

Academic End-of-Course Exams (EOC) 2021 District Testing Information

General EOC Information:

- This testing is only for full-day DACC Students. Half day students can disregard, but please read below for the Semester Exam schedule.
- This testing only for end-of-course exam retakes with the exception to Seniors taking Government first semester.
- All testing will occur at 8:00 AM which means some full day students will be missing the lab in order to fulfill this Ohio Department of Education Pathway to a diploma.
- Students who will be testing will be notified well in advance by their DACC School Counselor. If you have questions, please reach out to your designated school counselor.

Semester Exam Schedule 2021

General Exam Information

- Half-day students who have conflicts with their associate school exam schedule, will need to work with their CTE Instructor to schedule a different exam time.
- Students are required to stay the full length of the exam period. There will be no notes accepted to be dismissed early from exams.
- Lunch can be purchased in the cafeteria (there will be limited options on these days) or students can pack their lunch. However, students are required to remain on campus during the lunch period.

December 17th

- This is a regular school day for students. Attendance is expected.
- Full Day students will still have the opportunity to qualify for Hybrid Friday (Academics). They will have an assignment to complete.

Learning Center:

- Students who have a Learning Center are expected to be in attendance during that exam period and attendance will be taken. We encourage students to spend this time studying for exams and completing remaining assignments.
