

Rules & Regulations Explanation

LSDoJ RP: Los Santos Dept of Justice Roleplay

“Serving Justice Across San Andreas”

This complete rulebook of Los Santos Dept of Justice Roleplay is showing signs of explanation to how all our members are expected to behave across in the session and in the discord, if you cant follow a simple rule or respect the rules you will be asked to leave. Each rule has a set and short explanation to help you understand why it exists, what the rule means and how you follow it

Section 1 - General Conduct

Section 1 is the section for general conduct, what this means is behaviour when speaking to people and how you should behave across the server and session!

1.1: Respect All Members

Everyone across the discord and sessions regardless of recent issues in the past must be treated and deserved with respect regardless of there rank, background or there opinion! Any points of discrimination, hate speech, bullying, harassment or anti-social conduct mentioned anywhere, depending on the severity of the situation you will be dealt with fairly! Have nothing nice to say to people you do not say it at all!

1.2: Respect Staff & Their Decisions

The staff in LSDoJ are volunteers who assists the owner with maintaining the server, there decisions must be respected, if you feel they did something wrong open a Support Ticket and Await for Zulu or Snow to respond to your ticket

1.3: No Spam or Disruption

Any points of spamming of messages, soundboards or pings makes communications between members difficult and ruins immersion of the server! Keep the chat and voice channels clean and focused

1.4: No Doxxing / Threats

Attempts to share anyones private information or threatening others to share there private info however known as Doxxing is against discord tos and is a serious real world crime! You will be permanently banned, reported to Discord Trust & Safety team and you will be globally blacklisted for your actions!

1.5: English Only

Our server is a english only server, if you cannot speak english we cannot hold you responsible to being an official member with us!
