

It's important that God's Word continues after the message. At Celebrate, we find that you will talk over this week's message long after our experience is over. That's because God has lasting impact. The Sermon Discussion Guide is designed to help you continue the conversation all week.

Toy Story

Toy Story may just be Our Story. Sheriff Woody is living a life where he is in control, he is Andy's favorite toy, and everything always stays the same. Of course, this is how we want our life to be too, but as Woody is about to learn—and as we probably already know—life just doesn't work that way. So the question becomes: what does God say about it?

You may feel displaced, but you are not replaced. You are not forgotten.

Has there ever been a time when something you believed you had earned was given to someone else? How did you respond to it? Did you treat the person differently afterward? Do you think that how you responded was in line with what Jesus would have done? If so, what did you do? If not, what would you do differently now?

Job 2:9-10

God has his autograph written on the bottom of our shoes. His name is on our hearts.

When God's Name is written on our hearts, He becomes the one in charge of our lives and tells us to live for the betterment of others. Name some physical and emotional ways you support the people in your life.

Philippians 2:3-4

We live in a world of change, but we serve an unchangeable God.

When you experience being unprepared for change, what is your instinctive reaction to it? Do you wish it was different? Why or why not? Give some examples of how God hasn't changed.
