TESTIMONIAL

Name : JAVIER LOH HSIEN SIANG

Javier Loh Hsien Siang was a student of Dunman Secondary School from 2013 to 2016. He completed the GCE O-Level Examinations in November 2016.

Academic and Related Skills

In the classroom, Javier demonstrates proficiency in his comprehension and analytical skills through the quality of his assignments. He is a competent worker who is able to work individually or as a team. He shows good aptitude in his thinking skills and works logically to solving a problem. His academic success is evident from his achievement of the Honourable Mention in the Singapore Mathematical Olympiad (Junior Section) in 2014 as well as the Ministry of Education (MOE) Edusave Good Progress Award in 2015. As a dedicated member of the School Choir, Javier participated in many school and public performances and concerts, for example, 'Limelight', a Choir Concert at the Esplanade in 2014. His selfless and humble personality is evident in his patient guidance towards new Choir members, taking time to ensure that they become well versed in their music.

Personal Qualities

Javier is a cheerful individual who takes pride in the tasks that he undertakes. His friendly and good-natured personality made him popular among his classmates. He is genuine in his interaction with others and displays honesty and sincerity to those he comes into contact with. A humble student, he continually strives to optimise his strengths to challenge himself and is responsive to constructive feedback. His teachers and peers found him a very caring and helpful person who would readily lend a helping hand to those in need. His avid joy in helping others convinced his teachers to select Javier as the obvious choice for the role of the Class Resource Officer in 2014 and 2015. Javier is also an outgoing personality who participated enthusiastically in many events such as Outward Bound Singapore in 2015 and the Secondary 1 Orientation Camp in 2016. In the latter, Javier took the initiative to volunteer to help in the camp and requested to be a leader, showing that he was not afraid to pursue leadership opportunities that he would be confident in. Eventually, Javier led the Logistics Department, where his team planned the camp activities and executed the camp smoothly, demonstrating his budding leadership qualities. An active student in school, Javier participated in numerous school events such as the Annual Cross Country Run and Care and Share Day. He has a strong sense of community spirit and he participated in several Values-in-Action events such as the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA) Flag Day where he helped to raise funds for the Silver Fiesta in 2016. In addition, he participated actively in the class's 50 Acts of Service, in commemoration of the school's 50th Anniversary, in which he showed appreciation for those who have helped greatly in the school and community.

Potential

Javier is a caring young man who can be entrusted with responsibilities. He is always willing to help others when the need arises. His sincere and determined approach to life will definitely propel him towards achieving his dreams.
