

The Parasite

By C.F.I.

There is a great leech on the face of Berlin. This Parasite feeds and further entrenches itself off the hardworking men of Berlin. It forces its victims to give up their liberty, their freedom, and their lives for it. It tricks them into false ideas of pride and legitimacy as it sucks them dry of whatever life they have.

Every man has encountered this parasite; many "men" work co-parasitically with it. The intelligentsia have surrendered to it. The working man is subjected to its will every day.

It creates nothing; it deceives, tortures, and steals. All in the name of its interest. It cares for nothing but itself.

This parasite is the imperial government. Every man has encountered the imperial government at some point. We have all been forced under their boot.

But no longer will we be silent! Hardworking men have made their choice:
"Live Free, or Die!"
