

Perspectives on Critical Issues in Education

About the Journal

Perspectives on Critical Issues in Education, the Journal for the Michigan Association of Teacher Educators (Michigan ATE) serves as a peer-reviewed forum for the vibrant exchange of information and ideas as they relate to diverse educational issues across multiple demographics within all educational settings.

Publication dates

Submissions are accepted on an ongoing basis with the expectation of 4-6 weeks for review and return of submitted works. Issues will be published in March and September each year.

Focus

Articles may focus on key concepts, ideas, professional practices and research that have implications for teacher education and classroom practice locally, regionally, nationally, and/or globally. Tenured/Tenure Track faculty, graduate students, Cooperating and host teachers, field supervisors, adjunct and part-time faculty, and novice classroom teachers are encouraged to submit their work.

Topic areas

Area 1: K-12 learning, teaching, testing, assessment, instructional strategies, research and related topics.

Area 2: Teacher preparation, teacher certification, processes, assessment, accreditation, and research and related topics.

Area 3: Graduate student (Post-BA, Post-BS, MA, MS, EdD, PhD) learning, preparation, and research and related topics.

Area 4: Administration (school, district, etc.), strategies, processes, research and related topics.

Area 5: Technology in educational settings.

Area 6: Teacher leadership.

Submission guidelines

The general expectation is for APA format with tables/charts included in the text body. At this time there is not a minimum or maximum length of text required for publication. (General: double-spaced, 12 point font, APA, Calibri preferred).

General Manuscript Structure

1. Title
2. Author with affiliation, Co-author with affiliation
3. Abstract (Maximum 125 words)
4. Body of Manuscript (includes any tables & figures within text)
5. Acknowledgments
6. References
7. Appendices (if applicable)

Submit as a Word document.

Email Manuscript to: Dr. Ray Francis (michiganate@gmail.com) and include the subject: Michigan ATE Journal Submission. All submitted articles will be peer reviewed, and any edits must be satisfied prior to publication.