

Adjusting Video and Audio for your Google Meet

When you are joining a Google Meet you can select which camera, microphone and speakers you want to use. You will see your image based on the default camera. You can easily mute either the microphone or camera using the icons on the screen.

If you wish to change these default settings, click on the three dots located in the bottom right corner of the screen. Click on Settings. Adjust the settings and click done.

