

CATE 2026 CREATIVE WORKS PROPOSAL FORM

Title of the Work (25 words maximum; first letters capitalized):

Type of Work—Which best describes the physical nature of the work?

☐ Video ☐ Photography ☐ Mixed Media
☐ Installation ☐ Other:

Conference Theme—To which conference theme does this proposal best relate?

☐ Policy + Governance ☐ Health + Wellbeing
☐ Value + Accounting

Keywords (up to five; separated by commas):

Information on Leader* of the Work::

Name:

Contact email:

Contact phone:

Affiliation (institution, department, city, state/province, country):

*Additional enactors will be listed on ConfTool when the submission is entered.

Copyright Notice: Authors who submit to this conference agree to the following terms: Authors retain copyright to their work, while allowing the conference to place the previously unpublished work on the Comfort at the Extremes (CATE) conference website. This will allow others to freely access, use, and share the information, while providing an acknowledgement of the work's authorship and its initial presentation at this conference.

Submit your completed proposal (using this template) as a pdf document– through the ConfTool website: <https://www.conftool.com/cate2026/>

Complete the proposal on the next page.

Proposal—Provide an explanation of the work; this may include a maximum 500-word statement and up to 5 images detailing 1) research questions/outcomes, 2) a description of the focus, nature, and purpose of the work, and 3) on-site display/performance requirements.