A Special Trip to London

Last month, the Parker family decided to go on a trip to London. They traveled there by train because it is faster than a car. When they arrived, the weather was typical for England: it was cloudy and a bit chilly, but it didn't rain.

First, they visited the Tower of London. Tom and his sister Lucy were amazed by the old stories about kings and queens. After that, they went to a small Italian café for lunch. Tom ate a large pizza with extra cheese, and Lucy chose spaghetti. Their parents drank coffee and planned the rest of the day.

In the afternoon, they took a red double-decker bus to see Big Ben. They took many beautiful photos there. Lucy wanted to visit the London Eye, but the queue was too long, so they decided to go to the British Museum instead. They saw many ancient things from Egypt.

In the evening they were tired but very happy. Tom said that it was the best day of his life. They bought some souvenirs like magnets and a small toy bus before catching the train back home.
