

boogiebugs terms of service

Hello! This is my terms of service for anything created for or within chicken smoothie parameters. This includes if you contacted me through my discord connected to my chicken smoothie account.

Some rules may be repeated, whoops.

General Rules:

- Follow all cs rules
- Credit my toyhouse for any designs or art drawn by me.
- If you purchased an art piece/character from me with chicken dollars or pets you may not sell it for real currency unless you have acquired extra art which holds real currency value with proof.
- Do not rush me when it comes to my art, I am chronically ill and also have ADHD so unfortunately commissions may take me a while sometimes. If you don't intend to be patient with me do NOT commission me. Give me at least two weeks before poking me for an update on a commissioned piece, as I may be suffering from a health crisis or just busy with other real life things, I am an adult with plenty to do even while being ill.
- Do not remove my signature.
- If I have you blocked, do not interact with me, my art or any of my adopts/giveaways/anything within the same realm.

Design Rules:

- If you purchase a design/character from me you may not immediately sell it. Only purchase with intention to keep the character.
- Do not bid on an auction if you don't intend to follow through.
- Always credit me for my designs.
- You're free to edit or change the design you purchase from me, it's yours now.
- Do not buy my designs to use as trading fodder.
- Do not use my lines as a base for adopts or extra characters.

If you buy anything from me you automatically agree to my terms of service, and if you break any of my rules then you will be given a warning and/or blacklisted.
