

January 28, 2023

The CHCORI Battalion JROTC Drill Team, Triple Threat, composed of cadets from Chancellor, Courtland, and Riverbend High schools, competed at the GEN Wheeler “Best of the Best (Qualifier)” Drill Competition at the DC National Guard Armory.

Cadets proudly competed against 21 other schools in events such as Armed Inspection, commanded by c/CPT Candido Lopez, Armed Platoon, commanded by c/SSG Bao-Anh La, Armed Squad, commanded by c/SSG Cassandra Rittle, Armed Color Guard, commanded by c/PVT Paige Turner, Unarmed Inspection, commanded by c/MAJ Quynh Ly, Unarmed Platoon, commanded by c/MAJ Quynh Ly, Unarmed Squad, commanded by c/CPT Candido Lopez, and Unarmed Exhibition, commanded by c/MAJ Quynh Ly.

The Triple Threat drill team took home 5 trophies:

- 1st place Armed Inspection
- 1st place Armed Platoon
- 3rd place Armed Squad
- 1st place Unarmed Inspection
- 1st place Overall Unarmed Division

The Triple Threat drill team cadets qualified for Nationals (Best of the Best) for the Unarmed Division and will be traveling to Daytona, Florida, in early May.

The drill team cadets will be preparing for their next competition at Huguenot High School in Richmond, Virginia, on Saturday, February 11, 2023.