

James Brown

238 broadway

New York

NY

United States

To

The HR Manager

XYZ Company

354 F 63rd Street

New York

NY 10022

United States

Subject- Dog handler cover Letter

Dear

I noticed a sign in your store window inviting anyone interested in working as a dog handler to apply. I'm sending you my resume to demonstrate why I'm the best candidate for the job. As a dog lover in particular and an animal lover in general, I've worked in veterinary clinics and volunteered at animal shelters. I've also trained dozens of dogs, including military and law enforcement canines.

My family raised and trained dogs, so I've grown up with them. My long-term goal is to be a veterinarian, but my passion for dogs is evident in my resume. As a dog trainer, I am knowledgeable about breeding and the best ways to care for them.

I understand that working with dogs can necessitate a collaborative effort to prepare them for their challenges. As a result, I am confident that my background and experience would qualify me for the position at [mention the name of our organization]. Moreover, my skills include training dogs to work with people who have disabilities, as well as training dogs for kennel club-related events and shows. I can help even the most unruly dog calm down and take direction from their owners, and I can work effectively with dogs that are thought to be a lost cause.

I'd like to schedule a meeting to further discuss our mutual needs. I can be reached at [mention the contact number of the sender] or by email at [mention the email id of the sender].

James Brown

[Handwriting signature]

[Mention the contact details]

[Mention here, if there is any post note to be given]