

Hey Chase

I'll be straight with you—I've analyzed your business and identified 8 changes/tweaks that can drastically get you closer to achieving your desired results

Let me break down the major issues for you

First, you haven't set up your YouTube account. Additionally you're only posting twice a week, which means your viewers won't be active on your page until posted and even if it's posted they might miss it.

While TikTok videos are engaging you should never underestimate the laziness of the reader: it's essential to keep your TikTok videos short and sweet, ideally no more than two minutes long.

I believe I can increase your views, revenue, and customer base by using the same strategies that top marketers use.

And no, I'm not talking about paying for ads or using clickbait headlines.

It's a simple, yet mind-blowing and persuasive technique that resonates with all human beings

Leader social status, feeling like the leader and inspiration of their social circle is essential for every man and woman to aspire for, use can assure them your product can bring them status.

The market is changing, and it's critical to acknowledge this. Back in the day, marketing was straightforward—use this, get that. But in today's world, you need to get specific about who you're talking to if you want to make an impact.

So here's the bottom line: you have two choices—you can be THE SAME AS YOUR COMPETITION or

RISE ABOVE ALL AND WIN

Does Not have enough followers

Few likes per posts

Few followers on twitter

Does not post consistently on twitter

Does Not have enough views or likes on tiktok

Make him feel like his the man

No youtube channel ,Posts 2 posts per week
Few followers on facebook and youtube
Last posted a month ago facebook and youtube
Posted too many contents at once
Twitter account is shit

Hello Carrie Lee

Out of all the business Instagram posts I have seen, I must say yours immediately stood out to me. Your posts are simple, easy to read, colorful, and most importantly, your smiles keep your customers positive.

However, after analyzing your business, I found that it was not what I was expecting.

The main problem I see is that you do not post frequently on social media platforms like YouTube, Facebook, or Twitter. This may be the key reason why your business is not growing as it should be.

Moreover, you have not linked any of your social media platforms, which was quite boring to search for (never underestimate the laziness of your customers).

I understand that managing every social platform, creating content, and understanding customers' desires can be a long, exhausting, and frustrating work.

However, I want to implement some ideas that will benefit your business in every way you can imagine.

For instance,the market is changing, and it's critical to acknowledge this. Back in the day, marketing was straightforward; use this, get that. But in today's world, you need to be very specific about who you're talking to if you want to make an impact.

Working with me can make this process look effortless and help you take your business to the next level.
