

Subject line: I Have A Special Gift For You!

Dear Frustrated Freelancer,
Greetings, Gbenga Adebisi here!

If you haven't heard, I've just released some FREE freelancing materials to help you scale your freelancing journey.

You see...

Recently, I've received hundreds of complaints from freelancers especially NEWBIES on how difficult they find it is to land jobs.

I understand their plight

Do you know why?

I was once a NEWBIE who struggled for 4 months before landing my first freelance client.

That's why I've gone ahead to create FREE materials that will guide you in your freelance journey.

But you may not even land your first client even after reading these materials...

IF YOU FAIL TO IMPLEMENT.

Before you access these materials, check out what my students have to say about me.

(Testimonial)

You see....

This is just a fraction of the testimonials we receive from those who implement the information given out.

And I can't wait to hear yours.

I just need your permission to send this and your valid email address to drop it in your mail.

Thanks for your time!
