Around the School Riddles

By: Abhijit Vadlamudi

04/25/2025

Congratulations to the winner of last article's challenge, Owen Pacyga!

This article's challenge is to find out what object I am talking about,

based off the riddles below. (Hint: one of them is in the school):

1. In Mrs. Brower's room, a colorful chart hangs, showing elements arranged in rows. Its squares hold secrets, atomic weight and more, From hydrogen's lightness to uranium's core.

2. I'm a daily ritual, a Starbucks brew, fueling lessons of "ser" and "estar" anew. My aroma hints at cinnamon and spice, a potent elixir, keeping grammar precise. My origin's known, my true identity concealed, a caffeinated drink, expertly revealed. What am I?
