[Background]

[A drawing of combat medic 'Pawz' by ██████████]

Charlie Day was born on August 12, 2000 to Macey and Bill Day in Burbank, California. She had interests in science, medical specifically being animal science during her adolescence. Charlie volunteered at an animal shelter after school during her early teens before learning more about human medicine. During her senior year of high school she took an 'entry to medicine' course and was immediately hooked on the idea of becoming a doctor. Charlie was enrolled into ██████████ where she graduated on 06/03/██████ and became a resident at the Burbank Medical Plaza. About a year into her residency she was recruited to the foundation and trained as a combat medic at site-65.
