Kahoot's quiz - The Defense and Illustration of the French Language

1. What is the name of the group Du Bellay was part of?

La Brigade
La Parole
La Pléiade
La Poésie
The Defense and Illustration of the French Language was the group's Manifesto
First translation
First work
Last work
Du Bellay becomes the defender of the French language and affirms it is equal to what language?
Greek
Latin
Latin and Greek
English
"One should imitate freely, not translate slavishly." True or false?
True
True
True False
True False "To borrow from another language sentences and words, and to appropriate them to one's own." True or false? True
True False "To borrow from another language sentences and words, and to appropriate them to one's own." True or false?
True False "To borrow from another language sentences and words, and to appropriate them to one's own." True or false? True
True False "To borrow from another language sentences and words, and to appropriate them to one's own." True or false? True False
True False "To borrow from another language sentences and words, and to appropriate them to one's own." True or false? True False When was it published?
True False "To borrow from another language sentences and words, and to appropriate them to one's own." True or false? True False When was it published? 1549
True False "To borrow from another language sentences and words, and to appropriate them to one's own." True or false? True False When was it published? 1549 1544
True False "To borrow from another language sentences and words, and to appropriate them to one's own." True or false? True False When was it published? 1549 1544 1554

BalladesChants royalAll above