Adaptations for Different Ages

- Younger children can focus on larger stitches and simple projects.
- Older children can work on more complex stitching patterns and designs.
- Provide pre-threaded needles for younger participants to simplify the process.
- Offer additional challenging projects for advanced students.

Movement Break

Sewing Themed Yoga Poses: Incorporate poses that mimic sewing actions such as "Thread the Needle Pose" or stretches that engage sewing muscles and relieve tension.

Bonus Activities

- Sewing Themed Coloring Pages: Provide themed coloring sheets that relate to sewing patterns and materials.
- Thread the Needle Game: A fun activity where kids learn to 'thread the needle' while moving through an obstacle course.
- Creative Dance with Scarves: Dance with colorful scarves to imitate the flow and movement of fabric.
