

Dispute doc: Terror in the Skies

(Update log: current to March 21st, 2024. So far there have been no submissions.)

Per my latest corrections policy:

- The bigger my mistake (fact or framing), the larger your reward. Readers may also recommend a charity of choice for me to donate to instead.
- You can submit an anonymous comment through this Typeform, DM me on Twitter, or leave a comment on this doc outlining your concern. But I'll largely reply here.
- While I'll occasionally browse Twitter and Hacker News etc for criticisms, responding in multiple places makes discovery impossible for readers. So when I find / am tagged in good arguments, I'll copy them in here too for centralization. Any even potential mistake I'm made aware of will be visible here, with my responses.
- Any issued corrections will be noted in the original piece via in-line marked edits.
- Ongoing correction log here.
