Who is ImJustJR?

ImJustJR (Born on June 18th, 2004) is a popular Minecraft Youtuber that uploads and streams on both YouTube & Twitch. He originally had a big boom back in 2020 when Dream shouted out his stream during a speedrun of “Dream’s Nether Challenge.”

<https://x.com/ImJustJR>

<https://x.com/dreamwastaken/status/1280557376651833344>

JR would continue to interact with Dream Team Twitter, which would eventually lead him to be raided by one of the Dream SMP members, Sapnap, here during a stream.

Prior Context: JR's Porn Addiction and RJ

RJ is the female version of JR. Originally, the character was made for fun and to be the average gender-swap version of JR's sona. However, RJ would soon become a character of suggestive, fetish, and NSFW art at the request of JR himself for it. Here are some illustrations of the character (HEAVY NSFW WARNING):

JR's discussion of his growing porn addiction can be seen here along with examples of how much he spent on it/planned to:

JR 12/23/2024 2:38 AM

I want to talk about something very personal to me

But I also want to ask what your stance is on nsfw stuff as a whole in case it might be a bit much !

i'm personally not into it but i don't mind jokes or discussions surrounding it

JR 12/23/2024 2:40 AM

Gotcha ! I needed to get that down incase the topic I'm gonna bring up might make you uncomfortable. I would hate for that

JR 12/23/2024 2:49 AM

But I want to talk about some of the reason why rj was an oc I created this year. It does mainly have to do with the fact I want to be a vtuber with this model down the line. But another reason was because of something I've kept to myself for the longest time. As a kid growing up, I was exposed to a lot of things on the internet which is a blessing and a curse as nothing really phases me aside from DOXXING of course lol. But something that caught my attention and never left my mind was content of the inflation fetish. Basically to put it in basic terms, it's the act of a character blowing up. Whether it be one part of their body like their boobs, butt, or belly, and sometimes their entire body. It wasn't until my early teenage years that it clicked that it was a fetish I was into. For the longest time I kept this very personal information to myself and was deeply afraid of what people would think of me if it ever got out, but it also felt very enclosing to lock something like that away forever and ever. This year during the summer, I began to get private commissions of the rj persona as a way to ease into the topic a bit more and with time I've told very close friends about the interest and it has been really freeing. Of course I'm still deeply afraid of what I'd do if this ever got out as I feel like I would put my whole career in jeopardy having my privacy out there. You can draw connections to pyrocynical a bit, but I have nothing to hide except for the fact I'm into it. I wanted to share this information to be a bit more honest about myself and so if we have discussion of an art piece of this nature, it wouldn't be out of the blue. I really do hope this doesn't change our relationship in any way, but I do also understand this is a very unnormal thing Wall of text moment, call that shit the wall of flesh

JR would commission many NSFW artists for such artwork that fulfills his fantasies. There is nothing inherently wrong with this; however, he would neglect paying back people he owes money to/wanted to give money to for their efforts. Instead, he would commission more artwork of RJ (list below).

- NoodleGirl: Video editing (owed to in a way, please check NoodleGirl for more information)
- Saypil/-C: Thumbnails (wanted to give money to, please see here for more information as well)

JR's want for RJ art does not stop here. He would go to artist friends he knows to request such art. Some of these requested drawings are not NSFW; however, there is a great majority of suggestive art he has requested and pushed for it. The main artists he would go to for these works would be Saypil/-C, Ciosui and another artist who's chosen to be referred to as K, not only because of their ability to draw, but because they were considered as "close" friends of JR.

It is important to note that Saypil/-C, Ciosui and K do not normally draw artworks of exaggerated proportions (relating to JR's fetish of inflation) nor are comfortable with drawing suggestive/NSFW content as a whole. However, JR would attempt to coerce Saypil/-C, Ciosui and K to draw such content for them to not only "try" drawing such works (such as for practice or as a warm-up), but as well as for his own satisfaction. Despite these artists setting boundaries to JR for him to stop requesting RJ art, JR would continue to subtly want it (usually through a half-joking message/bit) and/or guilt trip in his messages when talking to these artists:

ImJustJR 9/13/24, 5:10 PM

you can see the light at the end of the tunnel
what was the big comm?

Ciosui 9/13/24, 5:11 PM

[REDACTED] I worked for hired me again for a new character

Oh and also I wanted to talk to you about your comm so the dlc was 35ish right I cannot do that pose you sent I have to do a standing pose because the body you're requesting is one I said I'm just not comfortable doing but I wanna try because you're my friend (I also didn't like the bringing up of past comms because even if I got close in previous art that doesn't change my feelings right now) I'm going out of my comfort zone already and adding a more complicated pose is just complicating things in general and it's all for 35-40 dollars and that's not even the cost I have for icons

Ciosui 9/13/24, 5:19 PM

I hope that comes across well I don't mean it to be rude or anything!!

ImJustJR 9/13/24, 5:24 PM

thats totally fair. i want to sincerely apologize for what i said about the previous sketch and i should be able to understand that this is pushing what you usually draw and what youre comfortable with. it doesnt click in my brain sometimes because it doesnt seem extreme, but i have to understand these are your feelings and that doesnt justify or excuse me wanting to change the poses and such. i do understand this is an extreme discount/trade for a dlc that isnt close to your regular prices, so i apologize for wanting/requesting more when realistically, this is already a privilege to have to begin with. i dont see this as rude but more so just being firm and thats probably what i needed to hear to understand that i am pushing things a bit, really sorry about that cio (edited)

ImJustJR 9/13/24, 5:35 PM

i really like hearing about your work and when you showcase your art to me whenever we talk its genuinely amazing to see. its unfortunate, but i cant really afford your prices so as much as it would be fun to comm you consistently, i settle for just hearing/talking about your work. when occurences like these happen with the dlc trade, these are once in a blue moon and i want to make them count if you get what i mean? i want these piece to be how i envision it so that i can be satisfied since i dont know when the next time ill get a piece is. i thought this would be a perfect time to bring up the rj idea since ive been getting more comfortable with talking about it, but its wrong of me to try and push that kind of suggestive art/idea even if youre okay with me talking/showing the art to begin with. i hope this doesnt effect anything in our friendship, and i really appreciate you talking to me about this, its a learning experience and while friends may be okay with me having that kind of artwork, i shouldnt push it for them to draw it just because theyre okay with it

Ciosui 9/13/24, 9:40 PM

Sorry for not replying sooner I was with a friend!! It's all good man I totally see where you're coming from with the wanting to make them count lol, I'm glad you heard me out I was worried I'd fuck up making my point so I'm glad that's cleared up Byeah like you said learning experience and I completely accept your apology!!

We're all good then ^^

ImJustJR 9/13/24, 9:45 PM

I'm glad :) the last thing I want is to make you uncomfortable. Probably a big fear of mine is having a relationship end like that

Going forward, how do you want to handle the comm? I would like to make suggestions, but your call is completely final

 Ciosui I'll respond today later stuff happening

ImJustJR 9/22/24, 10:23 AM

Ciosui 9/22/24, 11:11 AM

IIII FORGOT

hmm

sorry but either a headshot of rj or a bust to waist of another character

ImJustJR 9/22/24, 1:20 PM

Gotcha, if that's the final decision, let's do the bust to waist of jr then

ImJustJR 9/22/24, 1:27 PM

It sucks that the final decision came to that, but I know I kinda ruined it

@ImJustJR Gotcha, if that's the final decision, let's do the bust to waist of jr then

Ciosui 9/22/24, 1:28 PM

kaykay!! anything in mind?

 @ImJustJR hey cio i got a question, this relates to our situation earlier, but just for a better reference, what are you boundaries? i dont think ive ever heard them

Ciosui 9/25/24, 12:51 AM

hm in regular comms i've always had no nsfw which i believe in itself includes no fetish art. and the other is asking for whats outside of the set price. here its a lil different ofc because the comm wasn't set in stone but you get it. i think those are the only two art-wise.

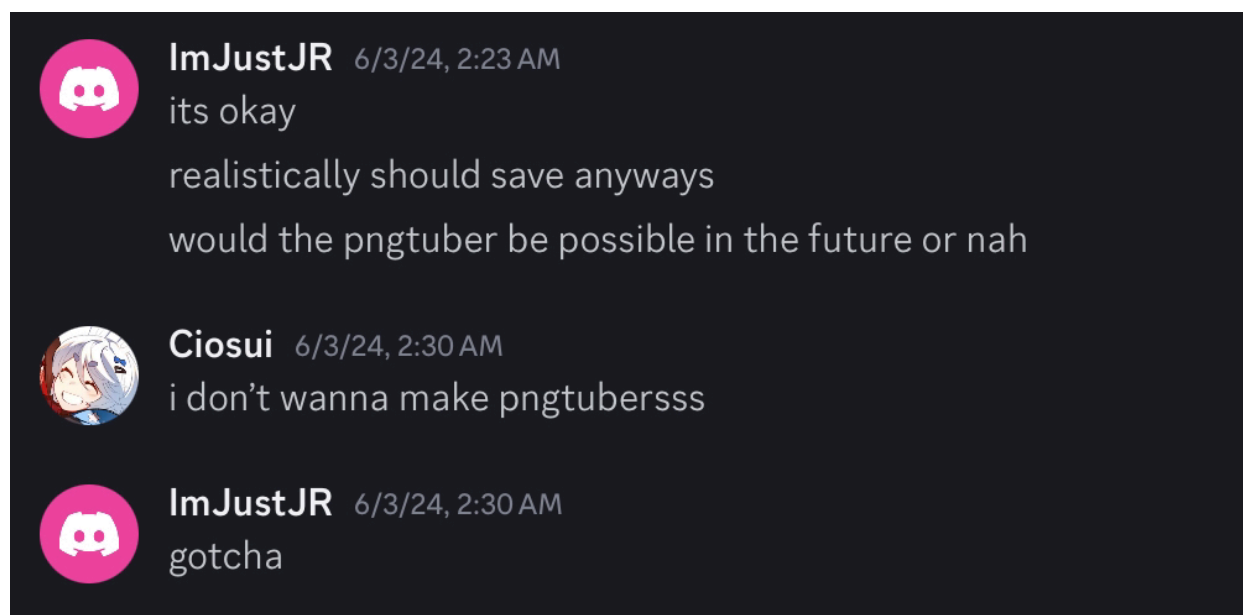

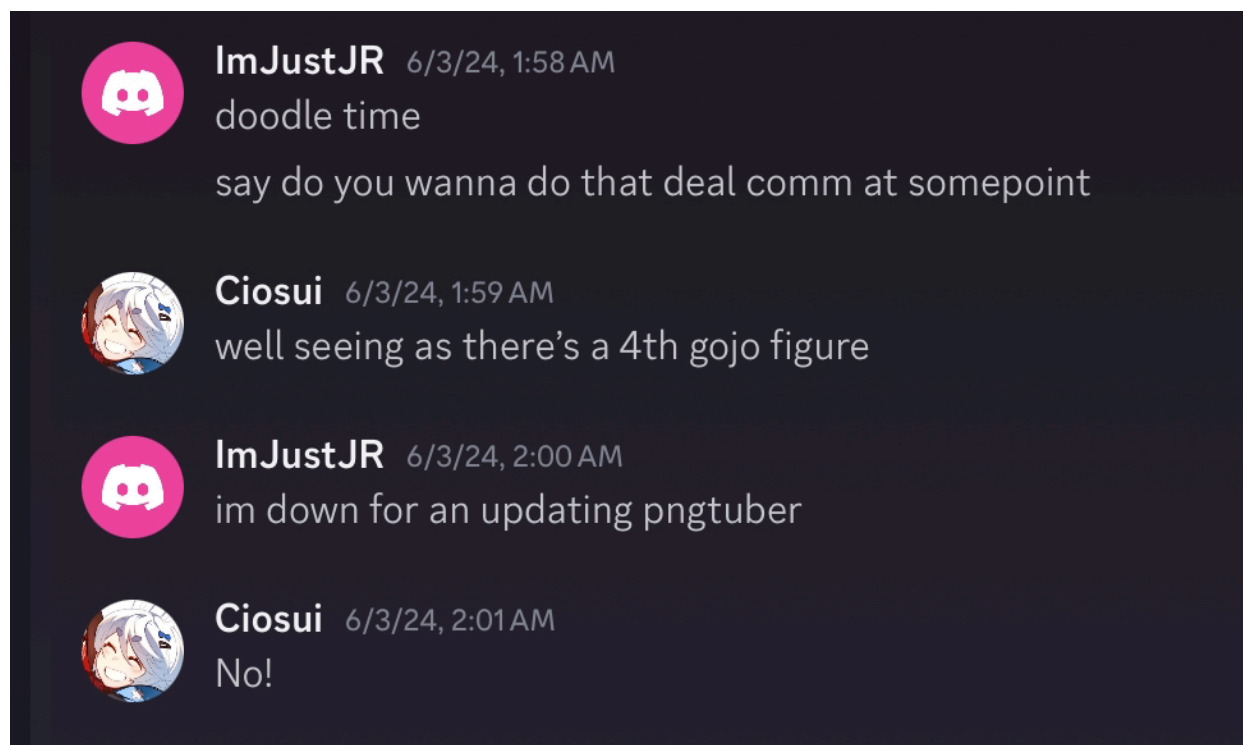

now personal boundaries, i dont really have many but a big one is getting pushed or guilt-tripped into doing something. again i forgive you for this but just to reiterate, i didn't like when you brought up past art i've done because i already told you no i cant make her thicker and it felt at that point like me saying no wasnt being respected. but again you apologized its good we move. i tend to not speak out when that specific boundary gets crossed cause it happens often. but like i know you try to help by getting me out of my comfort zone and it comes from a good place but if i insist i dont wanna do something and i get pushed on it im going to get upset. and if i cave and do it anyway its still going to hurt our relationship. i hope im putting it in a way that makes sense? this isnt a direct at you btw this is something i have with everyone im incredibly easy to piss off when it comes to this and ive fought with many people over my stubbornness but yeah other than that im pretty much fine ! you can tell me yours in exchange if youd like !!

that makes sense ! i just wanna make sure i dont cross them again and if there was any more i should keep an eye out for. i appreciate the explanation too

A lot of the interactions with Cio happened in VC, so the evidence we have documented won't show the true extent of how pushy he was, but as you will continue to see through other accounts, he would claim to be "apologetic" once the artist tells them their boundaries, and then continue to push them anyways.

This screenshot showcases how little he cared for their rejections. Cio clearly states “No!” at 2:01 AM EST to him pushing her to upgrade his commission to a PNGtuber. Not even 20 minutes later, he asks AGAIN, where she has to state again that she “doesn’t wanna make pngtubers”

As small as these interactions may be, these patterns that JR showcased would elevate more and more as time progressed. As you will see later in this document, it went to levels of obsession for others, and plain harassment for all of those involved.

ImJustJR 1/16/2025 2:34 AM

its a very similar sentiment cio shares with not being able to draw nsfw period. i understand that its a privilege to get the doodles/requests in the first place. that is something you dont have to do, but im always grateful that you do them id be willing to listen to the mental blockage. is it nsfw in general or fetish proportions?

-C 1/16/2025 2:39 AM

As shown in these screenshots, he is aware these artists are not comfortable with drawing suggestive/NSFW works. To add on, he is also aware these artists are normally busy with other priorities. However, despite knowing this information, he continues to keep asking and pushing for more information as to why these artists are unable to draw these works without accepting the fact they are simply uncomfortable with the idea.

Saypil/-C & K's explanation as to why they kept conversing with JR even after boundaries were broken can be seen here (Saypil/-C's) and here (K's).

Grooming Allegations Within A Discord Server (NSFW)

Unfortunately, due to an independent party, they've requested to censor information regarding the owner of the server. Said independent party will be monitoring the situation regarding both the victim and the perpetrator. Despite disagreements, both parties have felt that this was the necessary way to go about the document in the best intentions to protect the victim. When we refer to this server, it will be referred to as "the owner's server" & when we refer to the owner, the name will be shortened to "the owner."

As you will discover in the screenshots below, this server was very sexually active, with multiple conversations relating to NSFW being abundant across every channel. The only reason this is a cause for concern is because the contents and conversations of the server are being said around a minor, who would become a victim.

The victim in these images (who has been blurred for privacy reasons) is 14 and has been in the server since 2021 when they were 11. Not only that, all the conversations in the images below were in a chat everyone could see. Please note that while the name and pfp is blurred, the emoji next to them is the same, showing that this is the same person in all the screenshots. Along with that, any of the art they have drawn has been censored to help avoid recognizing them, but descriptions of said art will be described.

JR's Association With The Victim

On January 11th, 2025 (the earliest we know of), ImJustJR engaged in multiple NSFW conversations with the victim in said Discord server. This would start with JR showcasing his NSFW OC to the minor.

While not all art of RJ is NSFW, the character in nature is suggestive and it's heavily implied JR showed the victim said NSFW images.

In order for this conversation to make sense, please recall the ‘inflation’ kink that JR has with his character RJ. A majority of this conversation revolves around these kinks of his and will make more sense with that context in mind.

All of these images are part of one large conversation and have been uploaded in chronological order.

As the victim was drawing the breasts of the character, they would make a joke about how JR should “tell them when to stop” so that they could get the best cup size on the model that would suit his interests. This screenshot also implies that JR sent the victim more NSFW images, or at least suggestive ones for reference.

Note the: “WOAH THOSE ARE HUGE. SORRY” with no prior context. Within the context of the conversation, it implies that JR allegedly showed them a reference.

During this conversation, another adult joins in on the victim talking NSFW, but doesn’t do anything regarding it. JR was currently in a voice call with (at least) the minor and another person in which a conversation ensues regarding the ‘Mudae’ bot and how the minor has ‘seen worse’.

01/11/2025 10:57 AM

The minor had approached JR with an interest to draw his RJ character. It is implied that they already knew that the true nature of this character was NSFW, with the victim directly stating, “jr do you have a sfw ref. I can cook one up” in the first image from this section.

What further implies their knowledge of the true intentions behind the character is a direct quote in the screenshot below stating “the best part about this being an SFW sheet is that we BOTH get to show it off”.

In the same screenshot, the victim compares drawing a ref for RJ to a time when they had to hide their “yuri” from their parents. They clearly state that if their parents found what they were drawing, they would be genuinely concerned and please keep that in mind as you read the rest of the document.

Here is JR directly in the conversation (alongside showcasing other members seeing the messages). This image confirms the minor's age once more and reaffirms that JR knew how old the victim was.

On January 18th, a conversation ensues between JR, the victim and another user in which RJ is discussed, with the victim indicating that they are a minor and making a joke because of it, stating that “I hope they remember I’m a minor!” with them confirming at the end of the screenshot, that the joke was about “how it feels to draw RJ.” This implies that they know the things being requested of them are wrong due to their age, but would rather make a half-joke rather than start anything with anyone.

JR is clearly made aware of the fact that the victim would ‘pass away’ if anyone saw what they were drawing. Another user pops in to say that this is a “terrifying convo to read,” but leaves it at that. The victim also later jokingly tells “JR to pay them to draw a big boobed chibi for $5.”

Important Note: “Nemurunu” is a character species created on DeviantArt that refers to “porcelain dolls or humans”. To add on, the style the victim draws in is similar to art of such characters from the species which is, in simple terms, front-facing full body chibi.

This is important because when searching up “nemurunu” without the word “species” next to it, the search results are automatically set to SafeSearch and the results include NSFW descriptions and sensitive topics. Considering in the screenshot right above they are talking about a species, it is important to note they are not referring to just “nemurunu” but rather “nemurunu species”.

DISCLAIMER: Those who are involved with the making of the “Nemurunu” characters are NOT involved/have nothing to do with this situation in any capacity, and should not be accused of supporting or having knowledge of anything mentioned in this document.

Alongside this date, another event occurred in which RJ was posted with the victim asking (jokingly or otherwise), “is this how children grow up to be nsfw artists?” JR replies to this conversation with a gif, completely ignoring the message the victim sent.

On January 19th, a message was posted regarding HuniePop being free for a limited time, with the victim responding with “I’m a minor.” All JR said in the conversation was “thanks.” This image not only shows that JR once again knew of the victim’s age but also how normalized it was for the rest of the server, as no one seems to be commenting on it.

Images Showing Complacency in NSFW Talks With A Minor:

While some of these conversations do not include JR directly, it further proves how NSFW talk with this minor was normalized/encouraged in the server:

January 11th (11:57 AM): The victim posts an image of RJ with a user commenting on it sexually, including encouraging them to 'draw me like that.'

January 17th (12:58 PM): Another conversation ensues with the user from the previous screenshots, in which talks about the victim's breast size is discussed, with it being heavily implied that the user had told the victim about cup sizes and encouraged them to discuss it.

February 5th (8:22 PM): The victim posts a screenshot of the owner stating they're going to jerk off, with the owner replying by stating, "God forbid a girl has hobbies." Another user joins to agree with the owner.

okay I'm with you on this one girlie

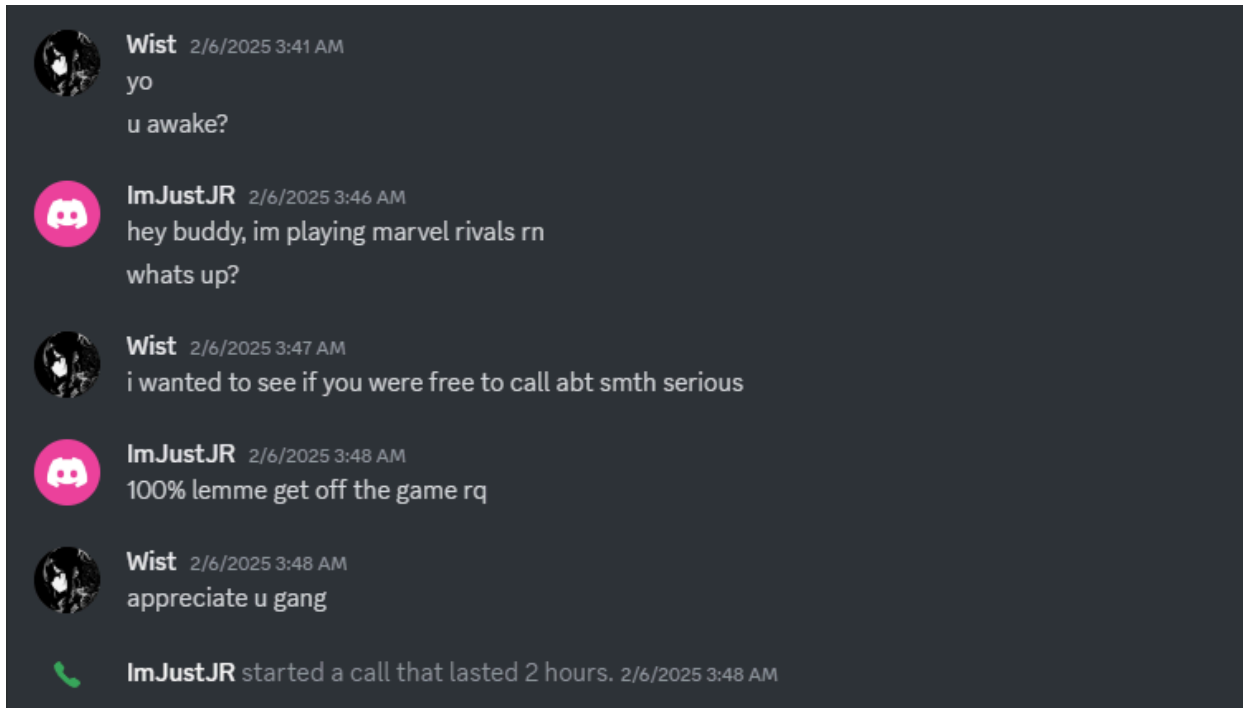

While many active adults in the server witnessed these conversations and didn't intercept publicly, an investigation provided new information that showed that some had privately approached the owner previously regarding the NSFW conversations, with the owner downplaying the situation. While this doesn't remove the responsibility and their complacency regarding their presence due to the fact they didn't take that as a sign to leave/attempt to further protect the victim, we feel that including this account will help you understand some of the active members' mindset and how it slid by for so long.

JR's Initial Confrontation with InvaderWist

On February 6th, 2025, I, InvaderWist, was checking my missed pings throughout every discord server I was present in, as I had just come back from an outing with friends. I'm currently in 100+ Discord servers, with 98% of them being ones I never use. My usual process is marking every ping from servers I'm not active in as "Mark as Read", but since I had some time to kill, I decided to lurk through a few servers. Once I finally arrived at the server displayed above, out of pure boredom, I decided to catch up on months of unread messages.

For context, I was invited to the server all the way back in 2018 when I was 13 years old due to being at the time friends with the owner. Everyone was around the same age, and as the server grew up, so did its members. I was kicked out of the server the same year I joined, and then re-invited in 2020 after a miscommunication that was eventually cleared up. After being re-invited, I became inactive. During that inactive period, the victim who's been mentioned throughout this entire document would be added under my nose.

As I write this, I'm currently 20 years old. So you can imagine my shock once I browsed the chats more and more, and uncovered the unsettling nature of the server. I had only dropped into VC twice at the tail end of 2024 for a brief catching up with the owner, as it had been years since I had shown my face there. I was introduced to the minor during my catch-up VC with the owner, and when they told me their age, I asked why they were in the server. The owner explained to me how they met, and I took it as a "sibling-ship", if you may. I grew up with a lot of my friends being people older than me, so I understood the sentiment at the time. As an inactive member of the server, I didn't know the extent of what their relationship was truly like. So when I looked through what they were actually saying in chat on February 6th, 2025, I was in complete shock once I came across the normalization of sexual conversations whilst a minor was present and JR's heavy involvement in them, and decided to confront him immediately.

For further context, I've known JR since I was 12 and he was 13. As of February 22nd, 2025, we are both 20. For those who are reading, and have seen JR's content, you've most likely seen me featured in 90% of his streams/videos. We started YouTube together, and were best friends throughout all of it. So I'm sure you can imagine how hurt I was reading these conversations.

I immediately called JR once I compiled the evidence and harshly told him the reality of the situation. I was under the impression that JR was completely ignorant to the overall impact his conversations were having on the minor and, whether that was because I wanted to believe that my childhood friend was just being negligent and not malicious, I would then proceed to spend the majority of the call explaining to him why this server is not an environment he should participate in any longer.

JR told me he understood the severity of the situation, and told me he'd contact the owner and the victim to apologize. I demanded he tell me the aftermath of his call immediately once it concluded. I would leave "the owner's" server not too long after I was made aware of the conversations and hoped JR would do the same.

Whilst awaiting JR's response, I had made prior obligations to accompany my friends on a birthday trip from February 7th to the 9th. Then, when once I came back home on the 9th to celebrate the Superbowl win, I would fall ill with Covid and have limited to no screen time for the next few days. Due to all the chaos, time would slip by me and a week would pass.

Once I had recovered, I would message JR on February 13th to remind him to inform me about the call. JR would avoid the topic for 4 days straight (Note the timestamps in the messages). It wouldn't be until JR joined my VC in our private friend group on February 17th where I would remind him once again about what we agreed to. Here is that interaction pictured below:

JR has shown in his initial confrontation that he failed to realize the severity of the situation, as he chose to remain in the server even after all of the conversations and still considers them friends. I directly confronted JR because of these conversations and choosing to remain in the server speaks heavily on JR's view of the situation.

I was disappointed in his response and felt as if he was downplaying the severity of the situation. This is when I began alerting my close friend group (Braincells) about the situation in order to gauge opinions.

Every single server member that I had shown the proof to, felt the same way as me. We were disappointed in JR's lack of responsibility when it came to protecting the victim from these sexual conversations. Not only as an adult is it your responsibility to not talk sexually with or around minors, but as a content creator, you should be ensuring the safety of the underage. As a person with a huge platform, his neglect of this responsibility and refusal to understand was a huge red flag.

As I shared the evidence around our friend group, a pattern started to come to light. Not only was JR proactive in the misconduct of a minor, but he had stalked, sexually harassed, and hurt many of the women close to him. The details of these accounts will be shared later in the document; for now we're staying focused on the alleged grooming.

JR's Final Confrontation

We apologize for the length of the clips linked but in order to ensure the viewer knows we didn't cut anything, we had to keep JR's long pauses throughout the call. Any major cuts are due to personal discussions within the call that are not relevant to this section unless specifically detailed in their own sections later.

Along with that, new info has risen that has slightly altered the opinions said in the recording regarding the adults in "the owner's" server.

On February 19th, 2025, at 5:31 PM EST, members of the private friend group got into a VC with JR to discuss what he did and how he would be dealt with. The first 55 minutes were dedicated to each of the individual members stating their thoughts on JR's actions and how it's affected them personally.

56 minutes within the call, Wist rerouted the call to the grooming situation. He recounts the exact actions that took place in the server and asks JR if what is going on in that server is considered grooming. JR responds with, "With the way I see it now, yes." Wist asks if that means he was an active participant in that with JR saying, "Even though I didn't directly contribute, yes, unfortunately." Please note that this statement is a complete lie by JR with the screenshots you have been provided earlier in the document. Wist then asks if every adult active in that server is complacent with grooming due to the conversations in said server, with JR also responding with "Yes."

Finally, Wist asks if the victim is being groomed in the server with all the new information that's been unveiled (that JR already knows about). JR says, "Originally, no. But now, yes." Please take into account the long pauses between each of JR's responses in the footage as this extends throughout the entire 2+ hour call. Wist then states that the server is not a safe place for the victim and the first retribution for JR is attempting to get the minor out of that server, which he failed to do after the call and even as this document releases.

<https://youtu.be/cm03luDKnx4>

After about an hour in the call, while Wist continues on how the server is unsafe for a minor and how all the active members who are adults should be held responsible (despite the relationships he may have with some of the server members), he gets upset at JR for not listening in the first call they had. Wist talks about his history with JR and how they did content creation together, including witnessing other people being exposed for the same actions JR is doing. Wist states he's been looking out for JR since the beginning, with his limit being "having sexual conversations with a minor."

Wist points out that JR himself made jokes due to his status as a Minecraft Youtuber, bringing in the 'grooming' jokes. He reminds JR of his responsibilities as a content creator; that they are public figures. They have things that they cannot do. They're responsible for kids' safety, as the majority of their fanbase is younger than them. Wist explains what happens when a situation like this occurs; screenshots leak, conversations leak, your career starts falling apart. He then ends it with, "Why did you let it get this bad man?"

<https://youtu.be/uYgZJJcsEAe>

After an hour and 13 minutes into the call, Wist asks JR what we should do with this information. JR ignores the question and confesses how his porn addiction started, how he wants to improve and how he doesn't want it to end. Wist informs JR that he has not answered his question in the slightest, with JR stating that "he's trying to find the words." This clip goes on for over 10 minutes due to JR's long pauses in between words.

<https://youtu.be/NjDEaYYZUKI>

After 20 minutes of JR dodging the question, Ozzy and Rose leave the VC to discuss JR's actions in private servers, with Ozzy expressing disappointment that "It took us calling you out for you to say you were going to make an apology, not that you give one, but going to." Wist then asks JR to spit out whatever he's thinking. JR states he shouldn't be around anymore and that he shouldn't be a content creator anymore. Wist asks how JR can take accountability, with him saying how he needs to reflect on himself and take time away. Wist reaffirms to JR that while he is a human being, there are consequences for what he did. JR continues to confess that what he did was wrong, and how he ruined the one dream he had; YouTube.

<https://youtu.be/3pY0kJkCLTA>

Almost 2 hours into the call, JR states that he's sorry, with Wist asking to who. JR responds with "everyone," leading NoodleGirl to ask JR for the specific people he's sorry to. JR apologizes to Yesenia, Wist (as Elijah), the members of the private friend group and Saypil especially, as he considers Saypil's to be the most important. After apologizing to everyone, he once again confesses what he's done and that he wants to be better. Please note here that it took 2 hours for him to apologize to ANYONE and had to be told who he's apologizing to rather than a general 'everyone.'

<https://youtu.be/tQODMiJO6Sg>

Two hours and thirty minutes into the call, after JR says his final messages, Wist kicks JR out of the private friend group. As JR's response showed that he still wasn't taking full accountability, Wist would contact important people/groups behind the scenes that JR was heavily involved/associated with. This included groups such as The Soulbound SMP & the administrative team on JR's public Discord server. Wist would explain the process of how JR came out to them and would leave discussion on how to deal with JR to the individual parties. Other members in the private friend group would contact other groups JR was associated with as well.

JR enabling the grooming of the minor by normalizing sexual/fetish conversations around them could potentially cause trauma for the victim later in life. Adults normalizing sexual conversations with minors is NOT OKAY.

JR's actions don't just include grooming, but also accounts of attempted sexual assault, sexual harassment, pushing boundaries, along with failure to give payment for those who worked for him and provided him revenue of over $1000.

The following is a compilation of accounts from those closely involved / impacted by JR's actions.

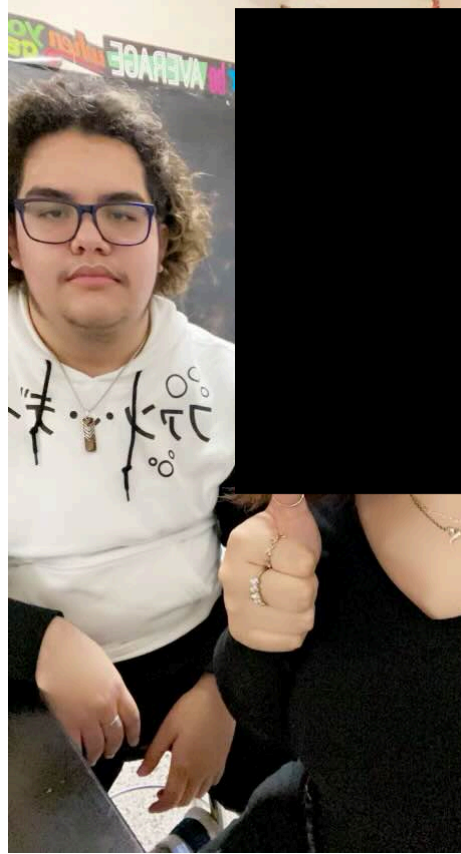

Creepy Interactions With IRLs

Yesenia's Experience

The section below is narrated by Yesenia's personal account of the following events.

To start, I've been friends with JR since my freshman year of high school & his sophomore year. We slowly integrated into being more online friends than in person because he had graduated a year before me. I'm not somebody who goes out frequently, so when JR would softly hint at hanging out either at my place, or me making a trip to go visit him I wasn't always the most enthusiastic.

Sun, Jun 30 at 6:28 PM

has he arrived home ?

Plane just landed 🐸

Sun, Jun 30 at 8:20 PM

he's back in america!!

It's true !

Wait.

Living well

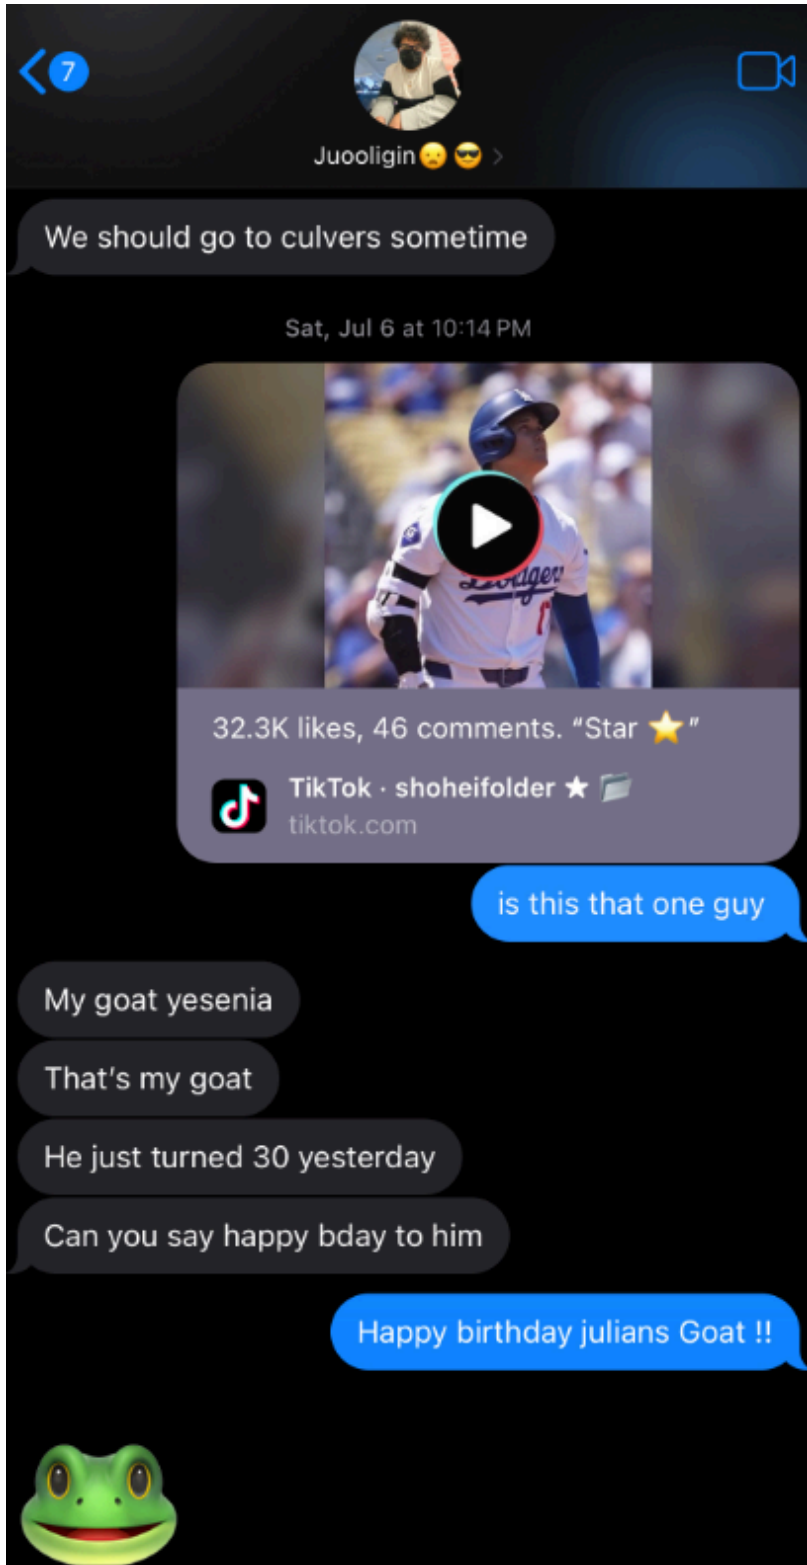

very yum

We should go to culvers sometime

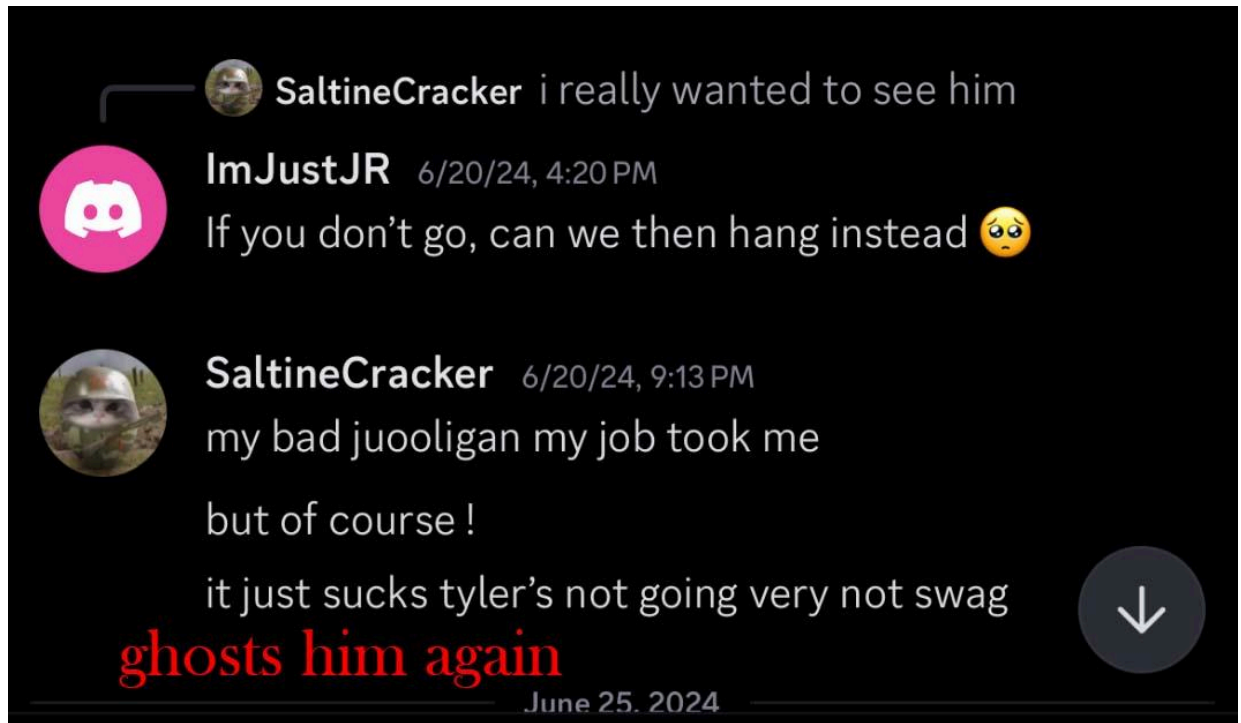

iMessage

These two screenshots showed the lack of enthusiasm for the requests to hang-out as I ended up just ghosting him.

The context for this screenshot is when I was upset about Tyler, The Creator dropping out of Lollapalooza 2024. When I mentioned my fleeting interest in attending the festival, JR would ask if we could hangout instead. As you can see, I ghosted him again.

The relationship JR and I had was strictly platonic until a conversation arose about the sexual experiences I had between my ex-boyfriend and I. I wasn't uncomfortable with sharing this information because JR had expressed that he was simply interested in a subject that he wasn't well versed in.

For context, my ex-boyfriend and I ended up in a Friends with Benefits situation and it caused a huge detrimental impact on my mental well-being. I had expressed this to JR and told him that I would never see myself doing that in the future only because of how much damage it had caused me. This is when JR felt that he could openly express that he had a fetish that was seen as taboo. The majority of our conversations weeks before this would start off normal but would lead to hours long worth of conversation about his inflation kink.

Message @ImJustJF

Truthfully, I didn't feel uncomfortable at the start, but as JR brought up the topic more and more he started to ask questions that were more personal. He started off by asking me if I would feel comfortable kissing him. JR had expressed previously that he felt that his first time experiences should be shared with somebody that he deemed a close friend of his. I declined saying I didn't want it to affect our friendship in any way, which he then advanced to asking if having a friends with benefits relationship with him would be something I would consider. I again declined which he then later said “what about something like engaging in foreplay?” I explained that that was far more personal and intimate, it was an advancement that I didn't feel comfortable with at all. This entire conversation took place on June 25th, 2024 around 1 AM CST. As you can see in the screenshot below, I had made plans prior with JR to take him to the airport in the following days, which he would then ask to call me and pursue this conversation.

Hey yesenia

What time is good for u?

i was trying to plan out the same thing cause we could do breakfast around 8:30 finish up around 9 something and head to o'hare cause i'm pretty sure traffic is gonna be disgusting

That sounds good to me, do you wanna talk abt it on call?

sure call me whenever :)

In the same call, he later felt that he could ask if he could grope me when I picked him up, in order to help him start his sexual journey. As I expressed in the previous paragraph, I had already told him that these were not activities I wanted to participate in. I, being a victim of SA previously (ones that he KNEW about and pushed me into talking to him about) felt that I was being cornered and had to comply in order to ease the tension between us.

When the call ended I felt disgusted and helpless, I called Wist (Real Name: Elijah) who helped talk me into denying JR this experience.

it makes no sense for him to be pushing you so much to allow things to get sexual between you two. no is no and he needs to accept that and you need to stand on business on that. it doesn't make sense to me at all because why is he 'disappointed'? that leads me to believe he felt like he was deserved it in someway? which would obviously come from excitement from your call, but like, i don't like the fact he was pushing for it,

As you can see by the text messages the conclusion that I came to was all of this happened because he was lonely even though the topic we were discussing was pretty severe. We didn't want to think the worst of him because he was a close friend of ours. With hindsight, I started to understand the magnitude of what happened.

The only other time I've met up with JR since this incident was on November 13th, 2024. Jr had suggested I go over to his house to drop off cookies and I was okay with it because at the time, I believed he could've used the kind gesture due to his, at the time, mental struggles, and he encouraged me to do it.

However, when I went to meet up with JR, he kept trying to go through my personal belongings. He opened my glove compartment and wouldn't take no for an answer when I requested he not touch the compartment between my seats. This is when I decided to call Wist once again because I felt that I couldn't be alone with him as he made the environment uncomfortable. These were all events he witnessed as well. This interaction included a moment where I unintentionally avoided eye contact but JR was trying to get an answer out of me so he kept sternly asking that I look into his eyes. I did my best to cut the interaction short as I felt that it was becoming more and more uncomfortable to be around him. I told him I had to leave so that my sister & I could go to the bookstore. This was a lie. This was so that I had an excuse to cut the interaction short. That was the last time I saw JR.

I was there for JR in moments where he felt he had nowhere to turn, I was open about being a source that he could use when he felt he had no one to turn to. Nowhere in our conversations did I hint or allude to being open to having any sort of sexual relations with him.

Full clip detailing Yesenia's confrontation with him (His confession can be seen in JR's Final Confrontation):

<https://youtu.be/9zvHikvWSlg>

@ 0:42 into the confrontation: <https://youtu.be/9zvHikvWSlg?t=45>

I explain to JR in this clip that it's unfair that he was trying to excuse what he did to me, Saypil and Cio as being "manic" when he has no history of any sort of mania or manic episodes. (Or at least ones that he has not mentioned)

As stated above I have bipolar disorder and JR has known about this since the day we met. We had talked about how extensive and draining my manic episodes were, meaning he had an idea of what mania actually was and what could happen. When I was reading through his vent (See Saypil/-C's experience for details) I realized he was trying to excuse his feelings and actions by saying he was in a "manic state." Then when we found out that his whole crashout was because Saypil and Cio didn't want to speak to him any longer, it frustrated me more to know that he thought he could excuse this whole thing because he was "feeling manic."

@ 2:29 - 2:42 into the confrontation: <https://youtu.be/9zvHikvWSlg?t=150>

In this part of me confronting JR, I call him narcissistic. This refers to the situation where he dropped a video on his 'ImHonestlyJR' channel called "merry christmas, i'm cutting everyone off" where he proceeded to insult & belittle Cio & Saypil for not reciprocating their feelings. (See Saypil/C's Experience for more details)

(Last minute of ImHonestlyJR's "merry christmas, i'm cutting you off" video <https://youtu.be/Ukv2JWpo2JE>)

@ 1:22 into the confrontation: <https://youtu.be/9zvHikvWSlg?t=82>

Finally, in this part of me confronting JR I tell him I didn't really care for an apology as I didn't feel I was entitled to one nor did I think I got it as bad as Saypil and Cio.

I've pretty much struggled to feel that my experiences with sexual assault aren't as bad as they are as a way of coping. I struggle to find any empathy or sympathy for myself when I go through things like this. With JR, it was hard to find anything fully wrong with what he was doing to me because it hadn't gotten to anything physical yet. In many of our conversations regarding his kinks, I didn't know just how bad it had gotten outside our conversations, as he had stated before only a few people knew about it. I encouraged him to express himself because it seemed like the art (that I assumed was PAID for), was helping cheer him up. As he tried to advance into physical stuff, I still downplayed it. As, once again it hadn't happened yet, which made me "feel lucky" that I hadn't made HIM feel uncomfortable or have HIM get mad at me. But also that I wasn't physically assaulted by him. Hearing the conversations between his friends compared to those with JR's female friends, it's pretty evident that he chose to talk about his kinks with the vulnerable girls that he was friends with. It makes sense as it feels like JR would rather be pitied by his female friends than be sympathized by his male friends. On top of that he chose people he knew would support him and wouldn't feel 100% comfortable confronting him about how weird this was starting to get.

Now that I've reflected on this situation, I regret downplaying it as much as I did. At the same time, he should've taken my words seriously. I told him that I didn't want to do anything sexually with him, and he refused to take me seriously. He knew that I had previous trauma with being put in these circumstances. So when he kept asking repeatedly if I'd do favors for him, I felt pressured to agree.

Sexual coercion is NOT consensual.

Sexual coercion is when a person pressures, tricks, threatens, or manipulates someone into sex. It is a type of sexual assault because even if someone says yes, they are not giving their consent freely. This information is from the Office on Women's Health .

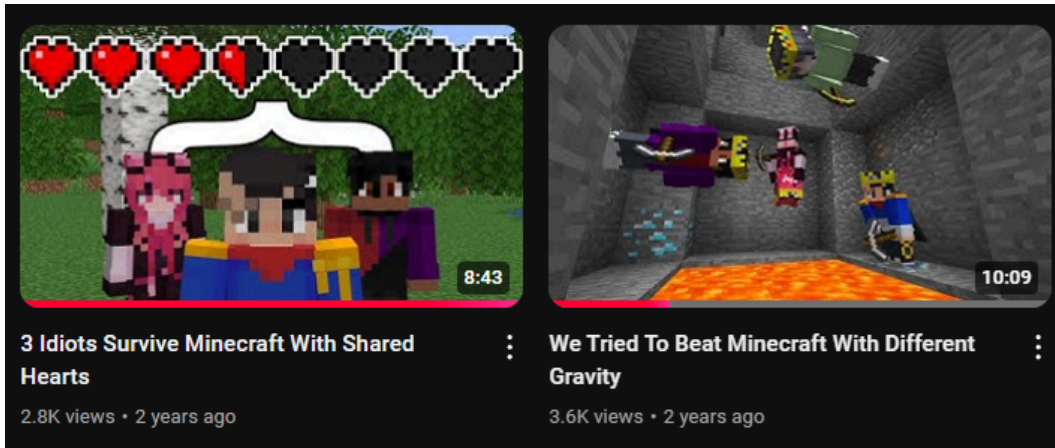

Had he groped me that day I dropped him off at the airport to head to Vidcon, it would've been a sexual assault.

Personal Experiences of Pushing Boundaries & Uncomfortability

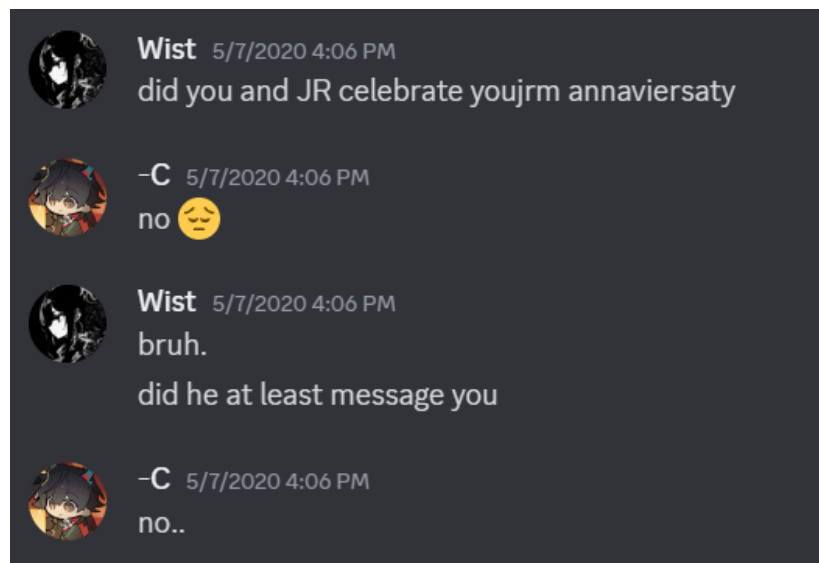

Saypil/-C's Experience

The section below is narrated by Saypil's personal accounts of events with the help of screenshots.

I have known and been friends with JR for 5+ years and have worked alongside him for emotes, alerts, and thumbnails (see here for more details). Similar to Wist, you also may have recognized me through some of his videos and/or the art I've made of me, him, and Wist together (examples shown below).

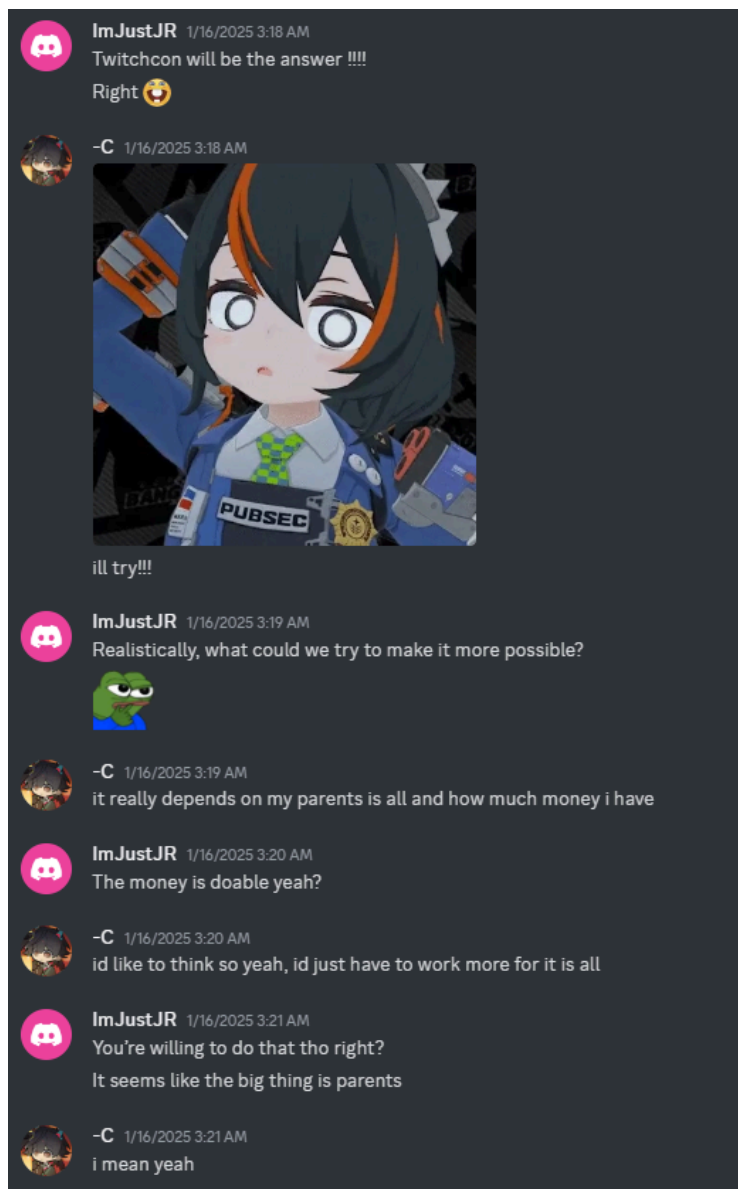

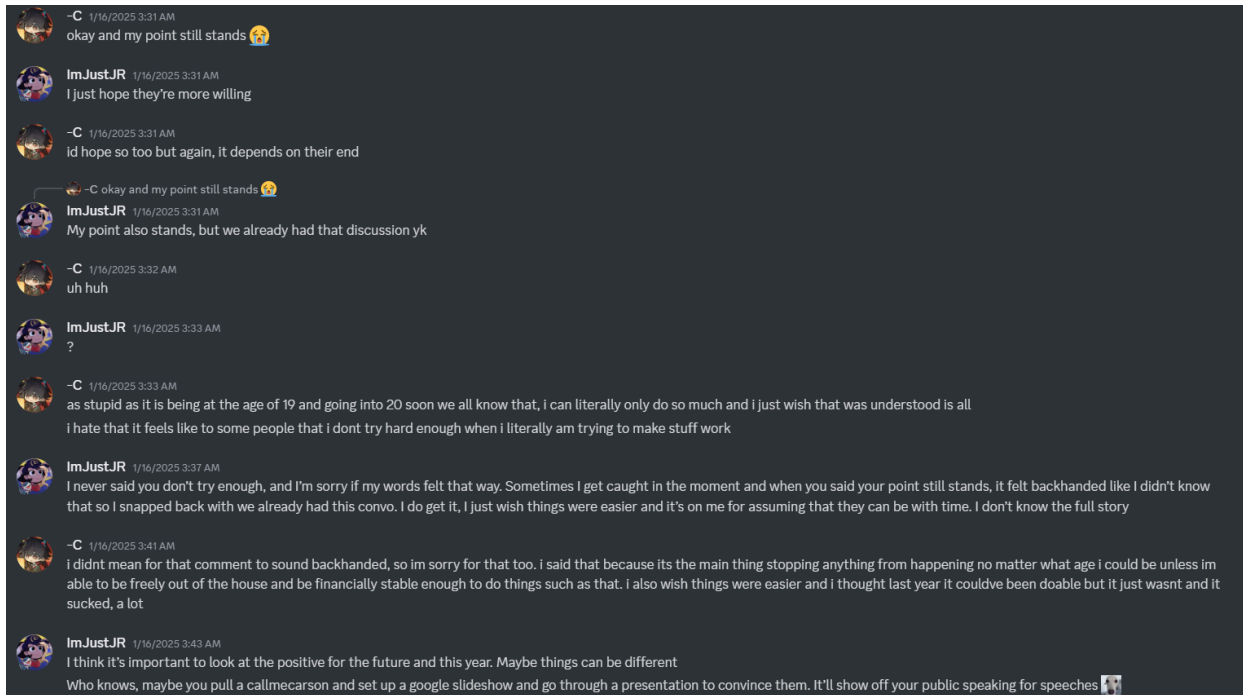

Friendship and work aside, however, there was a point JR and I dated from late 2019 to mid 2020. The relationship did not last long due to JR neglecting me, his partner, for content creation instead. The few times he would interact with me would either be mainly for work purposes or if one of his friends suggested he spends time with me (even then he would ignore this sometimes, example shown below).

This is, of course, in the past now and we have both moved on from this and any other lingering issues since late 2023. At least, that is what I believed. Sometime during 2024, he gained feelings for me again. There is nothing necessarily wrong with this; however, due to him realizing he neglected me in our last relationship, he started over-compensating this by interacting with me a little too much. This would go from dming me every day throughout the day to wondering what my schedule is to in general being incredibly pushy to do certain things as well as trying to be way too involved in my life.

The two (2) above screenshots refer to plans about me coming along to TwitchCon this year (2025) with the friend group as I was unable to go to the previous trip last year (2024) due to restrictions from my parents. This is known information to everyone in the group, including JR, that my parents are strict and that prevents me from doing a lot of things, especially travel. Still, JR continues to keep pushing me to “keep trying” and do this and that.

 ImJustJR 2/13/2025 1:04 AM
Is work done for the day at least

 -C 2/13/2025 1:04 AM

 -C 2/13/2025 1:11 AM
youre not, im just responding back and i only started responding with yeah like 4 messages ago

 ImJustJR 2/13/2025 1:12 AM
it's the repetitiveness and short responses that make it feel that way

 -C 2/13/2025 1:13 AM
well youre not annoying me

 ImJustJR 2/13/2025 1:13 AM

Tanks..... 🙏

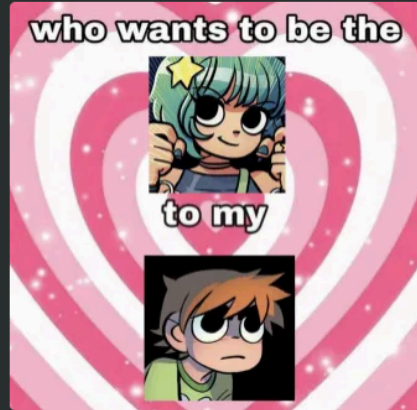

The two (2) above screenshots refer to me being not as responsive and/or being busy with other things. I have stated to JR, the friend group, and anyone who has interacted with me that I am usually a busy person, I am off doing my own thing, already doing something with friends, or just don't want to talk to anybody at the moment (I would also have a status on Discord at times saying "don't DM" or "slow/no responses" to let people know). However, again, despite knowing this information, JR keeps pushing to DM me and would make slight remarks and/or take things personally to the fact I'm busy, having shorter responses than usual, or just straight up don't want to talk to anyone.

Although these screenshots show JR being lighthearted with his messages to try to indicate a playful manner, he would point out my activity whenever possible whenever I haven't responded to him. I cannot find a screenshot of this between our conversations together unfortunately, but there was a time he expressed to me how he was upset that because I hang out in other groups/servers I don't share with him (mainly relating to my Splatoon friends and team), he cannot see what I'm up to (this expression can be seen when talking to K in this screenshot however).

This screenshot from October refers to a talk I had with JR that social interaction for me has started to become taxing enough to impair my workflow with school, commissions, and personal projects. He claims that he understood where I was coming from and what I have to deal with. Yet, as you can see from the previous screenshots that are more recent (January - February), how he acts seems a bit contradictory to what he said in October.

In addition to being pushy, he constantly asked for RJ doodles 2-3 times a week on average (refer to JR's porn addiction section). Similar to other friends, I was open to letting him express his fetishes and whatnot because I wanted to be a good friend. This would go from occasional mentions of it, to almost always mentioning it every day, to showing me art of said fetish, and asking of course, doodles for such fetish even when I want to/have to focus on my own work. However, it even went as far as to him asking for my character to be fetishized.

To add on, it would also go as far as asking me if I would wear add-ons or suits that cater to this fetish if we were together.

-C 10/3/2024 12:52 AM

probably!

ImJustJR 10/3/2024 12:54 AM
thanks saypil ^_^ ofc this doesnt mean anything unless you want it to mean smth, but i like to think that if i were meet someone and get as close to them as i am to you, i could hopefully be as open to them about this stuff too

I want to note the fact that I am asexual, basically meaning I do not necessarily have strong sexual desires or feelings and would only do such acts if it made the other person happy, and the group and JR are aware of this fact as well. There was also a time when I was calling him that he asked, “Whenever you [Saypil/-C] masturbate, could you let me know about it?” knowing I do not engage in those activities period. I do not necessarily care for NSFW topics, but I do not like the idea of me being sexualized.

Screenshot above where JR is aware that I am asexual but I could still “technically enjoy it”. The image he showed is his character, RJ, has three other images where her boobs gradually get bigger. At the time, he simply just wanted an edit of the drawing where her boobs are bigger than the original image, I did not know until that moment he was saving each progression of the images to show a “flip-note” of some sorts of her boobs getting bigger (original artist’s name is censored for privacy reasons).

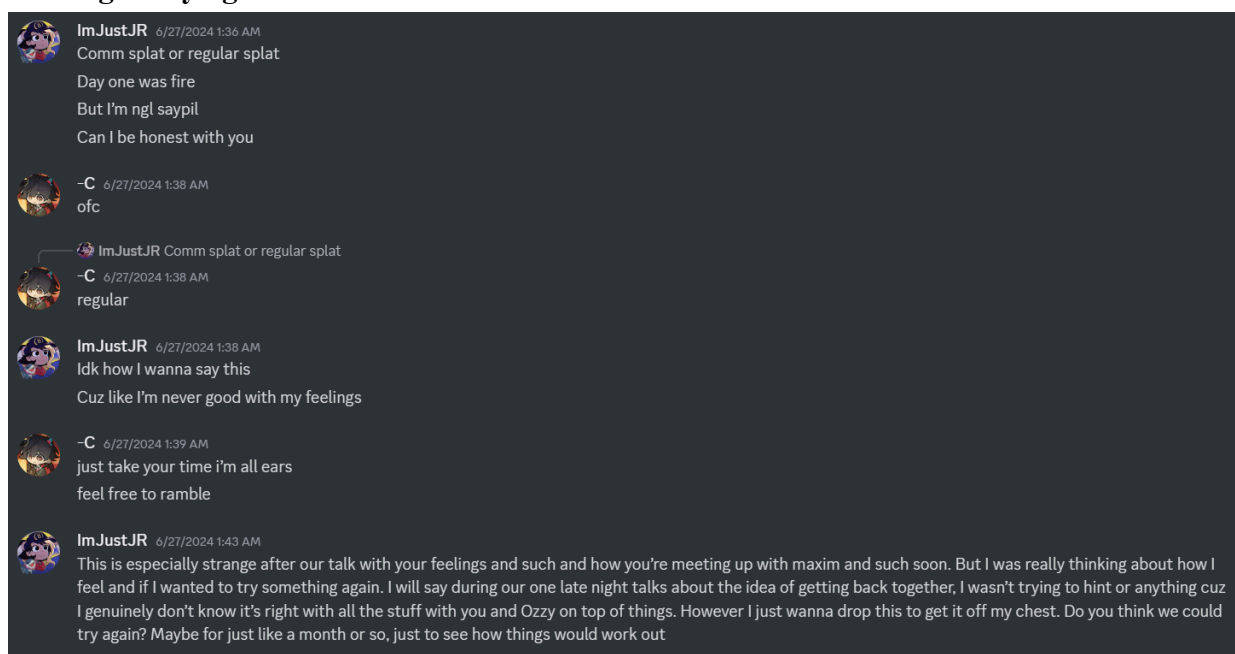

At the time, I didn’t know how to respond. Looking back on this, I regret not giving an affirmative no. It’s a known fact to the group and to JR that I struggle with saying no and am slightly a people pleaser, which is why in many screenshots you see me being more permissive than I should be. To add on, I did not want to cause any possible drama or tension between him and I especially with the fact he’s tied to the friend group and that I already had slight tension with another member from the group at the time (which will be explained in the next paragraph and how JR is part of the cause).

JR has manipulated and lied to not only me, but to several others in the friend group especially to one individual in specific, Ozzy.

For a bit of context, Ozzy and I have dated from October 2021 to April 2023. The relationship was broken up due to my personal mistakes and issues, and since then I have been trying to make it up to Ozzy. JR and the friend group were aware of this whole situation as, to a degree, it affected them too. Though, around late 2023, we would all come together in a call to catch up with one another and it ended with us being able to resolve most issues that were discussed in said call.

However, during the VidCon trip in Summer 2024, Ozzy wanted to vent about the relationship he had with me (which was completely fine). Though, JR jumped in with Ozzy expressing “issues” he’s had with me as well, such as “using him [JR] for attention”. Basically, JR tried empathizing with Ozzy to “fuel him up” about his issues and emotions regarding me that it became an agreement between Ozzy and JR that, after the VidCon trip, they would talk to me about their issues. Wist & Resident were also present for this interaction & knew about their agreement.

However, the agreement only went half way. Ozzy stated he needed a talk with me and did so after the trip, but JR did not ever converse with me about his “issues” with me. On the same night Ozzy dm’d me he needed a talk with me, JR confessed to me about his feelings and wanting to try again:

Additionally, since he knew Ozzy was going to have a strict call with me after the trip, he knew I was going to be vulnerable due to the amount of guilt and emotions I felt with Ozzy. When he called me a day after Ozzy did, he instead became a source of comfort for me to feel better after my call with Ozzy. To make matters even worse, he confessed all of this on Ozzy's birthday, which was just hours after their agreement. He would do this again knowing Ozzy was upset with me after we finished recording his Minecraft horror video. This would cause a huge rift between me and Ozzy of 7 months of no contact.

Personal Opinion: I honestly wonder why he would do this? I believe it's most likely because of the fact Ozzy was my last partner and we were on good terms even after everything that happened. JR was most likely jealous of this and wanted an almost true zero chance Ozzy and I would not only ever get back together, but let alone be good friends with one another.

This wouldn't be the last time JR would use Ozzy against me too, as when JR would subtly expressing how "a bit" sad he was I was inactive in the friend group, he specifically used Ozzy's name and how Ozzy specifically "was upset that I [Saypil] was inactive because of him [Ozzy]" (when JR himself was expressing to other people how genuinely upset he was of my inactivity, despite again, knowing WHY I am inactive). He is very much aware how much Ozzy means a lot to me, and has exploited his name with me and the rift I had with him to not only get a reaction out of me, but to also potentially get with me.

I want to also state that this is not the last time JR has tried to confess to me only to be responded with rejection by me (there were 2 other times in call, but these are the ones I was able to get in text form).

However, JR did not take the rejections lightly whatsoever, nor, as stated previously, was happy with the fact I'm busy and don't give him the attention and interactions he wants. This was enough to make him crash out on December 24th, 2024.

ImJustJR 12/24/2024 3:08 AM

It's like looking into the dark. After awhile you start to get scared cause your mind starts imagining something that isn't there. But you can't tell, nothing is there. I don't know what I'm feeling

My highest highs always have to plummet so low. But what if no matter how high those highs are, nothing can ever stop a drop

A dip

The more I type the more afraid I get. Being judged. There's no longer a sense of carelessness but a sense of fear and anxiety. You can only type for so long

It's like sprinting at the start of a marathon. I want to convince myself I can keep going, continue to more manic and lose my sense of self but the gas it already out. I'm not built to type any of my feelings

It doesn't matter anyways. None of the people that have effected me will see this. I will continue the cycle of getting over this period just to have it repeat again by the same people

It's the feeling that I wish could turn to anger

The feeling of wanting to rip someone's face off for destroying me for weeks or months on end. They wouldn't get it, and they would never understand. I'm upset and you don't even bat an eye. That makes me furious and makes my blood boil. I want to tear you limb from limb and dissect you like I was making cupcakes out of your insides. Give you the trauma I suffered for years in your dying moments. Or I could be quick and chainsaw you in half like a science project

ImJustJR 12/24/2024 3:16 AM

I'm tired of being the better man. It's chained me down for years from my want for my public image to be good. For it to be approachable and well spirited

Like the feeling of a bunch of hands just pulling me down constantly further into the water

I want to make people pay for what they have done to me

I wish to be in that state of manic again. It was better than feeling sad

I'd take no emotion over sadness (edited)

Although venting is completely acceptable and fine, what is concerning is the need of vengeance of “paying people back for what they did to me” as well as violent feelings of “wanting to tear someone limb from limb”.

The feeling of wanting to rip someone's face off for destroying me for weeks or months on end. They wouldn't get it, and they would never understand. I'm upset and you don't even bat an eye. That makes me furious and makes my blood boil. I want to tear you limb from limb and dissect you like I was making cupcakes out of your insides. Give you the trauma I suffered for years in your dying moments. Or I could be quick and chainsaw you in half like a science project

At the time, nobody knew who or what he was referring to with these messages. Following up with this, he makes a video on his ImHonestlyJR channel (another channel where JR has videos where it's “an honest conversation with ImJustJR”) about cutting everyone off and saying “fuck you” to a certain someone(s) that its their fault for making him the way he is now.

(Last minute of ImHonestlyJR's “merry christmas, i'm cutting you off” video

<https://youtu.be/Ukv2JWpo2JE>)

Thanks to K, we eventually learned that this someone was me.

JR 12/26/2024 1:14 AM

I'm a little unsure. I've spoken about these issues directly to them in the past but I've realized that it hasn't been working so I made this drastic change to ditch my activity so I can focus on me. My main wish out of this is that they don't hear from me during however long this period ends up being

12/26/2024 1:20 AM

sometimes all you need is to have some space away from whoever's worrying you and give yourself time to figure out what you think would be the best course of action to move forward from these issues that are bothering you

JR 12/26/2024 1:28 AM

I do agree with you on those points
What I'm struggling with though is my frustration that during this time of pain and recovery and self discovery, that same person is going about their day like nothing is wrong. That fuels me to my very core. It's like I want them to notice that I'm struggling to find myself and to show empathy but there is none. So the frustration turns to anger and then to hatred
I'm jealous of the fact they can move on from the past while I'm still stuck here thinking about the what if

JR 12/26/2024 1:37 AM

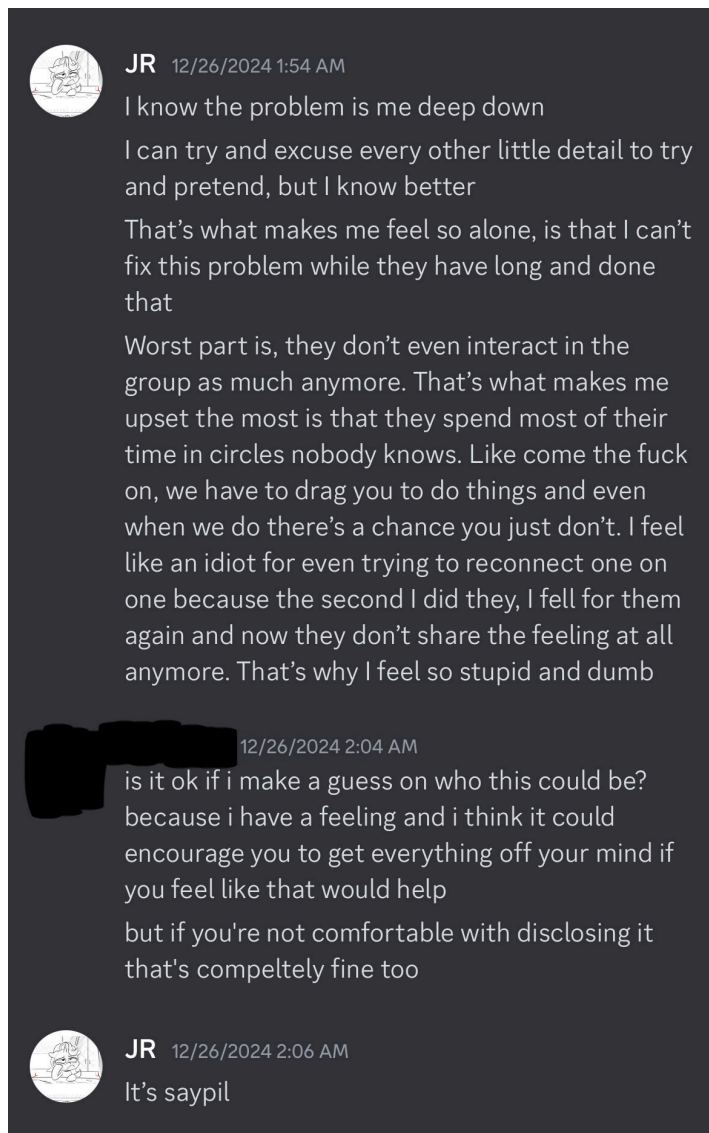

Is it okay to cut them off? I can't get that thought out of my head
By doing so, I practically have to cut away some of my closest groups. Places I would have called home

 i'm thankful that you trust me enough to approach me about your troubles

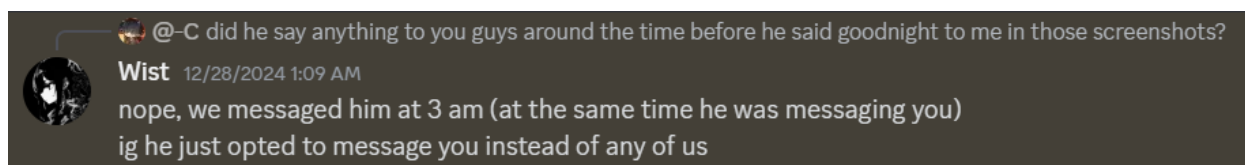

JR 12/26/2024 1:39 AM

I feel like you would understand the most. You make me feel less alone during this decision I'm putting myself in. I know it's drastic, but small vent session weren't helping anymore

What makes this painfully ironic is that after his crash out in the friend group, multiple members tried dm'ing him to ask if he's okay due to these concerning messages. He did not reply to ANYBODY, but me. He states in the screenshots that "I don't notice his struggle to find himself" and that "I don't show empathy" when I was there consoling him the whole time before he suddenly cut everyone off (see screenshots below). He also, again, emphasizes how much of a problem it is to him that I'm inactive in the group when he is AWARE WHY I'm inactive (he uses the word "we" as if the whole group is upset with my inactivity, when it's just him).

@-C mhm i get that, and i imagine even if people allow you to open up to them you still find it difficult to do so because you just dont really do it i assume

also cause i know ppl be going through their own shit so why dump even more problems they gotta figure out onto them

plus not everyone has time to hear out someone else's problems. its a harsh world and when you need somebody in that exact moment, you cant wait for that moment to happen every time. the world is not easy. i just dont have enough people to fully trust with my every waking problems, no one is built for that and most certainly i hear about their problems more than i can ever express mine

-C 12/24/2024 12:48 AM

mhm i understand where youre coming from. but again, people say theyre willing to be there for you and want you to open up because they not only want you to, but are willing to be there for you for a reason. if someone cant be there at that time specifically, it happens. but, that doesnt necessarily mean all the time. even if some people are busy like me or smth, they can be willing to drop things just to hear you out and be there for you because they do care

ImJustJR 12/24/2024 2:55 AM

You know that Minecraft thumbnail? What if instead of this server drove him insane, it was his life drove him insane

I think that would get a lot of clicks

-C 12/24/2024 3:03 AM

jr whats wrong :(im here for you please talk to me

ImJustJR 12/24/2024 3:25 AM

No no, you should get back to your comms

-C 12/24/2024 3:29 AM

please dont shove me away jr, im already done with my work for today and even then i want to make sure that youre okay first and foremost

ImJustJR 12/24/2024 3:32 AM

I'm not sure what else to say. I basically went manic and now I just feel sad

I don't want to shove you away but I feel like I have to

I got nothing left in me

Just my phone in my hand while I wallow in bed

I imagine you still have conversations to get to. I don't want to feel like this, but I do and it makes me ashamed

-C 12/24/2024 3:37 AM

theres nothing wrong with how you feel right now. as much as it sucks, its okay. im glad if anything youre letting out these emotions and youre at least feeling them rather than suppressing them

if you feel like you have to shove me away for whatever reason, you may but i want you to at least know that ill always be here for you no matter the time. everyone else is asleep right now so there are no other conversations for me to worry about

ImJustJR 12/24/2024 3:38 AM

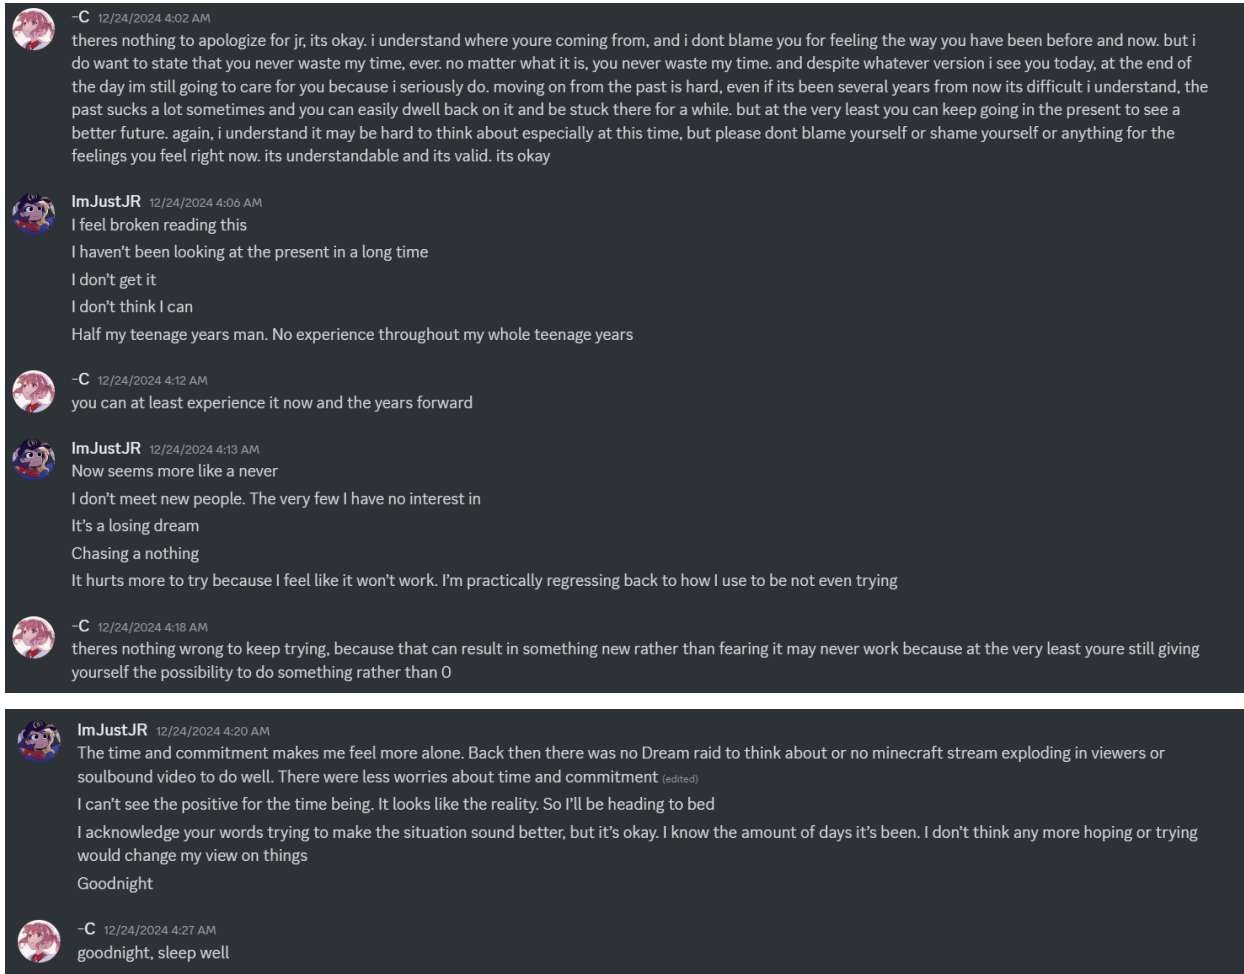

I still feel ashamed

ImJustJR 12/24/2024 3:48 AM

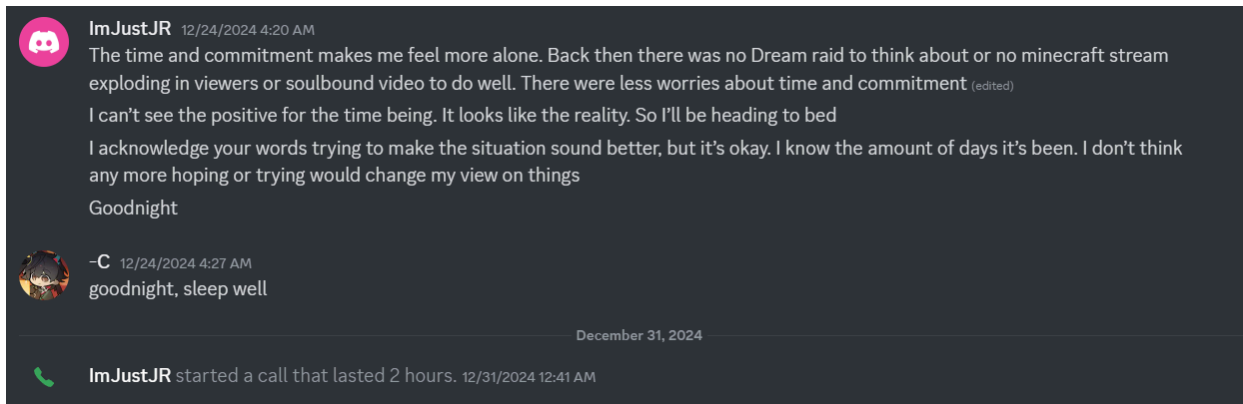

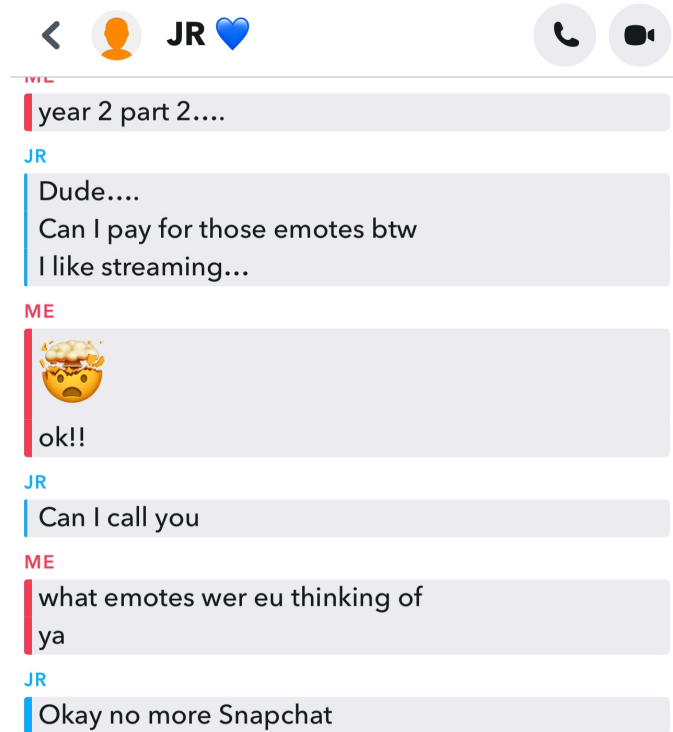

I just can't read these comforting messages like I use to. For the longest time I refused to accept the fact that it could be due to you being my ex, but after the stunt I pulled in braincells, I can't deny it any longer. I hate that that's the reality because you know how stupid of a take that is? It's ridiculous. But when I continue to think about it, I can't help but start to accept it. You've had the better outcome from our relationship. Experience, hardship, and you've navigated it all even when things felt near the end. You know what I got? Five years of sorrow and loneliness and now I'm hung up on the past thinking about the impossible. You know how sad and pathetic that is? Yet, I still feel like you're the only one I can share how I'm feeling with when moments like these go wrong. You have tons of others to go to for advice and people to physically meet to spend time with during bad days. Im thinking about shit from OVER A THOUSAND DAYS AGO. It's genuinely sad. I can't ignore it anymore because all it's doing is wasting your time. I wish you could have reconnect with a better version of me. Im sorry

I should be the one saying sorry, not you

And as I stated before, his video about cutting everyone off comes out after my talk with him and I was apparently the one he was saying “fuck you” to.

However, after a week from “cutting everyone off”, December 31st, 2024, he suddenly contacted me again on Snapchat and we slightly catch up with one another and moved back to Discord to continue catching up while working on the emotes.

As you can see a bit from the Snapchat chat and the duration of the call, it's a little hard to believe that this guy cut everyone else off to cut me off and said "fuck you" to me specifically, but acts friendly with me a few days later, and then, once again, asking for RJ doodles. Even before he made this sudden decision, he tried to have good and friendly conversations with me while insulting me and/or expressing anger towards me behind my back to other people. Is this not two-faced?

Although there were times JR seemed to "understand where I'm coming from" and "respect with what I want to do in my life", there are many more times he contradicts these statements through my experience with him and these screenshots are not enough to demonstrate how bad it was, especially with some of the interactions being in call. Going from wanting to dismember me because I didn't like him back, to wanting to project his sexual desires and fetishes onto my character and myself as a person. He would push my boundaries even when they're established, such as continuously asking for an RJ doodle or wanting me to spend time with him when I mentally and/or physically couldn't or when I just simply want to be left alone. He is more than aware of how I am as a person through not only the years I have spent with him, but through our talks as well, yet that felt ignored and disrespected for a while. I wouldn't have noticed and kept being friends with him if it weren't for my friend group and other people recognizing how unfair my friendship has been with him, especially with how he has manipulated a whole friendship I had with Ozzy.

These are clips from the confrontation with JR regarding me that emphasizes how bad his obsession is with me, with the NSFW topics, mention of cyberstalking, etc. These can be seen below:

K's Experience

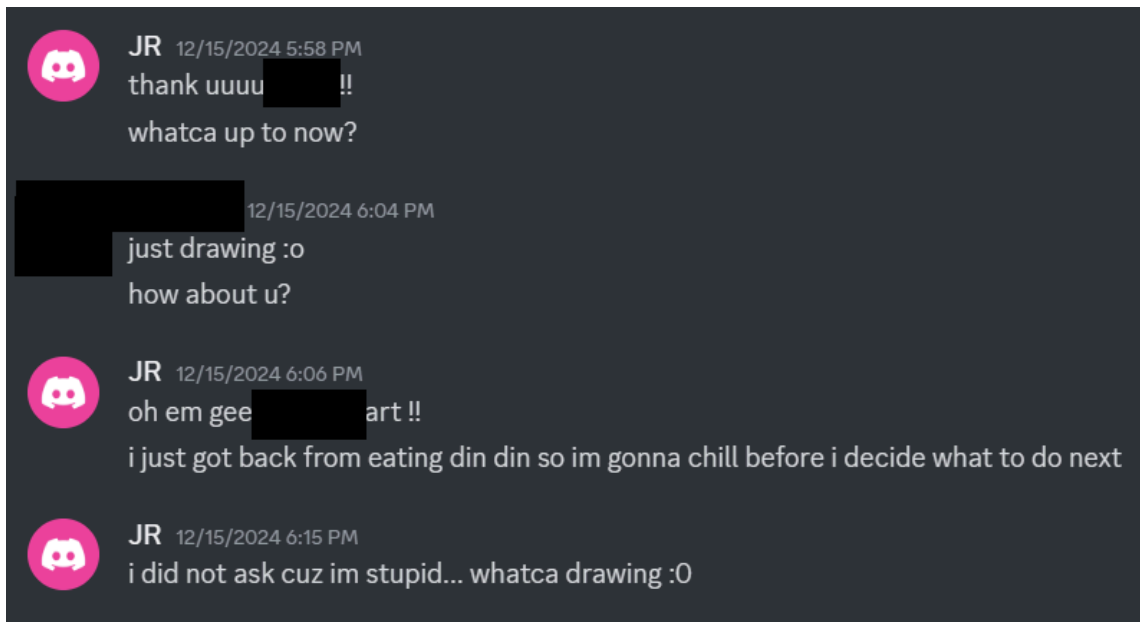

The section below is narrated by K's personal accounts of events with the help of screenshots.

I've known JR since 2019, when we met in the Hardcore community. He was a constant in every friend group I was in and we eventually became close friends. We regularly discussed art and he was very supportive of my journey. I often drew art as gifts for my friends, including JR. At one point, he approached me asking if I could make art for a project he was planning. There were no talks of payment, but I was willing to do it for free to help out a friend. I was tasked to draw several portraits, with various expressions for each. This was something I did in the very little free time I had between heaps of schoolwork, so it was difficult for me to deliver in a timely manner. I was frequently asked for updates on if I had time to fulfill his requests, knowing I was usually busy. The project ended up falling through as it was never brought to completion. I still continued to make free art for my friends on my own accord after this.

Around 2021, I had no contact with everyone I knew online due to personal reasons. That would be the last time I spoke with JR, until December 2024 when I reached out with the hopes of reconnecting with him and our mutual friends. He gave a warm welcome back to our friendship and we cleared up any miscommunication we had with one another. I expressed my desire to reconnect with the others as well as feelings I had surrounding the past, which he encouraged me on. As I was absent for several years, not having heard anything from him in that time period, I still knew him as the kind person I once did in 2019; being able to entrust each other with deeply personal things and not fear judgment. I was unable to view any actions of his as potentially malicious, as my experience with him had been nothing but positive. He would then reach out to me everyday, asking about my art, schedule for the day, and whatnot.

On the 15th of December, 2024, he would ask me about what I was doing as he usually does, and I let him know that I was drawing. I showed him the artwork, and after some praise, he asked if he could get one too. I agreed, thinking I needed the practice anyway as I was just getting back into drawing. He then showed me RJ, requesting that I draw her.

JR 12/15/2024 6:19 PM

WHAAAAAA

THATS

this is so peam

the hands on this are god like

12/15/2024 6:20 PM

thank you jr :D

JR 12/15/2024 6:20 PM

can i get one 🙄

would that be okay

12/15/2024 6:20 PM

ok!!!!

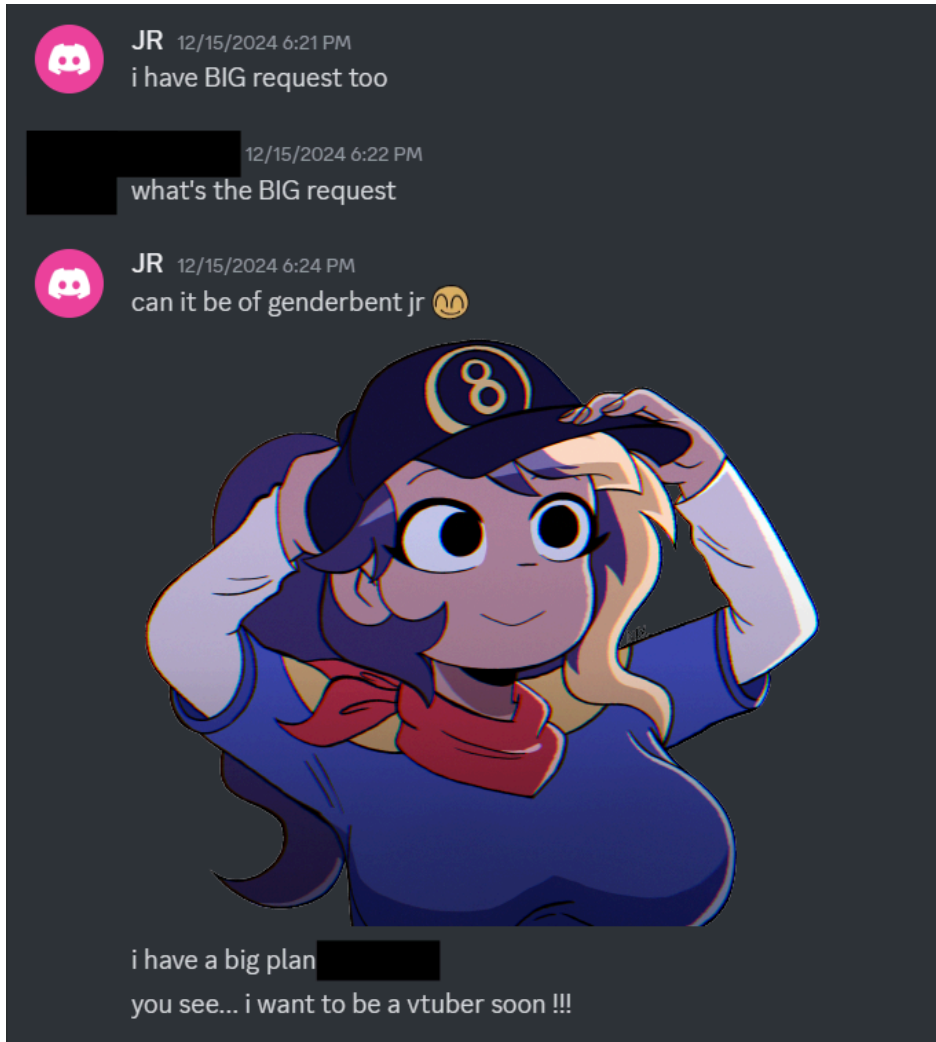

JR 12/15/2024 6:21 PM

YEAHHHHHHHHHHHHH

thank u

12/15/2024 6:21 PM

im trying so get back into drawing so more practice helps

I informed him that the tablet I primarily draw with was charging, so it would take a bit for me to finish the drawing. He told me to let him know when it was charged again. When I was able to use my tablet again, I drew out a scribble of RJ and sent it to him. He then asked if it was gonna stay a sketch or if it can become like the fully rendered piece I sent him, which I can only assume is him implying that he wanted the RJ piece to be rendered as well. The next day, I sent him the finished sketch, and he said he would stay up to see it finished. Later that night, I sent him the lineart, and he asked if I could make a small change: If I could make her chest bigger. I thought it was funny, since it was the first time I'd ever been asked that in regard to my art. He then asked me to clarify my age, as he knew I was attending college with another friend of ours. This shows he is aware of age-checking before proceeding with inappropriate topics.

JR 12/15/2024 9:53 PM
wait [redacted] i have a question.....

[redacted] 12/15/2024 9:53 PM
whats up!

JR 12/15/2024 9:54 PM
is the sketch gonna stay a sketch or can it become like the [redacted] piece up here? 🤔

[redacted] 12/15/2024 9:55 PM
ou the image i sent is just a funni scribble
i will come up with an actual piece

JR 12/16/2024 11:49 PM
SHES SO CUTE !!!

[redacted]
[redacted] genuinely, this lineart is so nice to look at, how do you do it 🤩

[redacted] 12/16/2024 11:50 PM
thank you :D i honestly don't know i jsut kinda zone out and draw squiggles

JR 12/16/2024 11:51 PM
I think the squiggles are very awesome then 🍌
I do have one small change if it's okay to ask !

[redacted] 12/16/2024 11:51 PM
what's up

JR 12/16/2024 11:52 PM
I'm gonna ask the age old question i feel artists get all the time 🧑 but can her boobs be bigger?

[redacted] 12/16/2024 11:53 PM
LMAAAOOOO of course

JR 12/16/2024 11:53 PM
LETS GOOOO
Wait [redacted] you are [redacted]'s age right? :0 since you both go to school together?

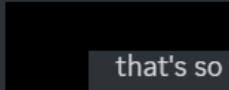

After I showed him the first change, I asked him if it was fine, and admitted that I don't really exaggerate proportions in my art. He made a comment about how I hated boobs which I playfully agreed with, then he proceeded to ask me if I could make them bigger. He then asked me to increase the size one more time, and agreed to leave it at that. I thought it was a totally normal request to be made that comes with being asked to make art, so I went along with it.

i apologize i'm not very well versed in busts

JR 12/16/2024 11:57 PM

Wait this is true, I don't think I've seen you draw them ever before. Maybe once or twice?

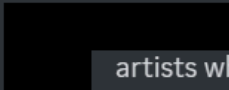

12/16/2024 11:58 PM

that's so funny

JR 12/16/2024 11:58 PM

I genuinely don't remember XD

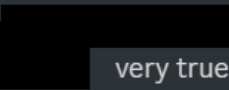

12/16/2024 11:58 PM

artists when they only draw guys

JR 12/16/2024 11:58 PM

 just hates boobs it seems

12/16/2024 11:58 PM

very true!

JR 12/16/2024 11:58 PM

If possible, are you able to do bigger

you know the funniest part of all this is i thought the first version was already too much

JR 12/17/2024 12:03 AM

LOL I think I've been told that once as well when I was getting an rj piece...
I scratch my head and shit

12/17/2024 12:04 AM

i was a bit surprised to see you ask for an increase on what i thought was already the maximum LOL

JR 12/17/2024 12:05 AM

It's so funny every time cuz like I said, when they show me the sketch/lineart, it looks amazing! I really like it and there's not much I could ask for to be changed, but just one thing

12/17/2024 12:06 AM

HAHAHAHAH

JR 12/17/2024 12:06 AM

If possible, can we do one more increase and then roll with that?

12/17/2024 12:06 AM

yes of course jr

Once we settled on the final lineart, he implied that I could make another RJ piece and gain more experience with drawing boobs. I responded that next time, I would need to feed myself somehow and that I was broke, implying that I would need payment from him if he ever asked me to draw RJ again. He asked me if I had prices, which I did not as I have not done paid work in a very long time. I estimated that I would charge around $20 for the piece I'd made him, which was a fully rendered bust. He said he thought it was a good price and will keep it in mind when he comes up with an idea and gets money, as he would love to get more. In hindsight, I was underselling myself as that piece took several hours, I was just unsure on how much my art was worth as I haven't opened commissions in years.

JR 12/17/2024 12:13 AM

And if you ever have time for another rj piece, that can be more experience !

12/17/2024 12:14 AM

next time i will need to feed myself somehow (broke)

JR 12/17/2024 12:15 AM

That is so fair, do you have prices?

12/17/2024 12:15 AM

nope!!

i haven't done paid work in ages

i'd probably charge about $20ish for pieces like this tho

JR 12/17/2024 12:17 AM

I think that's a good price ! I'll keep that in mind when I can come up with a commission idea and some money :)

Cuz I would love to get more !

The next day, I sent JR the final piece. He asked if he could see how it looks with some of the colors tweaked. I told myself it was only a simple color change, so I did what he asked. After showing him the tweaked version, he asked about a certain stylistic choice I make with my art. I offered to tweak it accordingly for him if he wanted, and he did. I was honestly put off by how he asked for changes considering this was just a drawing I did for free, but didn't say anything as I told myself it wasn't that much trouble anyway. This would not be the last time he asked me for art of RJ that went unpaid, even after what we'd discussed.

JR 12/17/2024 10:08 PM

OMG [REDACTED]!!!!!!

THIS IS BEAUTIFUL !!!!!!!!!!!

i would have said either iron or diamond so this works 🍌

[REDACTED] 12/17/2024 10:09 PM

THANK YOU JR!!!!!!

im glad you like it :D

JR 12/17/2024 10:10 PM

i love it !!!!!!!!!!!

i am a little curious tho on one thing and that would be how the hair would look if it was black and yellow 🍌 but thats only cuz my hair just naturally looks really black ! ik that means its just a dark brown, but sometimes ppl draw me with black hair !

[REDACTED] 12/17/2024 10:11 PM

oki let me tweak it

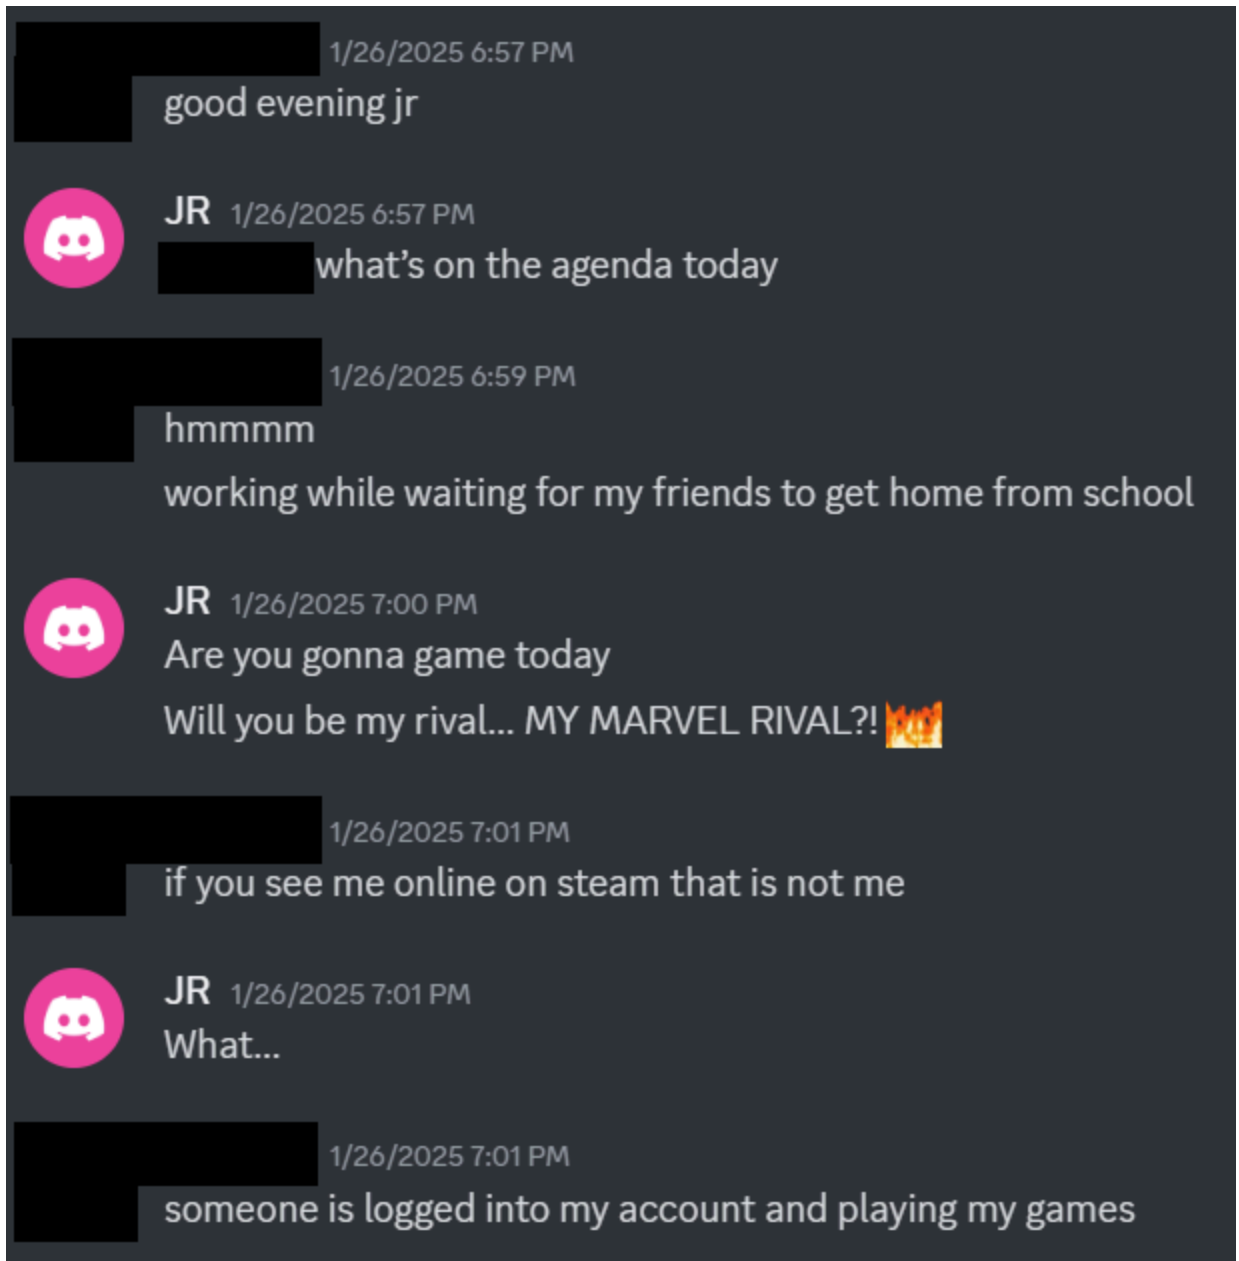

JR 12/17/2024 10:12 PM

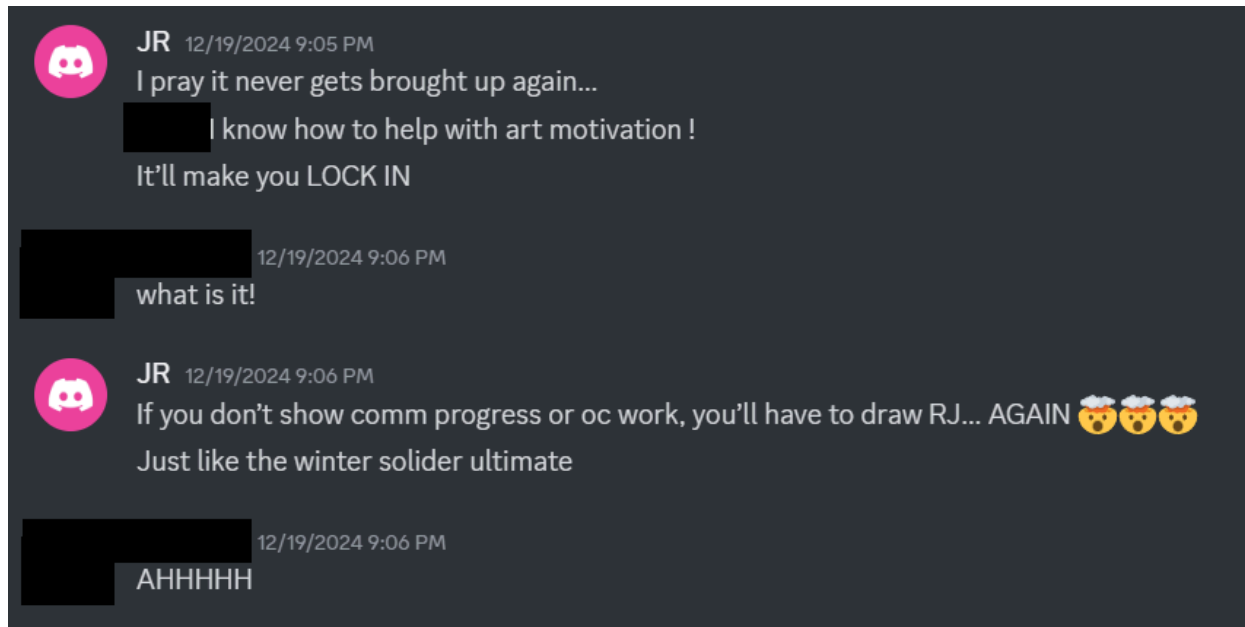

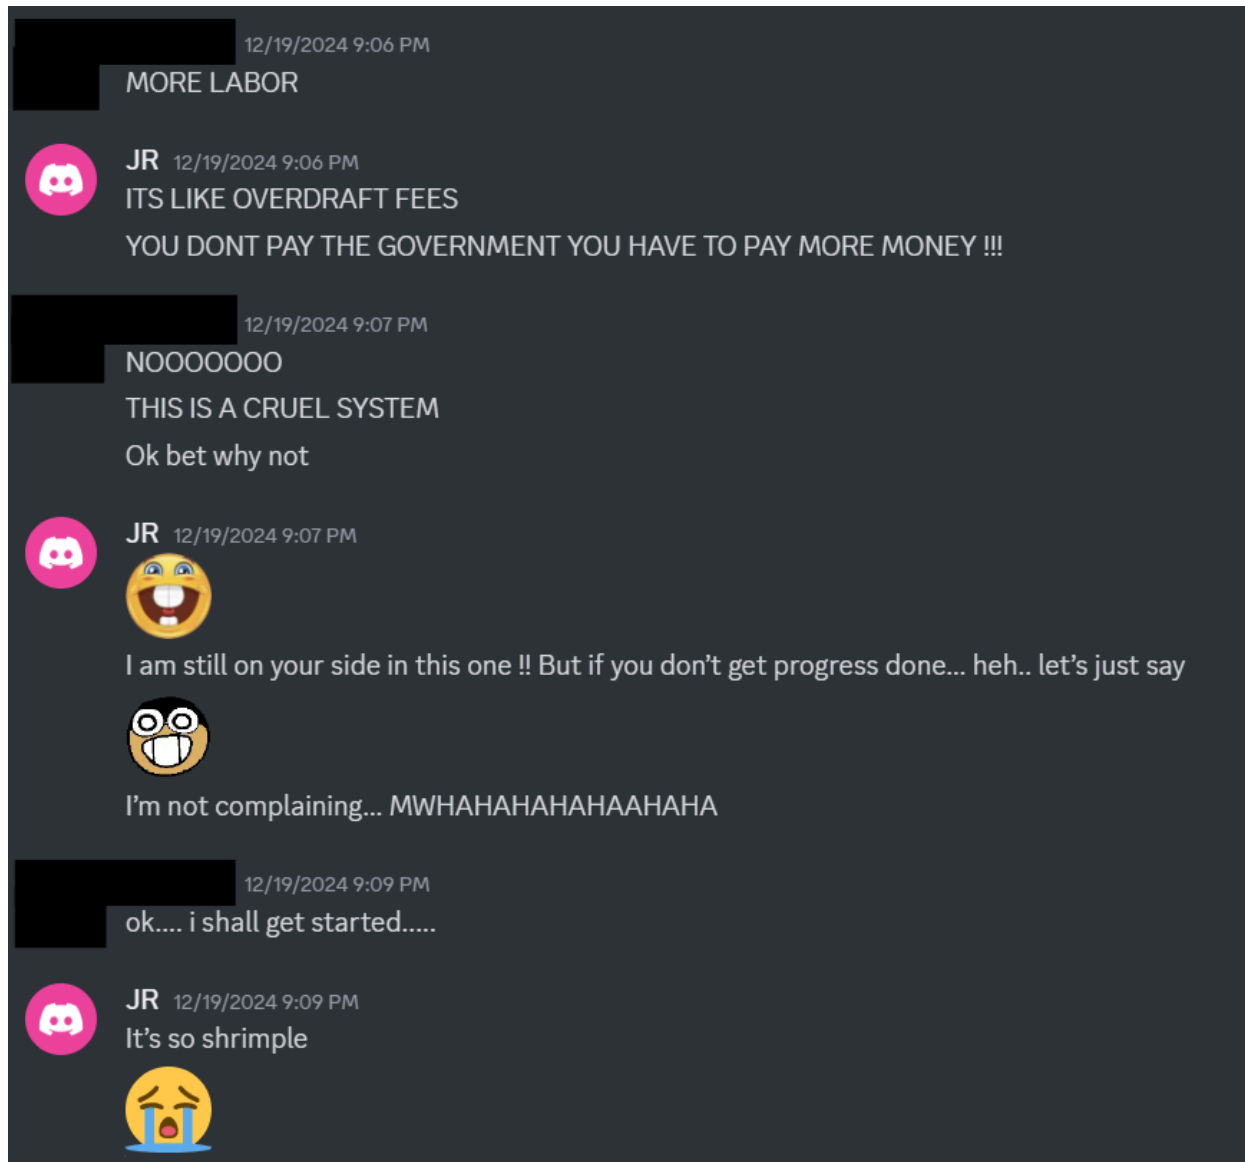

To provide further context on our bond: JR usually initiated conversations daily, whether it be by pointing out whatever my current activity displayed, asking what I was doing, or what my plans were for the day. He even commented on how he couldn't see what I was up to as I deliberately disabled my activity from being displayed at one point. I came to expect an unskippable cutscene whenever I would go online. I'd also informed him that if he saw me active on Steam, that was someone else on my account, as he mentioned Marvel Rivals, which I assumed was him implying that he wanted to play it with me. My friend frequently plays the game on my account, and I suspected JR would ask about it. In a way, I was trying to excuse myself without potentially sending across the message that I just didn't want to, as I was afraid of hurting his feelings by turning him down.

JR also made it a routine to discuss my art and projects. I told him about a big commission that I had to get done soon, and knowing this he would often request doodles of RJ as a “warm-up” before I got to work. This would end up interfering with my workflow and make me take much longer on finishing my work or prevent me from being as productive as I would have liked. I have an inconvenient sort of work ethic where I cannot afford to be distracted, or I would not be able to get things done as planned. As mentioned before, I would feel terrible at the thought of possibly making him feel bad, so I went along with his requests regardless. Whenever he was aware that I had any sliver of free time, he would default to asking for RJ art.

He was aware that I felt some sort of dread with being tasked to draw RJ, and would lightheartedly bring it up, which would in turn only pressure me further. He jokingly threatened that I would have to draw RJ if I didn't show him any progress I made on my projects. It put a lot of stress on me, but I convinced myself it was simply misplaced and wasn't serious enough to mention, so I didn't. I continued to entertain him regardless of how I was feeling, because I felt guilty over having the idea that he was taking advantage of my willingness to draw anything for him whenever he asked, along with the absence of any boundaries. He'd mention that if he was getting annoying, I should let him know, but I reassured him that he wasn't as I didn't want any confrontation or refusal on my end to sour our friendship.

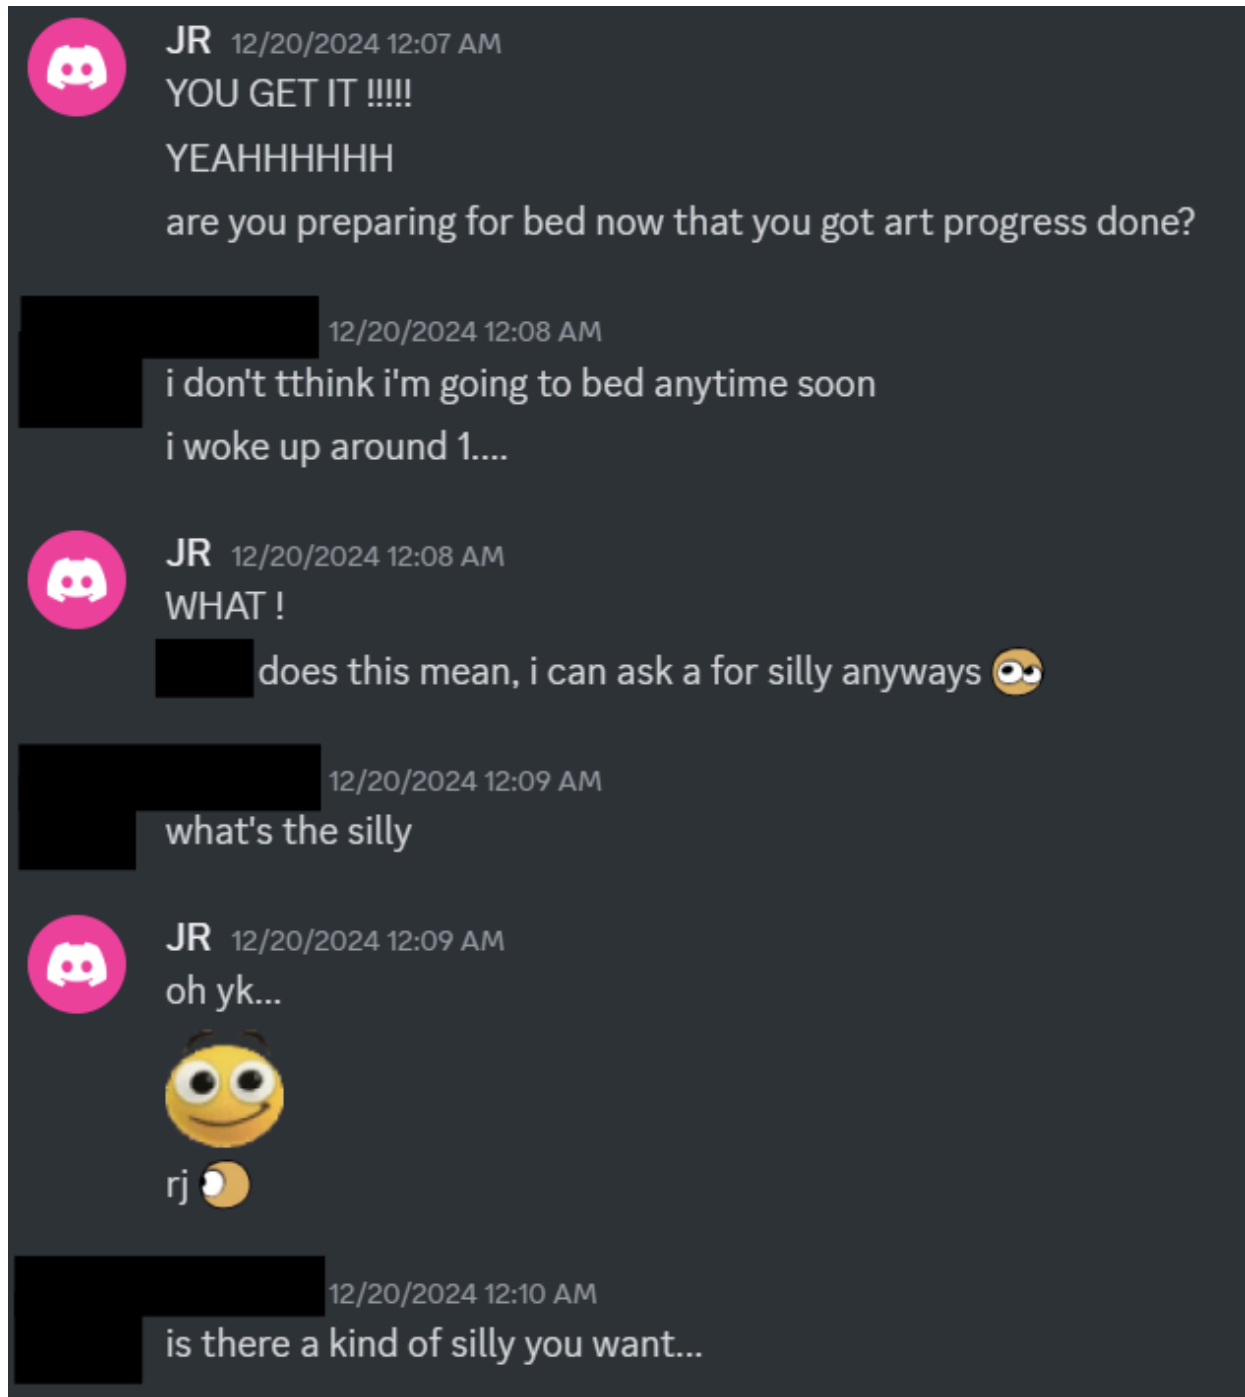

JR would continue to press me for RJ art multiple times, and at a certain point he started to send more suggestive poses as references for the art he'd request from me, initially framing it as just dynamic poses. I was perplexed, and sent reaction images to try to get across how I felt about being asked for art of that nature. He reasoned that it would be good practice, and repeated this sentiment whenever the prospect of drawing RJ was brought up. I kept this in mind, believing that it'd benefit me anyway, so why not? I said I was willing to try, and asked to see what he had. He then sent an almost explicit image (at least in my eyes) and stated he didn't think it was super suggestive. I again sent a reaction image and told him to wait as I dodged his question on if it was too much, as I thought it would be rude to turn him down.

Admittedly, I was uncomfortable at this point, making excuses that I couldn't execute the pose very well so I wouldn't have to do it. But again, I never spoke up about my discomfort. He was very lighthearted in his approach and I felt bad for even thinking of turning him down since it wasn't like he was forcing me. It was through my own fault that I enabled him and let him keep going. The only times I would vaguely show disapproval were through images or jokes, and even then it wasn't an outright no, so I never thought it counted. Since he seemed respectful about it, asking if it was too much and such, I found it hard to see anything bad in these exchanges.. Again, he would reiterate that it was for practice and warm-ups before I did work I needed to get done.

JR 12/20/2024 12:20 AM

sorry [redacted] long game of rivals just occurred 🤔 i do have a silly in mind but i must find it me thinks (edited)

how are you with dynamic poses [redacted] ? :0

i mean i can definitely try!

JR 12/20/2024 12:26 AM

12/20/2024 11:57 PM

ok!!

JR 12/21/2024 12:08 AM

NOOOOOO

WHAT THE HELL

still looking for a less dynamic pose, but i found this old one and thought it was AWESOME

12/21/2024 12:10 AM

if i may ask....

why all the suggestive poses!

JR 12/21/2024 12:12 AM

oh!

i just like them 🤔 not really much to them but i do understand they are a bit suggestive and sometimes may trail the line of nsfw, but i just think theyre silly and i like the idea of the vtuber model being a bit silly if that makes any sense

JR 12/21/2024 12:17 AM

so it is funny you mention why the suggestive poses cuz this one is REALLY on that line imo but do you think this would be too dynamic too?

bust might be too big

12/21/2024 12:17 AM

i don't like drawing spheres!

JR 12/21/2024 12:17 AM

12/21/2024 2:14 AM

i don't know how i did it

JR 12/21/2024 2:14 AM

you locked in for me 😂 tbh i don't know either... but i can't argue with awesome and epic skill

if anything, if this was a regular comm i would ask if the butt can be bigger 😭 maybe i can come become real 😎

12/21/2024 2:15 AM

what is the ask

JR 12/22/2024 11:23 PM

what if pose practice with rj as a warm up

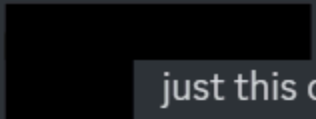

12/22/2024 11:24 PM

i gotta come up with prices for sketches

 this may be true

just this one last time....

JR 12/22/2024 11:24 PM

i think i have asked too much !
i imagine i trolled too close to the sun

The references he'd send only got increasingly more suggestive, we got to a point where he asked if I wanted to see art of RJ he had commissioned previously, which I approved. I was then greeted by a piece of RJ with wildly exaggerated proportions, with no prior warning. Though I told myself I should've expected that knowing the nature of RJ as a character and requests he's asked of me. All I could comment on was how good the art was and that it reminded me of Zhu Yuan, because as unsure as I was of what to say, I still wanted to show support as his friend. Over the course of the past few weeks, he has extensively discussed and shared images of certain interests of his with me. This all leads up to his acclaimed confession of having a porn addiction, as well as the reason why RJ was created. (see prior context)

JR 12/23/2024 2:33 AM

██████████ would you like to see some rj comms I've gotten in the past

12/23/2024 2:33 AM

yes

JR 12/23/2024 2:33 AM

Look !!!

12/23/2024 2:34 AM

wow!

i thought that was zhu yuan at first glance im ngl

JR 12/23/2024 2:34 AM

Zhu yuan the baseball fan

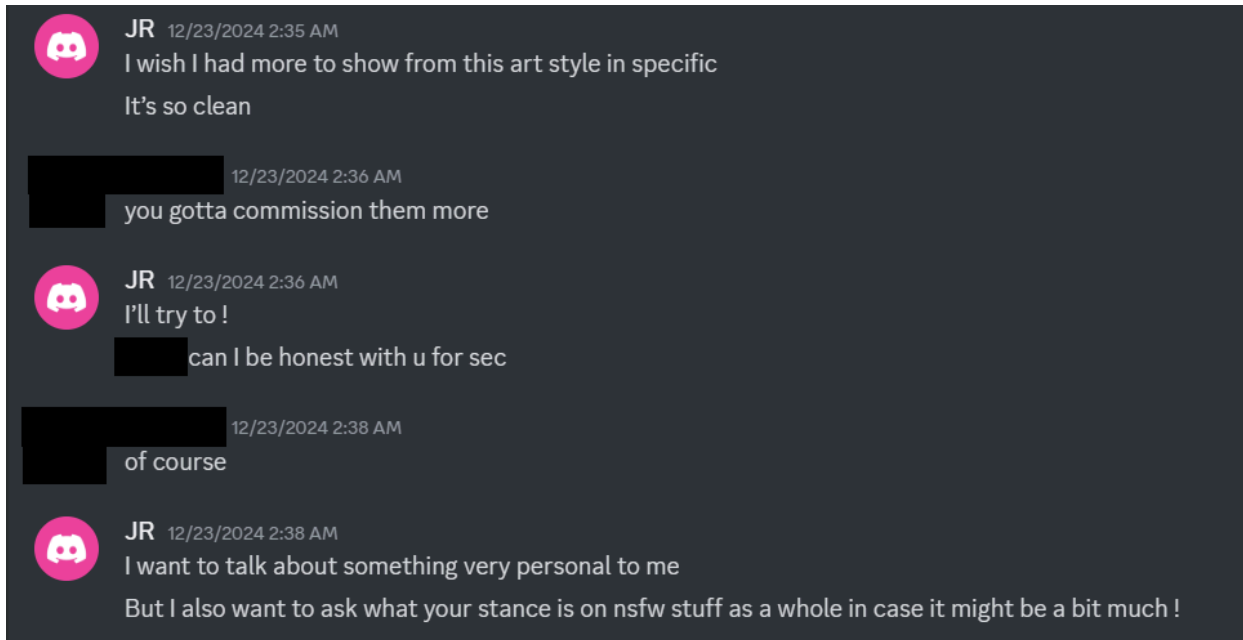

Does this one look like Zhu yuan?

12/23/2024 2:35 AM

nope

but wow these arts are really good

I responded with support, as I believed it would be wrong to judge anyone for their preferences, and empathized with him on the fact that he was exposed to it from a young age– the consequences of having unsupervised internet access as a child that he didn't have any control over. I assured him that it didn't matter what he was into, that would not change my perception of him as a good friend. Shortly after this exchange, he asked if it would be possible for me to indulge his fetish through my art, which I responded to with unease. Still, with how nice he seemed about it, I thought it would be fine to still doodle the pose references he'd send me. He then implied he'd like to see me make art in line with his fetish. I did not engage any further as I was disturbed by the idea but didn't want to talk about it, and he soon diverted the conversation by sending a random image of a dog.

JR 12/23/2024 3:03 AM

100% I feel lot of gen z has that experience

The internet was very much a Wild West out there

DO NOT LOOK UP AN MLP CHARACTER NAME ON GOOGLE IMAGES

Btw [REDACTED] I was going to ask. In the last bit of the message, I was curious to know if something in the realms of inflation could be request as a doodle or drawing? Doesn't have to be too extreme, but I'm curious to know if that's on the table

[REDACTED] 12/23/2024 3:05 AM

i don't know at the moment since i have zero experience in art of that realm

JR 12/23/2024 3:11 AM

I would always be down to help in the realm if you're ever feeling up for it. But if it ever seems too much you can always say no, I would hate to push you to do smth you're not comfortable with

[REDACTED] 12/23/2024 3:14 AM

of course :D i'm not very confident in any artwork i make that isn't my usual cartoony guys, but i could still doodle the poses you send me

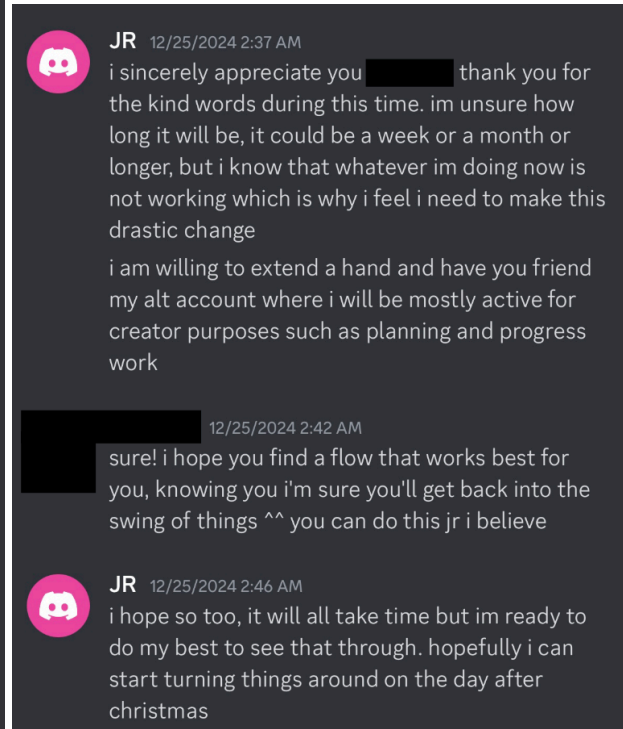

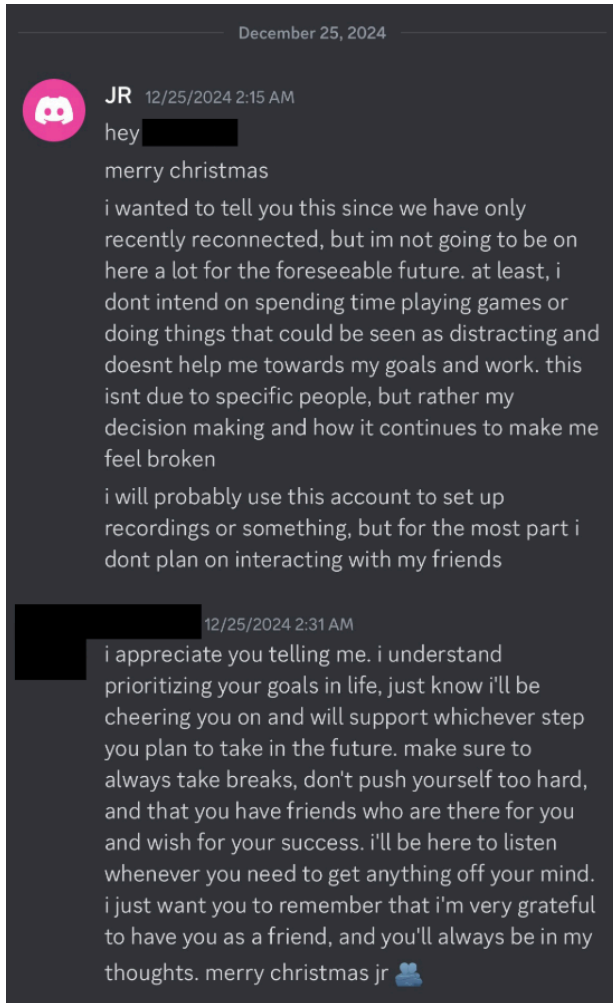

JR 12/23/2024 3:16 AM

I really appreciate that !! And of course I would always be more than willing to pay the price for a full on rendered piece at any time

It would be cool to see you try art of that nature

Later that night, he checked in on me as usual, so I asked him how he's been. He expressed that he didn't have a good afternoon, and that he felt pretty bad. I offered to listen to his troubles, but he said he was unsure if he could talk about it at the moment, which I understood as I wished him well. On Christmas morning, he messaged me informing me about his decision to basically go inactive on his main account, and spoke about his troubles regarding content creation and productivity. I assured him that regardless of what he does, I'll be there for him. This is when he offered to add me on his alt account that he would retreat to in his absence, where he would confide in me about the personal issues he was having.

The following day, JR would contact me late into the night regarding his troubles. He dropped a loaded question out of nowhere that I wasn't sure on how to respond to. Nevertheless, I tried my best to comfort him, offering to hear him out if he felt comfortable talking about it further. It eventually became more apparent that he was talking about a certain person. I didn't have full knowledge of any situation/s regarding the things he was talking about, so I prioritized trying to help him feel better with what insight I had, not knowing what was actually going on. (see saypil's section above for screenshots)

December 26, 2024

JR 12/26/2024 12:59 AM

Hey [REDACTED]

I have a question

[REDACTED] 12/26/2024 12:59 AM

hi jr

what is the question

JR 12/26/2024 1:00 AM

Why does the mind sometimes build up so much hatred

I don't get it to be honest

I get off a call where a lot of productivity is done, and then someone's tweets show up on my timeline and I'm reminded how much I hate that person. But why does that cloud my mind faster than my work today? (edited)

JR 12/26/2024 1:10 AM

I guess it's becoming a pattern in my mind then that these feelings keep coming right before I hit the bed

[REDACTED] 12/26/2024 1:11 AM

usually the bad thoughts come around when it's late at night cause you really only have your own thoughts to focus on

JR 12/26/2024 1:12 AM

Finding hatred in someone who cares for you is really backwards sounding, right?

12/26/2024 2:07 AM

thank you that gives me a bit more insight

it's understandable why you would feel that way. it's not good to find fault in yourself for everything, especially considering the fact that they have objectively done hurtful things that affected others. you shouldn't feel like an idiot for trying your best to include them, which shows how much they still matter to you despite everything. you're a kind person who expresses your care and love for others, you shouldn't be so hard on yourself

I am way too hard on myself, that's something I feel trapped with as a content creator
Having a public image and such

I put all this trust in them and once I realize I'm beginning to fall back in love, I get at myself for wanting the impossible

I've never shared a deeper connection to someone I was interested in with, and doing so makes me cling onto the past too much

12/26/2024 2:31 AM

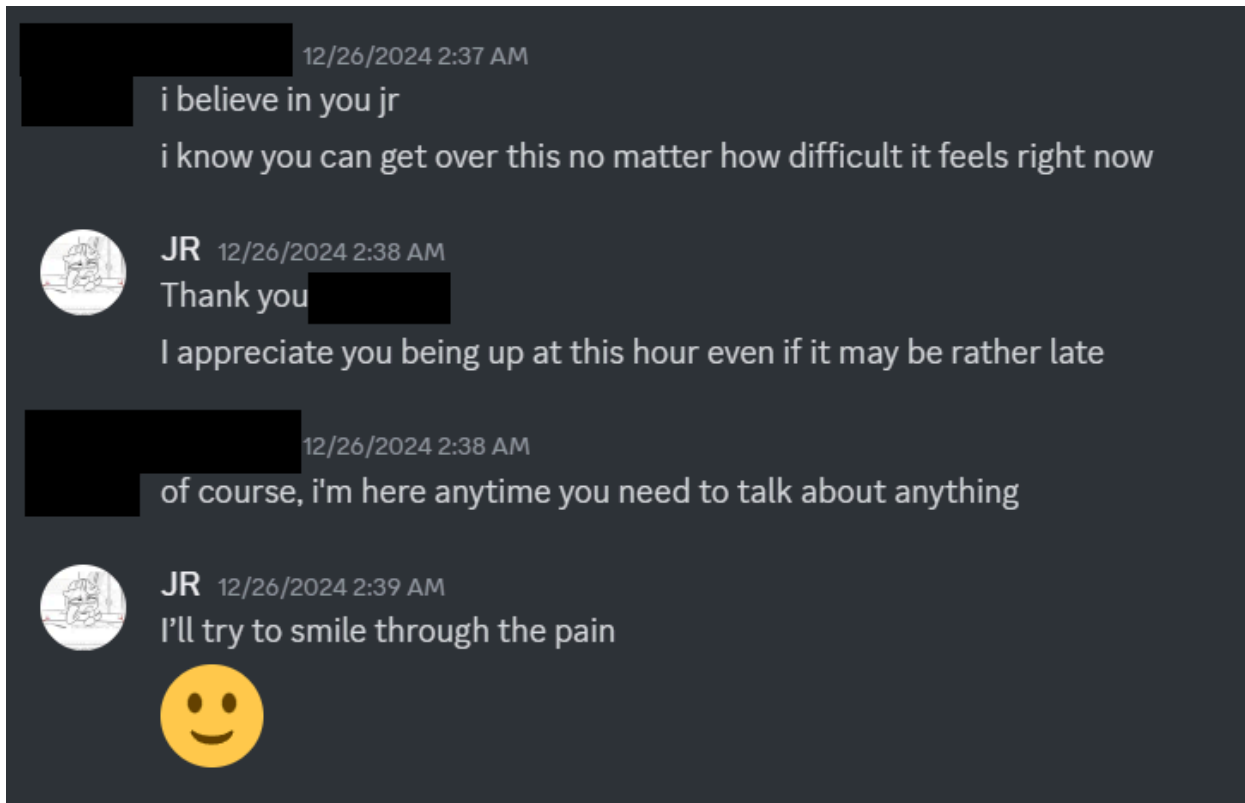

i get how it feels to cling to the past too much, i actively do that even now which has been detrimental in perceiving my current standing with certain people. as painful as it can be, it's important to remember that things may not be the same anymore. sometimes they just can't go back to how they were, because change is inevitable even if it hurts. but you also have to remember that loving someone isn't something you should get at yourself for, regardless of who it is or how the circumstances may be. it's unfortunate how things turned out, and even though you may not want to, you have to accept things as they are and move forward for your own sake.

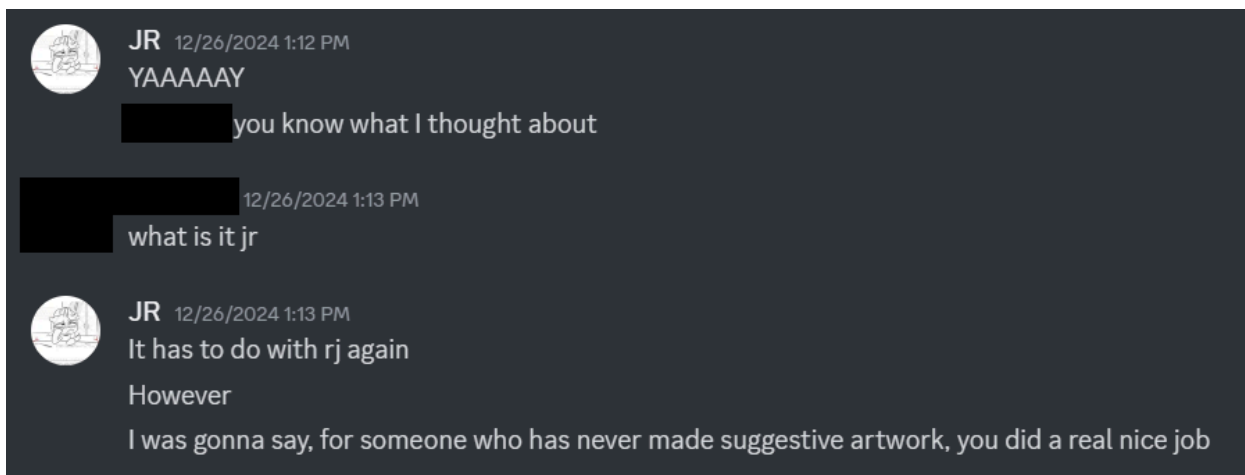

JR 12/26/2024 2:33 AM

I'm trying to move forward, i am

Throughout his stay on this alt account, he would vent to me about his issues with content creation, personal feelings, and continue to ask for drawings of RJ as well as discuss his fetish with me. He started showing me more explicit commissions he got of RJ too.

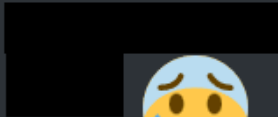

JR 12/26/2024 1:15 PM

Context for screenshot below: My computer shat itself and was out of order for a week, so I planned on just chilling after having drawn so much prior and the stress of that happening in the middle of work, and he was lamenting about how I would not be able to provide any art of RJ in the meantime.

JR 12/27/2024 9:43 AM

i need a youtube sponsor... please. i would love nothing than to get an animation commission one day

Around New Year's, JR returned to his main account. He then resumed his showcase of all the commissions he's ever gotten of RJ, which I mostly disregarded as I really did not feel like engaging with such topics. He would continue to send me suggestive artwork on Twitter, along with references of poses he wanted me to draw RJ in. I gradually lessened my willingness in fulfilling his requests, finally turning him down (albeit softly by saying "maybe another time") at one point.

1/4/2025 11:55 PM

maybe another time

On the night of January 5th, 2025, he reached out to me asking if I was down to get in a call while he worked. By the time I received this message, I had just gotten off my computer and was getting ready for bed. I was trying to say no by mentioning how I wasn't on my computer and wouldn't be able to talk, but his response made me feel pressured to say yes anyway. As the call lasted 5 hours, I'm not able to recall everything that was discussed. JR would bring up Saypil and talk about her or situations from the past that she was involved in, show off more of his fetish, and request I draw him and RJ while streaming the process. He suddenly brought up how he had been feeling lonely the whole night, and he was thankful that I was available to hang out, saying that if I'd turned him down as well things might've taken a turn for the worse. This immediately made me feel terrible for even thinking about rejecting him initially.

hey

JR 1/6/2025 2:12 AM

JR usually lets me know when he's about to go to bed, and regularly asks me what my current sleep schedule looks like. I do not follow a sane schedule as my life revolves around my friends who go by a timezone that is 12~ hours ahead of America, and he is aware of this. Despite this, he urges me to sync up my sleep schedule with his just so we would be able to hang out. Having a chronic case of People Pleaser Disorder, I still felt uncomfortable with the idea of turning him down as I didn't want to upset him, so I would always tell him that we could talk another time.

 JR 1/7/2025 3:07 AM

But what abt you !

 1/7/2025 3:08 AM
dunno yet!

 JR 1/7/2025 3:08 AM

 1/7/2025 3:13 AM
it's ok! there's still time when we're both awake

 JR 1/7/2025 3:14 AM
I think you must adapt
To my schedule !!

One morning while we were going about our usual conversations, he called me without warning. This stressed me out greatly, as not only did I already feel uncomfortable with basic social interactions in text, calls were much worse for me. To be rung spontaneously while I had just gotten out of bed was jarring. He knows I never ask to call, only joining ones in servers that are already ongoing, then staying muted the entire time. Not once has he asked if it was fine for him to do that unprompted, so I was upset. However, as the day just started, I didn't have the energy to get mad and confront him about it, so I just let him carry on with the call. This may seem like a normal interaction between friends, but I personally deal with anxiety so bad which can result in physical complications that can be easily triggered by things like this. I acknowledge that I played along and didn't call him out on it so I can see how it was my fault, but I really did not appreciate this stunt at all.

I value my privacy greatly and mostly keep to myself. I prefer not to disclose much about my life, including even trivial stuff such as what I'm up to. The constant messages from him asking for updates, and what frankly felt like monitoring from how often he would point out my current activity, would overwhelm me to the point I would set my status to invisible just so I could avoid what felt like the obligation to answer him when I really didn't feel like it. From this point on, I engaged with him less and less, keeping my responses to a minimum as everything had slowly started to pile up and take a toll on my mental state. I am someone who is very avoidant of confronting personal issues, let alone speaking up about them especially with other people, so I recognize that I was negligent in setting proper boundaries.

There was a time where we were just having our usual chats about random stuff, then it quickly turned into him venting about not being able to stream due to his internet, how it was hard to catch up with making content, and the mental toll his work has taken on him. I had a really hard time coming up with a response, because I was trying my hardest not to make him feel any worse. Once that was over, I did not make any attempts to contact him, and he chatted me up a few days later.

I became less lenient on letting him ask me for art, FINALLY allowing myself to turn him down. I was getting sick of the pressure I felt from him pushing to spend time together or asking about how busy I was, that I made no effort to reach out to him in the following 2 weeks, until he messaged me potentially after seeing me get online for a moment, asking if I was there. I only responded with a GIF the day after as I felt obligated to, not wanting to leave him hanging, but I didn't really want to talk.

They stole it...

What will you be working on and can I ask for art today

Wait I should've used this

1/26/2025 7:06 PM

JR 1/26/2025 7:09 PM

No..... is busy 🙄

will you be very busy due to oc work or do you have many other things planned

After returning to having normal conversations with him again, he would ask about my work schedule as usual, which got us talking about jobs, then we got into the topic of editing. I never thought about doing editing work so this is redundant to me personally, and at the time I was not aware of the situation with him failing to pay his editors. Having the context I do now, him bringing up the idea that I could learn to edit for him and he'd pay me for it is outrageous, knowing that he hadn't been paying those who were ALREADY editing for him. People whose work he gained money off of.

JR 2/12/2025 12:17 PM

lings 🤔

I assumed when you said you were busy I thought you got a job ! Does oc work take all day?

2/12/2025 12:19 PM

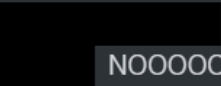

i WISH i got a job

i need moners

JR 2/12/2025 12:20 PM

Time to edit

2/12/2025 12:20 PM

NOOOOO

that's s job

JR 2/12/2025 12:20 PM

I will give job if you edit 🐾

2/12/2025 12:20 PM

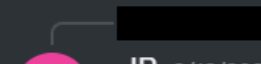

but yes oc work takes a lot of time and i tend to do that for most of my time awake

JR 2/12/2025 12:23 PM

Maybe when you have time outside of oc work, you can draw that jr guy !

i am unfortunately just not knowledgeable

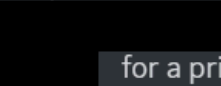

JR 2/12/2025 12:23 PM

There's still time to learn 🤔

I wonder what kind of clips

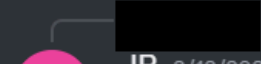

@JR Maybe when you have time outside of oc work, you can draw that jr guy !

2/12/2025 12:23 PM

for a price possibly

for a price possibly

JR 2/12/2025 12:24 PM

Mame your price !

He then asked me about my commissions and prices, stating that he wanted a fully rendered half body of RJ (something I had done for him for free as his first request). I gave him a quote of $40-45, which got him to ask if I offered sketch commissions instead. For reference, I have done about 10 sketches of RJ for him in the past ALL UNPAID, which he pushed for and reasoned as something that would benefit me by being good practice and giving me more experience in drawing body types in line with his fetish, and only now was he implying that he would pay big bucks for any potential sketches in the future.

 @JR Mame your price !

2/12/2025 12:25 PM

depends on what you want!

JR 2/12/2025 12:26 PM

Hmmm

RJ !!! 🤖

2/12/2025 12:29 PM

what kind of rj!

JR 2/12/2025 12:29 PM

Maybe a half body 🍔

2/12/2025 12:29 PM

oh wait i should send you examples
that way it's easier

JR 2/12/2025 12:30 PM

I require the [redacted] comm page !

2/12/2025 12:30 PM

there is no [redacted] comm pages yet unfortunately.....

JR 2/12/2025 12:31 PM

NOOOO

Is there price for the soft coloring
Or will that be discussed depending on comm

2/12/2025 12:43 PM

i do not know how to price stuff
but the art was $20
the art took i think 3 hours?
so double the time i spent on the art
but it was just a bust shot

JR 2/12/2025 12:44 PM

This is true

2/12/2025 12:44 PM

so a soft shading halfbody
maybe 40-45?

JR 2/12/2025 3:15 PM

I passed out 🤪

I think that is good price !

I just prob can't pick that option tooo often. Did you offer sketch comms btw?

2/12/2025 6:18 PM

not sure! i will see when i draw more

JR 2/12/2025 6:26 PM

i will spend the big bucks on sketches 🤪

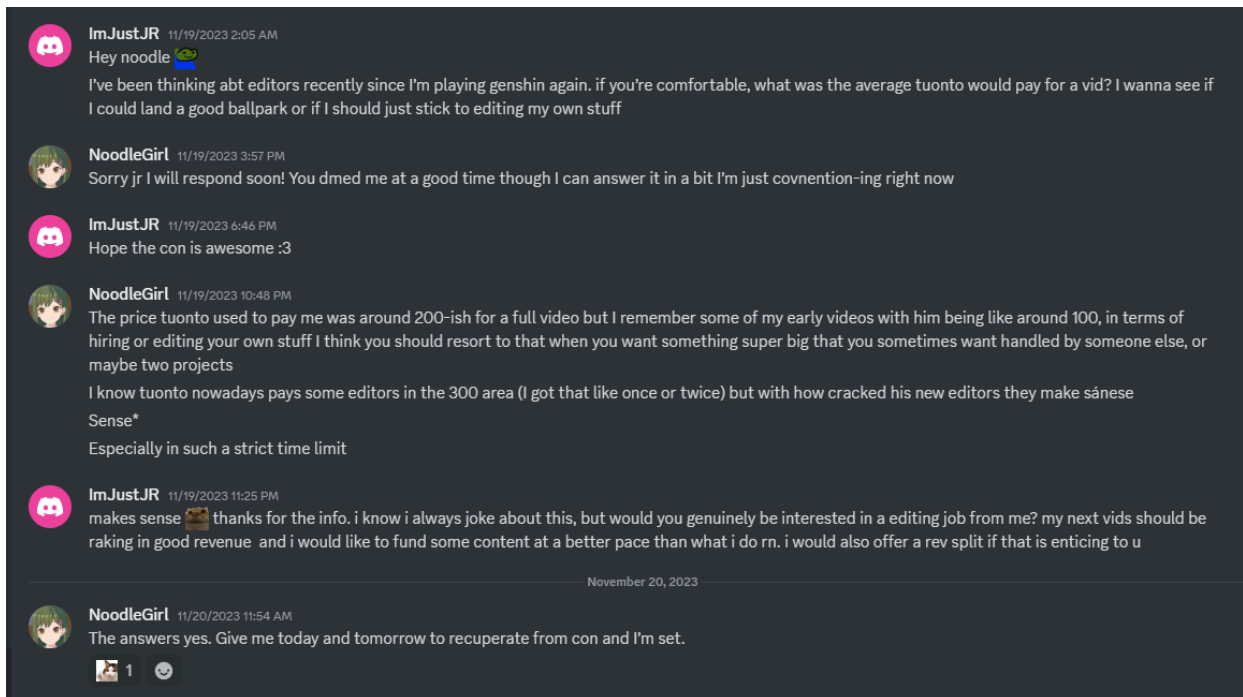

After this exchange, I completely stopped responding to him, and the last thing I heard from JR was him asking if I was down to play a game with him sometime, in the middle of when this whole situation was coming to light. He then dropped his public confession on his community's Discord server and presumably left the internet after privatizing all his socials.

Failure To Pay Workers

NoodleGirl

The section below is narrated by NoodleGirl's personal accounts of events with the help of screenshots.

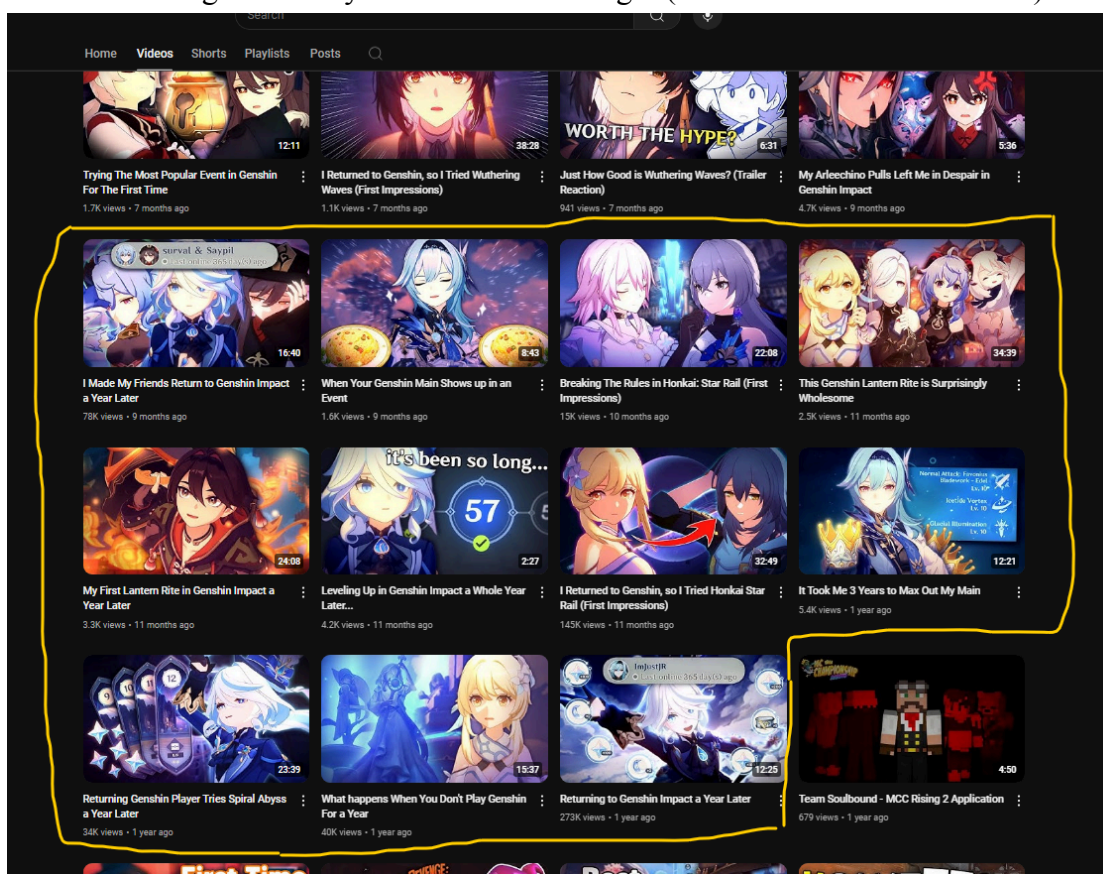

I have been a friend of JR for 5+ years and was also an editor for the ImAlmostJR channel, producing a total of 11 videos for him over the course of almost half a year (January 1st, 2024 - May 15th, 2024). Initially when I started editing for the channel, there was no payment involved as I personally wanted to help him out with his channel.

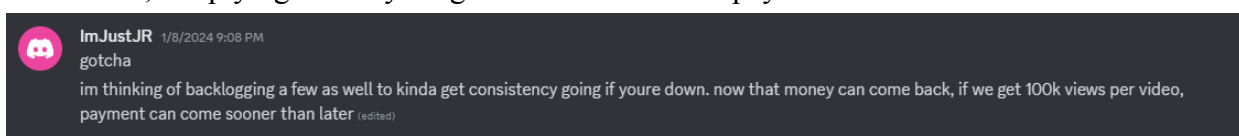

My reason was that we were close friends and over the course of my history with him, he's expressed issues with money and I didn't want to be someone that squeezed him for it. As I didn't need money extensively at the time, I thought I was being nice by offering free services (Image #1 and Image #2).

He would often state that he was 'low on funds' or didn't have any money and as one of his closest friends, I chose to believe it because why wouldn't I? This one's on me as I offered to edit for free, but what I didn't know is how much money he was withholding from me. He purposely hid this from me, and while I don't care about being paid anymore, I do want to showcase how much information he hid from me and how stupid I was for having him take advantage of my obliviousness.

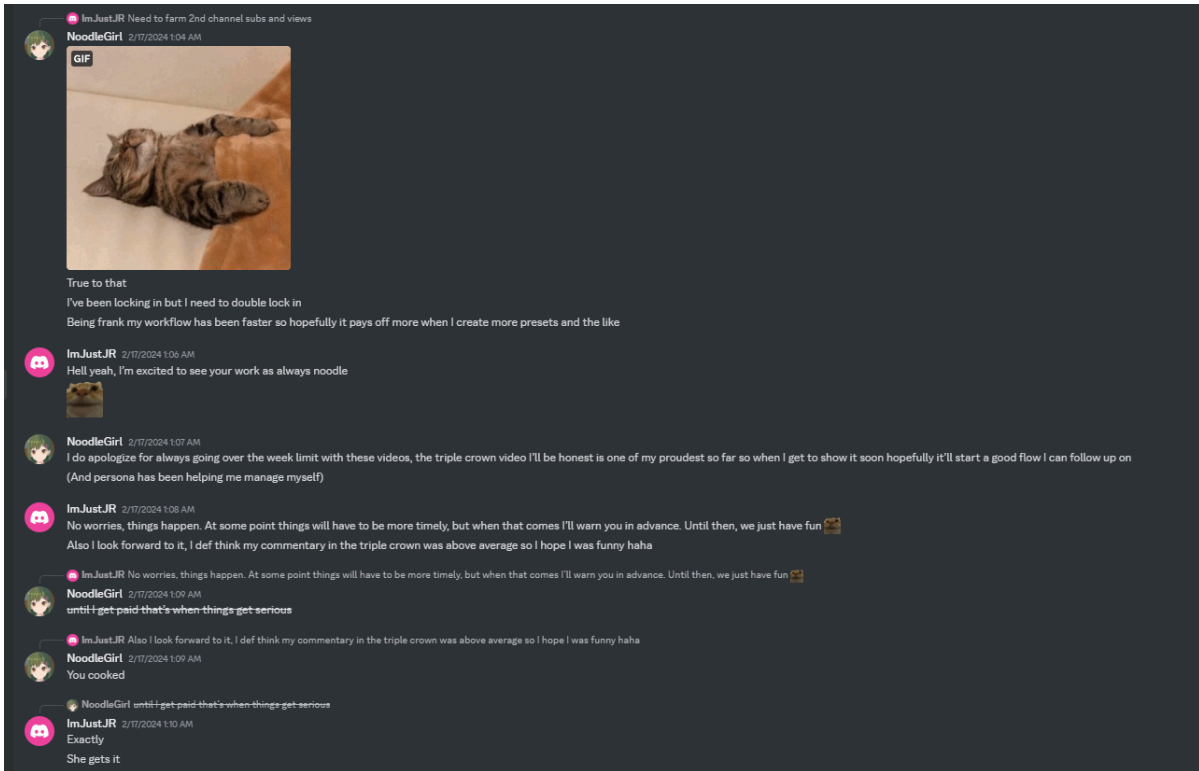

Here is a record of the videos that I edited, to both show how much work I put in along with showcasing how many views these videos got (revenue will be shown soon):

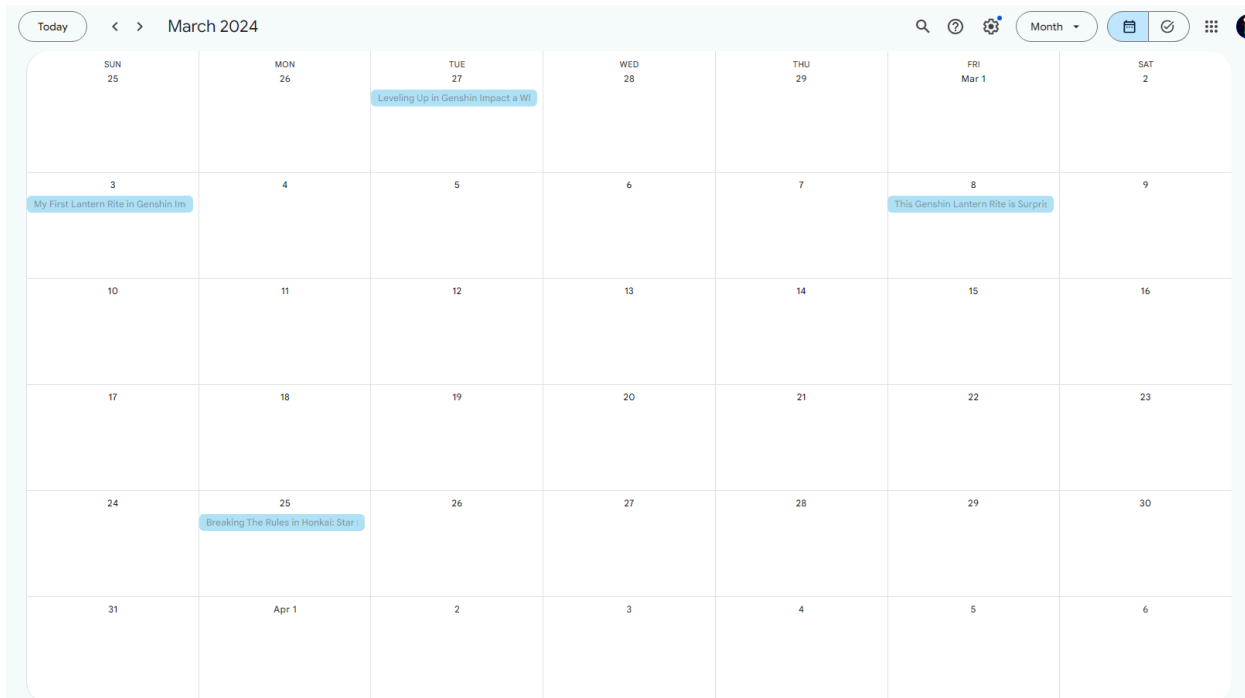

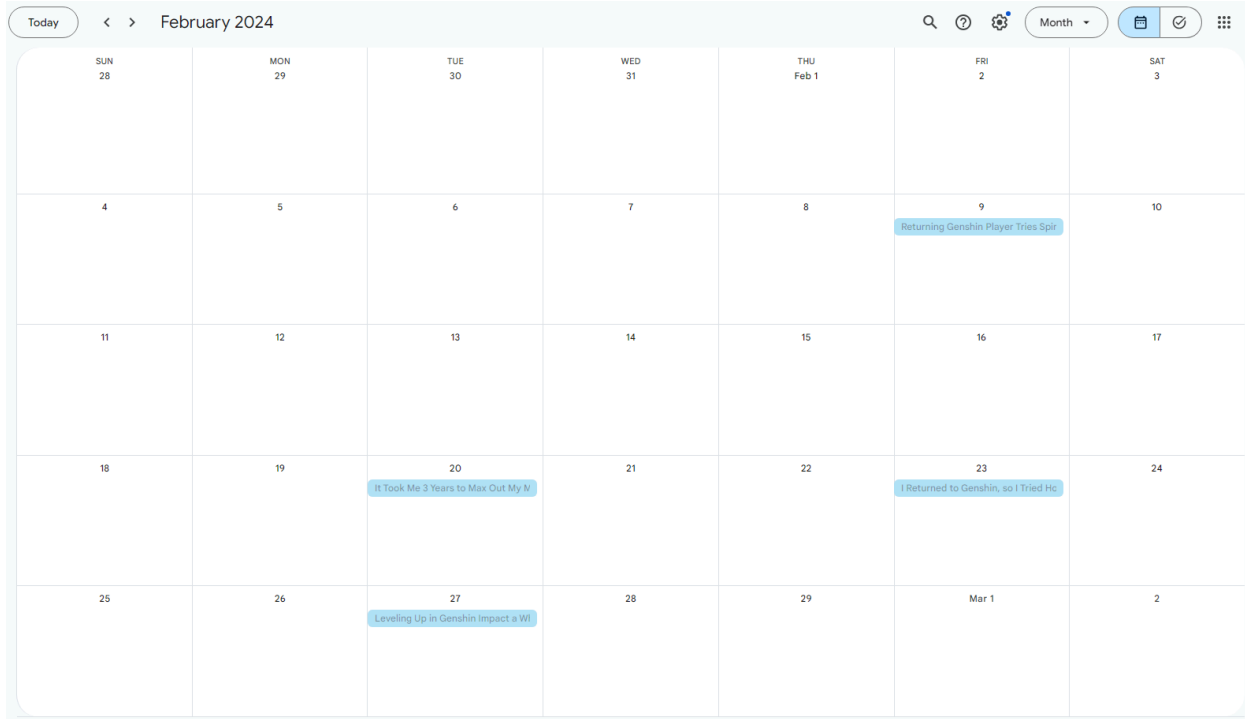

January 8th, 2024: After uploading our first video, JR lets me know that if we start getting more views, payment will come sooner than later. Notice how JR states “if we get 100k views per video,” implying that anything less wouldn’t allow payment to come sooner than later.

February 17th, 2024: One example of me apologizing for delays on the video. This was a common occurrence on my end as I felt the speed at which I was editing wasn’t enough and often went over the week deadlines. JR was patient with me but stated that things will have to be more timely sooner or later and that he’ll warn me when the time comes (referring to when revenue actually came in). I jokingly say that when he pays me that’s when things get serious.

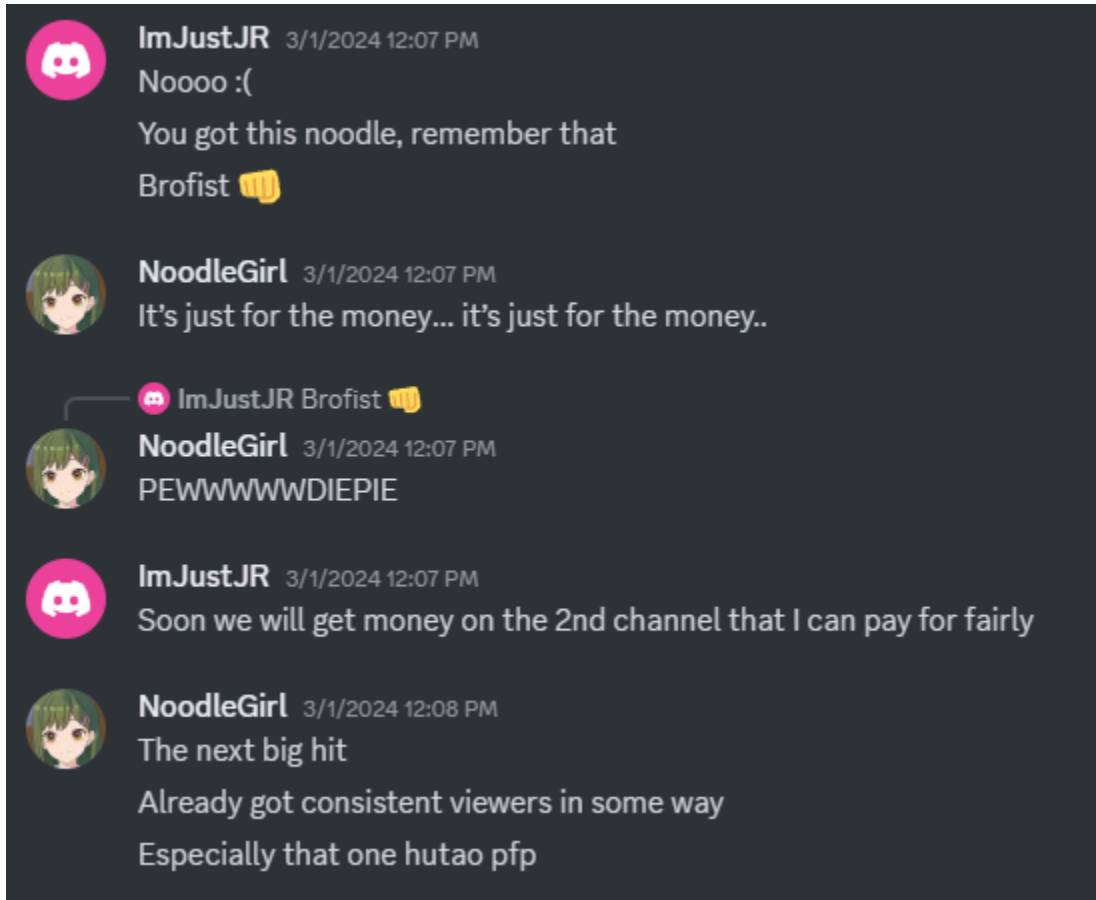

The realization I made was that by looking at the speed at which I made my videos, they were not as slow as I thought. For a professional Youtuber, it was definitely poor speed but for a small youtuber with an editor producing videos in their free time, it's not the worst. Here's a visual of the videos I edited in February and March, the two months I was most active in (as during April and May I had personal troubles that halted video production).

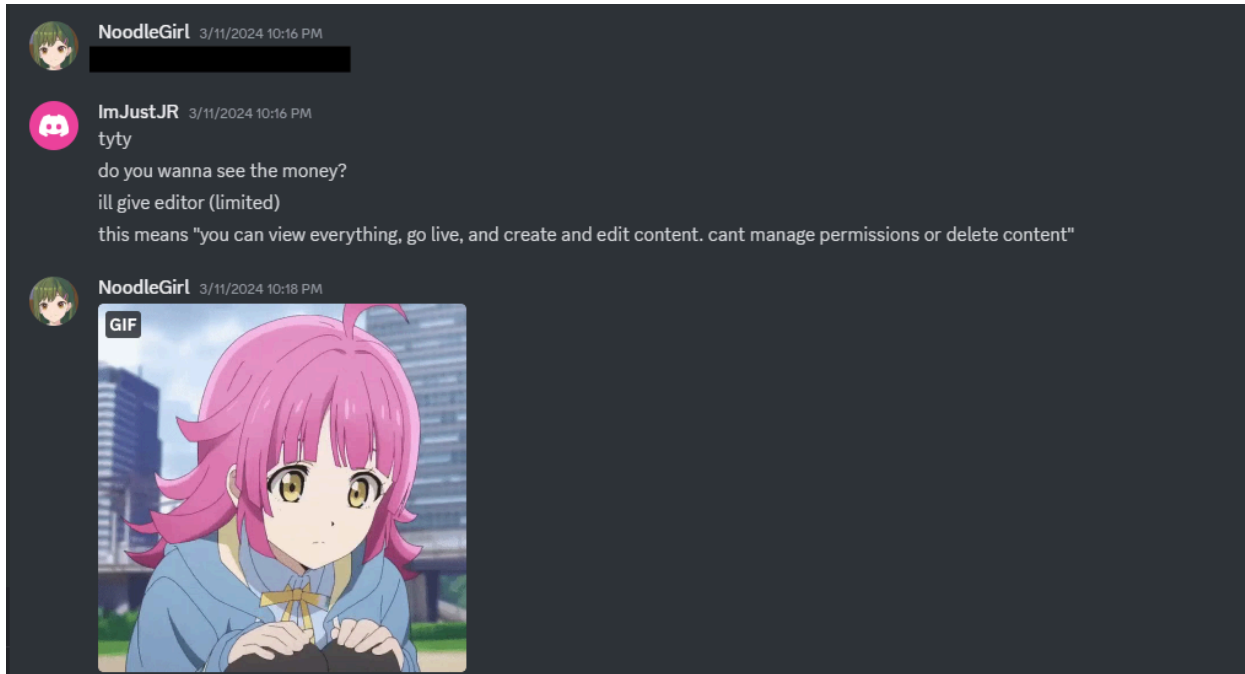

I realized I may have fucked myself by constantly apologizing to JR for delays on the videos thinking the speed wasn't fast enough. If what I think is true, then he wouldn't have any need to 'warn me when the time comes' because the speed I was making videos at already worked out for him. Spoiler alert, as you read further, even WHEN he started making money (big money I should add), he never 'warned me' when the time supposedly should've come. My mindset was that this editing gig wasn't serious until JR paid me and JR knew that was my mindset. No matter if you consider the videos I produced fast or slow, the videos did get views and he did receive revenue as you'll see later below.

March 1st, 2024 (after producing and releasing 5 videos): JR states that we're soon gonna be able to receive revenue so he can 'pay fairly.' This implied to me that he didn't have the funds at the time to do so.

Over a week later, JR gave me access to the ImAlmostJR channel with the intent to show me the money we made together, but I neglected to check it as I thought we were making pennies and dimes. I'm not the type of person to take every cent from someone so I decided I'd accept money when JR was at a comfortable amount to where he could do so without his financial status dropping.

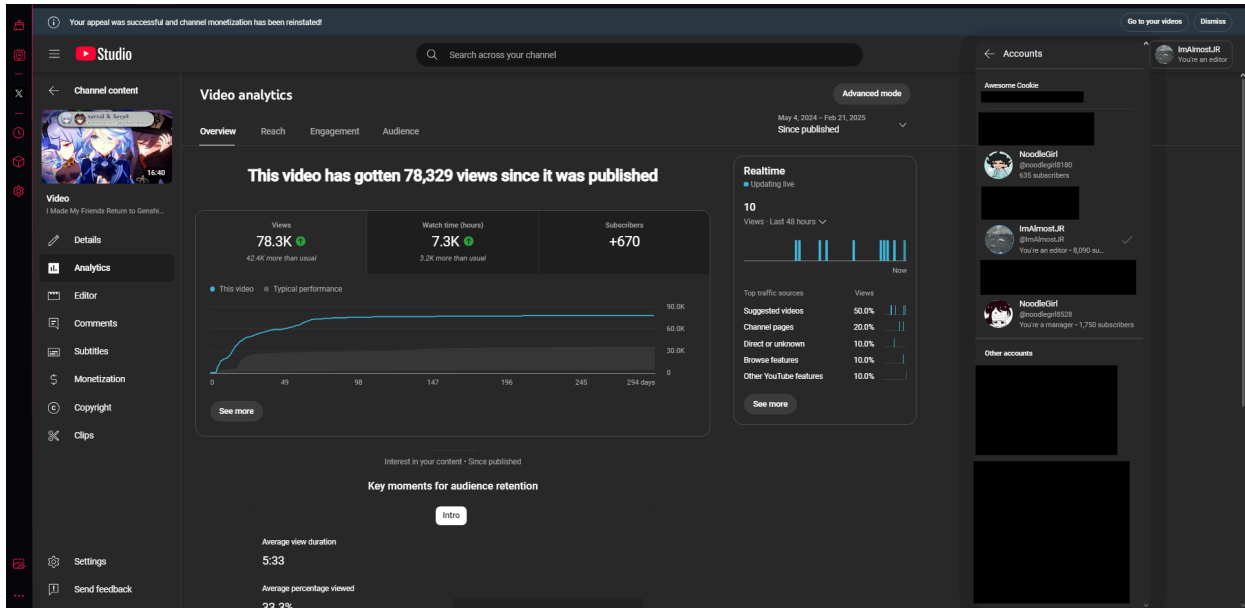

Please note that is what he made in the month of March and not once did he contact me about the money he made here.

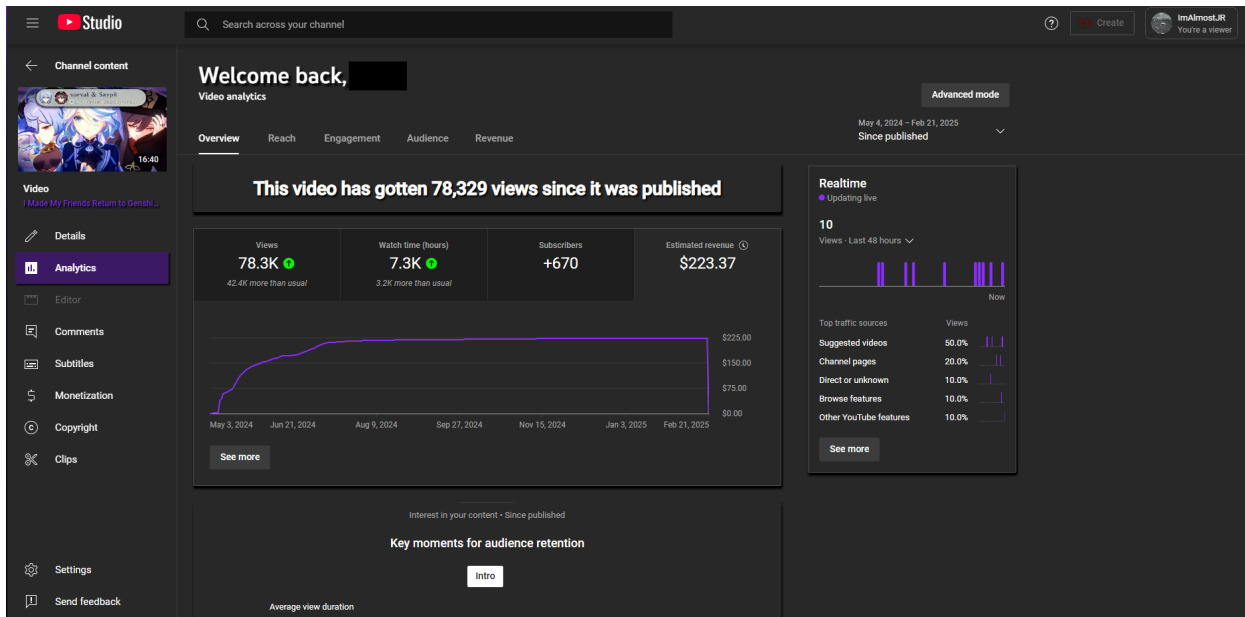

For anyone who knows how Youtube Studios works, you may have noticed that JR specifically put me as “Editor (Limited).” This role allows me to upload and manage content on the channel, but not see revenue.

|--------------------------------|--|---|
| Editor (Limited) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Same permissions as Editor | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Same limitations as Editor • Can't access revenue data (includes chat revenue and viewer activity tab) |
|--------------------------------|--|---|

This is how it looks from my view:

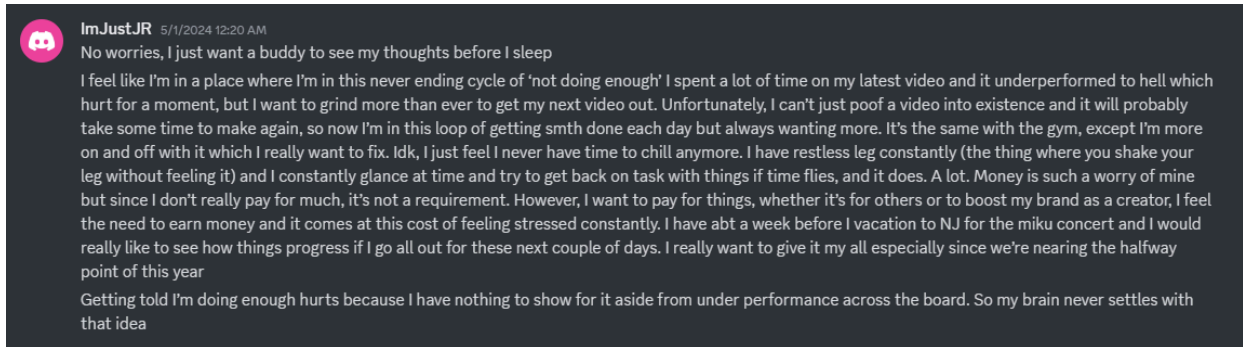

And this is how it looks from someone who doesn't have the 'limited' role (name has been blurred for privacy reasons):

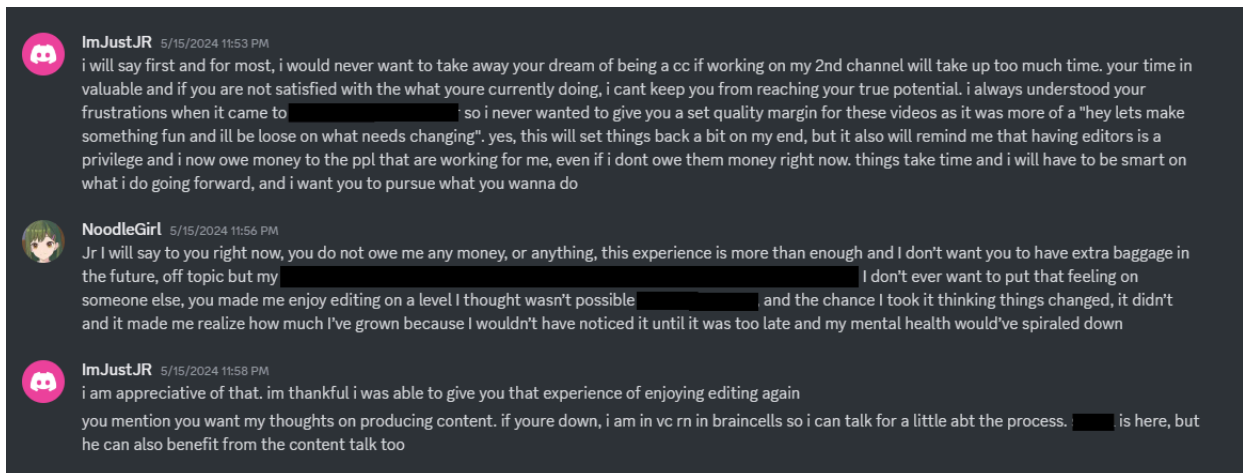

Even if I did check the channel, I wouldn't have seen the revenue as JR specifically intended to give me the 'limited' role. Now is that my fault? Yeah, I should've checked. I just thought if JR made enough money he would've told me about it since he wanted to 'pay me fairly.' I was unaware of what the 'limited' role even meant when he first added me on. JR intended for me not to see any of the revenue at all and for those who may think it was a mistake, the screenshot above proves otherwise, showcasing that he does know how to let others see his revenue.

On May 1st, 2024 (3 days before JR released my last edited video for him), JR sent me a private message detailing his worries with money, furthering my mindset that what I was doing was right, as money was tight for him and I didn't want to put more pressure on him for it. I was already on my way out with editing for him but if there was anything final I could do to help him, such as finishing the last video, I'd help him out with it. I didn't want to be that one person who's like, "Make sure to pay me!" when said person is financially in trouble.

May 15th, 2024: As I quit the ImAlmostJR channel to focus on my own (due to personal reasons), JR and I had one last conversation where I told JR it was fine if he didn't pay me for my work as he provided me with experience and I didn't want to provide him more baggage in the future (aka debts since I was still under the impression he was tight with money and I didn't want to 'bankrupt' him.) JR accepted and it ended there.

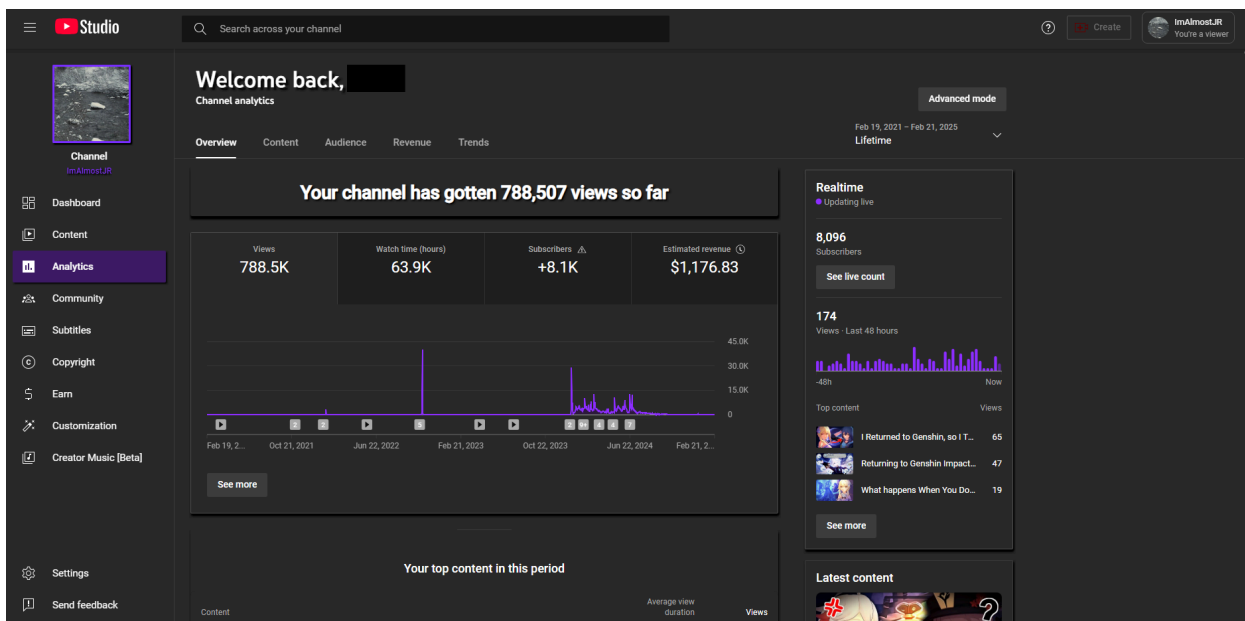

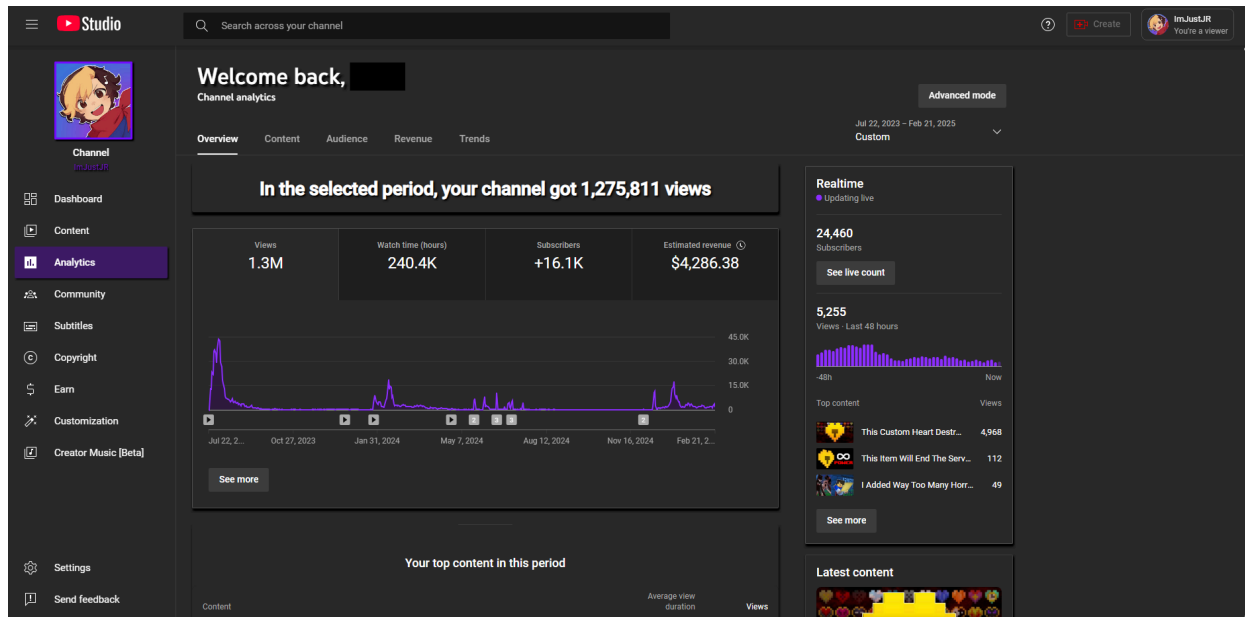

May 17th, 2024: JR reaffirms my thoughts of his money situation detailing his thoughts on dropping his trip to Vidcon 2024 because of financial issues. This is 2 days after I quit editing and over a week since the last video I worked on for him dropped. These actions continued to make me think he was on his last legs with money and I didn't really think about how much the trips really cost since it was shared between the people who were going there, lowering the total cost. His entire finance will be detailed below after this screenshot:

JR's Revenue

Now here's how much money he incurred (estimate) over the course of the entire Youtube channel along with his main one. Please note for the 2nd channel that while it covers everything on his channel, including the ones I didn't edit, none of them reached the views of the videos I produced for him, so most of the revenue was thanks to my videos.

I will admit a majority of this situation is on me for being ignorant, but as I was his close friend, I didn't think that he was lying or hiding information. Money was not my highest priority at the time, but the fact he was withholding this much while stating that he was struggling on money made me think he didn't have any. Like I stated previously, I don't care about the payment but I wanted to share how much information he hid from me in order for me to not ask for payment.

NOTE: It's important to state that JR doesn't have any recurring bills besides certain subscriptions services for Discord and Spotify. He has no car payments or house rent, nor does he go out often with the exception of trips such as conventions and the gym. This is all stated to ensure you know that he REALLY could've paid me at any time.

As you read other people's excerpts, you will see how much he tries to not pay any of his friends for any of the work they do for him. I just happened to be one who didn't question it because I trusted him, so I didn't need to be pressured in any way (please check Saypil & K's experience for more info). Also note that right when I quit editing for him (Summer 2024) is when he started commissioning art of RJ, which is when his porn addiction really started.

Since he had all the revenue from ImAlmostJR that had not gotten to me OR Saypil, what happened next links to this whole section.

You can imagine how I feel knowing that money I didn't know existed suddenly went to porn of his OC (and I only found this out while helping with this document). He hesitates to pay his friends for the work they provide him but he doesn't hesitate to drop 'big bands' for porn. I made him over $1000 and knowing most of it went to his addiction makes me feel a certain way when he could've, at any point, paid me.

He states that it's a 'privilege' to have editors and that he now knows he owes money to the people who are working for him. Spoiler alert, he didn't pay any future editors after me; it all went to gooning. And as you've most likely seen with the screenshots, it's clear what he uses money from Youtube for.

Saypil/-C

The section below is narrated by Saypil's personal accounts of events with the help of screenshots.

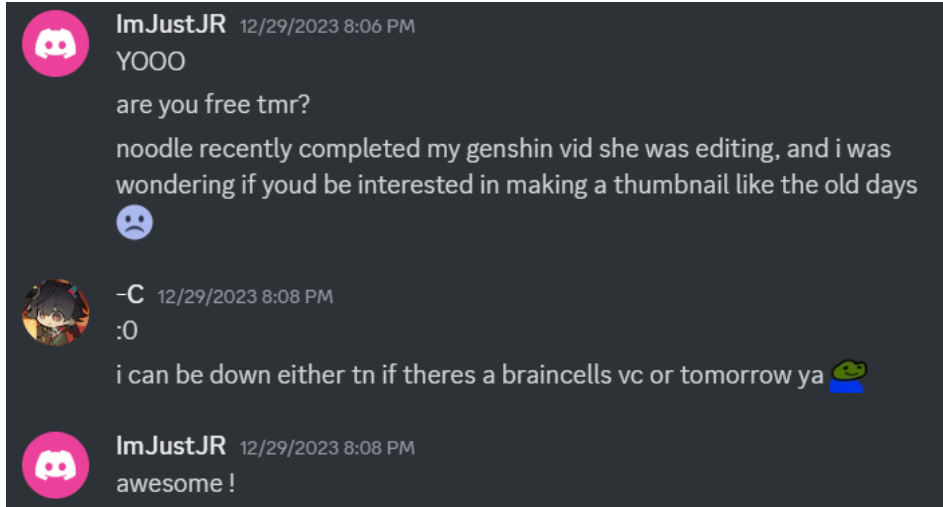

Not only was I a friend of JR for 5+ years, I was also his emote, alerts, and thumbnail artist for his Twitch and 2nd YouTube channel (ImAlmostJR) respectively. I have worked with him since 2020-2022 for emotes and alerts, and when getting back into contact with him in late 2023, I've been his thumbnail artist from January 2024 - September 8th, 2024.

Before I continue any further, I must state that JR has paid for art assets related to his streaming purposes, such as emotes, alerts, and an unfinished PNGtuber due to these recent events. However, he has not paid a single cent on the thumbnails I have created for him.

Similar to NoodleGirl's story, there was also initially no payment involved for these thumbnails as I wanted to help him out as a close friend of his. To add on, he has also expressed how he's always been "tight on money" and "wishing he had more" so he can pay not only back to the people who have helped him, but to also pay for future assets for his content creation purposes. As a friend, I simply did not mind the money and understood his situation. Below are screenshots of work I have done for him and conversations relating to work and payment (for more payment related issues, please refer to NoodleGirl's story):

Videos within the yellow box are thumbnails I have done for him (the only thumbnail we've worked on "together" was the Arlecchino pulls video [top right of the screenshot]. I also forgot to highlight the "weapon banner for eula" video too as a thumbnail I've made for him [bottom left].)

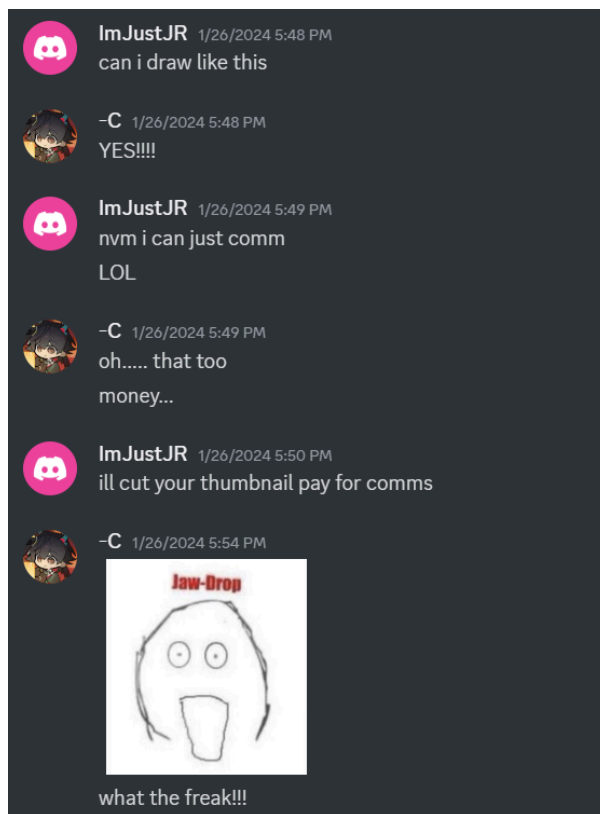

JR asking me to help make a thumbnail for his Genshin video as I did previously voluntarily (which was the “hu tao pulls” and “weapon banner for eula” videos)

JR stating he would like to start paying for help on the 2nd channel (mainly referring to both me and NoodleGirl)

Additional note: He has also stated this a couple of times in VCs as well, but this screenshot and screenshots from NoodleGirl are the only text-based screenshots we were able to gather regarding payment.

Him joking about “cutting my thumbnail pay” for commissions instead (he has never paid me for a thumbnail ever)

I want to state this again that I did these thumbnails voluntarily to help my close friend out at the time. However, after a few months later, it became a demand of work even when I am under mental distress.

hey saypil, i hope youre doing alright. i was planning on asking this when i finished the genshin vid, but i would like to learn how to make the thumbnails so i dont have to bother you everytime. if i could get the psd file for a few of them that would be great

-C 5/20/2024 7:58 PM

sorry

i can keep making thumbnails i just am having a bad emotional shut down
im sorry

ImJustJR 5/20/2024 8:06 PM

no need to apologize, your feelings are important. i never ask for due dates and i do my best not to rush you on these sort of things. if things are tough right now, take as much time as you need to decompress and recompose. do you want to talk about how youre feeling? if not, that is okay too. remember to take things one step at a time and take care of yourself. if being away from social media would benefit you, i would suggest taking a break

Yo, unsure if you're using discord at the moment, but I need a thumbnail from you today. I'm sending the idea on discord

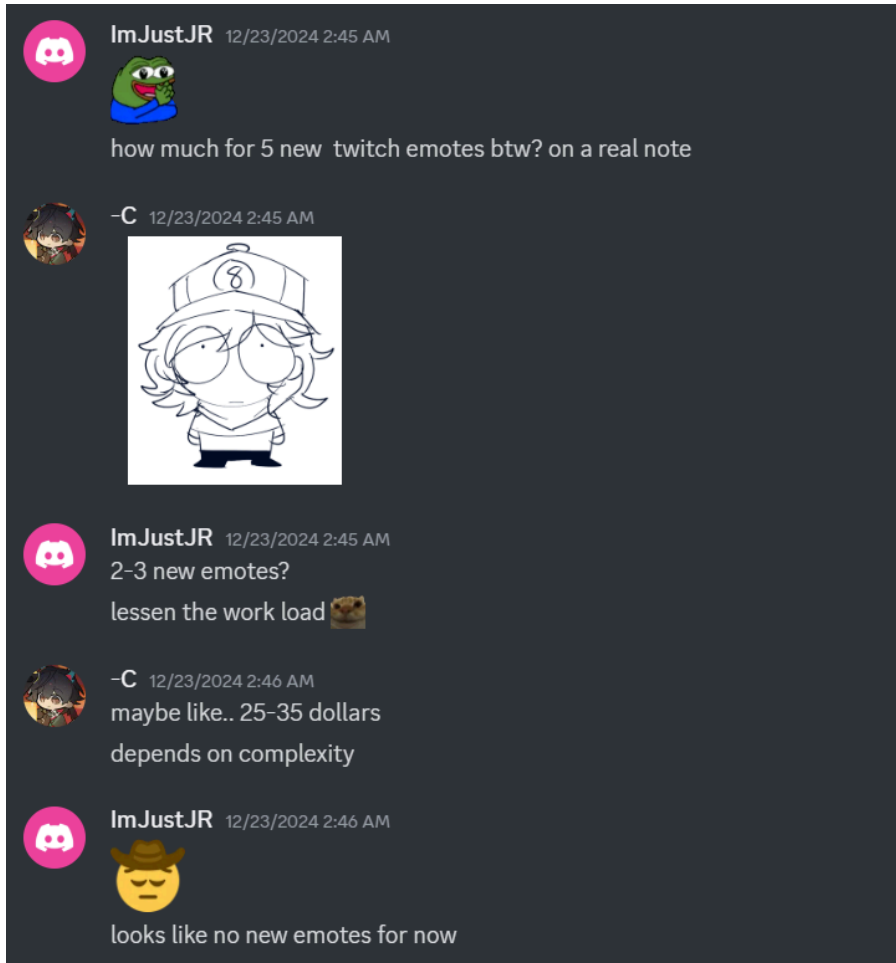

k

After September 8th, that would mark the last time I would make a thumbnail for the ImAlmostJR channel.

As stated before, similar to NoodleGirl's situation, I did not care for the payment due to believing JR was tight on money and I wanted to be a good friend by helping him out. However, learning the fact he had the money all this time to pay back not only me, but other people he owes money to, to some degree it feels like you have been scammed this whole time (refer to the revenue screenshots from both his main and 2nd channel).

Adding onto JR's statement that he's been tight on money, when doing paid art for him, they've always been discounted. However, similar to when I and other artists didn't want to do his RJ requests, he would subtly guilt-trip in his messages regarding the price for commissioned work.

For reference, the screenshot below is although old, were once my prices for emotes back then:

Emotes

my commissions are closed, please check twitter bio for comm status.

$15 USD per emote, $75 USD for a pack (5 emotes)

check trello for queue positions

please check my commission tos before commissioning as well

TWITCH EMOTES

BY SAYPIL

The price we settled for the Discord screenshot was 25 dollars for 2 emotes, saving him 5 dollars. Although it's not much, it's definitely less than it normally would be and even then I'm still underpaying myself with the vanilla price.

However, as stated previously multiple times, he is more willing to pay suggestive/NSFW works of his character rather than people he works with for his actual content. Going as far as to ask me, Saypil/-C, to make an account on Skeb to make a request on his behalf to a Japanese artist as he was unable to do international payment with his card and was willing to pay me back to have this request (thankfully, this never went through despite my slight willingness to help out a friend at the time).

ImJustJR 11/21/2024 7:23 PM

would you be down to make your own skeb acct and file the commission on my behalf, and then i pay you however much it is in paypal?

-C 11/21/2024 7:23 PM

i could try to!! but the only thing is that it wouldnt be private and also itd probably be marked to my account as well for it 😭

ImJustJR 11/21/2024 7:24 PM

i only suggest that since the other option would be linking the card on my acct and thats a big decision im not sure if you would want to do (edited)

i think you can priv a skeb acct from skeb

meant to say my acct

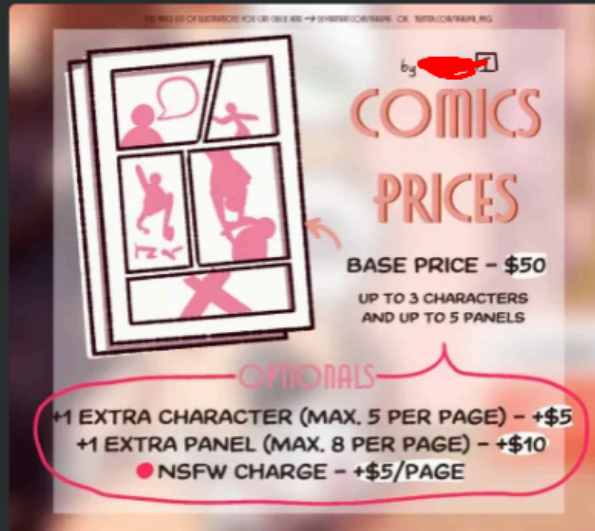

Eventually, it becomes to a point that this fixation of his character, RJ, fitting for his desires is one of the main things he wants to spend money on the most even with the idea that “he has to save money” and such.

ImJustJR 9/10/2024 2:12 AM

ik youre asleep atm saypil, but i find it so funny that i was talking about saving money and being smart. but i just found an artist's commissions that ive been following for a bit now (kinda surprised i just saw this) but they have a comic prices sheet and its SO affordable aaaaaah [https://www.deviantart.com/\[redacted\]/art/Comic-prices-2024-1007689809](https://www.deviantart.com/[redacted]/art/Comic-prices-2024-1007689809) life is tempting me 🤔 (edited)

But I won't lie to you saypil

Cuz finished video means possible money which means possible rj comms and I'm freaking upset I'm missing out on seeing cool art, it's PISSING ME OFF

Conclusion

ImJustJR has let his porn addiction and fixation of RJ (genderbent version of JR) consume him to the point of not only pressuring his friends to produce FREE art of her, but also make him talk sexually with a minor in order to receive MORE art of RJ and to further express his inflation fetish. JR is also a danger to the women around him; almost sexually assaulting one of his friends and cyberstalking/harassing his ex of 5 years because he couldn't get over her. His behavior has made him erratic and it has affected many conversations between his friends, to the point of him lashing out at them over irrational reasons. He has also hid his income from people who have worked for him in order to later spend it on his porn addiction, and he has greatly broken the trust of everyone who has been mentioned/involved in this document.

We hope by releasing this info that people are aware of JR's actions, spreading awareness on how deep a porn addiction can go and how dangerous it can become for everyone involved. As many contributors of this document were once friends with JR, we only hope that he truly understands the depths of his issues and seek the professional help needed to become a better person. Regardless of his future, what actions have been taken by JR are ones that cannot be justified & under no circumstance should this behavior be tolerated in any community. We do not condone the harassment or doxing of anyone involved/mentioned in this situation. Please respect the privacy of the affected parties. Thank you to everyone who has taken the time to read this document and please stay safe online or elsewhere.
