

COMMUNICATIONS

CASE 1

Frances drinks too much and aborts Henry, the end
(this sucks)
And i appear and i save nancy and we get married
Does she still die
No cuz i save her

CASE 2

Kennith and Stephanie make up And become Besties again!!
And then Evelyn SDo not slander my goat. howed up. >:]
I will slander the short stack
NO YOU WONT.
Evelyn is horrible but i love her for it

GUYS GO TO THE NEW ONE I DONT WANT THE3BLUESKY COMMUNITY HERE
You are just jealous of our artistic talent

CASE 3

Simon dies in an explosion. yay

OK GUYS WHAT CHARACTERS DO WE WANNA WRITE Claim characters or something (I morri have evelynn and nathan)

hey gjys its me ghostie whats going on haha hey

morri - evelynn and nathan

Ok hi guys
This is my tab

Ahem

Tab 3

At the turn of the millennium, there were signs. Was there something out there? A higher intelligence? A mysterious force at work? Beyond words. Beyond comprehension. Beyond, beyond. What will the new millennium bring? In theory, a shadowy construct fathomed by scientists at their wit's end over the quest for the answer to everything. Beyond time. Beyond space. Beyond gravity. Beyond dimensions we understand, a natural force simply known as, Millennium Force. Somewhere racing along the edge of the time space continuum in the universe as we know it. Its out there. Millennium force. The future is riding on it. Gravity knows no force like millennium force. A two minute, forty five second journey through space and beyond. First hill, three hundred ten feet. The drop, three hundred feet. Falling towards earth at eighty degrees. Ninety Two miles per hour. A nearly inverted turn one hundred sixty nine feet in the air. Then, into the tunnel. Third hill, one hundred eighty two feet. Turn. Thunder back to tunnel. Greatest thrill ride ever. Air time. Return to station. Breath. You have just broken ten world records. Fastest, longest, steepest, first ever. Beyond coaster. Giga coaster. Millennium Force.
