325 Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of all things visible and invisible; and in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, begotten of the Father the only-begotten; that is, of the essence of the Father, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father; by whom all things were made both in heaven and on earth; who for us people, and for our salvation, came down and was incarnate and was made human. He suffered, and on the third day he rose again, and ascended into heaven. From there, he will come to judge the living and the dead;

and in the Holy Ghost.

But those who say: “There was a time when [Jesus] was not;” and “He was not before he was made;” and “He was made out of nothing,” or “He is of another substance” or “essence,” or “The Son of God is created,” or “changeable,” or “alterable”— they are condemned by the holy catholic and apostolic Church.
