

1LT Warren F. Wonio

Location - West-A: R22, C3

Warren Wonio

Warren Wonio, 77, of Seal Beach, Calif., formerly of Oshkosh, died Thursday morning at his home.

He was born March 5, 1913, the son of Gertrude and Frank Wonio. Surviving is his second wife, Gwen.

He was a graduate of Oshkosh High School and moved to California about 16 years ago.

First Lt. Warren F. Wonio, 717 North Main street, was a tank unit commander with the 786th field artillery battalion and won the victory medal, Asiatic-Pacific theater service ribbon and American theater service ribbon. He entered service June 13, 1941.