Las Vegas, NV — Best-selling author, business strategist and “Rich Coach” mentor Bart Smith today announced the release of his latest book for life, personal, business and other types of coaches, 150 + Mistakes Coaches Make: Stop Wasting Your Time, Losing Money & Maximize Your True Potential as a Personal / Business Coach. The book shines a spotlight on the costly missteps that drain coaches of clients, credibility and cash—and shows step-by-step how to avoid them.

“Coaches are susceptible to far more mistakes than they realize. By minimizing those errors, we keep clients flowing in and businesses operating at peak capacity,” Smith explains in the book’s author message.

A Comprehensive Playbook of Pitfalls—And Profits

Within its pages, Smith breaks down more than 150 real-world errors across critical categories including business operations, client interactions, communication, education and training, marketing and promotion, mindset, money-making, personal habits, social media and website management. Each section delivers practical fixes that coaches can implement immediately to boost income and impact.

Early readers are already praising the book’s results-oriented approach. “After reading the entire book in a couple days, I cleaned up, consolidated and relaunched my real-estate coaching programs—with my bank account thanking me too,” says Alicia W., a Texas-based real-estate coach and trainer.
