

Note that a current issue of mine is that I need to read at least a portion of all of these, so I can't let it get too long!

Colonial North America and Revolution

Wayne Lee, The Cutting-Off Way: Indigenous Warfare in Eastern North America, 1500-1800, 300 pages

Vaughn Scribner, Under Alien Skies: Environment, Suffering, and the Defeat of the British Military in Revolutionary America, 250 pages

Civil War (sorry to Alan Taylor I guess but his war of 1812 book is TOO BIG).

Megan Kate Nelson, The Three-Cornered War: The Union, the Confederacy, and Native Peoples in the Fight for the West, 352 pages but that's cause the font is big

Bennet Parten, Somewhere Toward Freedom: Sherman's March and the Story of America's Largest Emancipation, 272 pages

The Late 19th Century and American Empire

Brian McAllister Linn, Guardians of Empire: The U.S. Army and the Pacific, 1902-1940, 360 pages

World War I
