BOB MYERS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP Application

The BOB MYERS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP is awarded in memory of Bob Myer, deceased Chelan community musician. Bob was a fantastic trumpet player and all-around musician. He always put others before himself and found ways for everyone around him to shine as bright as he did!

It provides a monetary scholarship to a Chelan student in grades 6-12, who would like to pursue a musical enrichment. This can be attending a summer music camp, taking private lessons over the summer, or even as far as studying music post high school!

Each applicant must complete the enclosed application form and include a copy of middle school OR high school transcripts, including GPA and class rank.

An interview may be required to determine the finalist.
