

Disclaimer:

This is our first non-fight based event and because of that, rules will be strict. We want to involve as many people as possible so some people may be asked to limit themselves. If you have a question or concern about a rule, please pm Eijiro Kirishima. As always, we are looking for feedback but please understand that rules may not be changed for this event but possibly in future events. As always we thank you for your understanding and hope that the reasons for these rules are clear.

1. The dance proper will begin at 7pm CST but you may join in at any time and will officially go until about 11pm CST or later depending on how many people are involved and how successful the night is.
2. You must make some sort of entrance post (ie. Getting ready and picking up your dates and arriving.) This may be done as early as 6:30pm CST.
3. The beginning of the dance will be signaled by the Vice Principal opening the doors and the room transitioning through the VPs post.
4. If there are any current rps going on, we ask that you cut them short by 6:45pm CST or move them to another room/PMs.
5. All are welcome, even villains. However, aside from Mutation class quirks, all powers will be temporarily blocked and there will be no permittance of any sort of attack on the school. All quirk use aside from a few pre-approvals, will not be tolerated.
6. If you use your quirk you will get one (1) warning via the VP and after that you will be systematically kicked.
7. If you are kicked you can come back in and you do not have to make an entrance post at that time, but please rewrite your previous action or choose a new action.
8. It is up to the Room Owners to decide if someone is having troubles following the rules and to ban them from the room for the rest of the night. There will be no permanent bans given out for breaking the rules for this event.
9. Because we want people to feel welcome and the room active, emotes and actions longer than four sentences will not be permitted. This is a hard limit. It's a dance and you cannot do much without godmodding others and we don't see the need to embellish your actions more than that. React, speak, act.
10. It's a school dance. Please be respectful of what school rules would be. Obviously if someone were to, I don't know, spike the punch, we would not look too kindly on that but it's an event with no real repercussions in the story. However, if you're making too much of a nuisance of yourself, you will be told to knock it off.
11. All rules normally enforced in UA High are still in effect.
12. If you leave the dance for whatever reason or end up going off on a tangent with one or more people that can be classified as side story, we ask that you move to a different room or to PMs. You do not have to leave the room, but you will have to make a reentrance post to let others know you are back.

13. There will be one Idle check performed at 6pm CST and one at 11pm CST, other than that, there will be no idle checks. If you plan to go idle, please have an exit post and/or leave the room.
14. Before the event, there will be a community-wide poll of whether or not we will consider the events that occur within the event to be "Cannon" to the story or not. If it is to be considered cannon, you are still welcome to join non-cannonly.
15. There will be live music streaming in the Discord Server! Come listen!
<https://discord.gg/QShxK4> People will be listening and if you just wanna talk, you can turn the music volume down. You can request music by going into Bot-Spam and typing !play (Song) . If you are found playing something other than music, ie memes, random videos, etc. You will be kicked from the call/server.
