

Dec 11, 2024

Good morning, Cabin John Cougars! Happy Winsome Wednesday! This is Mr. Siddons with your morning announcements. Today is December 11th which is National Stretching Day. As you will find out when you get older, stretching becomes essential. Make sure you remind Mr. Fritz that he needs to stretch, he will know what you are talking about (link to website)

On this date: December 11th: (link to website)

On this day in 1913, the Mona Lisa was recovered after being stolen two years earlier. Even back then, folks couldn't resist taking selfies with her - only this guy took it a bit too far!

Pledge of Allegiance

At this time, please stand for the pledge of allegiance:

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Quote/Question of the Day:

Today's Quote is about thinking before you speak: "Before you speak, let your words pass through three gates: Is it true? Is it necessary? Is it kind?" - Rumi and 13th Century Islamic scholar
