

SSSP Early Career Forum Events - NASP 2017

Special Session: Publishing in School Psychology Journals: Advice for New Authors (SS0004)

Intended Audience: Early Career Faculty, Advanced Doctoral Students, Researchers

Description: A panel of early career scholars with experience as journal associate editors and editorial board members will share insights on navigating the publishing process of various journals in school psychology.

Panelists: Andy Garbacz (Journal of School Psychology); Kelli Cummings (School Psychology Review); Jose Castillo (Journal of Educational and Psychological Consultation); Lisa Bowman-Perrott (School Psychology Review);

Moderator: Leandra Parris

Date: Tuesday, February 21st, 9:00-9:50 AM

Location: Republic A, 4th level, Grand Hyatt Hotel

SSSP ECF Early Career Faculty Peer Mentoring/Networking Meeting

Intended Audience: New and Pre-Tenure Faculty

Description: This reception-style meeting is designed to help early career faculty to socialize, discuss relevant issues, and network with others with similar interests.

Moderators: Tamika La Salle, Laura Pendergast

Date: Tuesday, February 21st, 4:00-5:30 PM

Location: Casa Rio (Veranda Room), 430 E Commerce, San Antonio, TX 78205

SSSP ECF Speed Mentoring Event (RSVP required)

Intended Audience: New and Pre-Tenure Faculty

Description: Participants will be grouped based on selected interests provided by the RSVP form. Groups will meet with mentors (e.g., advanced faculty) to discuss topics, ask questions, and receive suggestions from their mentors. Participants will get to meet with multiple mentors, as well as meet other new career faculty that share their interests.

RSVP:

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1Xo_xBv7a6BqvTbJarar1IdNqypUqNq9AJDsDtnOALNs/viewform?ts=589a5557&edit_requested=true

Moderators: Leandra Parris, Tamika La Salle

Date: Tuesday, February 21st, 5:30-7:00 PM

Location: Casa Rio (Veranda Room), 430 E Commerce, San Antonio, TX 78205

Academic Parenthood: Perspectives From Early Career, Mid-Career, and Senior Faculty Members

Intended Audience: Faculty who are also parents (all career stages)

Description: This panel will provide suggestions learned and tips for navigating the world of academia as a parent. Topics will include parental leave, returning to work, maintaining productivity, and potential changes in identity.

Presenters: Bryn Harris (University of Colorado Denver); Clayton Cook (University of Minnesota); Jessica A. Hoffman (Northeastern University); Milena A. Keller-Margulis (University of Houston)

Date: Wednesday, February 22nd, 8:30 AM 9:20 AM

Location: Room 006, Convention Center, River Level

Careers in Academia: Aligning Research, Teaching, and Service Endeavors (PA227)

Intended Audience: Faculty (all stages)

Description: This presentation will provide information about trainer shortages in the field of school psychology. It will specifically outline ways to integrate the three components of academia in order to increase faculty productivity and job satisfaction.

Presenters: Bryn Harris (University of Colorado Denver), Jessica Reinhardt (University of Denver), Amanda Sullivan (University of Minnesota), Rob Volpe (Northeastern University)

Date: Wednesday, February 22nd, 2:30 PM–3:20 PM

Location: Room 206B, River Level, Convention Center