She had long dark hair with a pale face with bright blue eyes; and had an aeveils look; her face was full with lines and a death killing look, with a crackling voice that could struck fear into others. She has a look to her that makes people go died on the inside, she wears all black to hunt fear into people, her teeth that are rothen with black lumps, with dark red lips. She would act suspicious around kids to trap them in.

They were walking to the park but they say there friend walking there is well

Every second every minute every hour every pound they gain the old baf forced them to eat as they fell sick the old witch comes lipping towards them open the door and in goes the churchy gignery that feel like they are breaking their teeth but as she goes for round two they...
