center back into yourself. Your intuition will be at an all-time high during this part of the cycle and can be relied upon to give you answers that you aren't finding with your logical mind. If you traditionally struggle with water moons, this is a time to let go of your attachment to tangible results, and allow yourself to become familiar with the more fluid parts of your being. Do you feel you have to choose between your soul and other aspects of your life? Do you feel that you or your fulfillment seem to come last, or secondary to other responsibilities?

Moon Boost:

Pisces Jupiter & Neptune

- Jupiter: Brings an increase of hope and dreaminess, like anything we put our heart and soul into will flourish with abundance.
- Neptune: Dreamy, creative, forgiving, compassionate, boost to intuition and spiritual abilities.

Social Media & Clients:

- Create safe spaces to explore, express and expunge our deepest trauma we can detach ourselves from all that prevents our growth.
- These moons are times of emotional vulnerability and the messages we put out to make an imprint on those who integrate it into themselves.
- Our client work can benefit greatly from us showing kindness and understanding instead of judgement.
- Share your healing gifts but keep in mind when it's necessary to reel yourself back and preserve well being

Last Quarter in Pisces begins at 12:26 am PST

Unfinished Business

Venus in Cancer [June 2 - 26, 2021]

This is a highly emotional and sensitive transit, where we experience the merging of our needs and wants. Our security, our home, the place where we feel safe and a sense of connection and belonging will feel very amplified at this time. Our primitive needs around money, survival, belonging, approval can all be highlighted here. It is important to notice where our needs compromise our safety if we feel that we need to accept something that we don't feel comfortable with in order to be accepted, approved, taken care of, or loved. This is a good period to question the differences between survival and love because the two can get mixed up. Where we intimately connect the two when they are in fact separate and need to be so, for our own wellbeing and health. The positive aspect of this transit is that it is a very good time to be with healthy family and friends and to let yourself be loved on and supported. To really reconnect with your circle and pleasant memories.

Saturn Square Uranus (June 2 - 25)

In Effect: June 2 - June 25, 2021

Strongest - June 14, 2021

This is the second of a series of 3 squares from February to December, 2021.

When we have transits and aspects between our outer planets, we see their influence more on a global and collective level. Planets that take decades to move, only coming together or returning every 40, 50, or 200+ years, have impacts that ripple out for generations, and this is one such aspect.

Saturn takes 27-29 years in orbit, and Uranus takes 84 years, with them only coming together every 45 years or squaring every 22 years or so. This is a culmination of the Saturn Uranus Conjunction that began in 1988, that will complete in 2023.

Uranus is here to upset the status quo, and Saturn is here to hold it together, and when they square, we are seeing the very ground these two warriors stand on, beginning to crumble. Uranus delivers things through shocks and interventions, and Saturn through karma and discipline (which can sometimes be perceived as punishment), and they are battling over reality. Through 2020 we saw a great deal of changes to the very structure of our world, from government to societal structures, influencing our financial systems (Uranus in Taurus) and governmental structures (Saturn in Capricorn), but now that Saturn has left Capricorn and has journeyed into Aquarius, we are finding a different level of control and idealism taking hold. The positive aspects of Aquarius are technological advancement, collective growth, humanitarianism, the negative is dogma and using these advancements and ideals for coercive, controlling, or totalitarian means, or holding them to god-like status.

We will experience significant advancements at this time, along with a lot of creative new ventures and possibilities, but they may only come forth under the guise of safety and security, which as we will feel during this transit, isn't a guaranteed thing as all that we knew, and trusted seems to be upended. As these power axis shift in our world, between the Future (Uranus) and the Past (Saturn), we must be aware of false promises. Or we may end up giving up our freedom and civil liberties in exchange for security and ideological promises that end up creating too much structure.

With this being the final square of an event that began in 1988, we will be witnessing the final stage of governmental and capitalistic structures that began 33 years ago. This will be a period of dissolving and wrapping up that cycle and its lessons.

When we look to larger transits and aspects such as this we also need to look to the other major players and what they're doing in the sky. Earlier in 2020, we saw the Saturn & Pluto Conjunction unfold, which kicked off travel and living restrictions, fear-based stock-piling, and concerns over safety, and where we saw an increase in governmental regulations.

This is also on the back of the coming Pluto Return (2021-2024) in the US natal chart. Pluto returns are significant events only happening every 248 years. Pluto brings challenges to the event it is returning to, and in this case the signing of the US constitution. It is likely we will see the events that unfold over the next couple of years bring about a very different world and governmental structure.

How to navigate this period:

There is a lot of tension that accompanies this aspect and the most unsettling part is that the structures that are crumbling under this influence don't necessarily have an immediate end. There are things that take time to fall apart and even when we're eager to rebuild, there could be some frustration in how we try to place bricks on shaky foundations. We will more than likely need to wait this period out, and it may not have a direct impact on our business - but is expressed just the same in the world around us. Try to be patient and observe when action can be taken.

What does this mean for Business?

We will rapidly see changes to structures, delivery methods, advancements in technology, and new and innovative ways of reaching people and providing content. Pay attention to how people are consuming content, what topics they are looking into, what information they are in need of, and what problems they wish to solve. How can you get that content to them? Especially as the North Node moves through Gemini, we'll be absorbing content, and open to developing new skills, new careers, and looking for quick, bite-sized, and easily navigatable content to help us get to where we want to go. How can you innovate this in your industry?

Don't be so attached to how you have done things, that you miss the advancements that are coming.

Thursday, June 3

Void Moon from 4:10 am - 10:58 am PST (Pisces to Aries)

- Vulnerable, emotional space, great for self care sessions
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Water to Fire = cleansing and releasing

Last Quarter in Aries begins at 10:59 am PST

Energizer Bunny

- What remaining action needs to be taken before wrapping things up and making room for the New Moon
- Introverted yet wild, free energy perfect for going on a personal journey and reconnecting with who we really are at our core
- Explore and act on creative impulses and desires, they're giving us the energy to stimulate major breakthroughs and masterpieces
- Use flash sales on existing courses/offers if you're not currently in the middle of a pre-planned launch
- Last Quarter: Pushing to complete tasks & focusing more inwardly

If you're high energy/in a work mood: Wrap up a project by completing small tasks that can be knocked off your to-do list before the next moon cycle begins. If you have changes that need to be made but you feel uncertain, be brave and move forward without needing to have it all figured out yet. Sometimes just taking one step reveals information useful for entering the next stage.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: This moon is perfect for getting to know yourself on a deeper level and exploring your desires. When self-focused Aries energies mix with Last Quarter, we will be feeling more active and engaged in meeting our own needs, rather than waiting for someone else to notice what it is we want.

Moon Boosts:

- Chiron in Aries: focuses on our own identity wounds and how they've held us back from living our authenticity. How can we move through them and heal?
- Sagittarius South Node: This is a South Node eclipse and so it is asking us to release ourselves from the past. We may be asked to give up something, to surrender something, or accept something that we don't like during this eclipse.

Social Media & Clients:

- Use this to generate excitement, make an announcement, have a flash sale, open a cart, kick off an event, close a cart,
- Get people to sign up for an event, take action, or rally behind a cause that's important to you.
- Talk about anything that you and your audience find irritating, frustrating or plain piss you off about your industry.
- Encourage building up your people as they face a breakthrough.
- Create a clear, concise Call to Action to make it easy for your people to say yes to your offer.
- Think short bursts, and only on what's most important to MOVE you and them FORWARD.

Venus Trine Jupiter

This is a very positive transit in terms of romance and relationships. Jupiter is the planet of expansion and when it is trine (in positive aspect) to Venus big things are possible in terms of new relationships, growth, and depth in current relationships, and pleasurable fun. Finances also experience a nice boost with this transit.

Sun Trine Saturn

Using self-control and discipline to get things done is the essence of this aspect. You have all the power inside of you to tie up loose ends, organize your resources, and create a sound plan for how you're going to achieve lasting results. This influence may at times feel mundane and boring, but it's intended to give you more endurance and vitality when it comes to your work. Take advantage of this one and schedule a distraction-less work session ahead of time.

Mercury Square Neptune

This can be a disorienting and confusing transit. We will be more prone to misunderstandings, miscommunications, and needing to re-word our words, directions, and ideas. We may feel more spacey than usual and may find focusing difficult. It's important during this transit that we try to keep our heads clear and our feet on the ground. Any sort of idealizing or sugar-coating anything including our own words and perspectives can make situations worse.

If you find that you have to communicate or disagree with something or someone during this transit, make sure you stick with the facts, don't distract, evade, or withhold information as it can come back to bite you later or add to the confusion and misunderstanding which can make the situation or outcome no what you'd like.

It's important that we try to speak simply, and to keep our work, conversations, and next steps as simple as possible during this transit. What we're seeing is not as it appears and we may in fact choose what appeals to us over what is actually helpful.

When it comes to business, things may not be as they appear, or people may not be who they appear to be. It is best to avoid any major business decisions or dealings during this transit if you can. If you can't make sure that you have as much in writing, use bullet points, and short clear sentences and make sure that you have all the facts before moving forward. If you have to come to an agreement it might be best to have legal or business counsel to go over the documents or agreements or share it with a friend so that you don't miss anything important.

We will be more spiritually and metaphysically inclined during this time, so this can make a great opportunity to pursue spiritual pursuits or subjects, but make sure that you keep your feet on the ground so that we don't get carried away with the fog. Creative or artistic projects can get a nice boost from this transit.

Be mindful of trying to escape, into ideas, people, numbing agents (sex, drugs, alcohol), sleep, or other coping mechanisms, they tend to have a stronger influence at this time and their outcomes longer lasting.

Last Quarter in Aries - All Day

Energizer Bunny

Mars Opposition Pluto

The power to get things done is present with this aspect and if we're smart, we will recognize just how much willpower is necessary to push a project forward. The power to move mountains is available for us more so now through us asking for help outside of ourselves. No person is an island and if we can put our pride aside, we're more likely to get exactly the help we need.

Saturday, June 5

Void Moon from 3:46 pm- 10:46 pm PST [Aries to Taurus]

- Short void, perfect for a meditation/nap/during sleep
- Simmering down from the excitement and thinking more seriously about what needs to be accomplished over the next few days
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Fire to Earth = putting into practice & structuring

Last Quarter in Taurus begins 10:47 pm PST

Buckle Down on Bulk

[Combined with Waning Crescent Phase]

- Create content in bulk that you know needs to be addressed and slowly plod through it without thinking too deeply
- Stay consistent with existing plans and work steadily
- Update and organize your finances, seek advice from a financial counsellor if necessary to put your mind at ease
- Last Quarter: Active energy for completing tasks and assessing where you are in your current project plan
- Waning Crescent: Low key, reflective and inward energy

If you're high energy/in a work mood: This is a time to get very specific on what things need to be pushed along, especially as it relates to the more tedious bits and pieces that can be accomplished in bulk. Lean into the slow, steady rhythm and use it to stay committed to what you have already planned to do. Pencil in an appointment to do bulk content creation as if it were any other important event with a high paying client. Using this same perspective, your content becomes the client that helps you pay your bills and if you can give it the respect and attention it deserves, you set yourself up better for success.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: We may be feeling burnt out, in need of some time to ourselves, and a desire to hibernate a bit with this Moon. Know that it is okay and that even though our comfort, security, and family dynamics may be challenged during this Moon we need to put an emphasis on self-care as much as possible. We can't be of help to anyone including ourselves if we don't prioritize our own oxygen and foundational needs first.

Moon Boosts:

Capricorn Pluto Rx

- Slow, strategic building projects, endurance & longevity
- Beware of over working and pushing oneself to the point of exhaustion, balance is key in creating a long lasting legacy in our business
- Pluto Rx presents a prolonged crisis that we become conscious of and must purify from our business practices. We might see the painful results of what hasn't worked thus far and must do the gritty work of alchemizing that professionally.

Taurus Uranus

- What physical tools and services do we need to upgrade in order to create more sustainable income and lower costs in our business?
- Uranus: Best for innovating new technologies that help us make money online
- Entire restructuring of the global economic system and thus will impact personal finances and what role we play in the global market

Social Media & Clients:

- Use this period to add beauty, playfulness, systems, habits, routines, structures, or tips to your community.
- Share your indulgences and enjoyments. Show them your humanity and playful side.
- Taurus is great for giving a sneak peek behind the scenes into how your system/service/offer works in real life. Show don't tell.
- If you have done-for-you services or templates that save them time or money this is a great time to share them.

Ongoing Transits

Mercury Retrograde in Gemini (May 14 - 29, 2021)

Mercury is retrograde from May 29, 2021, at 24° Gemini 43', until June 22, 2021, at 16° Gemini 08'.

Mercury Rx in Gemini will be focused on the collecting of information, knowledge, and learning new skills. This is a great time to spend diving into things you need to or want to learn to advance your business. We are like information sponges when Mercury moves through Gemini and while it's retrograde we can go much deeper with the information and knowledge.

Each Mercury Rx gives us an opportunity to go back to the drawing board and make improvements, or re-direct our thinking. During Gemini, we are being asked to revisit what we know, and what we don't, and how we can fill in the gaps.

This is a great time to focus on content that teaches and gives your community information, and a process.

As with all Mercury Retrogrades, we are being offered a re-visit/re-do period, and Mercury is here to show us what needs to be re-done, re-visioned, and re-understood, and because it knows we're stubborn and like to put things off, it's going to make sure we pay attention by creating mass interruptions and disruptions to the things we need to fix or heal.

With any Mercury Retrograde through an air sign, we will want to be aware that our thinking will feel disconnected, scattered, and unfocused. This is not an ideal time to be making major decisions or working on tasks or projects that require a significant amount of focus but rather to take some time to process, allow and work with what is shifting. If work is needed right now try to work on more 'behind the scenes' stuff and take plenty of breaks.

How to use this retrograde:

This retrograde will be occurring in the sign of Gemini (Air) which will be encouraging us to evolve our content to meet the needs of this new period we're entering. Mercury Rx is best used to evolve the way you approach your work and how you nurture your community under difficult conditions. How connected we are in our circles and whether we (and our people) feel real belonging in our business.

Take note of the house(s) of your chart where this will be taking place to get a hint of what area(s) of life will be highlighted by this retrograde.

To Launch or Not To Launch?

Launching and Marketing through Mercury Rx is a touchy subject, with often varying results.

I've had very successful (although frustrating, and tech glitch-filled) launches through Mercury Rx as well as ones that will go down in history as the.worst.launch.ever.

What determines this is a few things, while the sign that Mercury Rx is going through plays a big part (you can't pay me enough to launch through Mercury Rx in Cancer), what often defines the success of a marketing or launch venture through Mercury Rx (outside of having a good product, clear copy, aligned pricing, etc) is what houses it's moving through.

In your chart, you have private and public houses, and there are also houses that clearly are business-oriented and others that are more personal.

When to 'sit the bench'?

If Mercury Rx is going through your 8th- 12th houses, you may want to sideline your launch until after Mercury goes direct. The reason for this is that whatever does go sideways, often becomes a public spectacle, and can in some cases ruin our reputation, or make us look clumsy, disorganized, or otherwise cross some communication signals with our community. Or we just may not be operating at our best,(I'm looking at you House 8 and House 12), and we may not be in a good mental space to be in the spotlight and running all the things. This also goes for Mercury Rx through your 4th house, we will just want to be couch potatoes and our home-life will be calling on a lot of attention, so it's best to not make it compete.

Some other things to consider are the sign that Mercury is Rxing through and the flavors and experiences that will bring.

Mercury Rx Through the Elements

Mercury Rx through Fire Signs (Aries, Leo, Sagittarius) tends to bring passion, fire, intense emotions, impulsiveness. This is especially the case with Mercury Rx through Aries which can bring aggression, frustration, barriers, and tech meltdowns. One of the worst hacks of my website was during Mercury Rx in Aries (ask me if I'd do that one again).

Mercury through Earth Signs (Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn) tends to bring structural and organizational issues. The physical elements of our businesses, finances, foundations, and the tools we use to make them all work together as well as our habits and patterns are challenged at this time. Not terrible for launching, but makes everything physically move SLOWER. If we are looking to get things done quickly, this isn't so much the case during this Rx, as our bodies will be slower, our minds will get stuck a lot on the HOW, and our systems and structures may take a hit especially if they are paired with tech.

Mercury through Air Signs (Gemini, Libra, Aquarius) tends to bring a lot of headiness, and chatter, with difficulties around focus, especially on external stuff (internal not so much, we've got a magnifying glass on that stuff). It also tends to bring some big tech faux pas, think of the things that connect other things, links, platforms, videos, emails not working, communication misunderstandings. Not terrible for launching, it will just be important to stay on topic, and keep tasks down to 20-minute increments, back up that tech and be willing to be flexible on your time frames, and pivot if necessary (if tech stops working). Also handy to have someone you can call on short notice to fix things that go wrong.

Mercury through Water Signs (Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces) tend to bring a lot of emotions to the surface, both in us and our clients. With Cancer, we (and they) take things VERY personally. I find during Mercury Rx in Cancer people are cranky, complaining and generally ungrateful, and because we're not feeling appreciated (total Cancer thing), we tend to take it more to heart and feel used, undervalued, and otherwise pissed off. We tend to see more refunds during this period and will find that people will have very unrealistic standards. Can you tell I'm not a fan of launching during Mercury Rx through Cancer? Mercury Rx through Scorpio is a period where we are more inclined to dive deep into our own issues, and uncover whatever is at work there, launches here tend to require us to not use the traditional launch formats (people see it as manipulative), and to instead focus on what matters, and addressing secrets, or taboos. Mercury Rx in Pisces tends to be flighty, spacey, and disconnected, we're processing a lot of trauma and past during this time. Your launch and marketing should be more intuitive and connected, offering a safe space for them.

Mercury Rx as a RE-builder -

Mercury rules commerce, communities, and connection.

My favorite usage for Mercury Rx is to give to my community and focus on community building projects, whenever we invest in our community and go back to things that have already been in motion, our investment becomes richer, and our community trusts us more. Want to build your list? Want a proper email funnel?

This is a great time to start doing that.

Get feedback and start filling in the gaps between where your clients are, and where they want to be with your content.

If you choose to launch during this time, make sure you cater it to the energy and needs of the retrograde, and that you are launching something that you've already had in motion (don't start new things during Rx).

Saturn Retrograde in Aquarius (May 23 - Oct 10, 2021)

Saturn turns retrograde on May 23, 2021, at 13° Aquarius 31' Saturn will turn direct on October 10, 2021, at 06° Aquarius 53'

Saturn has turned retrograde in the sign of Aquarius, signaling a time of review for all things hard, worthwhile and Aquarian. It is a full review of the way Saturn has been operating in our lives, looking particularly closely at the Aquarian storylines. If Saturn is about discipline, maturity, and self-respect, then Aquarius brings the scientific, innovative and inventive aspect. Putting them together, we build a story of calculated structure and forward-thinking. We create a mindset of bringing the future into the present through actionable steps, not lofty wishes. So, how have you been doing this or not? This is a great time to consider your psychic priorities, the energy you wish to emanate in your life. With these priorities in mind, you are ready to absorb the energy of this astrological transit in high resolution.

During this time, Saturn gives a new structure to Aquarius' genius. We learn to take on only the responsibilities we can handle, and we learn to follow through on them in brilliant ways. As the retrograde continues, Saturn does dip into Capricorn, inviting in the modern business mind. During Saturn's brief sojourn in the very corporate Capricorn, do not be surprised if you find yourself building out new processes. Instead of driving efficiencies at work, however, you are reverse engineering your life. Reverse engineering is not hocus pocus. It is really a challenge. A challenge to mentally visit the feeling state of your realized wish (before it has happened). If you can do this, the steps to manifesting said wish will materialize in front of you. Working with this metaphor of manifestation helps to structure not just your genius but genius itself. Are you ready?

Sun in Gemini (May 20 - June 20, 2021)

During this transit, we can feel flighty, desire to do multiple things at once, struggle choosing or focusing on one particular thing at a time, and desire to learn and absorb all the things. This can be a great time for a life-upgrade, to expand our ideas of what we think of ourselves, what we think is possible for us, and to revamp our social circle. Are you surrounded by supportive, interesting, and growth-oriented people? Networking, and making new connections are very supported at this time, and in fact, feeds an important part of your inner Gemini.

Jupiter in Pisces (May 13 - June 20, 2021)

Jupiter is the planet of growth, prosperity, and spirituality feels comfortable in Pisces where the universe's energy can be expressed fully. The influence of this transit is powerful in that it is gifting us with the highest level of knowing spirituality that the human mind can understand. Major downloads are available for us to truly feel the enormity of the universe and the minimality of our existence. It reminds us that everything we're living is connected to the same web of energy that unites us all and that this understanding elevates our ability to play in the material world.

The most powerful application of this energy can be felt when we utilize this knowledge to align with a state of inner fulfillment and happiness. When we let go of the attachment to people and things, we evolve our ability to manifest experiences because instead of grasping tightly for success, we lean into it as something that exists just the same as you yourself do. The money we want to make, the community we want to build, the meaning we give to our work all can be distilled to the same cosmic particles that make up our world. When we have a deep awareness of this connection we have to all things, our business has more chances to blossom. We release unnecessary, painful attachments to our success as some pie in the sky and instead step into living it on a personal level each and every day.

Venus in Gemini (May 8 - June 2, 2021)

During this transit, we feel more open, lighthearted, and playful. We aren't as easily swept up in the seriousness of life, or things that would traditionally stress us out. There is a desire for love, affection and enjoyable conversation. We want to be filled up with the fun, more experiential aspects of life, and if these things have felt lacking for you, you will get your fill during this transit.

Long, stimulating conversations, new connections, networking, and opening up to your playful, fun side will really amplify this transit for you. We want to understand more about the world and our lives and if it has felt like a lot of work and no play for you recently, it will be like someone turned the lights on, and you can see more clearly what's been missing in your life.

This is a good time to commit to blocking off times in your schedule for fun, networking, and friendships, as well as more intimate relationships and date nights. To feel human again, and to explore relationships of all kinds at this stage in your life. We don't have to be in grade school anymore to find playmates and those who are just as excited and obsessive about their lives and work as we are. Have fun love!

Pluto Retrograde in Capricorn - (April 27 - October 6, 2021)

26 - 24 DEGREES CAPRICORN

Pluto rules our shadow side, deep-seated fears, limiting beliefs, the unconscious, unpredictability, change, endings and beginnings. Embrace cleaning house both physically and emotionally. Clearing your space, addressing things in your personal relationships and life that doesn't feel good to you anymore. Embrace the change that occurs in your life during this period, it may not be easy but it will bring a level of depth and truth that was needed. Space is being made for new people, new opportunities, new perspectives, new boundaries, and greater fulfillment. Don't hold on to anything that wants to leave. Pluto tends to enact change in our lives whether we like it or not, but it always is for our highest good. Subconscious belief systems can easily be triggered during this time. To find out what area of your life is being influenced by this retrograde look at the current transits in your chart and see what houses Pluto will be moving through.

Mars in Cancer [April 23 - June 11, 2021]

Blast From The Past

This transit packs a powerful punch. Cancer is the sign of the past, home, family, childhood, childhood issues, mothers, needs, and emotions. When Mars moves through this sign we can expect a significant stir up. Mars represents war, anger, intensity, and aggression. We may experience a flood of emotions, memories, or experiences that trigger the above challenges. A challenge with this transit is that we often suppress emotions to 'keep the peace', which ultimately causes a meltdown or boil over of these emotions either towards that person or within that seeps out into other areas of our lives.

This is a period of big change, confrontations, triggers, and addressing your own truth and needs. If there isn't an opportunity for understanding and healing we may feel compelled to cut off emotional connections with others, in order to 'save ourselves'. Use this period to create a sense of security, home, and connection for yourself, however you can. Create a place that feels safe for you to be you and share your feelings and experiences in a healthy way. And allow this transit to release anything that's no longer serving you.

Uranus Stations Direct (6°) (January 14 - August 19, 2021)

6 Taurus 43

When Uranus moves from retrograde to direct, we are being gifted the opportunity to act on those big, bold ideas and innovations that we've been marinating in.

This is a time to regain our bearings. Uranus has been retrograde since August 15, 2020, and has been not so politely nudging us to pay attention to our finances, how we go about earning, spending, and saving our moolah, so that we can create a more stable financial future for ourselves, especially during a time on the planet where there is a great deal of change.

It is asking us to not get distracted by the surface changes, to the algorithms on social media, or the next new platform feature, but rather how we create consistency, security, comfort, and long-term ness within financial and governmental structures no longer offer us the sense of safety that they once did. Uranus brings with it innovation, a rebelliousness that isn't interested in doing things 'the old way'. It doesn't like externally or socially imposed structures, it is here to help you form your own, oddly enough in the comfort-seeking nature of Taurus.

Taurus loves its food, it's home, it's friends, and keeping things kosher, and when it's met with change-agent Uranus, this area of our life is bound to see the most dramatic upgrades (which may feel like mini earthquakes)

What areas of your business have shifted over the past 6 months - a year?

Have you had financial sources dry up, or change?

Have you been compelled to create a new income source for yourself?

How can you create consistency during a time when there is so much inconsistency in our lives and society?

Uranus will remain in Taurus for the next 6 years. The last time that Uranus was in Taurus was post WW2, where new systems were created to ensure the welfare and balance for all, things like social welfare and standard work weeks. Necessary and important to the financial stability for both the family, community, and country's welfare.

As Uranus embarks upon its 5-year journey through Taurus what we can be sure of is that by 2025 the way you have looked at, used, and generated money, financial security, government, law, and growth will not look the same.

Saturn in Aquarius (Dec 16 2020)

The Information Age

This transit will last for the next 2+ years. During this time we will see a surge in the sale and marketing of information, a disassembly of old traditional ways of education, marketing and media and an increase in innovation, discovery and new technology. We will also see an increased interest in Astrology, Psychology, and other consciousness-expanding tools, techniques, practices and systems. This will be a period of great change. With this transit there will be a shift from personal interests and wants to what is best for the planet, humanity and the collective. We will see an even greater impact from our personal choices on the whole of the planet and all species. This will highlight the need for greater personal responsibility and initiating further change in regards to the environment, waste, public health, social supports, technology and the rules governing it and the impact of the 'economy' on global, personal and environmental health.

2020-2023 Saturn Return for those born between

February 1932 - February 1935

January 1962 - December 1964

February 6 1991 – January 8 1994

Saturn returns to each sign once every 29 or 30 years for approximately 3 years. Saturn was last in Aquarius from 2/1932 to 2/1935, 1/1962 to 12/1964, and from 2/1991 to 1/1994. Saturn will again be in Aquarius from December 17, 2020 (after a brief stay there from March 21 to July 1, 2020) through March 7, 2023.

Saturn Returns are periods of great change, challenges and adversity where we will feel the pressure to become more of our own person.

Chiron Direct in Aries [December 15, 2020]

Meeting Ourselves Where We Heal

When Chiron was retrograde, we were forced to slow down in our healing journeys. The purpose of this was to reconnect us with who we really are and the unique way that we are healing during this time. The more we can honour our individual path, the more at peace we will feel with the long standing wounds in our lives. The truth is, we are never really 'over something' but we can find new facets of ourselves and our own medicine with each revisit. Chiron reminds us of our tenacity, our ability to heal ourselves and to share that medicine with others, to transform otherwise difficult experiences through alchemy. When Chiron is in Aries it is a time of action, to walk our talk and to enact real change in regards to our wounds. It is a time where we may impulsively react due to our wounds, so we will need to take pause before jumping in fully but it can also be a very powerful period to bring the wounds to the light. If there is something that you have experienced that you don't want someone else to go through this is a time to bring that cause to light. With Aries we're not messing around, we need to mobilize our healing, we need to create movements around it. It's a time to allow our anger and fury to become channeled into positive change in our world. To use our words and actions in an empowering way, to become the light. It is a period where we will no longer be silenced, and where we will allow our wound to help us to become who we are meant to be.

Neptune Direct in Pisces (November 28, 2020)

Connecting with Our Inner Universe

18 Degrees

Neptune is making its way through Pisces where it will remain until 2027. This Journey it is taking is quite extraordinary and only happens every 165 years.

Neptune in Pisces is here to connect us not only to our intuition but to our subconscious and to all of life on the planet. Neptune is the ruler of the seas (all water on earth) and Pisces is the fish that lives in them. Like a fish we don't notice our environment we aren't aware we're 'IN water' and yet without it, we would not be. All living beings on Earth need water and are made up of water to some extent. We are 70%+ water, and this transit is here to wake us up to who and what we are and the damage that is being done to the world around us. To help us question what is real (as Neptune also rules illusion and delusion) and the ways we have been lying to ourselves or believing the lies of the 'mainstream'. We have in many ways disconnected ourselves from all of life ignoring the way we are damaging the planet and how each choice we make every day has an impact, because we feel sad and depressed at the state of the world, it's problems feel too big to solve.

But when it comes to Neptune in Pisces the solution comes from within, to acknowledge our internal environment and discern the true from the false within us. To ask ourselves deeper questions and to receive the answers from within us. TO remind us that WE are a part of this source, just like all drops of water are a part of the bigger ocean, we are not separate. Often when life and the state of the world becomes overwhelming we try to distract ourselves by focusing on things that cannot nourish us, that cannot fulfill the deep hunger and longing we have inside of us for meaning and healing, but with this transit we are being called within, to find our own nourishment and sustenance from within (rather than from outside of us which is contributing to the damage and harm we are seeing in our planet and world on all levels)

This is a time to cultivate your intuition, to listen to your dreams, and to work with yourself to dive deeper into understanding the mechanism and patterns you are repeating (Pisces is also the natural ruler of the 12th house, which is where we hide things from ourselves, and where our subconscious and trauma reside). The way to heal the planet is by more of us working with this unknown and often scary part of ourselves and bringing awareness and healing to it. This will create a ripple effect that has the power to change and heal the world to a magnitude that we cannot yet comprehend.

If you are feeling drawn to lean into your own intuition to use it in your work, to use it to work with clients, this is your nudge. The veil between you and source (your intuition) has never been thinner than it is right now.
