Event Overview

The MEA Trackmania Cup is a solo event for Middle East, Africa and Turkish citizens and passport holders. The 2023 Edition takes place in the Trackmania (2020) game on mixed-style maps.

Participation

To participate in the event, a player must be from the Middle East, Africa or Turkey (Check - Annexure A: Countries) and needs to have Standard or Club Versions of the game on PC or Console.

Players are obligated to play with the country flag they are representing otherwise, players will be disqualified from the event.

Staff are allowed to participate in the event.

Players can be asked for some documents that verify their residency or belonging from these nations of the region.

Note: This tournament is designed for players at a mid to entry level skill range. If we determine that a participant is significantly more skilled or experienced, we will contact them to explain why they are ineligible to compete in this particular event. However, we will be hosting another event specifically for experienced players, where they can showcase their skills.

Registration

The registration process will take place through the in-game events tab or MEA Trackmania club in game.

To sign-up players are required to have Standard or Club Access and will need to fit the criteria.

Participants have to be present at the Trackmania MEA discord, where main communication will take place under the "MEA Trackmania 2023 Event" category tab.

Event Format

The Amateur Tournament is a free, open event that welcomes all participants who meet the registration and participation criteria, except those already playing in the Masters division.

The tournament comprises three stages: Qualifier, Placement, and Bracket.

During the Seeding phase, participants engage in a Time Attack on one of the tournament maps, which serves as a means to determine their placement in the subsequent event.

In the Placement event, all participants are divided between two servers. Matches are played in rounds mode, with each of the three maps being played for five rounds. The top eight players from each server will advance to the Bracket phase, while the remaining players will be eliminated.

The Bracket event follows a single elimination 1v1v1v1 Cup Mode format, The winner of the Amateur event secures an invitation to the Masters division for the next edition.
