3. Date of the Event : 17/09/2025
4. Organized by (Event Incharge) : Shivakumar Reddy
5. Objectives of the Program :

The primary objective of the Photowalk organized by the Department of Social Sciences and Humanities, St. Mary's College, was to provide students with hands-on experience in landscape and architectural photography. The event aimed to help students explore the rich historical heritage of Golconda Fort, Hyderabad, while learning about composition, lighting, and visual storytelling techniques in outdoor settings.

6. Event report :

The Department of Social Sciences and Humanities, St. Mary's College, organized a Photowalk to Golconda Fort, Hyderabad as part of its experiential learning activities. The event provided students an opportunity to explore the majestic fort, capturing its diverse landscapes, monuments, and architectural details through their lenses.

During the photowalk, students visited various parts of the fort, experimenting with different photographic techniques under the guidance of faculty members. They engaged in discussions about composition, texture, and perspective, while also learning about the historical significance of the site.

The activity successfully combined learning with exploration, encouraging students to appreciate photography as both an art and a medium of documentation. The event concluded with an interactive reflection session, where participants shared their best photographs and insights gained from the experience.

7. Outcomes :

- Students gained practical exposure to various aspects of landscape and heritage photography.

- They developed an understanding of framing, angles, and lighting in natural and architectural environments.
- The activity enhanced students' creative observation skills and appreciation for historical architecture.
- Students learned to connect visual art with cultural history, enriching both their artistic and academic perspectives.
